Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

September 30, 2018

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Findex.com, Inc. (“Findex”) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on November 7, 1997, and is headquartered in Lake Park, Florida with its base of business operations co-located in the same facility. The Company is currently comprised of EcoSmart and a consolidated variable interest entity, Advanced Cement Sciences, LLC (formerly Advanced Nanofibers, LLC). EcoSmart has historically been the driver of both operating overhead and revenue. EcoSmart was acquired by the Company in a merger in 2014 and centers around a proprietary line of specialty materials coatings that have a broad range of value-adding industrial, commercial, residential and consumer applications. Advanced Cement Sciences LLC (“ACS”) is a variable interest entity of which the Company owned a minority 31.06% interest at September 30, 2018 and, for accounting purposes under Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) guidelines, is considered the primary beneficiary among the equity participants based on qualitative and quantitative criteria. ACS is a Florida-based, engineered cement technology and products firm founded in mid-2016 and currently focused on globally marketing a line of proprietary admixtures to be used in the production of ultra-lightweight, high-strength concrete and high-performance stucco. Despite the Company’s lack of corporate control over ACS, and ACS’s lack of revenue to date, it is a venture that the Company’s management has been and continues to be very actively involved in developing, and that is increasingly consuming a greater percentage of the Company’s financial and human resources, a trend management expects to continue into the foreseeable future.

ECOSMART

The Company’s core business – known as EcoSmart Surface & Coatings Technologies – is centered around a line of specialty industrial glass-based “smart surface” coatings that have a wide range of uses across each of the industrial, commercial, and household market segments and that are centered around a U.S. patented technology that, either on its own or when coupled with any of an array of available proprietary formula additives, offers a unique combination of beneficial surface properties that allow for a broad array of multi-surface and end-product applications. Among others, such applications currently include:

- Heavy Construction Equipment/Vehicles
- Oil and Gas Drilling and Related Heavy Equipment
- Industrial and Residential HVAC Equipment, Commercial Refrigeration Systems, and Power Generators

Interior and Exterior Flooring and Tiling, Pavers and Hardscapes

Over time, EcoSmart intends to develop itself in the strategic direction of becoming a leading research-oriented, high-tech specialty “smart-surface” materials development and licensing company centered around a highly-qualified research team and state-of-the-art research lab and applying a combination of organic and inorganic chemistries, materials science engineering, and nanotechnology. EcoSmart currently has expertise and capabilities in each of these areas.

ADVANCED CEMENT SCIENCES (VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITY)

ACS is a variable interest entity of which the Company owned a minority 31.06% interest at September 30, 2018 and, for accounting purposes under FASB guidelines, is considered the primary beneficiary among the equity participants based on qualitative and quantitative criteria. ACS is a Florida-based, engineered cement technology and products firm founded in September 2016 and currently focused on globally marketing a line of proprietary admixtures it has acquired the rights to and further internally developed to be used in the production of ultra-lightweight, high-strength concrete and high-performance stucco. The business of ACS has undergone a gradual but fundamental transformation since the second quarter of 2017 (following the negotiated withdrawal of one of its founding members) from having as its primary focus the development and enhancement of applied nanotechnologies to materials development generally, on the one hand, to the development, manufacturing and sales of very competitively-priced, premium-performance -concrete- and stucco-enhancing admixture products that rely on certain nanotechnologies, on the other. Specifically, ACS views its products as having the capability to substantially improve the net economics of any business:

Table of Contents

building or making products from concrete or stucco;
where there is additional economic value to be mined by using a concrete or stucco that has either:
a substantially increased per unit strength than that currently being used,
a substantially reduced per unit weight/density, or both.

At September 30, 2018, ACS was owned and controlled approximately 93% by its remaining two founding members, the Company and Nanotech Fibers, LLC, each of which have been actively involved in its development to date. Although it is still in the earliest stage of products commercialization and revenue development, the Company's management team and certain members of the Company's operations personnel devote a very significant and growing percentage of their working time to the business of ACS. The Company's president and chief executive officer, Steven Malone, serves as a managing member of ACS.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 8 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles for complete financial statements. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments, consisting of normal and reoccurring adjustments, that, in the opinion of management, are considered necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the periods presented. The results of operations for such periods are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the full year or for any future period. The December 31, 2017 condensed consolidated balance sheet data was derived from audited financial statements. The accompanying financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Findex.com, Inc. included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 17, 2018.

Principles of Consolidation

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiaries (Reagan Holdings, Inc., Findex.com, Inc. Delaware, and ESCT Acquisition Corp.), and the accounts of ACS, a Florida limited liability company and variable interest entity, of which the Company has been deemed the primary beneficiary. As of September 30, 2018, the Company owns a non-controlling, minority interest of 31.06% in ACS. All inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Reclassifications

Certain accounts in the Company's 2017 financial statements have been reclassified for comparative purposes to conform with the presentation in 2018 financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company bases its estimates and assumptions on current facts, historical experience and various other factors that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the accrual of costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The actual results experienced by the Company may differ materially and adversely from the Company's estimates. To the extent there are material differences between the estimates and the actual results, future results of operations will be affected. Significant estimates include inventory evaluation for slow moving and obsolete items, collectability of accounts receivable, assessing intangibles for impairment, useful lives of assets, and valuation of stock based compensation and consideration of variable interest entities.

Table of Contents

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INVENTORY

The Company's inventories are recorded at the lower of cost or market using the first in, first out method. The Company's inventory consists of raw materials and finished goods. The Company takes into consideration certain inventory items that are slow moving and obsolete and calculates a provision for these inventory items.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS OTHER THAN GOODWILL

The Company's intangible assets consist of patents and patents pending acquired from third parties, and are recorded at cost. In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 350-30, General Intangibles Other Than Goodwill, intangible assets with an indefinite useful life are not amortized. Intangible assets with a finite useful life are amortized on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, generally three to ten years. All intangible assets are tested for impairment annually during the fourth quarter. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, the Company did not recognize any impairment expense related to intangible assets.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company recognizes revenues in accordance with the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which provides guidance on the recognition, presentation, and disclosure of revenue in financial statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. ASC 606 outlines the basic criteria that must be met to recognize revenue and provides guidance for disclosure related to revenue recognition policies. The Company recognizes revenue upon transfer of control of promised products to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those products. The Company at times may enter into contracts that can include various combinations of products and services, which are generally capable of being distinct and accounted for as separate performance obligations. Revenue is recognized net of allowances for returns and any taxes collected from customers, which are subsequently remitted to governmental authorities.

