Vale announces the suspension of the ratification of the Samarco agreement

Rio de Janeiro, July 1st, 2016 Vale informs that the Superior Court of Justice in Brazil suspended the decision of the Federal Court of Appeal that ratified the agreement related to the public civil claim of R$ 20.2 billion.

The Superior Court of Justice in Brazil issued an interim order, which suspends the decision of the Federal Regional Court, 1st Region, on 5 May 2016, which ratified the agreement reached between Samarco Mineração S.A. (Samarco) and its two shareholders, Vale S.A. (Vale) and BHP Billiton Brasil LTDA (BHPB Brasil) with the Union, the states of Espírito Santo and Minas Gerais and other public authorities (Brazilian Authorities). With this interim order, the public civil claim of R$ 20.2 billion, made by the Brazilian Authorities, is reinstated.

Vale clarifies that it will continue to fulfill the actions of the agreement, supporting the recovery of the communities and the environment affected by the Samarco's tailing dam failure, and will take the necessary legal steps to confirm the ratification of the agreement.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
