INFORMATION STATEMENT

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY,

AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

This Information Statement is being furnished to the stockholders of Safe ID Corporation (the "Company") in connection with (A) an amendment (the "Charter Amendment") to its Articles of Incorporation increasing the authorized shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Common Stock"), from fifty million shares to three hundred million shares and (ii) authorizing ten million shares of "blank check" preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Preferred Stock"); and (B) an amendment (the "Name Change Amendment" and, together with the Charter Amendment, the "Amendments") to its Articles of Incorporation changing the name of the Company to "EYI Industries Inc."

"We," "us," "our," and the "Company" refer to Safe ID Corporation, a Nevada corporation. "EYI" refers to Essentially Yours Industries, Inc., a Nevada corporation. The Share Exchange Agreement is sometimes referred to as the "Exchange Agreement" and the transaction contemplated thereby is sometimes referred to as the "Exchange."

STATEMENTS REGARDING FORWARD INFORMATION

This prospectus proxy statement and the documents incorporated in this document by reference contain forward-looking statements within the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to our financial condition, results of operations and business, and on the expected impact of the merger on the combined company's financial performance. Words such as "anticipates," "expects," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates" and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results contemplated by the forward-looking statements.

SUMMARY OF THE AMENDMENTS AND SHARE EXCHANGE

On November 4, 2003, the Board of Directors unanimously approved and ratified a Share Exchange Agreement, dated November 4, 2003 (the "Share Exchange Agreement"), which the Company entered into with Essentially Yours Industries, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("EYI"), pursuant to which the Company will issue up to 118,221,397 newly-issued shares of Common Stock to certain stockholders of EYI in exchange for shares of EYI common stock held by them (the "Exchange"). The Board determined that the Charter Amendment was necessary and advisable in order for the Company to have sufficient authorized capital stock to effect the Exchange. The Board further determined that the Name Change Amendment was advisable and in the best interests of the Company because it was a condition to the Exchange pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreement and because it reflects the nature of the Company's business and assets following the Exchange. On November 4, 2003, the Board unanimously approved and ratified the Amendments, subject to the approval of the Company's stockholders. The record date for purposes of determining the number of outstanding shares of voting stock entitled to vote on the Amendments was November 4, 2003 (the "Record Date"). On November 4, 2003, shareholders owning greater than a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock approved the Amendments by action taken without a meeting. No further vote of our stockholders is required. A copy of the Share Exchange Agreement is attached as Exhibit A to this Information Statement.

GENERAL

The date on which this Information Statement was first sent to our shareholders is on or around December 8, 2003 (the "Mailing Date"). Inasmuch as we will have provided this Information Statement to our stockholders of record on the Mailing Date, no additional action will be undertaken pursuant to such written consent. Stockholders who did not consent to the Amendments are not entitled to dissenter's rights under Nevada law. These rights are discussed in this Information Statement under "Description of the Exchange."

The Amendments will be effective no sooner than twenty (20) days after the Mailing Date.

This Information Statement has been prepared by our management, and the entire cost of furnishing this Information Statement will be borne by us. We will request brokerage houses, nominees, custodians, fiduciaries and other like parties to forward this Information Statement to the beneficial owners of our voting securities held of record by them and we will reimburse such persons for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in forwarding such material.

SUMMARY OF THE ACTION TO BE TAKEN

The following is a brief summary of certain information contained elsewhere in this Information Statement. This summary is not intended to be complete and reference is made to the more detailed information contained in this Information Statement and in the Exhibits to it for a complete statement of the matters discussed below. You are urged to read this Information Statement and the Exhibits in their entirety.

Amendment of the Company's Articles of Incorporation Increasing the Authorized Capital Stock

The Charter Amendment to our Articles of Incorporation will, when filed:

Increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 50,000,000 to 300,000,000; and

Create a new class of "blank check" preferred stock, consisting of 10 million shares. The Board of Directors of the Company will have the authority to set the rights and preferences of the preferred stock without further stockholder action. Once determined, the rights and preferences may be superior to the rights and preferences of the Common Stock. The issuance of shares of Preferred Stock could dilute the interests of the holders of Common Stock. See "Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation - Description of Charter Amendment" for additional information.

Amendment of the Company's Articles of Incorporation Changing the Name of the Company

The Name Change Amendment to our Articles of Incorporation will, when filed:

Change the name of the Company to "EYI Industries Inc."

Share Exchange Agreement and the Exchange

On November 4, 2003, our Board of Directors approved a Share Exchange Agreement with EYI. Pursuant to the Share Exchange Agreement:

The Company will issue up to 118,221,397 shares of Common Stock in exchange for up to 15,402,733 shares of EYI common stock;

The Exchange will result in a change of control of the Company; and

The Company will acquire up to ninety eight percent of the issued and outstanding shares of EYI.

See "Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation - Description of Exchange" and "Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation - Terms of the Exchange Agreement" for additional information.

ACTIONS BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

AND

CONSENTING STOCKHOLDERS

In accordance with Section 78.320 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the following action was taken based upon the unanimous recommendation and approval by the Board of Directors and action by written consent of shareholders holding greater than a majority of the Company's issued and outstanding Common Stock.

AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

On November 4, 2003, our Board of Directors, believing it to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, approved, and recommended that the stockholders of the Company approve the Amendments. The Charter Amendment is reflected in the Form of Charter Amendment to Articles of Incorporation (the "Form of Charter Amendment"), which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, and incorporated herein by reference. The Name Change Amendment is reflected in the Form of Name Change Amendment to Articles of Incorporation (the "Form of Name Change Amendment"), which is attached hereto as Exhibit C, and incorporated herein by reference. The Board determined that the Amendments are necessary in order to consummate the Exchange, which is described in more detail below. In addition, because of the authorization of additional shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock, and the authorization of the Board of Directors to create and issue various series of Preferred Stock without additional stockholder approval, the Charter Amendment will provide the Company the flexibility to seek additional capital through equity financings in a competitive environment from time to time in the future and to use equity, rather than cash, to complete acquisitions, from time to time in the future. Except as described below in "Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation - Terms of the Exchange Agreement," and other than the issuance of shares of Common Stock in the Exchange, as of the date hereof, the Company has no commitments, arrangements or understandings with respect to the issuance of the additional Common Stock or Preferred Stock it is seeking to authorize. The Company has no understandings or agreements at this time with regard to any acquisitions.

Description of Exchange

Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, the Company will issue up to 118,221,397 newly-issued shares of Common Stock to certain stockholders of EYI in exchange for shares of EYI common stock held by them. EYI currently has 15,703,552 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Pursuant to the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement, holders of at least ninety percent, or 14,122,197 shares, of the issued and outstanding common stock of EYI must deliver their shares to the Company in the Exchange. Since the shares of our Common Stock being issued in the Exchange are not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), the Company is relying on an exemption from registration under the Act. Therefore, only those shareholders of EYI who have represented to us that either they are "accredited investors" (as such term is defined in Regulation D under the Act) or they are not "U.S. persons" (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the Act) are eligible to participate in the Exchange. As of the date of this mailing, shareholders owning approximately 98% of the outstanding shares of EYI common stock are able to make this representation. Therefore, the Company may acquire up to ninety eight percent, or 15,402,733 shares, of the issued and outstanding capital stock of EYI in the Exchange.

Depending on the actual percentage of EYI shareholders who participate in the Exchange, the Company will issue at least 108,466,260 and up to 118,221,397 shares of Common Stock in the Exchange. The shares of Common Stock being issued in the Exchange will not be registered under the Act, and therefore will be restricted securities. Following the consummation of the Exchange, the Company will have between 138,609,832 and 148,353,969 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. The Exchange will result in a change of control of the Company, and following the consummation of the Exchange, the shareholders of EYI will own at least 78.3% and up to 79.7% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company.

The Company has no revenue generating operations at the present time. Following the closing of the Exchange Agreement, EYI will become a majority-owned subsidiary of the Company, with the Company owning at least 90% and up to 98% of the issued and outstanding shares of EYI. The shares of EYI we receive in the Exchange will represent our most significant asset after the closing of the Exchange. We intend to retain the shares of common stock of EYI as an asset and we do not have any present intentions to distribute those shares as a dividend to our stockholders.

