DYNEGY INC.

Dynegy began operations in 1984 and became incorporated in the State of Delaware in 2007. We are a holding company and conduct substantially all of our business operations through our subsidiaries. Our primary business is the production and sale of electric energy, capacity and ancillary services from our fleet totaling approximately 27,000 MW of generating capacity. We report the results of our power generation business as six separate segments in our consolidated financial statements: (i) PJM, (ii) NY/NE, (iii) ERCOT, (iv) MISO, (v) IPH and (vi) CAISO.

We sell electric energy, capacity and ancillary services primarily on a wholesale basis from our power generation facilities. We also serve residential, municipal, commercial and industrial customers primarily in MISO, NY/NE and PJM through our Homefield Energy and Dynegy Energy Services businesses, through which we provide retail electricity in Illinois, Massachusetts, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Wholesale electricity customers will primarily contract for rights to capacity from generating units for reliability reasons and to meet regulatory requirements. Ancillary services support the transmission grid operation, follow real-time changes in load and provide emergency reserves for major changes to the balance of generation and load. Retail electricity customers purchase energy and these related services in the deregulated retail energy market. We sell these products individually or in combination to our customers for various lengths of time from hourly to multi-year transactions.

We do business with a wide range of customers, including regional transmission organizations and independent system operators, integrated utilities, municipalities, electric cooperatives, transmission and distribution utilities, power marketers, financial participants such as banks and hedge funds and residential, commercial and industrial end-users. Some of our customers, such as municipalities or integrated utilities, purchase our products for resale in order to serve their retail, commercial and industrial customers. Other customers, such as some power marketers, may buy from us to serve their own wholesale or retail customers or as a hedge against power sales they have made.

Our principal executive offices are located at 601 Travis, Suite 1400, Houston, Texas 77002. Our telephone number is (713) 507-6400 and we have a website accessible at www.dynegy.com. The information posted on our website is not incorporated into this prospectus and is not part of this prospectus.

To find more information about us, please see the sections entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Incorporation by Reference."

Table of Contents

RISK FACTORS

Any investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all of the information set forth in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein, and, in particular, consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions discussed under Item 1A., "Risk Factors," in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, under "Risk Factors" in Exhibit 99.1 of our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 19, 2017 and any subsequent updates described in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, all of which are incorporated herein by reference and may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future, together with information in this prospectus and any other information incorporated by reference into this prospectus. See the sections of this prospectus entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Incorporation by Reference." The risks discussed below relate to ownership of our common stock prior to the consummation of our merger with and into Vistra Energy (the "Merger"), or if the Merger is not consummated. For risks related to the ownership of Vistra Energy common stock to be received by our stockholders upon consummation of the Merger, see the discussion under "Risk Factors" and "Comparison of Rights of Vistra Energy Stockholders and Dynegy Stockholders" in Exhibit 99.1 of our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 19, 2017. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of those risks actually occurs, our business, financial condition and results of operations would suffer. In that event, the trading price of our common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. The risks discussed below also include forward-looking statements and our actual results may differ substantially from those discussed in these forward-looking statements. See "Special Note on Forward-Looking Statements."

Risks Related to Ownership of Our Common Stock

The market price and trading volume of our shares of common stock may be volatile, which may make it difficult for you to resell your shares of common stock when you want or at prices you find attractive.

The market price of our shares of common stock has fluctuated substantially and may continue to fluctuate in response to multiple factors, some of which are beyond our control, as described under "Special Note on Forward-Looking Statements" and documents incorporated herein by reference. The stock markets in general have experienced extreme volatility that has at times been unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies. The price of our common stock that will prevail in the market after the sale of the shares of common stock by the selling stockholders may be higher or lower than the price you have paid.

Shares of our common stock are equity securities and are subordinated to our existing and future indebtedness and structurally subordinated to all the indebtedness claims against our subsidiaries.

