Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Seller and its affiliates may disclose information that is (i) required to be disclosed by applicable State or federal tax or securities laws to the extent, and only to the extent, such laws require such disclosure and the Seller provides the Buyer prior written notice of its intent to provide such disclosure and the general text of such disclosure and such disclosure is consented to by the Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, or (ii) legally compelled by subpoena, court order or similar legal duress to disclose the information in which case the Seller and its affiliates will provide Buyer with prompt notice so that Buyer may, at its cost, seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions hereof; provided if such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, or the Buyer waives compliance with the provisions hereof, Seller will furnish only that portion of the information that Seller reasonably believes, in its good faith judgment, is legally required. Nothing herein shall require the Seller to fail to comply in a timely manner with a subpoena, court order or similar legal demand.

- b. The Seller acknowledges that all documents and objects containing or reflecting any Proprietary Information, whether developed by the Seller or by someone else for it or any of its affiliates, will after the Closing Date become the exclusive property of the Buyer and be delivered to the Buyer.
- c. Because of the unique nature of the Proprietary Information, the Seller understands and agrees that the breach or anticipated breach of its or its affiliates obligations under this Section 7.7 will result in immediate and irreparable harm and injury to the Buyer and its affiliates, for which it will not have an adequate remedy at law, and that the Buyer and its affiliates and their successors and assigns shall be entitled to relief in equity to enjoin such breach or anticipated breach and to seek any and all other legal and equitable remedies to which they may be entitled.

8. Real Property. Buyer shall enter into a triple net lease with the owner of the real property, WMN, LLC which lease shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B hereto (the "Lease Agreement").
9. Warranty Claims. With respect to any claims made pursuant to warranties to third Persons in connection with products manufactured, sold or distributed or services provided by the Seller prior to the Closing Date that relate to the Business and that are covered by valid and existing warranties of the Seller, the Buyer agrees to assume and pay for such claims to the extent, but only to the extent, that the Buyer's Damages with respect to all such claims do not exceed in the aggregate $10,000. Any claims in excess of such amount shall remain part of the Retained Liabilities. The Buyer agrees to provide the necessary services to satisfy any claims made pursuant to warranties of third Persons in connection with products manufactured, sold or distributed or services provided by the Seller prior to the Closing Date that relate to the Business and that are covered by valid and existing warranties of the Seller at a price equal to the Buyer's variable out-of-pocket costs. The foregoing limitations, however, shall not be deemed in any way to limit the right of the Buyer to seek indemnification from the Seller for any Damages in connection with products manufactured, sold or distributed or services provided by the Seller prior to the Closing Date to the extent the Buyer incurs a monetary liability to any third Person in excess of $10,000 in the aggregate with respect to such matters or is obligated to take any action other than that expressly covered by this Section 7.9.
10. Covenant Not to Compete With the Business. The Seller and the Shareholder agree that, effective as of the Closing Date and for a period of three years thereafter, the Seller, and its respective affiliates and the Shareholders shall not, without the consent of the Buyer, directly or indirectly, (i) design, develop, market, produce, manufacture or provide any product, good or service that competes with the Business in any geographic market in the United States that Seller currently conducts any business, (ii) make any contact with, for the purpose of transacting any business competitive to the Business, with any Person which has been a customer of Seller at any time in the six (6) years prior to the Closing Date ("Company's Customers"), (iii) attempt to direct or take away the business or patronage of any of the Company's Customers, (iv) attempt to have any dealings with the Company's Customers for the purpose of attempting to secure such Customers or their patronage competitive with the Business, (v) solicit, hire away or attempt to solicit or hire away to any firm or entity engaged in the Business, any person presently employed by Seller, (vi) engage in the Business, (vii) interfere with or molest the business, trade, goodwill or customers of the Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Barry Wieland may provide services only for the purpose of Phase I, II and III, environmental reports and clean up work described in such reports and the provisions of (iii) and (iv) above shall only apply to the business conducted by Buyer. The Seller acknowledges that a remedy at law for any breach or attempted breach of this Section 7.10 will be inadequate and further agrees that any breach of this Section 7.10 will result in irreparable harm to the Business and the Buyer shall, in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it, be entitled to specific performance and injunctive and other equitable relief in case of any such breach or attempted breach. The Seller acknowledges that this covenant not to compete is being provided as an inducement to the Buyer to acquire the Business and the Transferred Assets and that this Section 7.10 contains reasonable limitations as to time, geographical area and scope of activity to be restrained that do not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill or other business interest of the Buyer. Whenever possible, each provision of this Section 7.10 shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law but if any provision of this Section 7.10 shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Section 7.10. If any provision of this Section 7.10 shall, for any reason, be judged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this Section 7.10 but shall be confined in its operation to the provision of this Section 7.10 directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. In the event that the provisions of this Section 7.10 should ever be deemed to exceed the time or geographic limitations permitted by applicable laws, then such provision shall be reformed to the maximum time or geographic limitations permitted by applicable law.

11. Continuation of Business by the Buyer. Nothing in this Section 7.11, in any other provision of this Agreement, in any Exhibit or Section hereto, or in any agreement, instrument, or other document executed or delivered in connection with this Agreement shall require the Buyer to continue its business or operations or to manage and operate the Business with any duty or standard of care to the Seller. assigns harmless from and against and in respect of any and all Environmental Liabilities that may be imposed upon or incurred by the Buyer, arising out of or in connection with (a) the acts or omissions of any Person prior to Closing relating to the Business, the Transferred Assets, a Facility or any business conducted at a Facility; (b) any act or omission of the Seller relating to a Facility during the lease term (other than as a result of an act or omission by the Buyer in the operation of the Business after the Closing excluding the Buyer's failure to detect or remedy any existing environmental conditions or any Environmental Liabilities existing on or prior to the Closing Date); or (c) any breach by the Seller of a representation or warranty contained in Section 3.10 (collectively, "Environmental Losses").

