Cameco Conference Call To Discuss Cigar Lake Flood Investigations

Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, May 4, 2007

Cameco Corporation is having a conference call at 2:00 p.m. Eastern time (12:00 p.m. Saskatoon time) Friday, May 4, 2007 to discuss the results of the investigations into the two floods at the Cigar Lake uranium project in northern Saskatchewan during 2006. The independent investigation reports and Cameco's responses are posted with this news release on the company's website at cameco.com.

The call will be open to all members of the investment community and the media. In order to join the conference call, please dial (888) 789-0150 or (416) 695-6120 (Canada and US). An operator will put your call through.

A recorded version of the proceedings will be available on our website, cameco.com, shortly after the call, and on post view until midnight, Eastern time, May 18, 2007 by calling (888) 509-0081 or (416) 695-5275 (passcode: 643454).

Cameco, with its head office in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, is the world's largest uranium producer. The company's uranium products are used to generate electricity in nuclear energy plants around the world, providing one of the cleanest sources of energy available today. Cameco's shares trade on the Toronto and New York stock exchanges.