Terms of the Exchange Agreement

As a condition to the Exchange, the Exchange Agreement requires that the Company raise at least $500,000 in a private placement in which up to 6,000,000 units are being offered for sale at a price of $0.14 per unit. Each unit is comprised of one share of Common Stock and one warrant to purchase an additional share of Common Stock at a price of $0.20 per share. The warrants expire on October 31, 2005. To date, the Company has raised approximately $409,000 in the private placement and believes it has commitments to purchase the additional $91,000.

The Exchange Agreement further requires that the Company offer to Michel Grise 357,143 shares of Safe ID Common Stock and warrants to purchase an additional 357,143 shares of Safe ID Common Stock at $0.20 per share, with such warrants to have the same terms and conditions as the warrants issued by Safe ID in the private placement described in the preceding paragraph. These shares and warrants will be in satisfaction of a $50,000 promissory note owed to Michel Grise by EYI, and the closing of such transaction and the issuance of the Common Stock and warrants shall occur immediately following the closing of the Exchange. Michel Grise is a director and affiliate of EYI.

In anticipation of the Exchange, Safe ID loaned $326,500 to EYI pursuant to a promissory note, dated September 30, 2003. If the Exchange is consummated, the loan to EYI will be forgiven.

The Exchange Agreement can be terminated prior to its closing by the mutual consent of the parties or in the event of a material breach by one party. The Exchange Agreement also contains certain additional provisions which are customary in similar agreements. The foregoing summary is not meant to be an exhaustive description of the terms and conditions of the Exchange Agreement. Each of our stockholders is encouraged to read the agreement which is attached as Exhibit A to this Information Statement.

Safe ID and EYI shall each pay their own expenses in the proposed transaction, except the cost for this Information Statement will be borne by the Company. The Exchange is designed to be a tax-free transaction under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Except for the required shareholder consent to the Amendments, which we have already obtained and which is the subject of this Information Statement, we are not required to obtain the consent of our shareholders or any third party to consummate the Exchange. EYI must obtain the approval of its Board of Directors to the Exchange, which has not yet been given but is expected to be given in the near future. The closing date for the Exchange is scheduled for December 31, 2003.

Description of the Charter Amendment

The Charter Amendment (i) increases the number of authorized shares of Common Stock of the Company to 300,000,000 shares from 50,000,000 shares; and (ii) authorizes a class of blank check Preferred Stock, par value $0.001, of the Company, consisting of 10,000,000 authorized shares, which may be issued in one or more series, with such rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions as shall be fixed by the Company's Board of Directors from time to time. The full text of the Charter Amendment is reflected in the Form of Charter Amendment.

Increase in Authorized Common Stock of the Company. The Company's Articles of Incorporation currently authorizes the Company to issue up to 50,000,000 shares of Common Stock. As of November 4, 2003, Company records indicate that the Company had issued and outstanding 29,127,924 shares of Common Stock. In addition, 2,923,924 shares of Common Stock were reserved for issuance for the Company's outstanding warrants and, subject to the approval of the Amendment by the Company's stockholders, up to 118,221,397 shares were reserved for issuance to EYI stockholders to consummate the Exchange. In order to consummate the Exchange, and to maintain the Company's flexibility with respect to possible future stock splits, equity financings, stock-for-stock acquisitions, stock dividends or other transactions that involve the issuance of Common Stock, the Company must increase its authorized Common Stock.

Authorization of "Blank Check" Preferred Stock. The term "blank check" preferred stock refers to stock for which the designations, preferences, conversion rights, cumulative, relative, participating, optional or other rights, including voting rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof are determined by the Board of Directors of a company. Upon the effectiveness of the Charter Amendment, the Board of Directors of the Company will be entitled to authorize the designation and issuance of up to 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series with such limitations and restrictions as may be determined in the sole discretion of the Company's Board of Directors, with no further authorization by stockholders required for the creation and issuance thereof. In accordance with the provisions of Section 78.1955 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the Board of Directors of the Company shall have the express authority to execute, acknowledge and file a certificate of designations setting forth, any and all powers, designations, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions on the preferred stock. The Board of Directors believes that having such blank check preferred stock available for, among other things, proposed financing transactions, as well as possible issuances in connection with such activities as public or private offerings of shares for cash, dividends payable in stock of the Company, acquisitions of other companies or businesses, and otherwise, is in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders.

Rights and Preferences With Respect to Common Stock. If the Company issues Preferred Stock, such Preferred Stock will include certain designations, preferences, conversion rights, cumulative, relative, participating, optional or other rights, including voting rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions, any of which may dilute the voting power and economic interest of the holders of the Common Stock. For example, in a liquidation, the holders of the Preferred Stock may be entitled to receive a certain amount of cash or in-kind distributions per share of Preferred Stock before the holders of the Common Stock receive any distribution. In addition, the holders of Preferred Stock may be entitled to a certain number of votes per share of Preferred Stock and such votes may dilute the voting rights of the holders of Common Stock when the Company seeks to take corporate action. Furthermore, Preferred Stock could be issued with certain preferences over the holders of Common Stock with respect to dividends or the power to approve the declaration of a dividend. The aforementioned are only examples of how shares of Preferred Stock, if issued, could dilute the interests of the holders of Common Stock.

Possible Anti-Takeover Effect. In addition to financing purposes, the Company could also issue shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock that may, depending on the terms of such series, make more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of the Company by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or other means. When, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, this action will be in the best interest of the stockholders and the Company, such shares could be used to create voting or other impediments or to discourage persons seeking to gain control of the Company. Such shares also could be privately placed with purchasers favorable to the Board of Directors in opposing such action. In addition, the Board of Directors could authorize holders of a series of Common or Preferred Stock to vote either separately as a class or with the holders of the Company's Common Stock, on any merger, sale or exchange of assets by the Company or any other extraordinary corporate transaction. The existence of the additional authorized shares could have the effect of discouraging unsolicited takeover attempts. The issuance of new shares also could be used to dilute the stock ownership of a person or entity seeking to obtain control of the Company should the Board of Directors consider the action of such entity or person not to be in the best interest of the stockholders of the Company. The issuance of new shares also could be used to entrench current management or deter an attempt to replace the Board of Directors by diluting the number or rights of shares held by individuals seeking to control the Company by obtaining a certain number of seats on the Board of Directors.

Description of the Name Change Amendment

The Name Change Amendment will result in the name of the Company being changed from "Safe ID Corporation" to "EYI Industries Inc." Following the consummation of the Exchange, the Company's most significant asset will be the shares of EYI, its majority-owned subsidiary, and the purpose of the Name Change Amendment is to reflect the nature of this asset.

Approval by Stockholders

Pursuant to Section 78.390 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, each Amendment must be approved by a majority of our stockholders. This approval could be obtained either by the written consent of the holders of a majority of our issued and outstanding voting securities, or it could be considered by our stockholders at a special stockholders' meeting convened for the specific purpose of approving the Amendments. In order to eliminate the costs and management time involved in holding a special meeting, our Board of Directors voted to utilize the written consent of the holders of a majority in interest of our Common Stock. The elimination of the need for a special meeting of stockholders to approve the Amendment is made possible by Section 78.320 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, which provides that any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting if stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power of the company execute a written consent approving such action. The Record Date for purposes of determining the number of outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the Amendments was November 4, 2003.

As of the Record Date, the Company had 29,127,924 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. As of this same date, stockholders representing 15,595,500 shares of Common Stock, or approximately 53.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, approved the Amendments. No further vote of our stockholders is required for the Company to file the Amendments.

Pursuant to the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), an information statement must be sent to the holders of voting stock who do not sign the written consent at least 20 days prior to the effective date of the action.

No Dissenter's or Appraisal Rights

Stockholders who did not consent to the Amendments are not entitled to dissenter's or appraisal rights in connection with the Amendment or the Exchange as provided in Section 92A.300 et seq. of the Nevada Revised Statutes. A stockholder may not challenge the corporate action unless the corporate action is unlawful or fraudulent.