3. Intentionally Omitted.
4. Indemnification by the Buyer. Except as otherwise limited by this Article X and Article XI hereof, the Buyer agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Seller and each of its officers, directors, employees, agents, stockholders and controlling Persons and its successors and assigns harmless from and against and in respect of Damages actually suffered, incurred or realized by such party (collectively, "Seller Losses"), arising out of or resulting from:

5. Procedure. All claims for indemnification under this Article X shall be asserted and resolved as follows:
  - a. An Indemnitee shall promptly give the Indemnitor notice of any matter which an Indemnitee has determined has given or could give rise to a right of indemnification under this Agreement, stating the amount of the Loss, if known, and method of computation thereof, all with reasonable particularity, and stating with particularity the nature of such matter. Failure to provide such notice shall not affect the right of the Indemnitee to indemnification except to the extent such failure shall have resulted in liability to the Indemnitor that could have been actually avoided had such notice been provided within such required time period.
  - b. The obligations and liabilities of an Indemnitor under this Article X with respect to Losses arising from claims of any third party that are subject to the indemnification provided for in this Article X ("Third Party Claims") shall be governed by and contingent upon the following additional terms and conditions: if an Indemnitee shall receive notice of any Third Party Claim, the Indemnitee shall give the Indemnitor prompt notice of such Third Party Claim and the Indemnitor may, at its option, assume and control the defense of such Third Party Claim at the Indemnitor's expense and through counsel of the Indemnitor's choice reasonably acceptable to Indemnitee. In the event the Indemnitor assumes the defense against any such Third Party Claim as provided above, the Indemnitee shall have the right to participate at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability, shall cooperate with the Indemnitor in such defense and will attempt to make available on a reasonable basis to the Indemnitor all witnesses, pertinent records, materials and information in its possession or under its control relating thereto as is reasonably required by the Indemnitor. In the event the Indemnitor does not elect to conduct the defense against any such Third Party Claim, the Indemnitor shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses of such defense as incurred and shall cooperate with the Indemnitee (and be entitled to participate) in such defense and attempt to make available to it on a reasonable basis all such witnesses, records, materials and information in its possession or under its control relating thereto as is reasonably required by the Indemnitee. Except for the settlement of a Third Party Claim that involves the payment of money only and for which the Indemnitee is totally indemnified by the Indemnitor, no Third Party Claim may be settled without the written consent of the Indemnitee.

6. Payment. Payment of any amounts due pursuant to this Article X shall be made within ten Business Days after notice of a final determination of any Third Party Claims is sent by the Indemnitee.
7. Failure to Pay Indemnification. If and to the extent the Indemnitee shall make written demand upon the Indemnitor for indemnification pursuant to this Article X and the Indemnitor shall refuse or fail to pay in full within ten Business Days of such written demand the amounts demanded pursuant hereto and in accordance herewith, then the Indemnitee may utilize any legal or equitable remedy to collect from the Indemnitor the amount of its Losses. Nothing contained herein is intended to limit or constrain the Indemnitee's rights against the Indemnitor for indemnity, the remedies herein being cumulative and in addition to all other rights and remedies of the Indemnitee.
8. Adjustment of Liability. The amount which an Indemnitee shall be entitled to receive from an Indemnitor with respect to any indemnifiable Loss under this Article X shall be net of any insurance recovery by the Indemnitee on account of such Loss from an unaffiliated party.

DXP ENTERPRISES ANNOUNCES

STRATEGIC ACQUISITION OF SAFETY ALLIANCE

Houston, TX, November 1, 2006 - DXP Enterprises, Inc. (NASDAQ: DXPE)

today announced that they have completed a strategic acquisition of Safety Alliance, a company which provides safety and environmental consulting and training services as well as safety equipment sales, service, and rental. The acquired business has operated in Farmington, New Mexico since 1995.

DXP paid approximately $2.3 million cash for the acquired business and assumed approximately $0.2

million worth of debt. The cash was funded by utilizing available capacity under DXP's bank revolving credit facility.

The unaudited sales and EBITDA for the acquired business for the nine months ending September 30, 2006, were approximately $2.0

million and $0.4 million, respectively.

Greg Oliver, Senior Vice President of DXP Service Centers, said, "This acquisition, along with our recent addition of Safety International, positions DXP to be a significant provider of high-end safety services in the energy and mining sectors." Mac McConnell, Chief Financial Officer stated, "We anticipate this acquisition to be immediately accretive to earnings."

DXP Enterprises, Inc. is a leading products and service distributor focused on adding value and total cost savings solutions to MRO and OEM customers in virtually every industry since 1908. DXP's breadth of MROP products and service solutions allows DXP to be flexible and customer driven, creating competitive advantages for its customers.

DXP's innovative pumping solutions provide engineering, fabrication, and technical design to meet the capital equipment needs of its global customer base. SmartSource, a DXP integrated supply program, allows a more efficient way to manage the customer's supply chain needs for MROP products. The program allows the customer to transfer all or part of its supply chain needs to DXP, so the customer can focus on its core business. SmartSource effectively lowers costs by outsourcing purchasing, accounting, and on-site supply management to DXP, which reduces the duplication of effort both the customer and supplier. DXP's broad range of first-tier products provides an efficient measurable solution to reduce costs and streamline procurement and sourcing operations.
