Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreement

On June 14, 2005, the Company filed a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice resolving outstanding litigation with Tyco Adhesives arising out of Tyco's allegations that the Company had improperly used Tyco trade secrets and confidential information. The Company had denied all liability and vigorously defended the case. While believing that it had meritorious defenses to Tyco's claims, in a settlement agreement effective June 5, 2005, the Company and two of its former employees settled the matter prior to trial for a cash payment of $520,000 to avoid a prolonged and expensive trial. The settlement releases the Company as well as the two former employees for liability for all past actions. Chase also agrees not to use Tyco's trade secrets and confidential information with respect to the pressure sensitive tape business in the future, but the restriction is narrowly defined so that it should not interfere with planned future business activities.

Although the $520,000 settlement payment was made in June 2005, it will be accrued for on a pre-tax basis as of the Company's quarter ended May 31, 2005 in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

It is not expected that the Company's annual dividend payment will be impacted by this settlement.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant
