This Amendment No. 10 amends and supplements the Schedule 14D-9 initially filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission ) on February 4, 2003 (as amended, the Schedule 14D-9 ) by Next Level Communications, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Next Level ), relating to the tender offer by Motorola, Inc. ( Motorola ) to purchase all of the issued and outstanding shares of Next Level common stock par value $.01 per share (the Shares ) not owned by Motorola or its affiliates at a price of $1.04 per Share, net to each seller in cash, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in Motorola's Offer to Purchase dated January 27, 2003 and the related Letter of Transmittal (which together constitute the Motorola Offer ). The Motorola Offer is disclosed in a Tender Offer Statement, Rule 13e-3 Transaction Statement and Schedule 13D/A filed with the Commission under cover of Schedule TO, dated January 27, 2003, as amended. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined have the respecting meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 14D-9. Next Level has made information regarding the Motorola Offer available on its website, located at <http://www.nlc.com>.

ITEM 3. CONTACTS, TRANSACTIONS, NEGOTIATIONS AND AGREEMENTS SINCE

JANUARY 1, 2001.

The Subsection of this Item entitled Annex A Executive Officer Employment Agreements and Compensation is hereby amended to add, at the end of such subsection, the following:

At a joint meeting of the Independent Committee and the Compensation Committee of the Next Level Board held on March 7, 2003, the Independent Committee implemented a management retention plan for six key employees reporting to the chief executive officer. The purpose of the plan is to retain and keep these employees focused on their jobs and Next Level's business so Next Level can continue to execute its business plan. An independent compensation consultant advised the Independent Committee and the Compensation Committee in formulating the terms of the retention plan. The resulting retention agreements, which were entered into with Messrs. Ide, St. Cyr, Sheppard, Weeks, Wiley and Zar and which are attached as exhibits to Next Level's Schedule 14D-9, extend certain benefits to each such officer in the event that a change in control (as defined in the agreement) occurs and, within two years thereafter, either Next Level terminates such officer's employment without cause or such officer terminates his employment for good reason. Each agreement also provides that if Next Level's independent accountants determine that any change in control payments to the officer would be subject to the golden parachute excise tax, such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments will be subject to the excise tax, but only if the net after-tax benefit to the executive is greater with the reduction than without it.

The Subsection of this Item entitled Annex A Indemnification of Officers and Directors is hereby amended to add, at the end of such subsection, the following:

Next Level has entered into indemnification agreements with the members of the Independent Committee of the Next Level Board, a form of which is attached as an exhibit to Next Level's Schedule 14D-9. The indemnification agreements provide the members of the Independent Committee of the Next Level Board with further indemnification to the maximum extent authorized or permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law.