Nature of Products and Services

In addition, within the Company's operations as a whole, the Company derives part of its revenues from the sale of downloadable software products. Licenses for on-premises software provide the customer with a right to use the software as it exists when made available to the customer. Revenue from distinct on-premises licenses is recognized upfront at the point in time when the software is made available to the customer.

Distribution Rights

The Company at times may derive part of its revenue from the sale of distribution rights within a designated territory for a period of time. Licenses for an exclusive territory provides a single distributor with the right to use and sell the distribution rights within the specified designated territory for a specified time period. The determination of when the Company recognizes revenue is based on whether the distribution rights transfers to the distributor at (i) a point in time or (ii) over time. Furthermore, the Company needs to determine in accordance with ASC 606 if the distribution rights is (i) functional intellectual property that has significant standalone functionality or is (ii) symbolic intellectual property that requires ongoing activities from the Company. In June 2018, the Company received an advanced payment in the amount of $100,000 from the sale of distribution rights within a designated territory for a period of time of thirty years to a distributor. In August 2018, the Company received an additional advanced payment in the amount of $90,000 related to an amendment for the sale of distribution rights within a separate designated territory for a period of thirty years to a distributor. The Company determined that the associated revenue would be recognized over the period of thirty years as the agreements for the sale of the distribution rights also called for the Company to continue to produce the product for the distributor over the term of the agreements. Therefore, the distribution rights were deemed to be symbolic intellectual property in accordance with ASC 606 as it requires ongoing activities from the Company. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company recognized contract liability in the amount of $188,639 and revenue in the amount of $1,361 from such sale of distribution rights.

Table of Contents

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The Company's research and development costs consist of direct production costs, including labor directly associated with the development of projects and outside consultants, and indirect costs such as those associated with facilities use. For labor costs and costs of outside consultants, the Company records the research and development costs as a reduction against either personnel costs or professional fees. For facilities leasing related expenses, the Company records the research and development costs as a reduction against rent. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, the Company recognized $180,760 and $265,040, respectively, in research and development costs.

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company recognizes share-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation – Stock Compensation, using the modified prospective method. ASC 718 requires that the Company measure the cost of the employee services received in exchange for an award for equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value and to recognize this cost over the requisite service period. See Note 9.

EARNINGS (LOSS) PER SHARE

The Company follows the guidance of ASC 260, Earnings Per Share, to calculate and report basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS"). Basic EPS is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS is computed by giving effect to all dilutive potential shares of common stock that were outstanding during the period. For the Company, dilutive potential shares of common stock consist of the incremental shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of stock options and warrants for all periods and convertible notes payable.

When discontinued operations, extraordinary items, and/or the cumulative effect of an accounting change are present, income before any of such items on a per share basis represents the "control number" in determining whether potential shares of common stock are dilutive or anti-dilutive. Thus, the same number of potential shares of common stock used in computing diluted EPS for income from continuing operations is used in calculating all other reported diluted EPS amounts. In the case of a net loss, it is assumed that no incremental shares would be issued because they would be anti-dilutive. In addition, certain options and warrants are considered anti-dilutive because the exercise prices were above the average market price during the period. Anti-dilutive shares are not included in the computation of diluted EPS, in accordance with ASC 260-10-45-17.

The calculations of net loss per share for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017 excluded the impact of the following potential common shares as their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

For the Nine Months Ended September 30	2018	2017
Shares Issuable Upon Conversion of Outstanding Convertible Notes Payables	298,510,401	251,689,764
Total weighted average anti-dilutive potential common shares	298,510,401	251,689,764

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

As of September 30, 2018 and 2017, the Company has presented $114,368 of Accrued royalties in discontinued operations. The royalties pertain to the Company's sale of the QuickVerse® product line in 2011. See Note 13.

Table of Contents

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2017-02, Leases. The standard requires all leases with lease terms over 12 months to be capitalized as a right-of-use asset and lease liability on the balance sheet at the date of lease commencement. Leases will be classified as either finance or operating. This distinction will be relevant for the pattern of expense recognition in the income statement. This standard will be effective for the calendar year ending December 31, 2019. The Company is currently in the process of evaluating the impact of adoption of this ASU on the financial statements.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-04, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other: Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment. The standard simplifies the subsequent measurement of goodwill by eliminating Step 2 from the goodwill impairment test. Under the amendments of ASU 2017-04, an entity should perform its goodwill impairment test by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount. An entity will recognize an impairment charge for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit's fair value, but the loss cannot exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit. ASU 2017-04 is effective for the calendar year ending December 31, 2020. The amendments require a prospective approach to adoption and early adoption is permitted for interim or annual goodwill impairment tests. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this standard.

NOTE 2 – GOING CONCERN

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which contemplates the Company's continuation as a going concern. However, as of September 30, 2018, the Company had negative working capital of $4,351,169 and had an accumulated deficit of $8,552,318. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management has taken several actions in an attempt to mitigate this risk. These actions include capital raising initiatives involving the issuance of equity and/or notes payable to investors, as well as cash conservation initiatives involving the issuance of equity and/or notes payable to employees and related parties. The accompanying consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments related to these uncertainties. See Note 13.

NOTE 3 – CONSOLIDATED VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITY

The FASB authoritative guidance on consolidation requires the "primary beneficiary" of a variable interest entity (a "VIE") to consolidate that entity. The "primary beneficiary" of a VIE, for this purpose, is a company that has a controlling financial interest in the VIE without any corresponding voting rights control. A controlling financial interest in this regard exists when a company is determined to have both the power to direct the activities that most significantly impact a VIE's economic performance, on the one hand, and the obligation to absorb losses or the right to receive benefits of the VIE that could potentially be significant to the VIE, on the other. The Company is one member, among others, of a Florida based, engineered cement technology and products firm, ACS. This firm was formed by the participants for the purpose of focusing on globally marketing a line of proprietary admixtures it has acquired the rights to and further internally developed to be used in the production of ultra-lightweight, high-strength concrete and high-performance stucco. Having been involved in the formation of ACS in September 2016, the Company determined during the fourth quarter of 2016 that it was the primary beneficiary of ACS, among the equity participants, based on qualitative and quantitative criteria. Among other factors, and more specifically, it was determined that the equity investors in ACS do not, and are not obligated to, provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support itself in terms of day-to-day research and development activities. However, the Company has provided financial support that is disproportionate to its equity interest, and the Company's management was involved in the organization of the entity. Therefore, a VIE is to be consolidated by the Company if and when the Company holds a majority of the variable interests in the entity and is thus subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the VIE's activities. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company provided the financial resources in the amount of $130,722, as support for ACS's day-to-day research and development activities. See Note 1.

