On December 11, 2007, the Company entered into an Executive Employment Agreement with Joseph W. Hansen ("Executive") in connection with the appointment of Executive as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Executive's appointment as Chief Financial Officer is effective as of January 2, 2008. The Executive Employment Agreement is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Executive is to receive a base salary of $250,000 per year and is eligible to receive an annual discretionary cash bonus of up to 50% of his base salary, to be paid based upon performance criteria set by the board of directors.

Executive shall be issued an aggregate of 52,650 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to a restricted stock purchase agreement that will vest as to 10,530 shares on the 90th day following Executive's first day of employment and as to an additional 10,530 shares on each October 4th, beginning October 4, 2008 and continuing thereafter for three additional years through October 4, 2011, provided that Executive remains employed by the Company.

Upon termination by the Company without cause, resignation by Executive for good reason or upon the disability of Executive, Executive is entitled to receive (i) severance equal to twelve months of base salary, (ii) continued health insurance coverage for twelve months and, (iii) if Executive has been employed for one full year or longer, accelerated vesting of 25% of all shares or options subject to any equity awards granted to Executive prior to Executive's termination which are unvested as of the date of termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Executive is terminated without cause or resigns with good reason within three months before or twelve months after a change in control, Executive is entitled to (a) severance equal to eighteen months of base salary, (b) continued health insurance coverage for eighteen months, and (c) accelerated vesting of 100% of all shares or options subject to any equity awards granted to Executive prior to Executive's termination that are unvested as of the date of termination.

The term "for good reason" is defined in the Executive Employment Agreement as (i) the assignment to Executive of any duties or responsibilities that result in the material diminution of Executive's authority, duties or responsibility, (ii) a material reduction by the Company in Executive's annual base salary, except to the extent the base salaries of all other executive officers of the Company are accordingly reduced, (iii) a relocation of Executive's place of work, or the Company's principal executive offices if Executive's principal office is at such offices, to a location that increases Executive's daily one-way commute by more than thirty-five miles, or (iv) any material breach by the Company of any material provision of the Executive Employment Agreement.

The term "cause" is defined in the Executive Employment Agreement as (i) Executive's indictment or conviction of any felony or of any crime involving dishonesty; or (ii) Executive's participation in any fraud or other act of willful misconduct against the Company; or (iii) Executive's refusal to comply with any lawful directive of the Company; (iv) Executive's material breach of Executive's fiduciary, statutory, contractual, or common law duties to the Company; or (v) conduct by Executive which in the good faith and reasonable determination of the Board demonstrates gross unfitness to serve; provided, however, that in the event that any of the foregoing events is reasonably capable of being cured, the Company shall, within twenty days after the discovery of such event, provide written notice to Executive describing the nature of such event and Executive shall thereafter have ten business days to cure such event.

A "change in control" of the Company is deemed to have occurred if, in a single transaction or series of related transactions: (i) any person (as such term is used in Section 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act")), or persons acting as a group, other than a trustee or fiduciary holding securities under an employment benefit program, is or becomes a "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly of securities of the Company representing a majority of the combined voting power of the Company, (ii) there is a merger, consolidation or other business combination transaction of the Company with or into another corporation, entity or person, other than a transaction in which the holders of at least a majority of the shares of voting capital stock of the Company outstanding immediately prior to such transaction continue to hold (either by such shares remaining outstanding or by their being converted into shares of voting capital stock of the surviving entity) a majority of the total voting power represented by the shares of voting capital stock of the Company (or the surviving entity) outstanding immediately after such transaction, or (iii) all or substantially all of the Company's assets are sold.

(B) Indemnification Agreement dated as of January 2, 2008 between Pacific Ethanol, Inc. and Joseph W. Hansen

The Company entered into an Indemnification Agreement dated as of January 2, 2008 with Joseph W. Hansen (“Indemnitee”) in connection with the appointment of Indemnitee as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Indemnitee’s appointment as Chief Financial Officer is effective as of January 2, 2008. The Indemnification Agreement is included as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Under the Indemnification Agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law if (a) Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to or otherwise involved in any proceeding, or (b) if Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to or otherwise involved in any proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor against any and all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of any such proceeding.

The indemnification obligations of the Company set forth in the preceding paragraph are subject to the following exceptions: (a) the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee on account of any proceeding with respect to (i) remuneration paid to Indemnitee if it is determined by final judgment or other final adjudication that such remuneration was in violation of law; (ii) a final judgment rendered against Indemnitee for an accounting, disgorgement or repayment of profits made from the purchase or sale by Indemnitee of securities of the Company against Indemnitee or in connection with a settlement by or on behalf of Indemnitee to the extent it is acknowledged by Indemnitee and the Company that such amount paid in settlement resulted from Indemnitee’s conduct from which Indemnitee received monetary personal profit, pursuant to the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or other provisions of any federal, state or local statute or rules and regulations thereunder; (iii) a final judgment or other final adjudication that Indemnitee’s conduct was in bad faith, knowingly fraudulent or deliberately dishonest or constituted willful misconduct (but only to the extent of such specific determination); or (iv) on account of conduct that is established by a final judgment as constituting a breach of Indemnitee’s duty of loyalty to the Company or resulting in any personal profit or advantage to which Indemnitee is not legally entitled; (b) the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify or advance expenses to Indemnitee with respect to proceedings or claims initiated or brought by Indemnitee against the Company or its directors, officers, employees or other agents and not by way of defense, except (i) with respect to proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under the Indemnification Agreement or under any other agreement, provision in the Company’s Bylaws or Certificate of Incorporation or applicable law, or (ii) with respect to any other proceeding initiated by Indemnitee that is either approved by the Board of Directors or Indemnitee’s participation is required by applicable law; (c) the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee for any amounts paid in settlement of a proceeding effected without the Company’s written consent; and (d) the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee or otherwise act in violation of any undertaking appearing in and required by the rules and regulations promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), or in any registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Act.

“Expenses” shall be broadly construed and shall include, without limitation, all direct and indirect costs of any type or nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, all attorneys’, witness, or other professional fees and related disbursements, and other out-of-pocket costs of whatever nature), actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense or appeal of a proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification under the Indemnification Agreement, the Delaware General Corporation Law or otherwise, and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of Indemnitee, but shall not include any judgments, fines or penalties actually levied against Indemnitee for such individual’s violations of law. The term “expenses” shall also include reasonable compensation for time spent by Indemnitee for which he is not compensated by the Company or any subsidiary or third party (i) for any period during which Indemnitee is not an agent, in the employment of, or providing services for compensation to, the Company or any subsidiary; and (ii) if the rate of compensation and estimated time involved is approved by the directors of the Company who are not parties to any action with respect to which expenses are incurred, for Indemnitee while an agent of, employed by, or providing services for compensation to, the Company or any subsidiary.

If Indemnitee requests the Company to pay the expenses of any proceeding, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such proceeding or to participate to the extent permissible in such proceeding, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Indemnitee. Upon assumption of the defense by the Company, the Company shall not be liable to Indemnitee for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same proceeding.

In addition, the Company is required to advance expenses on behalf of the Indemnitee in connection with Indemnitee’s defense in any such proceeding; provided, that the Indemnitee undertakes in writing to repay such amounts to the extent that it is ultimately determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification by the Company.

To the extent that the Company maintains an insurance policy or policies providing liability insurance for directors, officers, employees, or agents of the Company or of any subsidiary, Indemnitee shall be covered by such policy or policies in accordance with its or their terms to the maximum extent of the coverage available for any such director, officer, employee or agent under such policy or policies.

(d) Not applicable.
