Item 1.01                                      Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 7, 2006, Quidel Corporation (the Company) announced that Paul E. Landers, the Company's Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, had notified the Company of his intention to retire, effective March 31, 2007. In connection with Mr. Landers' anticipated retirement, the Company and Mr. Landers entered into an agreement (the Agreement), dated December 29, 2006, confirming the parties' understandings as to Mr. Landers' employment prior to his retirement and each party's commitments and obligations on and after Mr. Landers' retirement. A copy of the Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Under the Agreement, Mr. Landers will remain an at-will employee of, and will continue full-time employment with, the Company through his retirement date. Mr. Landers' salary and employee benefits will continue at the same level as currently in effect through his retirement date, and Mr. Landers will remain eligible to receive a cash bonus under the Company's existing 2006 cash incentive bonus plan if and to the extent the relevant performance metrics therein are achieved and if Mr. Landers remains employed by the Company through his retirement date or is earlier terminated by the Company without cause. Under the Agreement and post-retirement, Mr. Landers has agreed to provide up to twenty hours per month for telephonic consultations for the Company's benefit through the period ending December 31, 2007. In addition, Mr. Landers has agreed (i) through December 31, 2007, not to engage in any capacity with a company in the U.S. or Japan that is in the business of developing and/or commercializing rapid diagnostic tests in infectious diseases, reproductive health, oncology or fecal occult blood testing, and (ii) through December 31, 2008, not to solicit the employment of any current or former employee, contractor, supplier or consultant of the Company or encourage any such person to terminate, limit or restrict their relationship with the Company. In exchange for the foregoing and other consideration under the Agreement, upon the earlier of Mr. Landers' retirement date or his involuntary termination by the Company without cause, (i) Mr. Landers' outstanding stock options will be automatically vested if and to the extent such options would have vested in the normal course of business had his employment with the Company continued until December 31, 2007, and (ii) the restrictions on all outstanding shares of Mr. Landers' restricted stock will automatically lapse if and to the extent such restrictions would have lapsed in the normal course of business had his employment with the Company continued until December 31, 2007.