Effective Date

The Amendments will be effective no sooner than 20 days after the date this Information Statement is first mailed to our stockholders. The Company anticipates that the Charter Amendment will be effective on approximately December 28, 2003 or shortly thereafter and that the Name Change Amendment will be effective shortly after the Exchange is consummated. The closing for the Exchange is scheduled for December 31, 2003.

THE AMENDMENTS HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION, NOR HAS THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE FAIRNESS OR MERIT OF THE AMENDMENTS NOR UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS UNLAWFUL.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS IS NEITHER A REQUEST FOR YOUR VOTE NOR A PROXY STATEMENT, BUT RATHER AN INFORMATION STATEMENT DESIGNED TO INFORM YOU OF THE AMENDMENTS AND THEIR EFFECTS AND TO PROVIDE YOU WITH INFORMATION ABOUT THE AMENDMENTS AND THE BACKGROUND OF THESE TRANSACTIONS.

OUR BUSINESS

The Company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on June 27, 1996, under the name of Inter.N Corporation. In August of 1999, Inter.N Corporation changed its name to Safe ID Corporation to reflect its new business focus. Since that time, the Company has been attempting to raise funds for this business. The product line contemplated was miniaturized microchip technology for insertion into inanimate objects or injection under the skin of animals. The chips provide positive identification of personal possessions such as cameras, bicycles, boats, cars, skis, paintings and clothes using unique codes with billions of available combinations. The electronic product line includes a variety of radio frequency micro-chips or "tags," portable readers, stationary readers and micro-chip injecting devices.

To date, the Company has not been able to raise the funds required for the micro-chip sales. There is no assurance, given the uncertain nature of the capital markets, that it will be able to obtain the necessary funds. As a result, the Company began looking for possible acquisitions or strategic partners in various industries and market segments. This search led to the negotiation and execution of the Exchange Agreement, which the Company believes is advisable and in the best interests of the Company.

The Company has no employees.

Our principal executive offices are located at Suite B3, 1700 Varsity Estates Drive NW, Unit B3, Calgary, Alberta T3B-2W9. Our telephone number is (403) 247-4630.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS OF EYI

EYI sells, markets, and distributes a product line consisting of approximately 40 nutritional products in two categories, dietary supplements and personal care products. These products are marketed through a network marketing program in which independent distributors called Independent Business Associates (or "IBAs") purchase products for resale to retail customers as well as for their own personal use. The IBAs are encouraged to recruit interested people to become new distributors of EYI's products.

EYI has four wholly owned subsidiaries. The first subsidiary is Halo Distributions LLC (hereinafter Halo), which was organized on January 15, 1999, in the State of Kentucky. Halo is the distribution center for the Company's product in addition to other products. RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this Information Statement, the following risk factors should be considered carefully in evaluating EYI's business. The acquisition of EYI common stock by the Company is speculative and involves significant risk.

EYI has a limited operating history, an accumulated deficit and may have continued losses for the foreseeable future with no assurance of profitability. EYI was incorporated on June 21, 2002, as Burrard Capital, Inc. ("Burrard"), a development stage company whose sole purpose at that time was to complete a merger with a then existing Nevada corporation named "Essentially Yours Industries, Inc." (EYI-Nevada).

EYI- Nevada owned ninety-nine percent of Halo Distribution LLC, the other one percent of Halo was owned by RGM International, Inc. On May 27, 2002, Jay Sargeant, Burrard's President and Director, signed an agreement whereby he acquired all of the shares of EYI-Nevada and RGM as of June 30, 2002. Effective June 30, 2002, EYI-Nevada merged with and into Burrard, which then changed its name to "Essentially Yours Industries, Inc." As a result of that merger, Burrard became EYI and acquired the business and customer base of the EYI-Nevada.

As of June 30, 2003 EYI has an accumulated deficit of $1,681,175. As a result, EYI will need to generate significant revenues to achieve profitability, which may not occur. EYI expects operating expenses to increase as a result of the further implementation of its business plan. Even if EYI achieves profitability, EYI may be unable to sustain or increase profitability on a quarterly or annual basis in the future. It is possible that EYI will never achieve profitability.

EYI may not be able to continue as a going concern. EYI's independent auditor's report on its financial statements includes explanatory paragraphs in "NOTE 2 -- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES -- Going Concern" that indicate that there is substantial doubt that EYI will be able to continue as a going concern. Specifically the report states that "[t]he accompanying financial statements have been prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern. The use of such principles may not be appropriate because, as of June 30, 2003, there was substantial doubt that [EYI] will be able to continue as a going concern. As of June 30, 2003, [EYI] had an accumulated deficit of $1,681,175 and negative working capital of $809,364. The viability of [EYI] is dependent upon future profitable operations, and its ability to obtain sufficient financing to implement its business plan. [EYI] anticipates it will need approximately $900,000 in order to maintain operations at the current level for the next twelve months. The sources of the required funds will be from operations and a proposed merger."

EYI's predecessor company has outstanding tax claims. As indicated in the explanatory paragraphs in "NOTE 11 - CONTINGENCIES - Other matters" of EYI's independent auditor's report on its financial statements, "[t]he Company's predecessor organization, Essentially Yours Industries, Corp. (EYIC), a British Columbia corporation, has outstanding claims from the Internal Revenue Service for penalties and interest of approximately $2,000,000. Furthermore, one or more states may have claims for unpaid taxes. Management [of EYI] believes that these claims are limited to EYIC and any claims against [EYI] are probably remote but currently unable to be estimated."

EYI has operating deficits and may need additional financing and working capital, which may not be available to EYI. At June 30, 2003, EYI had an accumulated deficit of $1,681,175.

In October 2002, EYI raised $1,055,327.44 through a private placement of its common stock. EYI hopes to raise another $3,990,000 through this offering of common stock. If EYI raises $3,990,000 through this offering, EYI expects that it will have sufficient working capital to sustain business operations for the next 48 months. If EYI does not raise any money through this offering, EYI expects that it will have sufficient working capital to sustain business operations for the next 6 months.

In the future, EYI may require funds in excess of its existing cash resources to develop new products, to develop or acquire other products or other lines of business, and to finance general and administrative and research activities that are not related to specific products under development. EYI do not now have any definite plans requiring this additional funding. Due to market conditions at the time EYI may need additional funding, or due to its own financial condition at that time, it is possible that EYI will be unable to obtain additional funding as and when EYI needs it. If EYI is unable to obtain additional funding as and when needed, EYI could be forced to delay the progress of certain development efforts.

EYI is dependent on its IBAs for its product marketing efforts. EYI's success and growth depend upon its ability to attract, retain and motivate its network of IBAs (short for Independent Business Associates) who market EYI products. IBAs are independent contractors who purchase products directly from EYI for resale and their own use. IBAs typically offer and sell EYI products on a part-time basis and may engage in other business activities, possibly including the sale of products offered by EYI competitors. Typically, EYI has non-exclusive arrangements with its IBAs which may be canceled on short notice and contain no minimum purchase requirements. While EYI encourages IBAs to focus on the purchase and sale of EYI products, they may give higher priority to other products, reducing their efforts devoted to marketing EYI products. Also, EYI's ability to attract and retain IBAs could be negatively affected by adverse publicity relating to EYI, EYI products or its operations. In addition, as a result of EYI's network marketing program, the down-line organizations headed by a relatively small number of key IBAs are responsible for a significant percentage of total sales.

The loss of a significant number of IBAs, including any key IBA, for any reason, could adversely affect EYI's sales and operating results, and could impair EYI's ability to attract new IBAs. There is no assurance that EYI's network marketing program will continue to be successful or that EYI will be able to retain or expand its current network of IBAs.

Government regulation by the Food and Drug Administration and other federal and state entities of EYI products can impact its ability to market products. EYI markets products that fall under two types of Food and Drug Administration regulations: dietary supplements and personal care products. In general, a dietary supplement:

is a product (other than tobacco) that is intended to supplement the diet that bears or contains one or more of the following dietary ingredients: a vitamin, a mineral, a herb or other botanical, an amino acid, a dietary substance for use by man to supplement the diet by increasing the total daily intake, or a concentrate, metabolite, constituent, extract, or combinations of these ingredients.

is intended for ingestion in pill, capsule, tablet, or liquid form.

is not represented for use as a conventional food or as the sole item of a meal or diet.

is labeled as a "dietary supplement."

