SCHEDULE 13D

On December 3, 2003, Shakespeare commenced the cash tender offer for all of the outstanding shares of SoundView Common Stock and Class B common stock at a price of $15.50 per share. On January 9, 2004, the initial offering period of Shakespeare's tender offer expired. On January 12, 2004, Shakespeare accepted for payment 17,776,486 shares of SoundView Common Stock, representing approximately 85.4% of the shares of SoundView Common Stock outstanding. On January 12, 2004, Shakespeare also commenced a subsequent offering period for all remaining untendered shares of SoundView Common Stock and Class B common stock. On January 15, 2004, following the Merger, two of the Continuing Directors resigned from the Board of Directors.

At the effective time of the Merger, SoundView became a wholly owned subsidiary of Schwab. Each outstanding share of SoundView Common Stock held of record by stockholders (other than Shakespeare and other than stockholders that perfect their appraisal rights under Delaware law), have been converted into the right to receive from Shakespeare the sum of $15.50 in cash for each such share of SoundView Common Stock owned upon surrender by a former stockholder of the certificate or certificates formerly representing ownership of such former stockholder's SoundView Common Stock, each outstanding share of SoundView Common Stock owned of record by Shakespeare ceased to be outstanding, without any payment being made for such shares, and each share of SoundView Common Stock (all of which was held by Schwab) has been converted into 25,000 shares of SoundView common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

As of the close of business on January 15, 2004, SoundView Common Stock ceased to be quoted on any quotation system or exchange.
