Item 8.01 Other Events

Yasheng Group

On January 20, 2009, Yasheng Eco-Trade Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a Letter of Intent (the “Letter of Intent”) with Yasheng Group, Inc., a California corporation (“Group”) in connection with the development of a logistics centre. Group is an agriculture conglomerate which has subsidiaries located in the Peoples Republic of China. In addition, pursuant to the Letter of Intent, the Company granted Group an irrevocable option to merge all or part of its assets into the Company (the “Yasheng Option”).

In lieu of merging its assets into the Company, the Company and Group entered into an additional Letter of Intent on June 12, 2009 whereby Group agreed to use its best efforts to have the majority stockholders of Group (the “Group Stockholders”) enter and close an agreement with the Company whereby the Company would acquire approximately 55% of the issued and outstanding securities of Group from the Group Stockholders in consideration of 300,000,000 shares of common stock of the Company. The June 12, 2009 letter of intent was approved by the Company’s Board of Directors on August 12, 2009.

The Company and Group initially contemplated a closing date of July 15, 2009. As the execution of a definitive agreement and the closing did not occur by July 15, 2009, all parties are working to close such transaction upon satisfaction of all closing conditions. The closing of the acquisition will require the completion of definitive documentation executed by the Company, the Group Stockholders and Group, and the completion of due diligence. Final closing is subject to approval of the final definitive agreements by the Boards of Directors of the Company and Group. . There is no guarantee that the Group Stockholders will agree to this transaction, that the parties will reach a final agreement or that the transaction will close on the terms set forth above.

Logistics Center

On August 12, 2009, the Company entered into a 45 day exclusivity period to finalize an “Option to Buy” on a lease agreement for a “big box” facility located in Southern, California (the “Facility”). The Facility consists of approximately 1,000,010 square feet industrial building located in Victorville, California and the lease is expected to commence November 1, 2009 and continue for a period of seven years, with two five-year extension periods. The Company will advanced a $25,000 non-refundable deposit representing 10% of the required security deposit for the entire lease. The non-refundable deposit will allow the Company to exclusively negotiate the option to buy the Facility as all other terms of the lease have been agreed upon in principal.

The entering of the lease by the Company is subject to the negotiation of the the option to purchase the facility, drafting of a standard lease agreement, if any, and obtaining board approval of the Company. As such, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to successfully execute acquire such lease.

Assuming that the option to purchase is finalized, the economic terms of the lease agreement of the Facility (as all other terms of the lease have been agreed upon in principal) will be as follows:
