PROSPECTUS

SMF ENERGY CORPORATION
1,373,000 SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

This prospectus relates to the proposed resale by the selling stockholders indentified in this prospectus (each a “Selling Stockholder” and collectively, the “Selling Stockholders”) of 1,373,000 shares of common stock (the “Shares”) of SMF Energy Corporation.

On June 29, 2009, we completed a recapitalization transaction whereby we entered into a series of exchange agreements (the “Exchange Agreements”) with holders of our August 2007 11½% Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Notes (the “Secured Notes”), September 2008 12% Unsecured Convertible Promissory Notes (the “Unsecured Notes”), and Series A, Series B and Series C Convertible Preferred Stock (collectively, the “Preferred Stock”) whereby we restructured substantially all of our debt and equity (the “Recapitalization”). In accordance with the Exchange Agreements, we are registering for resale the restricted shares of common stock issued in the Recapitalization as well as the restricted shares of common stock underlying the Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (the “Series D Preferred”) issued therein. Accordingly, the Shares offered for resale by this prospectus arising from the Recapitalization consist of (i) approximately 997,821 shares of common stock, (ii) approximately 58,479 shares of common stock issued as compensation to placement agents and (iii) approximately 69,444 shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Company’s Series D Preferred.

In addition, on May 5, 2009, we entered into a series of payment in kind agreements (the “Payment in Kind Agreements”) with holders of our Preferred Stock whereby we issued shares of common stock as payment in kind for cash dividends due to the holders. The Shares now offered for resale also include the approximately 246,909 shares of common stock issued pursuant to the Payment in Kind Agreements. All share numbers used in this prospectus have been adjusted to account for the 1 for 4.5 reverse stock split of our common stock, which became effective October 1, 2009, on the Nasdaq Stock Market, and may not reflect a small number of additional shares that may be issued to the Selling Stockholders on account of rounding up shares held in multiple certificates or in multiple securities accounts.

This offering is not being underwritten. The offering price of the Shares that may be sold by the Selling Stockholders may be the market price for our common stock prevailing at the time of sale on the Nasdaq Capital Market, a price related to the prevailing market price, a negotiated price or such other prices as the Selling Stockholders determine from time to time. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the Shares by any of the Selling Stockholders.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol “FUEL.” On November 12, 2009, the closing price of our common stock was $1.54 per share.

The Offering

We are registering 1,373,000 shares of common stock. The Selling Stockholders are offering to sell the Shares pursuant to this prospectus.

The Selling Stockholders received the Shares in connection with the Recapitalization that was completed on June 29, 2009 or the Payment in Kind Agreements entered into on May 5, 2009. The Shares now offered for resale in connection with the Recapitalization include (i) 997,821 shares of common stock, (ii) 58,479 shares of common stock issued as compensation to placement agents and (iii) 69,444 shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Company’s Series D Preferred. Each share of Series D Preferred is convertible into 222 shares of common stock.

The Shares now offered for resale in connection with the Payment in Kind Agreements include 246,909 shares of common stock. We relied on the exemptions from registration provided by Sections 4(2) and 4(6) of the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder in connection with the Recapitalization and the Payment in Kind Agreements.

All share amounts in this prospectus have been adjusted to account for the reverse stock split and have been rounded up to the nearest share.

Use of Proceeds

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the Shares by the Selling Stockholders.

CURRENT EVENTS

On September 30, 2009, we effectuated a 1 for 4.5 reverse split of our common stock, which became effective on the Nasdaq Stock Market on October 1, 2009. As a result of the reverse stock split, our issued and outstanding common stock was reduced from approximately 38,498,544 shares to approximately 8,557,314 shares. The par value of the common stock was not affected by the reverse stock split and remains at $0.01 per share. Consequently, on our balance sheet, the aggregate par value of the issued common stock was reduced by reclassifying the par value amount of the eliminated shares of common stock to Additional Paid-in Capital. No fractional shares were issued in connection with the reverse stock split. If, as a result of the reverse stock split, a stockholder would otherwise have held a fractional share, the number of shares received by such stockholder was rounded up to the next highest number of shares. In addition, our authorized common stock was not changed by the reverse stock split.

SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

The selected financial data set forth below has been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and should be read together with, and is qualified by reference to, SMF's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2009. Specifically, see "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," our audited consolidated financial statements including the notes thereto, and our independent registered public accounting firm's report in such Form 10-K. The selected data in this section is unaudited and only includes the parts of the Selected Financial Data disclosure originally provided in the Form 10-K that was affected by the reverse stock split. It is not intended to replace the Selected Financial Data or the consolidated financial statements included in the Form 10-K, except that the weighted average number of shares of common stock and per share information for all periods has been revised to reflect the reverse stock split.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the following discussion of risks, in addition to the other information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, before purchasing any of the securities. In addition to historical information, the information in this prospectus contains “forward-looking” statements about our future business and performance. See “Forward-Looking Statements.” Our actual operating results and financial performance may be very different from what we expect as of the date of this prospectus. The risks below address the material factors that may affect our future operating results and financial performance.