NOTE 6 – INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The Company's intangible assets consist of patents and patents pending acquired from third parties, and are recorded at cost. The Company amortizes the costs of its intangible assets over their estimated useful lives unless such lives of approximately 11 years. Patents pending are not amortized until the patents are issued. Amortizable intangible assets are tested for impairment based on undiscounted cash flows and, if impaired, written down to fair value based on either discounted cash flows or appraised values. Intangible assets with indefinite lives are tested for impairment, at least annually, and written down to fair value as required.

The Company's intangible assets, net of accumulated amortization consisted of the following:

Note (x) reflects amounts due to an investor, who is a shareholder.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company received proceeds from the issuance of notes payable to related parties in the amount of $20,000 and convertible notes payable to related parties in the amount of $70,000 (total $90,000). For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company recognized a debt discount of $25,000 associated with one note payable as it carried a beneficial conversion feature. This debt discount has been fully amortized to interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2018. For the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company received proceeds from the issuance of notes payable to related parties in the amount of $27,000 and convertible notes payable to related parties in the amount of $234,792 (total $261,792).

At September 30, 2018, the Company was out of compliance with the contractual payment terms with the convertible note payable (g) and (y) to a related party investor.

NOTE 8 – CONTRACT LIABILITY

The Company's contract liability consists of advanced payments received from the sale of distribution rights within designated territories for a period of thirty years to a distributor. According to ASC 606, the Company determined that the associated revenue would be recognized over the period of thirty years as the agreements for the sale of the distribution rights also called for the Company to continue to produce the product for the distributor over the term of the agreements. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company recognized contract liability in the amount of $188,639 and revenue in the amount of $1,361 from such sale of distribution rights.

NOTE 9 – STOCKHOLDERS’ DEFICIT

Common Stock

During the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company sold 5,000,000 restricted shares of common stock at $0.01 per share for the total proceeds of $50,000. In addition, the Company granted 2,900,000 restricted shares of common stock at $0.01 in exchange for an amount owed ($29,000) to an independent consultant for business development services previously performed for the benefit of the Company. Finally, for the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the Company granted 94,394 restricted shares of common stock for business development services. The Company valued the shares based on the closing price of the Company common stock on those days during which such services were performed. This resulted in $750 of expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2018.

COMMON STOCK WARRANTS

The Company did not issue warrants for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017 and no warrants were exercised. As of September 30, 2018, there were no warrants outstanding.

NOTE 10 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is subject to legal proceedings and claims that may arise in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the amount of potential liability the Company is likely to be found liable for otherwise incur as a result of these actions is not so much as would materially affect the Company’s financial condition.

In July 2014, the Company entered into an employment agreement with the Company’s president and chief executive officer. The agreement provides for a base annual salary of $162,500, a term of three (3) years, and contains a provision for an incentive-based cash bonus equal to one and one half percent (1.5%) of free cash flow (as calculated pursuant to a stated formula) up to a maximum of $500,000 for any single fiscal year. As of September 30, 2018, and December 31, 2017 no amounts for bonuses had been earned or accrued under this provision. In addition to the bonus provision and the annual base salary, the employment agreement provides for payment of previously accrued base salary in the amount of $104,428 and vested deferred vacation compensation in the amount of $12,501 as of September 30, 2018 and are included in accrued payroll. The agreement further provides for severance compensation equal to the then base salary until the expiration of the term of the agreement. There is no severance compensation in the event of voluntary termination or termination for cause. In May 2017, the Company’s board of director’s, including the compensation committee thereof, reviewed the employment agreement for Mr. Malone and extended the term thereof, otherwise due to expire on July 23, 2017, through July 23, 2020.

In March 2015, the Company entered into an employment agreement with our now former vice president of research and development. Among other terms and provisions, the employment agreement provided specific executive-level responsibilities for a term of 3 years, unless otherwise extended or terminated by either party, either for cause, without cause, due to disability or death, or voluntarily. During the term of the employment agreement, and in addition to certain benefits, expense coverage and severance compensation, our former vice president of research and development was entitled to a base annual salary of not less than $120,000, as well as a royalty of 5% of the gross revenue, net of returns, for all revenues generated by products relying on the intellectual property assigned to the Company. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company has made payments to a company owned by our former Vice President of Research and Development under these arrangements. As of September 30, 2018, the Company has accrued approximately $2,955 in accrued royalties under this agreement as well as $23,750 for previously accrued base salary. In January 2018, our now former vice president of research and development resigned. See Notes 7 and 11.

The Company occupies an office building for its corporate headquarters located in Lake Park, Florida. In January 2015, the Company renewed a lease agreement with a shareholder for this 8,560 square foot facility under a five year lease agreement ending December 31, 2019 with an option to renew for one successive term of five years at the then current occupancy rates. The monthly rent, including sales and use taxes, is $7,319. In accordance with the terms of the leasehold agreement, the Company is responsible for all utilities, repairs and maintenance.

Table of Contents

Total rent expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017 for this facility, before adjustments of reclassified facilities cost for research and development, totaled $63,115 and $64,915, respectively.