Shares of our common stock are equity interests and do not constitute indebtedness. As such, shares of our common stock will rank junior in right of payment to all of our indebtedness and to other non-equity claims against us and our assets available to satisfy claims against us, including claims in a bankruptcy, liquidation or similar proceeding. In addition, our right to participate in any distribution of assets of any of our subsidiaries upon the subsidiary's liquidation, reorganization or otherwise, and thus your ability as a holder of shares of common stock to benefit indirectly from such distribution, will be subject to the prior claims of creditors of that subsidiary, except to the extent that any of our claims as a creditor of such subsidiary may be recognized. As a result, our common stock structurally is subordinated to all existing and future liabilities and obligations of our subsidiaries.

Certain provisions of our corporate documents could delay or prevent a change of control, even if that change would be beneficial to stockholders, or could have a material negative impact on our business.

Certain provisions in our third amended and restated certificate of incorporation may have the effect of deterring transactions involving a change in control of us, including transactions in which stockholders might receive a premium for their shares.

Our third amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides for the issuance of up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by our board of directors (the "Board"). The authorization of preferred shares empowers the Board, without further stockholder approval, to issue preferred shares with dividend, liquidation, conversion, voting or other rights which could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of the common stock. If issued, the preferred stock could also dilute the holders of our common stock and could be used to discourage, delay or prevent a change of control of us.

We do not currently anticipate paying cash dividends on our common stock in the foreseeable future.

We have paid no cash dividends on our common stock and have no current intention of doing so. Any future determination to pay cash dividends will be at the discretion of our Board, subject to applicable limitations under Delaware law, and will be dependent upon our results of operations, financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors deemed relevant by our Board.

Table of Contents

USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless otherwise indicated in a prospectus supplement, the net proceeds from the sale of the securities will be used for general corporate purposes, including without limitation acquisitions, working capital, repayment of debt and capital expenditures. In the case of a sale by a selling stockholder, we will not receive any of the proceeds from such sale. Additional information on the use of the net proceeds may be provided in the applicable prospectus supplement.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND MATERIAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Terawatt Investor Rights Agreement

On February 24, 2016, we entered into a stock purchase agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") with Terawatt pursuant to which we sold and issued to Terawatt 13,711,152 shares of our common stock (the "PIPE Shares") for $150 million on February 7, 2017 (the "Delta Transaction Closing Date"). On the Delta Transaction Closing Date, Atlas Power Finance, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Dynegy, completed the acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding common stock of GDF Suez Energy North America, Inc. We used the consideration from the sale and issuance of the PIPE Shares to fund a portion of the purchase price payable to seller in the acquisition.

Concurrently with such sale and issuance, we entered into an investor rights agreement (as amended, the "Investor Rights Agreement") with Terawatt and on September 5, 2017, Dynegy and Terawatt entered into Amendment No. 1 to the Investor Rights Agreement (the "IRA Amendment"). Under the Investor Rights Agreement, Terawatt will be subject to a customary standstill obligation with respect to Dynegy for a period ending on (i) the six-month anniversary of the first date Terawatt and certain affiliates cease to hold, collectively, at least 10% of the then-outstanding shares of Dynegy common stock or (ii) upon the occurrence of certain transactions involving Dynegy, including change-of-control transactions.

Terawatt is entitled to certain customary registration rights and piggyback registration rights under the Securities Act. We are required to use reasonable best efforts to keep this registration statement continuously effective until the earlier of (i) the date as of which all the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) have been sold and (ii) the date there are no longer any Registrable Securities outstanding. If at any time there is no currently effective shelf registration statement, holders of Registrable Securities shall have the right to demand that we file a registration statement. Any holder of Registrable Securities may request to sell all or any portion of their Registrable Securities in a public offering, which offering may be underwritten, in each case, subject to certain exceptions provided for in the Investor Rights Agreement. Further, when we propose to offer shares in a public offering, whether for our own account or the account of others, holders of Registrable Securities will be entitled to request that their Registrable Securities be included in such offering, subject to specific exceptions.

The Investor Rights Agreement grants Terawatt a right of first refusal with respect to the issuance of its pro rata share of any Dynegy equity securities that would rank senior to our common stock until the earlier to occur of (i) the first date that Terawatt and its affiliates cease to hold, collectively, at least 7.5% of the then-outstanding shares of our common stock and (ii) three years after the Delta Transaction Closing Date.

