III. NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On March 15, 2005 the Company announced that management and the Board of Directors concluded that the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2002, December 31, 2003 and the first three quarters in 2004 ending March 31, June 30 and September 30, should no longer be relied upon and should be restated as a result in errors in accounting treatment. The Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 10K for the year ended December 31, 2004 on a timely basis. The extension is requested in order to give management time to incorporate the correct accounting for the items that have lead to the restatements into the Form 10K and to give the Company's Audit Committee and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm time to review the filing.