On July 24, 2018, and as previously disclosed in our quarterly report for the period ended June 30, 2018, the Company received a demand notice from counsel representing a holder of a Company-issued promissory note (which holder is also a shareholder) in the amount of $300,000 plus accrued interest at 10% APR and which promissory note had been overdue for over three years. Although, pursuant to such notice, legal action had been threatened in connection with this matter, as of the filing date of our quarterly report for the period ended June 30, 2018, the Company was able to convince such note holder, pursuant strictly to a verbal agreement arrived at through counsel, to hold off for an indeterminate period on instituting legal proceedings aimed at enforcing collection from us of some or all of such amount. On October 3, 2018, however, the Company was served with a summons and complaint in an action initiated in the Circuit Court of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Palm Beach County, Florida by such note holder to recover the entirety of the outstanding obligation. As of October 19, 2018, and following extensive discussions with both the note holder and counsel for the note holder, the Company was able to convince such note holder, pursuant strictly to a verbal agreement arrived at through counsel, to withdraw the previously instituted action without prejudice and, once again, to hold off for an indeterminate period on instituting legal proceedings aimed at enforcing collection from the Company of some or all of such amount. At this time, there can be no assurance that another action on such note will not be re-initiated against us at some point, including the immediate future, and with or without any prior notice. Any such action, if brought and pursued to conclusion, would likely result in a judgment against the Company in an amount not less than $430,000, which, if enforced, would likely jeopardize our ability to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 11 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company's executive officers and employees, from time to time, make payments for materials and various expense items (including business related travel) in the ordinary course of business via their personal credit cards in lieu of checks drawn on Company accounts. The Company does not provide its employees or executive officers with corporate credit cards. Amounts due these officers and directors (including one of the Company's directors, the president and chief executive officer, and the controller) are included in accounts payable, related parties, on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of September 30, 2018, one of the Company's directors held five, separate convertible notes issued by the Company. These convertible notes reflect a portion of the aggregate amount that such outside director is owed by the Company for a combination of (i) certain vendor payments made by him on the Company's behalf, (ii) cash previously advanced to the Company for working capital, and (iii) director's fees earned through June 30, 2017. One of these notes, in the face amount of $60,000, was issued to a company controlled by the director, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. Another of these notes, issued to the director personally, is in the face amount of $30,000, is similarly due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. The third of these notes, also issued to the director personally, is in the face amount of $55,500, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. The fourth note, issued in the name of the director's son, is in the face amount of $20,000, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% and is convertible at $0.005 per share of common stock. The fifth note, issued to the director personally, is in the face amount of $28,500, is similarly due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.015 per share of common stock. See Note 7.

As of September 30, 2018, the Company's general counsel held three convertible notes and one short-term note issued by the Company. One such note reflected an amount due for legal services provided for the year ended December 31, 2014 in the amount of $150,000. This note is payable by the Company on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. Another of these notes reflected an amount due for legal services provided for the year ended December 31, 2015 in the amount of $120,000. This note is similarly payable on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. A third note is in the amount of $10,000, reflects funds advanced to the Company for working capital, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 12% APR, and is convertible at $0.008 per share of common stock. The final note of $7,000 reflects funds advanced to the Company for working capital on the basis of a 15-day repayment obligation, which, as of the date of this annual report on Form 10-K, remains unsatisfied and outstanding. See Note 7.

Table of Contents

As of September 30, 2018, the Company had issued a total of seven (7) convertible notes to a certain related party investor and significant shareholder. The first such note is in the amount of $100,000, is due on November 13, 2018, together with accrued interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. The second such note is also in the amount of $100,000, is due on March 18, 2019, together with accrued interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. The third such note is in the amount of $50,000, is due on May 12, 2019, together with accrued interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. The fourth such note is in the amount of $100,000, is due on June 7, 2019, together with accrued interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. The fifth such note is in the amount of $300,000, is due on July 28, 2019, together with accrued interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. The sixth such note is in the amount of $50,000, is due on demand, together with interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. And the seventh such note is in the amount of $50,000, is due on June 15, 2018, together with interest at 10% APR, and is convertible at $0.01 per share of common stock. See Note 7.

As of September 30, 2018, one of the Company's directors held two convertible notes issued by the Company. The first note, issued to the director personally for director's fees earned through September 15, 2016, is in the face amount of $20,500, due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. The second note, issued to the director for director's fees earned through June 30, 2017, is in the face amount of $9,500, is similarly due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.015 per share of common stock.

The Company accrued payroll earned, by related parties, during the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and the year ended December 31, 2017, respectively, in the total amount of $150,471 and $74,021 for the Company's president and chief executive officer and controller.

As of September 30, 2018, the Company's president and chief executive officer held two convertible notes issued by the Company. The first note represents previously accrued base salary earned through September 15, 2016 in the amount of $349,329, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5%, and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. The second note represents previously accrued base salary earned through June 30, 2017 in the amount of $87,532, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.015 per share of common stock. See Note 7.

As of September 30, 2018, the Company's controller held two convertible notes issued by the Company. The first note represents previously accrued base salary earned through September 15, 2016 in the amount of $134,604, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5%, and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. The second note represents previously accrued base salary earned through June 30, 2017 in the amount of $28,010, is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5% APR, and is convertible at $0.015 per share of common stock. See Note 7.

As of September 30, 2018, the Company's former vice president of research and development held one convertible note representing previously accrued base salary in the amount of $49,000. The note payable is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5%, and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. See Note 7.

As of September 30, 2018, an independent contractor who had been the president of one of EcoSmart's divisions prior to the merger with the Company, who is also shareholder of the Company, held one convertible note representing accrued earnings in the amount of $25,700. The note payable is due on demand, together with accrued interest at 4.5%, and is convertible at $0.007 per share of common stock. See Note 7.

ACS is a variable interest entity of which the Company owned a minority 31.06% interest at September 30, 2018 and, for accounting purposes under FASB guidelines, is considered the primary beneficiary among the equity participants based on qualitative and quantitative criteria. The two controlling members of ACS include the Company and Nanotech Fibers LLC. The Company's president and chief executive officer currently holds a 18.75% equity interest in Nanotech Fibers LLC through a closely-held, private Florida limited liability company, August Center Street Holdings LLC. August Center Street Holdings, LLC is owned 75% by the Company's president and chief executive officer and 25% by the Company's general counsel.

During the nine months years ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, the Company recorded revenue for sales to shareholders in the amount of $59,693 and $134,015, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, one shareholder accounted for approximately 10% of Company revenue, a second shareholder accounted for approximately 6.8%, and, as a group, the sales to shareholders accounted for approximately 24% of Company revenues. These revenues are recorded as revenue, related party on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations.

NOTE 12 – SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company reports segment information that is consistent with the management and measurement system utilized within the Company. This approach designates the internal reporting used by management for making decisions and assessing performance as the source of the Company's reportable operating segments. The segments represent components of the Company for which separate financial information is available that is utilized on a regular basis by the chief operating decision maker (the chief executive officer) in determining how to allocate resources and evaluate performance. The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those described in Note 1, "Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies". The Company's reportable operating segment consists of ACS. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, ACS had $12,158 and $1,705, respectively, in revenue, an operating loss of $155,089 and $254,987, respectively, assets in the form of cash, accounts receivable and inventory totaling $10,660 and $24,429, respectively, and liabilities in the form of accounts payable and a short-term loan totaling $261,500 and $68,146, respectively. See Note 3.

