AMCOR ANNOUNCES CONVERSION OF $400 MILLION NOTE ISSUE

Amcor announces today that the $400 million PACRS1 convertible notes will be converted to equity on 30 April 2006. Prior to conversion, Amcor will offer to repurchase the PACRS1 notes off-market to provide holders with a cash alternative to receiving ordinary shares. Amcor also announces today its intention to commence an on-market share buy-back program to acquire shares equivalent to the number arising on conversion of the PACRS remaining after the repurchase program.

Amcor's Chief Executive Officer, Ken MacKenzie, said "Today's announcement is an outcome of our commitment to manage our capital base efficiently in terms of both cost and flexibility. The PACRS1 convertible notes are now a less attractive source of funding compared to other alternatives. This initiative will result in a simpler, more effective capital structure that lowers Amcor's overall cost of capital and is expected to be earnings per share positive.

PACRS1 are the Perpetual Amcor Convertible Reset Securities issued by Amcor Investments (New Zealand) Limited (AINZL) in May 2001. PACRS1 have a Reset Date of 30 April 2006.

The number of Amcor shares to be issued on the conversion of PACRS1 will be determined in accordance with the terms of issue and will depend on the average share price during the conversion pricing period ending in late April. Based on the share price prevailing at the time of this announcement, the PACRS1 notes would convert to approximately 60 million shares in Amcor Limited. However, the number of shares actually arising from the conversion will be reduced to the extent holders of PACRS1 accept the repurchase offer from AINZL. Amcor proposes to buy back on market the equivalent of the number of shares arising on conversion of those PACRS1 which remain after the repurchase program.

The offer price for the repurchase of PACRS1 notes will be $105.2632 per note. Settlement of the repurchase is scheduled for Friday, 28 April 2006, and holders accepting the repurchase offer will receive the full amount of interest for the final interest period prior to the Conversion Date of 30 April 2006. The offer price, together with the final interest payment of $4.2514 per note, reflects the full value of the conversion terms.

A booklet explaining the terms and conditions of the PACRS1 repurchase offer will be sent to entitled holders in early March 2006.