Pursuant to the IRA Amendment, Dynegy and Terawatt agreed that Terawatt and any controlled affiliates from and after the closing of the Calpine Merger (as defined in the IRA Amendment) (for so long as Terawatt and such controlled affiliates own any shares of our common stock in excess of 9.99% of the then-outstanding shares of our common stock): (a) shall not vote any shares of our common stock beneficially owned by Terawatt or such controlled affiliates in excess of 9.99% of the then-outstanding common stock at any annual or special meeting (or adjournment thereof) of the stockholders of Dynegy or in any written consent of the stockholders of Dynegy (collectively, a "Stockholder Vote"); provided, however, that if requested by Dynegy, Terawatt shall cause such shares to be present at any such meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum, and (b) shall vote any shares of our common stock beneficially owned by Terawatt or such controlled affiliates up to and including 9.99% of the then-outstanding shares of our common stock in proportion to the vote of all stockholders of Dynegy (other than Terawatt and any controlled affiliates) on any such matters subject to a Stockholder Vote. Under the IRA Amendment, Dynegy and Terawatt further agreed that, effective as of the closing of the Calpine Merger, Terawatt would no longer have the right to nominate an individual for election to Dynegy's board of directors (and any director so serving on Dynegy's board of directors at such time would resign from the board of directors). Furthermore, Terawatt and Dynegy have agreed that Terawatt will cause any director nominated by Terawatt to step down from Dynegy's board of directors at any time prior to the closing of the Calpine Merger if so requested by Dynegy and, in connection therewith, on November 17, 2017, Tyler Reeder resigned from Dynegy's board of directors; provided, however, that if the Calpine Merger Agreement (as defined in the IRA Amendment) is terminated and the closing of the Calpine Merger does not occur, Terawatt shall be entitled from and after the date of such termination to renominate an individual for election to Dynegy's board of directors in accordance with the Investor Rights Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Investor Rights Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Investor Rights Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and the IRA Amendment attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering 19,541,152 shares of our common stock for possible sale by the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale. The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed or negotiated prices. The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the NYSE or any other applicable national securities exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales;

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

Broker dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers dealers to participate in sales. Broker dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling stockholders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved. Any profits on the resale of shares of common stock by a broker dealer acting as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of shares will be borne by a selling stockholder.

The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares if liabilities are imposed on that person under the Securities Act. If we are notified by any selling stockholder that any arrangement has been entered into with a broker dealer for the sale of shares of common stock, if required, we will file an amendment or supplement to this prospectus. If the selling stockholders use this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus for any sale of the shares of common stock, they will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

Edgar Filing: DYNEGY INC. - Form S-3ASR

Item 15. *Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Dynegy is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Section 145 ("Section 145") of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any persons who were, are or are threatened to be made, parties to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation), by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director, employee or agent of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was illegal. Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify officers and directors in an action by or in the right of the corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer, director, employee or agent is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him against the expenses which such officer or director has actually and reasonably incurred.

Section 145(g) of the DGCL provides that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against the person in any such capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against such liability under the provisions of the DGCL.

Article 6.1 of Dynegy's third amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that a director of Dynegy shall not be personally liable to Dynegy or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under Delaware law. Article 6.2 of Dynegy's third amended and restated certificate of incorporation and Article XI of Dynegy's seventh amended and restated bylaws provide for indemnification of the officers and directors of Dynegy to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. Article 6.3 of Dynegy's third amended and restated certificate provides that any indemnification will be made in a specific case only as authorized by Dynegy's Board, a committee of the Board, independent legal counsel or the stockholders, upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the third amended and restated certificate of incorporation. However, if a current or former director or officer has been successful in the defense of any covered action or proceeding, such person will be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred.

The foregoing is only a general summary of certain aspects of Delaware law and the registrant's organizational documents dealing with indemnification of directors and officers and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable provisions of the DGCL and of the registrant's third amended and restated certificate of incorporation and seventh amended and restated bylaws.

Dynegy has obtained directors' and officers' liability insurance, which insures against liabilities that its directors or officers may incur in such capacities.
