Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 7, 2005, Minera San Cristobal, S.A. (the "Company"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Apex Silver Mines Limited, entered into an Open Pit Contract Mining Services Agreement (the "Agreement") with Washington Group Bolivia S.R.L. (the "Contractor"), under which the Contractor will provide contract mining services for the Company's San Cristobal silver, zinc and lead open pit mine development project in Bolivia (the "Project"). These services will include construction and maintenance of site access and haul roads, open pit preproduction stripping, mining of ore and waste, construction and management of waste dumps and ore stockpiles, and various other contract mining services.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Contractor's work will be performed in two phases. In the preliminary phase, the Contractor will construct certain roads and facilities and conduct preproduction stripping at selected sites within the Project. The Agreement contemplates that the first phase will be completed by January 1, 2007.

During the production mining phase, the Contractor will be responsible for mining and transporting ore from the open pits to the primary crusher or ore stockpiles, feeding ore to the primary crusher, stripping waste from the open pits, ore rehandling and stockpile maintenance, and development and maintenance of certain facilities at the Project site, all as provided in the Agreement.

The Contractor will be compensated on a cost reimbursable basis for the actual costs incurred plus certain fees. The Contractor will receive special bonuses and incentive payments for achieving or exceeding the production requirements at cost levels below those agreed as targets with the Company. The Contractor has certain obligations and caps on liability with respect to the performance of defective work.

The Agreement expires ten years after commencement of the production mining phase, unless earlier terminated by the Company or the Contractor. The Company may terminate the Agreement at any time by giving written notice to the Contractor to that effect, subject to the payment of certain costs to the Contractor. The Contractor may terminate the Agreement in the event of certain defaults of the Company.

Apex Silver Mines Limited and Washington Group International, Inc. have guaranteed the performance of the Company and the Contractor, respectively.
