WEBTRONICS, INC.
(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
MARCH 31, 2003

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Operations

The Company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida on February 2, 2001.

The Company is in the development stage. The Company plans to develop a website where individuals can obtain foreclosure of real estate and related mortgage information. The Company currently has no operations.

On April 30, 2003, the Company acquired Callisto Research Labs LLC (formerly Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc.) and Synergy Pharmaceuticals, Inc. The Company has entered the pharmaceutical industry as a result of this merger.

The Company will eventually change its name to Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc and will re-domesticate the company's state of incorporation from Florida to Delaware.

Basis of Accounting

The Company's policy is to prepare its financial statements using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company has elected December 31 at its annual year-end.

Interim Financial Information

The condensed unaudited interim financial statements included herein have been prepared without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The condensed financial statements and notes are presented as permitted on Form 10-SB and do not contain information included in the Company's annual statements and notes. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulation, although the Company believes that the disclosures are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. It is suggested that these condensed financial statements be read in conjunction with the December 31, 2002 audited financial statements and the accompanying notes thereto. While management believes the procedures followed in preparing these condensed financial statements are reasonable, the accuracy of the amounts are in some respect dependent upon the facts that will exist, and procedures that will be accomplished by the Company later in the year.

Edgar Filing: WEBTRONICS INC - Form 10QSB

These condensed unaudited financial statements reflect all adjustments, including normal recurring adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary to present fairly the consolidated operations and cash flows for the periods presented.

(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Equivalent

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and cash in banks. The Company maintains cash and cash equivalent balances at a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $100,000.

Organization Costs

The Company has incurred various expenditures in the formation of its corporate and organizational structure. In accordance with SOP98-5 these costs will be expenses as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

The Company will recognize revenue upon completion of its services to be rendered or delivery of products to its customers. The Company has not generated revenues since inception.

Development Stage

The Company is in its development stage. The Company since inception has not commenced its operations, nor has generated sufficient working capital to pursue its business objectives. The accumulated deficit during its development stage is $2,655.

Net Earnings (Losses) Per Share

The Company reports its net earnings (losses) per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128 "Earnings Per Share". Basic net earnings (losses) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted averaged number of common shares outstanding.

WEBTRONICS, INC.
(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)

Diluted earnings (losses) per share is computed similar to basic earnings (losses) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding. As of March 31, 2003, there are no outstanding stock options or stock warrants that would have affected our computation.

NOTE 2 - INCOME TAX

In February 1992, the Financial Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under SFAS No. 109, deferred assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences between the financial statement carrying amounts of the existing assets and their respective basis.

Deferred assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under SFAS No. 109, the effect on deferred assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the period that includes the enactment date.

NOTE 3 - CAPITAL TRANSACTIONS

On March 15, 2003, certain shareholders entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Under the agreement, Callisto purchased approximately 99.7% of the Company's issued and outstanding stock. A Form 8-K was filed on March 19, 2002 reporting the change in control of the Company.

On March 14, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to change its capital structure. As a result of this amendment, the authorized common stock was increased from 50,000,000 to 550,000,000 and the par value changed from $.0001 to $.000005, respectively.

Pursuant to a merger agreement that was closed on April 30, 2003, the Company issued 17,318,994 shares of common stock to holders of Callisto and 4,395,684 shares of common stock to holders of Synergy Pharmaceuticals.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Background

Edgar Filing: WEBTRONICS INC - Form 10QSB

On March 10, 2003, as amended on April 4, 2003, we entered into a merger agreement with Callisto Research Labs, LLC (formerly known as Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc.), or Callisto Research and Synergy Pharmaceuticals, Inc., or Synergy, an unaffiliated company under which Callisto Research and Synergy agreed to merge in a stock for stock transaction and each become our subsidiaries. On April 30, 2003 the merger closed. In addition it is anticipated that we will change our name from Webtronics, Inc. to Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and re-domesticate from Florida to Delaware by merging into a wholly-owned subsidiary (the "Webtronics Merger").