Personal care products are intended to be applied to the human body for cleansing, beautifying, promoting attractiveness, or altering the appearance without affecting the body's structure or functions. Included in this definition are products such as skin creams, lotions, perfumes, lipsticks, fingernail polishes, eye and facial make-up preparations, shampoos, permanent waves, hair colors, toothpastes, deodorants, and any material intended for use as a component of a cosmetic product. The Food & Drug Administration has a limited ability to regulate personal care products.

Dietary supplements must follow labeling guidelines outlined by the FDA. Neither dietary supplements nor personal care products require FDA or other government approval or notification to market in the United States.

Under the Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act of 1994, companies that manufacture and distribute dietary supplements are limited in the statements that they are permitted to make about nutritional support on the product label without FDA approval. In addition, a manufacturer of a dietary supplement must have substantiation for any such statement made and must not claim to diagnose, mitigate, treat, cure or prevent a specific disease or class of disease. The product label must also contain a prominent disclaimer. These restrictions may restrict EYI's flexibility in marketing its products.

EYI believes that all of its existing and proposed products are dietary supplements or personal care products that do not require governmental approvals to market in the United States. EYI key products are classified as follows:

Dietary Supplements

Calorad

Agrisept-L

Oxy-Up

Triomin

Noni Plus

Iso-Greens

Definition (drops)

Essential Omega

Personal Care Products

Quantum

Definition (cream)

The processing, formulation, packaging, labeling and advertising of such products, however, are subject to regulation by one or more federal agencies, including the FDA, the Federal Trade Commission, the Consumer Products Safety Commission, the Department of Agriculture and the Environmental Protection Agency. EYI's activities also are subject to regulation by various agencies of the states and localities in which EYI products are sold. Among other things, such regulation puts a burden on EYI's ability to bring products to market. Any changes in the current regulatory environment could impose requirements that would make bringing new products to market more expensive or restrict the ways EYI can market its products.

No governmental agency or other third party makes a determination as to whether EYI products qualify as dietary supplements, personal care products or neither. EYI makes this determination based on the ingredients contained in the products and the claims EYI makes for the products.

If the Federal Trade Commission or certain states object to EYI product claims and advertising, EYI may be forced to give refunds, pay damages, stop marketing certain products or change EYI business methods. The Federal Trade Commission and certain states regulate advertising, product claims, and other consumer matters, including advertising of EYI products. In the past several years the Federal Trade Commission has instituted enforcement actions against several dietary supplement companies for false or deceptive advertising of certain products. EYI provides no assurance that the Federal Trade Commission will not question EYI's past or future advertising or other operations; or a state will not interpret product claims presumptively valid under federal law as illegal under that state's regulations.

Also, IBAs and their customers may file actions on their own behalf, as a class or otherwise, and may file complaints with the Federal Trade Commission or state or local consumer affairs offices. These agencies may take action on their own initiative or on a referral from IBAs, consumers or others. If taken, such actions may result in entries of consent decrees, refunds of amounts paid by the complaining IBA or consumer, refunds to an entire class of IBAs or customers, or other damages, and changes in EYI's method of doing business.

A complaint based on the activities of one IBA, whether or not such activities were authorized by EYI, could result in an order affecting some or all IBAs in a particular state, and an order in one state could influence courts or government agencies in other states. Proceedings resulting from these complaints may result in significant defense costs, settlement payments or judgments and could have a material adverse effect on EYI.

If EYI's network marketing program is shown to violate federal or state regulations, EYI may be unable to market its products. EYI's network marketing program is subject to a number of federal and state laws and regulations administered by the Federal Trade Commission and various state agencies. These laws and regulations include securities, franchise investment, business opportunity and criminal laws prohibiting the use of "pyramid" or "endless chain" types of selling organizations. These regulations are generally directed at ensuring that product sales are ultimately made to consumers (as opposed to other IBAs) and that advancement within the network-marketing program is based on sales of products, rather than investment in the company or other non-retail sales related criteria.

The compensation structure of a network marketing organization is very complex. Compliance with all of the applicable regulations and laws is uncertain because of the evolving interpretations of existing laws and regulations and the enactment of new laws and regulations pertaining in general to network marketing organizations and product distribution.

EYI has not obtained any no-action letters or advance rulings from any federal or state securities regulator or other governmental agency concerning the legality of its operations. Also, EYI is not relying on a formal opinion of counsel to such effect. Accordingly there is the risk that EYI's network marketing system could be found to be in noncompliance with applicable laws and regulations, which could have a material adverse effect on EYI. Such a decision could require modification of EYI's network marketing program, result in negative publicity, or have a negative effect on IBA morale and loyalty.

In addition, EYI's network marketing system will be subject to regulations in foreign markets administered by foreign agencies in the event that EYI expands its network marketing organization into such markets.

The legality of EYI's network marketing program is subject to challenge by its IBAs. EYI is subject to the risk of challenges to the legality of its network marketing organization by its IBAs, both individually and as a class.

Generally, such challenges would be based on claims that EYI's network marketing program was operated as an illegal "pyramid scheme" in violation of federal securities laws, state unfair practice and fraud laws and the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act. An illegal pyramid scheme is generally a marketing scheme that promotes "inventory loading" and does not encourage retail sales of the products and services to ultimate consumers. Inventory loading occurs when distributors purchase large quantities of non-returnable inventory to obtain the full amount of compensation available under the network marketing program. In the event of challenges to the legality of EYI's network marketing organization by its IBAs, there is no assurance that EYI will be able to demonstrate that its network marketing policies were enforced and the network marketing program and IBAs' compensation thereunder serve as safeguards to deter inventory loading and encourage retail sales to the ultimate consumers.

Proceedings resulting from these claims could result in significant defense costs, settlement payments or judgments, and could have a material adverse effect on EYI. One of EYI's competitors, Nutrition for Life International, Inc., a multi-level seller of personal care and nutritional supplements, announced in 1999 that it had settled class action litigation brought by distributors alleging fraud in connection with the operation of a pyramid scheme. Nutrition for Life International agreed to pay in excess of $3 million to settle claims brought on behalf of its distributors and certain purchasers of its stock.

EYI believes that its marketing program is significantly different from the program allegedly promoted by Nutrition for Life International and that its marketing program is not in violation of anti-pyramid laws or regulations.

However, there can be no assurance that claims similar to the claims brought against Nutrition for Life International and other multi-level marketing organizations will not be made against EYI, or that EYI would prevail in the event any such claims were made. Furthermore, even if EYI were successful in defending against any such claims, the costs of conducting such a defense, both in dollars spent and in management time, could be material and adversely affect EYI's operating results and financial condition. In addition, the negative publicity of such a suit could adversely affect EYI's sales and ability to attract and retain IBAs.

A large portion of EYI's sales is attributable to Calorad. A significant portion of EYI's net sales is expected to be dependent upon EYI's Calorad product. Calorad has traditionally represented more than 90% of EYI's net sales and, although EYI hopes to expand and diversify its product offerings, Calorad is expected to provide a large portion of EYI's net sales in the foreseeable future. If Calorad loses market share or loses favor in the marketplace, EYI's financial results will suffer.

EYI products are subject to obsolescence. The introduction by EYI or EYI competitors of new dietary supplement or personal care products offering increased functionality or enhanced results may render EYI's existing products obsolete and unmarketable. Therefore, EYI's ability to successfully introduce new products into the market on a timely basis and achieve acceptable levels of sales has and will continue to be a significant factor in its ability to grow and remain competitive and profitable. In addition, the nature and mix of EYI products are important factors in attracting and maintaining EYI's network of IBAs, which consequently affects demand for EYI products. Although

EYI seeks to introduce additional products, the success of new products is subject to a number of conditions, including customer acceptance. There can be no assurance that

EYI's efforts to develop innovative new products will be successful, customers will accept new products or that EYI will obtain required regulatory approvals of such new products.