NOTE 13 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On October 31, 2018, a holder of a convertible promissory note (also an independent contractor and shareholder) with a face value of $137,500 exercised the right to convert $60,000 of the note into six million shares (6,000,000) of common stock at the conversion rate of $0.01 per share per the terms of the note.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q are “forward-looking statements” (within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) regarding the plans and objectives of management for future operations. Such statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, performance or achievements of Findex.com, Inc. (“we”, “us”, “our” or the “Company”) to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included herein are based on current expectations that involve numerous risks and uncertainties. The Company's plans and objectives are based, in part, on assumptions involving the continued expansion of business. Assumptions relating to the foregoing involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive and market conditions and future business decisions, all of which are difficult or impossible to predict accurately and many of which are beyond the control of the Company. Although the Company believes its assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements are reasonable, any of the assumptions could prove inaccurate and, therefore, there can be no assurance the forward-looking statements included in this Quarterly Report will prove to be accurate. In light of the significant uncertainties inherent in the forward-looking statements included herein, the inclusion of such information should not be regarded as a representation by the Company or any other person that the objectives and plans of the Company will be achieved.

This information should be read in conjunction with our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in Item 1 of Part I of this quarterly report, and our audited financial statements and the notes thereto and our Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation contained in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017.

Description of Business

Findex.com, Inc. is headquartered in Lake Park, Florida with its base of business operations co-located in the same facility. The Company’s operations are currently comprised of what are essentially two businesses that share substantial production-side overlap. The first, EcoSmart Surface and Coating Technologies (“EcoSmart”), was acquired by us in a merger in 2014 and centers around a proprietary line of specialty materials coatings that have a broad range of value-adding industrial, commercial, residential and consumer applications. It is the current driver of both operating overhead and revenue. EcoSmart is wholly-owned by us. The second, Advanced Cement Sciences, LLC (“ACS”) (formerly Advanced Nanofibers, LLC), is an engineered cement technology and products firm founded in mid-2016 and currently focused on globally marketing a line of proprietary admixtures to be used in the production of ultra-lightweight, ultra-high-strength concrete and high-performance stucco. We currently own a 31.06% minority interest in ACS, which, based on our being deemed the primary beneficiary thereof among equity holders under U.S.

GAAP based on qualitative and quantitative factors, constitutes a variable interest entity for our reporting purposes the financial statements of which are required to be consolidated with our own. Despite our lack of corporate control over ACS, and its lack of meaningful revenue to date, it is a venture that our management has been and continues to be actively involved in developing, and that is increasingly consuming a greater percentage of our financial and human resources.

ECOSMART

Our core business is centered around a line of specialty industrial glass-based “smart surface” coatings that have a wide range of uses across each of the industrial, commercial, and household market segments and that are centered around a U.S. patented technology that, either on its own or when coupled with any of an array of available proprietary formula additives, offers a unique combination of beneficial surface properties that allow for a broad array of multi-surface and end-product applications. Among others, such applications include:

- Interior and Exterior Flooring and Tiling, Pavers and Hardscapes
- Heavy Construction Equipment/Vehicles
- Marine Commercial Fishing Vessels and Pleasure Watercrafts
- Industrial and Residential HVAC Equipment, Commercial Refrigeration Systems, and Power Generators
- Oil and Gas Drilling and Related Heavy Equipment

Table of Contents

Over time, EcoSmart intends to continue to develop itself in the strategic direction of becoming a leading manufacturer and marketer of high-tech specialty coatings.

ADVANCED CEMENT SCIENCES (VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITY)

Advanced Cement Sciences LLC (“ACS”), previously known as Advanced Nanofibers LLC, is a variable interest entity of which we owned a minority 31.06% interest at September 30, 2018. During the fourth quarter of 2016 management determined that, among equity holders, the Company was the primary beneficiary based on qualitative and quantitative factors, and has since been consolidating the entity in accordance with U.S. GAAP for purposes of our financial reporting. ACS is a Florida-based, engineered cement technology and products firm founded in September 2016 and currently focused on globally marketing a line of proprietary admixtures it has acquired the rights to and further internally developed to be used in the production of ultra-lightweight, high-strength concrete and high-performance stucco. The business of ACS has undergone a gradual but fundamental transformation since the second quarter of 2017 (following the negotiated withdrawal of one of its founding members) from having as its primary focus the development and enhancement of applied nanotechnologies to materials development generally, on the one hand, to the development, manufacturing and sales of very competitively-priced, premium-performance -concrete- and stucco-enhancing admixture products that rely on certain nanotechnologies, on the other.

With its engineered and proprietary cement chemistry, ACS views its products as having the capability to improve the net economics of any business:

building or making products from concrete or stucco;
where there is additional economic value to be mined by using a concrete or stucco that has either:
a substantially increased per unit strength than that currently being used,
a substantially reduced per unit weight/density, or
both.

Although it is still in the earliest stage of products commercialization and revenue development, our management team and certain members of our operations personnel have devoted a significant percentage of their working time to the business of ACS. Our president and chief executive officer, Steven Malone, serves as a managing member of ACS.

Management Overview

A key focus of management during the nine months ended September 30, 2018 centered on the Company's continuing initiatives to explore and build relationships with potentially key strategic business partners, investors, and potential distributors and/or resellers of our EcoSmart coatings products. To varying degrees, these relationships were pursued in order to establish, further develop, and/or expand our EcoSmart market share within our most highly targeted verticals, including hardscape products, interior flooring and tiling products including vinyl composition tile floors ("VCT"), heavy machinery and equipment hardware, marine commercial fishing vessels and pleasure watercrafts, and industrial and consumer HVAC equipment systems. Throughout the nine months ended September 30, 2018, management has been, as it has continued to be and expects for the foreseeable future to be, committed to securing and solidifying foundational relationships within each of these markets and intends to allocate a significant portion of Company financial and human resources accordingly.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, management focused on continuing to market its two newer product releases that complement our EcoSmart coating products. One of the products, Safety Clean, is a daily cleaner/degreaser that greatly improves surface traction ("high traction," according to the National Floor Safety Institute (NFSI), which has certified it), thereby providing added artillery in the battle against otherwise slippery floors. This product can be marketed as a maintenance package that maximizes the performance attributes associated with our hardscape and interior coating products. Management views Safety Clean as a product that is expected to result in recurring transactional revenue from our network of distributors and resellers.