Pursuant to the merger agreement we issued 17,318,994 shares of our common stock to holders of Callisto Research common stock and 4,395,684 shares to holders of Synergy common stock in exchange for outstanding Callisto Research and Synergy common stock. As a result of the merger there is a total of approximately 23,217,578 of our shares outstanding (not including 499,384,600 of our shares owned by Callisto Research, which have been returned for cancellation prior to the Webtronics merger).

Pursuant to the merger agreement, upon the closing of the Webtronics Merger, it is expected that four of our directors will be nominated to our Board by the former Callisto Research stockholders and three of our directors will be nominated to our Board by the former Synergy stockholders. It is anticipated that the Callisto Research directors will include Gabriel M. Cerrone and Christoph Bruening. It is anticipated that the Synergy directors will be Donald H. Picker, Ph.D., Edwin Snape and Albert J. Henry.

Pursuant to the merger agreement we assumed the obligations of Callisto Research with respect to Callisto Research's outstanding 3,510,560 stock options and the stock option plan under which Callisto Research had granted 2,563,055 of these stock options. The remaining stock options are non-plan options.

Critical Accounting Policies

Our accounting policies are described in Note 1 of the consolidated financial statements included in this report on Form 10-QSB. The financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Since we are in the development stage and have had only limited expenditures and no estimates we do not consider any accounting policy to be critical to the understanding of our business.

Results of Operations

Our financial statements, which are set forth in Item 1 of this report, reflect our operating results from February 12, 2001 (inception) to March 31, 2003 and for the quarter ended March 31, 2003 and 2002. During the period from inception to March 31, 2003, we had no revenue and our expenses totaled $2,635, of which $440 was incurred in 2001, $2,353 in 2002 and $42 in 2003. Substantially all of these expenses were for office and administrative activities related to the early stages of developing plans for our foreclosure and mortgage information business. We entered into an agreement for the hosting of our website prior to our change in control in March, 2002 and thereafter suspended that agreement to preserve cash pending our new management's assessment of plans for financing the cost of indexing with search engines and providing amortization calculators, mortgage analysis tools and 24 access. Substantially all of these expenditures were made by management before March 15, 2002.

Callisto, who was our principal shareholder until the merger, pays for expenses such as accounting and legal fees relating to our reporting responsibility under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as well as provides us with an office location without any expectation of repayment. We abandoned the mortgage and foreclosure information business to facilitate the merger. Each of Callisto and Synergy have plans to expand and develop their pharmaceutical businesses and a full discussion of the results of operations of each company and the plan for expenditures by the combined company as included in a Form 8-K Report filed by us on May 15, 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Most of our operating expenses were borne by Callisto, our former parent and, effective April 30, 2003, subsidiary, without any expectation of reimbursement.

We will require substantial additional funds to conduct and sponsor research and development activities, to conduct pre-clinical and clinical testing, and to market Callisto's and Synergy's products. Our future capital requirements will depend on many factors, including continued scientific progress, progress with pre-clinical testing and clinical trials, the time and costs involved in obtaining regulatory approvals, the costs involved in filing, prosecuting and enforcing patent claims, competing technological and market developments, the ability of Callisto and Synergy to establish collaborative arrangements, effective commercialization activities and arrangements and the purchase or development of additional equipment and facilities. There can be no assurance, however, that changes in Callisto's or Synergy's research and development plans or other events affecting operating expenses will not result in the expenditure of such proceeds prior to that time. Neither we, Callisto nor Synergy have other current sources of funding. As a result, we will need to raise additional funds before any of its product candidates achieves regulatory approvals, if at all. We intend to seek such additional funding through collaborative arrangements and through public or private financings. There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available, or, if available, that such additional financing will be available on terms acceptable to us. If additional funds are raised by issuing debt, we will incur fixed payment obligations, which could delay the time, if any, when we may achieve profitability. If adequate funds are not available, we may be required to delay, scale back or eliminate one or more of its principal product candidates or obtain funds through arrangements with collaborative partners or others that may require us to relinquish rights to certain of its technologies, product candidates or products that Callisto or Synergy would not otherwise relinquish.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, we have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days of the filing date of this quarterly report, and, based on their evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that these controls and procedures are effective. There were no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation.

Disclosure controls and procedures are our controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.