In addition, no assurance can be given that new products currently experiencing strong popularity will maintain their sales over time. In the event EYI is unable to successfully increase the product mix and maintain competitive product replacements or enhancements in a timely manner in response to the introduction of new products, competitive or otherwise, EYI's sales and earnings will be materially and adversely affected.

EYI has no manufacturing capabilities and EYI is dependent upon Nutri-Diem, Inc. and other companies to manufacture EYI products. EYI has no manufacturing facilities and has no present intention to manufacture any of its dietary supplement and personal care products. EYI is dependent upon relationships with independent manufacturers to fulfill its product needs. Nutri-Diem, Inc., a related party, manufactures and supplies more than 90% of EYI products. EYI has contracts with Nutri-Diem that require EYI to purchase set amounts of its manufactured products for at least the next four years and possibly the next nine years. It is possible that these contracts with Nutri-Diem, Inc. could become unfavorable, and EYI may not be able to use other manufacturers to provide it with these services if EYI's terms with Nutri-Diem, Inc. become unfavorable. In addition, EYI must be able to obtain its dietary supplement and personal care products at a cost that permits EYI to charge a price acceptable to the customer, while also accommodating distribution costs and third party sales compensation. Competitors who do own their own manufacturing may have an advantage over EYI with respect to pricing, availability of product and in other areas through their control of the manufacturing process.

EYI may not be able to deliver various products to its customers if third party providers fail to provide necessary ingredients to EYI. EYI is dependent on various third parties for various ingredients for EYI products. Some of the third parties that provide ingredients to EYI have a limited operating history and are themselves dependent on reliable delivery of products from others. As a result, EYI's ability to deliver various products to EYI users may be adversely affected by the failure of these third parties to provide reliable various ingredients for EYI products.

EYI is materially dependent upon EYI's key personnel and the loss of such key personnel could result in delays in the implementation of EYI's business plan or business failure. EYI depends upon the continued involvement of Jay Sargeant, EYI's President and Director, Barry LaRose, EYI's Secretary and Director, and Dori O'Neill, EYI's Executive Vice President, Chief Operations Officer and Director. As EYI is a developing company, the further implementation of its business plan is dependent on the entrepreneurial skills and direction of management. Mr. Sargeant, Mr. LaRose and Mr. O'Neill guide and direct EYI's activity and vision. This direction requires an awareness of the market, the competition, current and future markets and technologies that would allow EYI to continue its operations. The loss or lack of availability of these individuals could materially adversely affect EYI's business and operations. EYI does not carry "key person" life insurance for these officers and directors, and we would be adversely affected by the loss of these three key employees.

EYI faces substantial competition in the dietary supplement and personal care industry, including products that compete directly with Calorad. The dietary supplement and personal care industry is highly competitive. It is relatively easy for new companies to enter the industry due to the availability of numerous contract manufacturers, a ready availability of natural ingredients and a relatively relaxed regulatory environment. Numerous companies compete with EYI in the development, manufacture and marketing of supplements as their sole or principal business. Generally, these companies are well funded and sophisticated in their marketing approaches.

Depending on the product category, EYI's competition varies. Calorad competes directly with Body Solutions, a product with different ingredients but a similar concept. Additionally, Calorad competes indirectly with food plans such as Weight Watchers and meal replacement products such as Slim Fast. EYI's Noni Plus product competes with Morinda and others. EYI's other products have similar well-funded and sophisticated competitors. Increased competitive activity from such companies could make it more difficult for EYI to increase or keep market share, since such companies have greater financial and other resources available to them and possess far more extensive manufacturing, distribution and marketing capabilities.

EYI may be subject to products liability claims and may not have adequate insurance to cover such claims. As with other retailers, distributors and manufacturers of products that are designed to be ingested, EYI faces an inherent risk of exposure to product liability claims in the event that the use of EYI products results in injury. With respect to product liability claims, EYI has coverage of $5,000,000 per occurrence and $5,000,000 in the aggregate. Because EYI policies are purchased on a year-to-year basis, industry conditions or EYI's own claims experience could make it difficult for EYI to secure the necessary insurance at a reasonable cost. In addition, EYI may not be able to secure insurance that will be adequate to cover liabilities. EYI generally does not obtain contractual indemnification from parties supplying raw materials or marketing EYI products. In any event, any such indemnification is limited by its terms and, as a practical matter, to the creditworthiness of the other party. In the event that EYI does not have adequate insurance or contractual indemnification, liabilities relating to defective products could require EYI to pay the injured parties' damages which are significant compared to EYI's net worth or revenues.

EYI may be adversely affected by unfavorable publicity relating to EYI product or similar products manufactured by its competitors. EYI believes that the dietary supplement products market is affected by national media attention regarding the consumption of these products. Future scientific research or publicity may be unfavorable to the dietary supplement products market generally or to any particular product and may be inconsistent with earlier favorable research or publicity. Adverse publicity associated with illness or other adverse effects resulting from the consumption of products distributed by other companies, which are similar to EYI products, could reduce consumer demand for EYI products and consequently EYI's revenues. This may occur even if the publicity did not relate to EYI products. Adverse publicity directly concerning EYI products could be expected to have an immediate negative effect on the market for that product.

Because EYI has few proprietary rights, others can provide products and services substantially equivalent to EYI's. EYI holds no patents. EYI believes that most of the technology used by it in the design and implementation of EYI products may be known and available to others. Consequently, others may be able to formulate products equivalent to EYI's. EYI relies on confidentiality agreements and trade secret laws to protect its confidential information. In addition, EYI restricts access to confidential information on a "need to know" basis. However, there can be no assurance that EYI will be able to maintain the confidentiality of its proprietary information. If EYI's pending trademark or other proprietary rights are violated, or if a third party claims that EYI violated its trademark or other proprietary rights, EYI may be required to engage in litigation. Proprietary rights litigation tends to be costly and time consuming. Bringing or defending claims related to EYI proprietary rights may require EYI to redirect its human and monetary resources to address those claims.

SHARE EXCHANGE AGREEMENT

THIS SHARE EXCHANGE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is dated as of November 4, 2003, by and among SAFE ID CORPORATION, a Nevada corporation ("Safe ID"), ESSENTIALLY YOURS INDUSTRIES, INC., a Nevada corporation ("EYI"), the undersigned directors of Safe ID, and Jay Sargeant.

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, Safe ID and EYI desire to complete a share exchange transaction pursuant to which Safe ID will issue shares of voting stock of Safe ID in exchange for the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of EYI, par value $0.001 per share (the "EYI Common Stock") held by those shareholders of EYI who execute an Investment

Letter, which will contain customary representations, warranties and covenants regarding their ownership of their shares and compliance with federal and state securities laws (the "Investment Letter"), and deliver their shares to Safe ID for exchange (such shareholders, the "Shareholders");

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Safe ID and the Board of Directors of EYI have each approved the proposed transaction, contingent upon satisfaction prior to closing of all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with completion of the proposed share exchange transaction.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, which shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement, and the covenants, conditions, representations and warranties hereinafter set forth, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE EXCHANGE

1.1 The Exchange. At the Closing (as hereinafter defined), Safe ID shall acquire the shares of issued and outstanding common stock of EYI held by the Shareholders, free and clear of all liens, charges or encumbrances, in exchange for shares of common stock of Safe ID (the "Exchange Shares") as provided for in Section 1.3 hereof. The Exchange shall take place upon the terms and conditions provided for in this Agreement and applicable state law. For Federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Exchange shall constitute a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

1.2 Closing and Closing Date. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the parties shall hold a closing (the "Closing") on (i) the first business day on which the last of the conditions set forth in Article V to be fulfilled prior to the Closing is fulfilled or waived or (ii) such other date as the parties hereto may agree (the "Closing Date"), at such time and place as the parties hereto may agree.