Table of Contents

The second product release, V-Shield, is an internally developed product that is not only to be sold to our network of distributors and/or resellers of our EcoSmart coatings products, but, in addition, it is anticipated to be sold in retail contractor supply stores by the end of the year 2018. V-Shield is a silicon-ceramic treatment designed to provide maximum protection to vinyl composition tile floors (“VCT”) against staining, microbial growth, and fading due to traffic and UV exposure. It restores the surfaces to near original color and gloss. V-Shield, unlike traditional VCT cleaning and maintenance wax-based products, is a single application ceramic coating that can last up to three years with minimal maintenance when used in conjunction with our Safety Clean product. Resilient flooring, such as VCT, is among the most widely used floor surfacing products throughout the US and can be found very commonly in facilities where there exists a premium on consistent cleanliness such as hospitals, doctor’s offices, large grocery store chains, public buildings, schools, etc. V-Shield not only saves time during the application, but also reduces the cost associated with the maintenance of VCT floors, which in high-traffic areas can require stripping and reapplication of wax every 3 to 4 months.

Although there can be no assurance, the combination of the contractor training program and the Safety Clean and V-Shield products are expected to increase our customer base as well as our revenues in the hardscape and interior tile and floor vertical markets.

Furthermore, for the nine months ended September 30, 2018, management engaged the services of an independent research and development chemist to work on a number of product development projects to aid in the release of new and/or improved products within our current as well as new vertical markets for the year ended 2018 and beyond. The first development project focused largely on the marine industry. Within the marine industry there is a well-known issue of being able to find a ceramic coating that (i) lasts longer than six months but that (ii), and more importantly, does not yellow the treated surface over time. After extensive rounds of testing, including the utilization of a UV chamber for 300+ hours to ensure no yellowing effect, we concluded the development project with not only one product line but two silicon-ceramic coating product lines that each provides an array of benefits such as longer lasting protection from harsh environments (salt air and water), ease of cleaning, anti-corrosive and, more specifically, anti-yellowing. The first product line will be utilized within the marine industry for all types of boats including commercial fishing vessels and pleasure yachts on exterior and interior surfaces. The second product line will be employed in the heavy machinery and equipment industry, and it will eliminate any yellowing effect on white painted pieces of metal on heavy machinery and equipment all the while continuing to provide extreme resistance to chemical and other corrosive forces as well as color fading due to UV exposure/degradation. Both product lines are scheduled to be released to the market in the first quarter of 2019.

Following its obtaining of what is currently a minority 31.06% equity interest in ACS in September of 2016, the Company began allocating increasing amounts of its financial and human resources to the development of that business. The resource allocations throughout the nine months ended September 30, 2018 in this regard centered primarily around technology development and testing, manufacturing, and related systems. Several accomplishments have been achieved through the allocation of the financial and human resources including (i) a product delivery system designed to simplify the process associated with mixing and preparing admix end-products and (ii) an ultra-high-performance stucco admix formula which can be utilized by developers, contractors and builders who rely on ready-mix or mix-on-site concrete and stucco for pour-in-place, tilt-up, insulated concrete forms (ICF) and/or traditional block construction projects they develop, manage, and build. However, ACS is yet to achieve any meaningful degree of sales traction for either of these product lines and, to date, sales have been very limited and deliberately targeted towards customers that view their use of the product as part of a series of final-stage, semi-pilot projects. Furthermore, steady efforts have to continue to be underway towards enabling ACS's ability to systematically provide evidence of product compliance with existing building codes and related industrial standards within identified markets, as well as to readily demonstrate product workability and efficacy through showcase projects, positive customer experiences, and industry expert references and endorsements within such markets.

Finally, during the nine months ended September 30, 2018, and across the board, management remained focused on three primary areas identified as keys to the near-term viability, growth and prosperity of the Company. One area is revenue generation, as effected through the formalization of various distribution and licensing relationships that the Company has been pursuing over time and the two new product releases. A second area is the maximization of cash flow and return on existing assets, as effected through the refinement of internal production operations and throughput efficiencies. A third area is corporate finance, and specifically the raising of capital necessary to bridge shortfalls in available cash, for both operational and capital investment purposes, through to the point, if at all, at which working capital and cash reserve levels are sufficient to be self-sustaining.

Table of Contents

At this time, near-term liquidity poses a continuous challenge to us and is expected to continue to do so for the foreseeable future. Moreover, the need to find ways to stretch our very limited economic resources places ongoing strains on our very limited human resources.

The differing results of operations are primarily attributable to the following for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018:

a decrease in net revenues resulting from decreasing sales of our products in our hardscapes vertical;

a decrease in our general and administrative costs resulting from a decrease in travel expenditures and total personnel costs stemming from the reduction of our staff coupled with our decreased reliance on the use of outside contractors, in each case based on our cost saving initiatives for both EcoSmart and ACS;

a year over year decrease in research and development following the resignation of our former vice president of research and development in January 2018 as well as a strategic reduction in our ACS outside contracting workforce; and an increase in interest expense due to an increase in total outstanding indebtedness resulting from our having issued a number of medium-term notes during the last two years as part of our capital-raising initiatives as well as recognizing a debt discount of $25,000 associated with a note payable that carried a beneficial conversion which was fully amortized to interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2018.

Table of Contents

Although there can be no assurance, in future periods, we anticipate an increase in overall Company revenues as well as an increase in overall sales, marketing and general and administrative expenses due to our anticipated growth and expansion in certain vertical markets.

Revenues

Revenues from Operations for Nine Months Ended September 30,	2018	% to Sales	2017	% to Sales	Change

Net revenues	$74,305	102 %	$100,477	100 %	$(26,172)	26 %

The differing results of our net revenues are primarily attributable to the following for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018:

an overall decrease in net revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 resulting from a decrease in sales of our products in our hardscapes vertical as for the nine months ended September 30, 2017, we had several large and specific job sales in our hardscapes vertical;

a decrease in net revenues to related parties resulting from decreasing sales of our hardscape and interior flooring products to a Canadian distributor who is also a related party; and a decrease in net revenues to related parties within our industrial and consumer HVAC equipment products as our former distributor within this vertical market was a related party compared to our new and current distributor within the same HVAC vertical market is not a related party, and whom has been successful in increasing sales of our industrial and consumer HVAC equipment products for the nine months ended September 30, 2018.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, one shareholder/related party accounted for approximately 10% of our revenue, a second shareholder/related party accounted for 7% of our revenue and, as a group, the sales to shareholders/related parties accounted for approximately 24% of our revenues.

