Item 8.01 Other Events.

In our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended April 30, 2005 filed with the Commission on June 2, 2005, we disclosed that we had received a Notice of Proposed Adjustment from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) on May 31, 2005 asserting a very large net increase to our U.S. taxable income arising from the audit of fiscal years 2000 and 2001. We further stated that we expected to receive in due course a Revenue Agent's Report (RAR) from the IRS claiming a significant increase in our U.S. taxes payable for fiscal 2000 and 2001 based on the proposed taxable income adjustment.

On June 8, 2005, we received an RAR in which the IRS proposed to assess a net tax deficiency for fiscal years 2000 and 2001 of approximately $476.8 million, plus interest. Interest accrues on the amount of any deficiency finally determined until paid, and compounds daily at the federal underpayment rate which adjusts quarterly. A higher underpayment rate of interest may be charged as a result of the issuance of the RAR.

This proposed adjustment primarily relates to transfer pricing transactions between Synopsys and a foreign subsidiary. The proposed adjustment for fiscal years 2000 and 2001 is the total amount relating to these transactions asserted under the IRS theories. We will file a timely protest to the proposed deficiency with the IRS, which will cause the matter to be referred to the Appeals Office of the IRS. Resolution of this matter could take a considerable time, possibly multiple years.

We strongly believe the proposed IRS adjustments and resulting proposed deficiency are inconsistent with applicable tax laws, and that we thus have meritorious defenses to these proposals. Accordingly, we will continue to challenge these proposed adjustments vigorously. While we believe the IRS' asserted adjustments are not supported by applicable law, we believe it is probable the Company will be required to make additional payments in order to resolve this matter. However, because we are in the initial stages of the Appeals process, we cannot currently reasonably estimate the amount of any such additional payments. If we are required to pay a significant amount of additional U.S. taxes and applicable interest in excess of the Company's provision for this matter, our results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.