1.3 Exchange of Shares; Stock Certificates.

(a) Conversion. On the Closing Date, each share of EYI Common Stock surrendered to Safe ID by a Shareholder will be converted into approximately 7.67535 Exchange Shares; provided that, if Safe ID issues more than 3,928,571 shares of EYI Common Stock in the Private Placement (as defined in Section 3.1(c)), then the number of Exchange Shares into which each share of EYI Common Stock will be converted will be increased accordingly. No fractional shares of Safe ID Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Exchange. In lieu of such fractional shares, any Shareholder who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Safe ID Common Stock (after separately aggregating all fractional shares of stock issuable to such holder) shall be issued one (1) whole share of Safe ID Common Stock.

(b) Exchange of Certificates. On and after the Closing Date, each Shareholder shall be entitled to receive in exchange for the outstanding shares of EYI Common Stock held by such Shareholder, upon surrender thereof to Safe ID or its exchange agent, a certificate or certificates representing the number of whole Exchange Shares into which such Shareholder's shares(s) of EYI Common Stock were converted pursuant to Section 1.3(a). If, after the Closing Date, certificates for EYI Common Stock are presented to Safe ID, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for Exchange Shares as provided herein.

(i) Safe ID has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and, subject to approval by the Safe ID shareholders pursuant to Section 4.4 hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by the Board of Directors of Safe ID. Except for the approval of the shareholders of Safe ID, no other corporate or shareholder proceedings on the part of Safe ID are necessary to authorize the Exchange or the other transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Safe ID and, assuming the due execution by the other parties hereto, constitutes a legal, valid and binding agreement of Safe ID, enforceable against Safe ID in accordance with its terms, except as its enforceability may be limited by general principles of equity or by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium or other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally.

(ii) The Board of Directors of Safe ID (at a meeting or meetings duly called and held prior to the date hereof) has (i) determined that the Exchange is advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the shareholders of Safe ID and (ii) resolved to recommend approval of the Charter Amendment (as defined in Section 4.4(a) hereof) by the shareholders of Safe ID.

(e) Conflict with Other Agreements; Approvals. (f) Books and Records. Safe ID has made and will make available for inspection by EYI upon reasonable request all the books of Safe ID relating to the business of Safe ID. Such books of Safe ID have been maintained in the ordinary course of business. All documents furnished or caused to be furnished to EYI by Safe ID are true and correct copies, and there are no amendments or modifications thereto except as set forth in such documents.

The Safe ID Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP") applied on a consistent basis through the periods involved, and the Safe ID Financial Statements and notes fairly present the financial condition and the results of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flow of Safe ID as at the respective dates of and for the periods referred to in such financial statements, except that any unaudited interim financial statements were or are subject to normal and recurring year-end adjustments which have not been and are not likely to be materially adverse to Safe ID. No financial statements of any person or entity are required by GAAP to be included in the consolidated financial statements of Safe ID.

(j) Litigation. There is no suit, action or proceeding pending, or, to the knowledge of Safe ID, threatened against or affecting Safe ID which is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Safe ID, nor is there any judgment, decree, injunction, rule or order of any Governmental Entity or arbitrator outstanding against Safe ID having, or which, insofar as reasonably can be foreseen, in the future could have, any such effect.

Safe ID has filed or will file within the time prescribed by law (including extension of time approved by the appropriate taxing authority) all tax returns and reports required to be filed with any jurisdiction where such filing is required by law, and all such returns are true, accurate and complete in all material respects. Safe ID has paid all taxes, interest, penalties, assessments or deficiencies that were due and payable except for those for which an adequate reserve has been provided in accordance with GAAP. Safe ID has made adequate provisions in the Safe ID Financial Statements in accordance with GAAP appropriately and consistently applied for the payment of all material taxes, interest, penalties, assessments or deficiencies for which Safe ID may be liable for the periods covered thereby that were not yet due and payable as of the dates thereof. Safe ID has provided to EYI copies of its tax returns filed for the tax years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001.

(l) No Undisclosed Liabilities. Except as set forth in the Safe ID Financial Statements, Safe ID has no material liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent, or otherwise) except current liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business since the respective dates thereof, all of which shall be paid in full on the Closing Date.

Exhibit D - Financial Statements of Essentially Your Industries, Inc.

Board of Directors and Stockholders

Essentially Yours Industries, Inc.

Vancouver, British Columbia Canada

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Essentially Yours Industries, Inc., formerly Burrard Capital, Inc. (a Nevada corporation) as of June 30, 2003 and 2002, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended June 30, 2003 and for the period from inception (June 21, 2002) to June 30, 2002. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Essentially Yours Industries, Inc. as of June 30, 2003 and the results of its operations, stockholders equity and its cash flows for the year ended June 30, 2003 and for the period from inception (June 21, 2002) to June 30, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company has an accumulated deficit and a negative working capital position which raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans concerning these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

SFAS No. 150 establishes standards for classifying and measuring certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity and requires that those instruments be classified as liabilities in statements of financial position. Previously, many of those instruments were classified as equity. SFAS No. 150 is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003 and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company has not yet determined the impact of the adoption of the statement.

In April 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 149, "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities: (hereinafter "SFAS No. 149"). SFAS No. 149 amends and clarifies the accounting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities under SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". This statement is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003 and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. The adoption of SFAS No. 149 is not expected to have an impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Company.

In December 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 148 (hereinafter "SFAS No. 148") on "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation--Transition and Disclosure." This statement provides alternative methods of transition for companies that choose to switch to the fair value method of accounting for stock options. SFAS No. 148 also makes changes in the disclosure requirements for stock-based compensation, regardless of which method of accounting is chosen. Under the new standard, companies must report certain types of information more prominently and in a more understandable format in the footnotes to the financial statements, and this information must be included in interim as well as annual financial statements. At the present time, the Company does not have any stock based compensation and therefore there are no disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 148 in these financial statements.

In October 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 147 (hereinafter "SFAS No. 147") on "Acquisitions of Certain Financial Institutions." This statement provides guidance on the accounting for the acquisition of a financial institution. The Company's adoption of this standard does not have an effect on its financial statements.

In June 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities" ("SFAS No. 146"). SFAS No. 146 addresses significant issues regarding the recognition, measurement, and reporting of costs associated with exit and disposal activities, including restructuring activities. SFAS No. 146 also addresses recognition of certain costs related to terminating a contract that is not a capital lease, costs to consolidate facilities or relocate employees, and termination benefits provided to employees that are involuntarily terminated under the terms of a one-time benefit arrangement that is not an ongoing benefit arrangement or an individual deferred-compensation contract. There is no impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations from adopting SFAS No. 146.

Accounts Receivable and Bad Debts

The Company estimates bad debts utilizing the allowance method, based upon past experience and current market conditions. At June 30, 2003, the Company determined that no allowance was required, as most sales are done via credit card or electronic transfer and therefore are considered immediately collectible.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments and short-term debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash includes deposits held in a reserve account in the amount of $223,682 at June 30, 2003. Such deposits are required by the bank as protection against unfunded charge backs and returns of credit card transactions.

Compensated Absences

Employees of the Company are entitled to paid vacation, and sick days, depending on job classification, length of service, and other factors. The Company accrues vacation pay throughout the year. The amounts accrued are included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities at June 30, 2003.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales consist of the purchase price of products sold, commissions, inbound shipping charges, net of freight recovered from customers, and packaging supplies.

Derivative Instruments

The Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" (hereinafter "SFAS No. 133"), as amended by SFAS No. 137, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities - Deferral of the Effective Date of FASB No. 133", and SFAS No. 138, "Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments and Certain Hedging Activities", and SFAS No. 149, "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". These statements establish accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities. They require that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet and measure those instruments at fair value.

If certain conditions are met, a derivative may be specifically designated as a hedge, the objective of which is to match the timing of gain or loss recognition on the hedging derivative with the recognition of (i) the changes in the fair value of the hedged asset or liability that are attributable to the hedged risk or (ii) the earnings effect of the hedged forecasted transaction. For a derivative not designated as a hedging instrument, the gain or loss is recognized in income in the period of change.