In June 2018, we received an advanced payment in the amount of $100,000 from the sale of one of our distribution rights, specifically our HVAC coatings known as InfiniGuard, as we entered into an exclusive distribution and brand license agreement with a distributor of InfiniGuard for a specified designated territory, including Puerto Rico, the Bahamas and the Island Nations of the Caribbean for a period of time of thirty years. In August 2018, we amended this distribution agreement to include the territories of the United States and Mexico for an additional advanced payment of $90,000. We determined that the associated revenue would be recognized over the period of thirty years as the agreements for the sale of the distribution rights also called for us to continue to produce InfiniGuard for the distributor over the term of the agreement. For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, we recognized contract liability in the amount of $188,639 and revenue in the amount of $1,361 from such sale of distribution rights.

Table of Contents

Although there can be no assurance, we anticipate an increase in overall Company revenues in future periods as we continue to pursue a variety of vertical markets that management has been targeting over the past year as near-term opportunities for revenue growth as well as the introduction of new products.

Cost of Sales

					Change
Cost of Sales for Nine Months Ended September 30,	2018	% of Sales	2017	% of Sales	$
Direct costs	$53,584	21 %	$56,958	21 %	$(3,374)

					Change
Cost of Sales for Three Months Ended September 30,	2018	% to Sales	2017	% to Sales	$
Direct costs	$17,288	23 %	$18,298	18 %	$(1,010)
Royalties	654	1 %	1,878	2 %	(1,224)
Freight-out	5,485	7 %	5,085	5 %	400
Cost of sales	$23,427	32 %	$25,261	25 %	$(1,834)

Cost of sales consists primarily of direct costs, royalties accrued to providers of intellectual property, and the costs associated with reproducing, packaging, and shipping our products. The overall decrease in cost of sales as a percentage of net revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 is partly attributable to a decrease in accrued royalty obligations due to a corresponding decrease in sales of products carrying a relatively high royalty obligation as well as an adjustment to royalties previously accrued in error. Furthermore, we experienced a decrease in direct costs for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 due to negotiating costs on raw materials with a new chemical distributor as well as an overall decrease in freight costs as our new HVAC distributor bore the costs of shipping purchased products internationally.

Into the immediate and near-term, if not also beyond, we anticipate that our direct costs are likely to increase in real dollar terms based on escalating sales volume coupled with the likelihood of an inability to make material purchases in bulk at meaningfully discounted rates due to cash restraints. Though there can be no assurance that our cash position and financial condition will improve over time, if it does, we intend to take advantage of bulk purchasing opportunities at discounted rates. More generally, we anticipate that our cost of sales will increase in the future in direct proportion to increases in top line growth.

Our research and development costs consist of direct production costs, including labor directly associated with the development of products and/or projects and outside consultants, as well as indirect costs, including those associated with facilities leasing and related overhead. For labor costs and costs of outside consultants, we record the research and development costs as a reduction against either personnel costs or contract services. For facilities leasing related expenses, we record the research and development costs as a reduction against rent. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018, we reclassified to research and development approximately $10,000 and $57,000, respectively from total personnel costs and approximately $7,000 and $18,000, respectively from rent. Comparatively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, we reclassified to research and development approximately $43,000 and $131,000, respectively from total personnel costs and approximately $9,000 and $27,000, respectively from rent.

The differing results of total sales, marketing, general and administrative costs are primarily attributable to the following for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018:

- an increase in advertising and direct marketing due to our having engaged a graphic artist to help us with the branding of our two product releases, Safety Clean and V-Shield as well as preparing new marketing sell sheets for our products within several of our other vertical markets in addition to having pre-paid for a booth space for an upcoming tradeshow in December 2018;
- an overall decrease in total personnel costs, after adjustments of reclassified wages for research and development, stemming from a required decrease in our staff and use of outside contractors based on our cost saving initiatives in relation to both EcoSmart and ACS;
- a decrease in research and development as our former vice president of research and development resigned in January 2018 and we had only a single outside contractor working on development projects for ACS following certain strategic changes in the direction of that business;
- a slight overall increase in professional services resulting mainly from an increase in independent business development contracting services;

a decrease in travel and entertainment expenses due to fewer trips being needed to continue our initiatives surrounding the continued development of ACS;
an overall decrease in rent for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 due to (i) our having temporarily rented out a portion of our Lake Park facility to a customer of ACS, and (ii) adjustments of reclassified rent for research and development due to space utilized and dedicated specifically to ACS's research and development operations; and a decrease in our general and administrative costs resulting from our overall cost saving initiatives for both EcoSmart and ACS.

Table of Contents

For the immediate future, and although there can be no assurance, we would anticipate that our sales, marketing, general and administrative costs will increase in the future in direct proportion to top line growth.

Income Taxes

As of September 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, based on uncertainty about the timing of and ability to generate future taxable income and our assessment that the realization of the deferred tax assets no longer met the “more likely than not” accounting criterion for realization, we provided for a full valuation allowance against our net deferred tax assets. If we determine at some point that it is more likely than not that we will be able to realize our deferred tax assets in the future, an adjustment to the deferred tax asset valuation allowance would be recorded in the period when such determination is made.

Liquidity And Capital Resources

Our primary needs for liquidity and capital resources are the working capital requirements of our continued operations, which includes raw materials procurement, production personnel, service applications personnel, the ongoing internal development of new products and expansion and upgrade of existing products, marketing and sales, and executive salaries and insurance benefit obligations. Cash generated through our current operations may not prove sufficient to sustain such operations, and our pursuit of an aggressive growth plan, as currently exists, will likely require funding from outside sources. (See Note 2 – Going Concern.) Funding from outside sources may include but is not limited to the pursuit of other financing options such as commercial loans or public or private sales of securities, including common stock, preferred stock and/or convertible notes or debentures. The Company’s cash on hand as of September 30, 2018 was insufficient to support our operations for the next twelve months.

