Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously announced, effective March 1, 2010, John Duerden retired from his position as President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Crocs, Inc. (the Company). On March 31, 2010, the Company and Mr. Duerden entered into a separation agreement. The effectiveness of the separation agreement is subject to a seven day revocation period in favor of Mr. Duerden. The separation agreement provides that the Company will: (i) pay Mr. Duerden lump sum payments totaling approximately $1.77 million on the Company's first regular payroll date after September 1, 2010; (ii) accelerate the vesting of certain unvested options to purchase Company common stock and certain unvested restricted shares of Company common stock previously granted to Mr. Duerden, which would have vested if Mr. Duerden had remained employed by the Company for one year following his retirement date; and (iii) pay the employer portion of Mr. Duerden's health insurance until the earlier of February 28, 2011 or until Mr. Duerden is no longer eligible for COBRA continuation.

The payments above are conditioned upon Mr. Duerden's compliance with the noncompetition, nonsolicitation, confidentiality, invention assignment and certain other covenants in the employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Duerden dated February 24, 2009. Mr. Duerden also agreed to release the Company from all claims relating to Mr. Duerden's service to the Company through the date of the separation agreement.

The above summary does not purport to be a complete summary of the separation agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the separation agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