At June 30, 2003, the Company has not engaged in any transactions that would be considered derivative instruments or hedging activities.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments as defined by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments," include cash, trade accounts receivable, and accounts payable and accrued expenses. All instruments are accounted for on a historical cost basis, which, due to the short maturity of these financial instruments, approximates fair value at June 30, 2003.

Earnings Per Share

The Company has adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, which provides for calculation of "Basic" and "Diluted" earnings per share. Basic earnings per share includes no dilution and is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution of securities that could share in the earnings of an entity similar to fully diluted earnings per share. Basic and diluted loss per share were the same, as there were no common stock equivalents outstanding.

Foreign Currency Translation Gains/Losses

The Company has adopted Financial Accounting Standard No. 52. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into United States dollars at rates of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date. Gains or losses are included in income for the year, except gains or losses relating to long-term debt which are deferred and amortized over the remaining term of the debt. Non-monetary assets, liabilities and items recorded in income arising from transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated at rates of exchange in effect at the date of the transaction. As of June 30, 2003, an aggregate loss of $16,697 has been recognized in the income statement.

Foreign Currency Valuation and Risk Exposure

While the Company's functional currency is the U.S. dollar and the majority of its operations are in the United States, the Company maintains its main office in Vancouver, British Columbia. The assets and liabilities relating to the Canadian operations are exposed to exchange rate fluctuations. Assets and liabilities of the Company's foreign operations are translated into U.S. dollars at the year-end exchange rates, and revenue and expenses are translated at the average exchange rate during the period. The net effect of exchange difference arising from currency translation is disclosed as a separate component of stockholders' equity. Realized gains and losses from foreign currency transactions are reflected in the results of operations.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". This statement requires the recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the future consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's consolidated financial statement or tax returns. Measurement of the deferred items is based on enacted tax laws. In the event the future consequences of differences between financial reporting bases and tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities results in a deferred tax asset, SFAS No. 109 requires an evaluation of the probability of being able to realize the future benefits indicated by such an asset. A valuation allowance related to a deferred tax asset is recorded when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized. See Note 9.

Inventories

The Company states inventories at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out basis. As part of an agreement with EYI Corp., the Company agreed to sell EYI Corp.'s existing inventory as of June 30, 2002. See Note 3.

Long-lived Assets

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This standard establishes a single accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, including discontinued operations, and requires that these long-lived assets be measured at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell, whether reported in continuing operations or discontinued operations. Accordingly, the Company reviews the carrying amount of long-lived assets for impairment where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The determination of any impairment would include a comparison of estimated future cash flows anticipated to be generated during the remaining life of the assets to the net carrying value of the assets. For the year ended June 30, 2003, no impairments have been identified.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation of property and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from three to seven years. See Note 5.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant transactions and balances among the companies included in the consolidated financial statements have been eliminated.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from product sales upon shipment to independent distributors, the Company's customers. Revenue from administration fees is recognized upon collection from independent distributors.

Advertising Expenses

Advertising expenses consist primarily of costs incurred in the design, development, and printing of Company literature and marketing materials. The Company expenses all advertising expenditures as incurred. The Company's advertising expenses were $75,135 and $0-, for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Use of Estimates

The process of preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the use of estimates and assumptions regarding certain types of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses. Such estimates primarily relate to unsettled transactions and events as of the date of the financial statements. Accordingly, upon settlement, actual results may differ from estimated amounts.

Segment Information

The Company adopted SFAS No. 131, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information." SFAS No. 131 supersedes SFAS No. 14, "Financial Reporting for Segments of a Business Enterprise," replacing the "industry segment" approach with the "management" approach. The management approach designates the internal organization that is used by management for making operating decisions and assessing performance as the source of the Company's reportable segments. SFAS No. 131 also requires disclosures about products and services, geographic areas and major customers. The adoption of SFAS No. 131 did not affect the Company's results of operations or financial position. See Note 13.

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern. The use of such principles may not be appropriate because, as of June 30, 2003, there was substantial doubt that the Company will be able to continue as a going concern.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company had an accumulated deficit of $1,681,175 and negative working capital of $809,364. The viability of the Company is dependent upon future profitable operations, and its ability to obtain sufficient financing to implement its business plan. The Company anticipates it will need approximately $900,000 in order to maintain operations at the current level for the next twelve months. The sources of the required funds will be from operations and a proposed merger. See Note 15.

Management is confident that the Company will be able to secure the necessary financing to enable it to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets, or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary in the event the Company cannot continue in existence.

NOTE 3 - REORGANIZATION

On May 27, 2002, Mr. Jay Sargeant, a shareholder of Essentially Yours Industries, Corp. ("EYI Corp.") agreed to acquire all of the shares of the Company, along with the transfer agreement, license agreement, and agency appointment agreement as described below, in settlement of amounts owed to him. As part of this transaction, EYI Corp. agreed to provide to the Company the services outlined in a management agreement. These agreements became effective on June 30, 2002. Essentially Yours Industries, Inc. ("EYII") owns ninety-nine percent of Halo Distributions LLC ("HALO"). The other one percent of HALO is owned by RGM International, Inc. ("RGM") another subsidiary of EYI Corp., which was transferred to Mr. Sargeant as additional consideration.

On June 30, 2002, The shareholder of EYI Inc. exchanged all of the outstanding shares for 12,000,000 common shares of Burrard Capital Inc ("Burrard"). Concurrent with this transaction, EYII was merged into Burrard with Burrard emerging as the surviving entity. The combined entity was renamed Essentially Yours Industries, Inc. For accounting purposes, the acquisition has been treated as a recapitalization of EYII with EYII as the acquirer. Prior to this merger, EYII and RGM were considered to be dormant companies, with the activities of HALO being consolidated directly with EYII Corp. although the legal ownership was vested in EYII and RGM. Therefore, the losses from HALO operations and the other economic impacts prior to June 30, 2002 are considered to be the separate activity of EYI Corp.

On June 30, 2002, EYII took over the sales and marketing activities of its former holding company and entered into various agreements with that Company as follows:

Transfer Agreement

As part of the aforementioned transaction and for consideration of $1, EYI Corp. transferred and assigned to EYII all of its rights, title and interest in and to the contracts with its independent business associates and any other contracts that may be identified by the parties as being inherent or necessary to the sales and marketing activities to EYII.

License Agreement

EYI Corp. licensed to EYII all of the rights, title, and interest that it may have in various intellectual properties for $1 per year for a term of 50 years. The Company will have the option at any time to require EYI Corp. to transfer all of its rights, title, interest in and to the intellectual properties to the Company at the sum of $1 or such greater sum as may be determined to be the fair market value of such intellectual property as determined by agreement between the parties, by arbitration or by the appropriate taxation authorities after all assessments and appeals have been concluded.

Agency Appointment Agreement

EYI Corp. appointed EYII as the sole and exclusive agent to sell its remaining inventory on hand as of June 30, 2002 at the prices previously established, and to continue to sell at such price unless and until any change is agreed upon with EYI Corp. In consideration for its efforts, the Company will be entitled to a sales commission of fifteen percent on all sales of such inventory.

Management Agreement

EYI Corp. agreed to perform various services such as administration, computer support, and sales and customer support, on behalf of the Company for a term of one year commencing July 1, 2002. The services and duties to be provided and performed by EYI Corp. for the Company shall be determined and agreed upon by the parties, from time to time, as required, provided however, it is understood and agreed that such services will primarily consist of assisting the Company in the sales and marketing business. At the date of these financial statements, the agreement had expired, and the Company was operating on a month-to-month basis for management services with EYI Corp.

The remuneration to be paid by the Company to EYI Corp. for the aforementioned services is to be negotiated by the parties from time to time, provided however, the parties agree that the remuneration to be paid shall be consistent with industry standards for the type and nature of the services or duties being provided. At the present time, the Company has agreed to pay EYI Corp. expenses plus a fee of 5% on these expenses.

NOTE 4 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE AND CREDIT RISK

Accounts receivable at June 30, 2003 consist primarily of amounts due from third parties for distribution services provided by Halo.

NOTE 5 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Capital assets are recorded at cost. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over five to seven years. The Company's property and equipment as of June 30, 2002, consisted of the property of HALO transferred through the shareholder and merger agreements. The accumulated depreciation on the equipment transferred represents depreciation expenses allocated to EYI Corp. under the previous operating structure.

The following is a summary of property, equipment and accumulated depreciation at June 30, 2003 and 2002:

	June 30, 2003		June 30, 2002
	Cost	Accumulated Depreciation	Cost	Accumulated Depreciation
Warehouse equipment	$ 223,927	$ 159,359	$ 223,927	$ 125,293
Furniture and fixtures	18,527	14,074	17,937	9,943
Computer equipment	95,527	22,756	13,972	9,588

Depreciation expense for the periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2002 was $50,888 and $0, respectively.

NOTE 6 - INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Intangible assets consist of rights, title, and interest in and to the contracts with the Company's independent business associates as well as the rights and licenses to trademarks and formula for the Company's primary products. These rights and licenses were obtained from its former holding Company pursuant to a transfer agreement, as well as from the Company's primary shareholder. See Notes 3 and 8.

Trademarks and Formulas

Costs relating to the purchase of trademarks and formulas were capitalized and amortized using the straight-line method over ten years, representing the estimated life of the assets.

The following is a summary of the intangible assets at June 30, 2003:

	Cost	Accumulated Amortization	Net Amount
Balance, June 30, 2002	$ 1	$ -	$ 1
Activity during the year	21,600	(1,800)	19,800
Balance, June 30, 2003	$ 21,601	$ (1,800)	$ 19,801

NOTE 7 - BANK INDEBTEDNESS

Bank indebtedness consists of checks written in excess of funds on deposit. The underlying bank is used as an imprest account with automatic transfers from the Company's general account as checks are presented.

NOTE 8 - CAPITAL STOCK

Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock with a par value of $0.001. As of June 30, 2003, the Company has not issued any preferred stock.

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 70,000,000 shares of common stock with a par value of $0.001. All shares have equal voting rights, are non-assessable and have one vote per share. Voting rights are not cumulative and, therefore, the holders of more than 50% of the common stock could, if they choose to do so, elect all of the directors of the Company.

In its initial capitalization in June 2002, the Company issued 3,000,000 shares of common stock at $0.01 per share for a total of $30,000 cash.

Pursuant to the merger agreement as discussed in Note 3, an additional 12,000,000 shares of common stock were issued to the shareholder of Essentially Yours Industries, Inc. ("EYI Inc."). The transaction was valued at $38,507, or approximately $0.003 per share, representing EYI Inc.'s basis in the assets, liabilities and subsidiaries that it contributed to Burrard Capital, Inc. At the completion of the merger, the Company changed its name from Burrard Capital, Inc. to Essentially Yours Industries, Inc.

During the year ended June 30, 2003, the Company sold, under a private placement offering, 703,552 shares of common stock at $1.50 per share for a total of $994,122 in cash, net of private placement costs of $61,206.

NOTE 9 - INCOME TAXES

At June 30, 2003, the Company had net deferred tax assets of approximately $527,000, principally arising from net operating loss carryforwards for income tax purposes at an average rate of 34%. As management of the Company cannot determine that it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefit of the net deferred tax asset, a valuation allowance equal to the net deferred tax asset has been established.

At June 30, 2003, the Company's net operating loss carryforwards amount to approximately $1,550,000, which expire in the years 2022 through 2023.

The Company's subsidiaries in Canada are required to file income tax returns in British Columbia, Canada. The losses from operations are allocated to both United States and Canadian operations.

NOTE 10 - COMMITMENTS

Purchase Agreement

On June 30, 2002, the Company entered into a distribution and license agreement with a company in which one of the Company's directors has an ownership interest. The agreement gives the Company the exclusive right to market, sell and distribute certain products for a five-year renewable term. Management estimates that 90% of the Company's sale volume results from products supplied under this licensing agreement.

Pursuant to the agreement, the Company is required to purchase the following amounts of product during the term of the agreement:

June 1, 2003 - May 31, 2004	$	7,000,000
June 1, 2004 - May 31, 2005		20,000,000
June 1, 2005 - May 31, 2006		50,000,000
June 1, 2006 - May 31, 2007		50,000,000

In the event that the Company is unavailable to meet the minimum purchase requirements of the licensing agreement or the terms requiring it to pay 15% of the difference between the minimum purchase amount referred to above and actual purchases for that year in which there is a shortfall, then the licensor has various remedies available to it including, renegotiating the agreement, removing exclusivity rights, or terminating the agreement. As of the date of these financial statements, the licensor has not made any additional demands of the Company.

Lease Payments

The Company has operating lease commitments for its premises, office equipment and an automobile. The minimum annual lease commitments are as follows:

Year Ending June 30,		Minimum
2004	$	304,000

2005	252,000
2006	5,000
2007	5,000
2008	5,000

NOTE 11 - CONTINGENCIESAgency Appointment Agreement

As described in Note 3, the Company effectively acquired from EYI Corp. the various rights needed to continue the sales and marketing activity of EYI Corp. Both the transfer agreement and intellectual property license agreement were not negotiated between parties on an arms length bases. The agreements contain clauses that call for fair market value price adjustments payable to EYII Corp. should either of the parties by agreement, arbitration, tax assessment or through a third party action determine the consideration be less than fair market value. The value of the property transferred was based upon an outside professional valuation report and resulted in a reduction of accumulated dividends owed to Mr. Sargeant by EYI Corp. of $360,000, which became his basis in his stock in EYI Inc. The assets transferred by EYI Corp. to EYI Inc. were transferred based upon their original cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Other matters

The Company's predecessor organization, Essentially Yours Industries, Corp. (EYIC), a British Columbia corporation, has outstanding claims from the Internal Revenue Service for penalties and interest of approximately $2,000,000. Furthermore, one or more states may have claims for unpaid taxes. Management believes that these claims are limited to EYIC and any claims against the Company are probably remote but currently unable to be estimated.

NOTE 12 - CONCENTRATIONSBank Accounts

The Company maintains its cash accounts in a single commercial bank. During the year, the Company may maintain balances in excess of the federally insured amounts in the accounts that are maintained in the United States. The Company also maintains funds in commercial banks in Vancouver, British Columbia, in which funds in U.S. dollars are not insured. At June 30, 2003, a total of $5,000 was not insured.

Foreign Operations

The accompanying balance sheet includes approximately $629,000 relating to the Company's operations in Canada. Although the country is considered politically and economically stable, it is always possible that unanticipated events in foreign countries could disrupt the Company's operations.

Economic Dependence

During the year, the Company purchased approximately 90% of its products for resale from one company, Nutri-Diem Inc., which is the sole supplier of the Company's flagship product Calorad. Pursuant to a purchase agreement, the Company is subject to minimum purchases per annum. See Note 10.

NOTE 13 - SEGMENT REPORTING

Edgar Filing: SAFE ID CORP - Form PRE 14C

The Company is organized into two reportable segments - EYII and Halo. The two segments have different strategic goals and are managed separately. EYII, the first reportable segment, is a selling and marketing company. The second reportable segment, Halo, derives its revenues as a distribution center.

The accounting policies for the two reportable segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies. The Company allocates resources to and evaluates performance of its operating segments based on operating income.

NOTE 14 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Information related to related party transactions regarding the reorganization can be found in Note 3. Related party information on intangibles is located in Note 6. Related party commitments are located in Note 10.

Accounts payable to related parties represents amounts due to the president and chief executive officer for services performed during the last year. These payables are non-interest bearing and non-collateralized.

During the year, the Company purchased approximately 90% of its products for resale from one company, Nutri-Diem Inc., which is owned in part by a director of the Company. See Note 10 and 12.

NOTE 15 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to the date of these financial statements, the Company has signed a letter of intent regarding a share exchange with a non-operating public company. The final share exchange agreement was signed in November, 2003, and is expected to be closed on December 31, 2003. The Company expects to complete this share exchange as a reverse acquisition where the legal entity will be Safe ID Corporation, a Nevada corporation, and the operating and accounting entity will continue as Essentially Yours Industries, Inc.