Working Capital	September 30, 2018	December 31, 2017
Current assets	$74,917	$50,721
Current liabilities	$4,426,086	$3,593,285
Accumulated deficit	$8,552,318	$7,706,052

Liquidity for our day-to-day continuing operations remains a very serious ongoing concern for us, and there can be no assurance of it remaining manageable.

Cash Flows for Nine Months Ended September 30,	2018	2017	Change	%
Cash flows used in operating activities	$(115,920)	$(606,746)	$490,826	81%

Cash flows provided by financing activities	$ 140,000	$ 535,500	$(395,500)	74%
---	------------	------------	-------------	-----

Net cash used in operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017 consisted mainly of payments for personnel/contractors, inventory purchases, vendor payments and other operating expenses.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2018, cash provided by financing activities was mainly the result of proceeds from the sale of common stock as well as proceeds from the sale of convertible notes. Comparatively, cash provided by financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 was primarily the result of cash proceeds from the sale of common stock as well as the sale of an equity interest in ACS. As an offset to the cash provided for the nine months ended September 30, 2017, we also made certain payments towards retirement of various notes payable.

Financing

Given practical considerations, we believe that our ability to meaningfully pursue our business plan in the immediate term will depend on the availability of working capital, the precise amount of which is uncertain as the date of this filing on Form 10-Q given certain variables surrounding our ability to generate funds internally, including through both sales of product and/or territorial product distributorships, on the EcoSmart side of our business, and through distributions, on the ACS side. To the extent that it becomes necessary to access funds through a public or private sales of securities, as we have been doing and expect to continue to have to do for the foreseeable future, this is likely to be pursued through one or more offerings involving common stock, preferred stock and/or convertible notes or debentures. In connection with any such financings, it may become necessary given market conditions and the unavailability of alternative options for us to issue additional shares of our common stock or securities exchangeable for shares of our common stock, including but not limited to convertible preferred stock or convertible notes or debentures containing so-called “floorless convertible” provisions that can be, and often are, extremely dilutive to existing stockholders upon conversion. Any such issuances, as well as any related issuances of common stock or other purchase warrants, would likely have the effect of depressing the market price of our common stock and diluting the interests of our common stockholders, potentially very significantly. (See Note 11 – Related Party Transactions.)

No attempt has been made for many years to secure any bank or other secured financing due to management’s practical conclusion that it would be an unproductive allocation of human resources given our historic revenue and cash flow levels, internal financial ratios, and negative working capital position. We do not expect any change in this status for the foreseeable future.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors.

Contractual Obligations

As a “smaller reporting company” as defined by Item 10 of Regulation S-K, we are not required to provide this information.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

As a “smaller reporting company” as defined by Item 10 of Regulation S-K, we are not required to provide this information.

Item 4T. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As required by paragraph (b) of Rule 13a-15 under the Exchange Act, our principal executive and principal financial officers are responsible for assessing the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act). Accordingly, we maintain disclosure controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission’s rules and forms. Our Chief Executive Officer/Chief Financial Officer has evaluated our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q September 30, 2018, and has determined that such disclosure controls and procedures are not effective. Our disclosure controls and procedures are not effective as a result of the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting because of inadequate segregation of duties over authorization, review and recording of transactions as well as the financial reporting of such transactions. Management is attempting to develop a plan to mitigate the above material weaknesses.

Changes in Internal Controls

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the fiscal quarter covered by this report, other than those disclosed above that materially affected, or is reasonable likely to materially effect, the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.

Table of ContentsPART II – OTHER INFORMATION*ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

On July 24, 2018, and as previously disclosed in our quarterly report for the period ended June 30, 2018, the Company received a demand notice from counsel representing a holder of a Company-issued promissory note (which holder is also a shareholder) in the amount of $300,000 plus accrued interest at 10% APR and which promissory note had been overdue for over three years. Although, pursuant to such notice, legal action had been threatened in connection with this matter, as of the filing date of our quarterly report for the period ended June 30, 2018, the Company was able to convince such note holder, pursuant strictly to a verbal agreement arrived at through counsel, to hold off for an indeterminate period on instituting legal proceedings aimed at enforcing collection from us of some or all of such amount. On October 3, 2018, however, we were served with a summons and complaint in an action initiated in the Circuit Court of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit in and for Palm Beach County, Florida by such note holder to recover the entirety of the outstanding obligation. As of October 19, 2018, and following extensive discussions with both the note holder and counsel for the note holder, the Company was able to convince such note holder, pursuant strictly to a verbal agreement arrived at through counsel, to withdraw the previously instituted action without prejudice and, once again, to hold off for an indeterminate period on instituting legal proceedings aimed at enforcing collection from the Company of some or all of such amount. At this time, there can be no assurance that another action on such note will not be re-initiated against us at some point, including the immediate future, and with or without any prior notice. Any such action, if brought and pursued to conclusion, would likely result in a judgment against the Company in an amount not less than $430,000, which, if enforced, would likely jeopardize our ability to continue as a going concern.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS.

As a “smaller reporting company” as defined by Item 10 of Regulation S-K, the Company is not required to provide information required by this Item.

ITEM 2. UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS.

We relied in each case for these unregistered sales on the private offering exemption of Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the private offering safe harbor provision of Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder based on the following factors: (i) the number of offerees or purchasers, as applicable, (ii) the absence of general solicitation, (iii) representations obtained from the acquirer's relative to their accreditation and/or sophistication (or from offeree or purchaser representatives, as applicable), (iv) the provision of appropriate disclosure, and (v) the placement of restrictive legends on the certificates reflecting the securities coupled with investment representations obtained from the acquiror's.

(1) This subscription by an individual investor was part of a private offering of securities. The purchase price, which represented a total value of $750, and all of which was paid for in the form of business development services previously performed for the benefit of the Company, was established for purposes of valuation on the basis of the closing price of the Company common stock on those days during which such services were performed.

ITEM 3. DEFAULTS UPON SENIOR SECURITIES.

For the period ended September 30, 2018, we are in default under a certain unsecured term note to a former shareholder in the total amount of approximately $57,000. The arrearage as of such date was $28,783, plus interest. In accordance with the terms of the note, however, our default has triggered an acceleration of the entire balance plus accumulated interest. In addition, we are in default under a certain unsecured term note to a current shareholder in the total amount of $300,000 plus interest, a convertible note payable in the amount of $25,000 plus interest to an investor, as well as two convertible note payables each in the amounts of $50,000 to a single related party investor.
