Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Chase Corporation (the Company) announced on April 17, 2014 that Kenneth L. Dumas, its Chief Financial Officer & Treasurer has decided to leave the Company at the end of its fiscal year to pursue new opportunities. Mr. Dumas will remain in his role until September 1, 2014 in order to help complete key projects and provide a smooth transition. Mr. Dumas did not resign due to any disagreement with the Company regarding any matters relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices

In consideration of Mr. Dumas agreeing to remain in his current position until the end of the fiscal year and in order to assist in a smooth transition, the Company and Mr. Dumas entered into a separation agreement. The separation agreement provides for six months base salary and benefits to be paid following the separation date and for his fiscal 2014 annual cash incentive bonus to be calculated and paid in the normal course. Equity awards will continue to be governed by the terms of Mr. Dumas' award agreements and the Company's equity plans except that the time to exercise outstanding and vested stock options shall be twelve months from the separation date.