No Assurance of Future Profitability; Losses from Operations; Need for Capital. We incurred net losses in each of the fiscal years ended June 30, 2009 and 2008. In order to generate profits in the future, we need to reduce interest expense, increase the volume of products and services sold at profitable margins, control costs and generate sufficient cash flow to support our working capital and debt service requirements. There is no assurance that we will be able to avoid net losses in the future or that we will be able to raise additional capital on acceptable terms if our capital needs cannot be satisfied by cash flow from operations. During fiscal 2009, we faced a number of challenges that required us to raise additional capital in the face of a general tightening of the credit markets and various Nasdaq listing requirements. While we responded to those challenges by cutting costs, improving efficiencies, and completing a $40 million Recapitalization that reduced our total debt by $4.5 million, lowered our annual servicing expense for interest and dividends by over $1 million, increased our shareholders’ equity by $4.1 million and reduced our debt to equity ratio from approximately 9 to 1 on June 30, 2008, to 2 to 1 on June 30, 2009, we may still need to obtain new financing or additional capital in the future in order to expand or sustain existing operations. We may also need to raise additional capital to fund new acquisitions or for additional debt repayment. Even though we believe that our new financial strength after the Recapitalization will enable us to obtain needed capital, there can be no assurance that we will do so or that it can be obtained on terms acceptable to us.

No Assurance of Long Term Efficacy of Reverse Stock Split. We completed a 1 for 4.5 reverse stock split of our common stock which became effective on the Nasdaq Stock Market on October 1, 2009. Even though the reverse stock split was successful in reestablishing compliance with Nasdaq’s minimum bid price requirement, the long term efficacy of the reverse stock split in maintaining compliance with Nasdaq’s minimum bid price requirement is uncertain. In addition, while we currently meet the minimum bid price, stockholders’ equity and other requirements needed to maintain our Nasdaq listing, there is no assurance that we will continue to do so, or that the aggregate market value of our common stock will be greater after the reverse stock split than it would have been without ever effecting a reverse stock split.

Volatility of Trading Market for Our Stock. During the past few years, our stock has sometimes traded in large daily volumes and other times at much lower volumes, in many cases at wide price variances. This volatility, which is generally due to factors beyond our control, could make it difficult for shareholders to sell shares at a predictable price. Quarterly and annual operating results, changes in general conditions in the economy, the financial markets or other developments affecting us could also cause the market price of our common stock to fluctuate. The market price of our common stock may be affected by various other factors unrelated to the number of shares outstanding after the reverse stock split, including our future performance and general market conditions.

Acquisition Availability; Integrating Acquisitions. Our future growth strategy involves the acquisition of complementary businesses, such as wholesale fuel or petroleum lubricants marketers and distributors, wholesale fuel and other commercial mobile fueling companies, and transportation logistics services businesses. It is not certain that we will be able to identify or make suitable acquisitions on acceptable terms or that any future acquisitions will be effectively and profitably integrated into our operations. Acquisitions involve numerous risks that could adversely affect our operating results, including timely and cost effective integration of the operations and personnel of the acquired business, potential write downs of acquired assets, retention of key personnel of the acquired business, potential disruption of existing business, maintenance of uniform standards, controls, procedures and policies, additional capital needs, the effect of changes in management on existing business relationships, and profitability and cash flows generally. Our credit facility with our principal lender also requires us to obtain the consent of the principal lender prior to incurring additional debt, or entering into mergers, consolidations or sales of assets.

Growth Dependent upon Future Expansion; Risks Associated with Expansion into New Markets. While we intend to expand more quickly through acquisitions, our growth will also depend upon the ability to achieve greater penetration in existing markets and to successfully enter new markets in both additional major and secondary metropolitan areas. Such organic expansion will largely be dependent on our ability to demonstrate the benefits of our services and products to potential new customers, successfully establish and operate new locations, hire, train and retain qualified management, operating, marketing and sales personnel, finance acquisitions, capital expenditures and working capital requirements, secure reliable sources of product supply on a timely basis and on commercially acceptable credit terms, and successfully manage growth by effectively supervising operations, controlling costs and maintaining appropriate quality controls. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully expand our operations into new markets.

Interest Expense. A substantial portion of our net losses for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2009 and 2008 was attributable to the substantial interest burden borne by the Company, including $2.5 million of interest expense in fiscal 2009 and $3.1 million in fiscal 2008. The majority of this expense was interest accrued on our revolving bank debt and our August 2007 senior subordinated secured debt, the burden of which was substantially reduced by our Recapitalization. We are exposed to fluctuating interest rates associated with our line of credit. If and to the extent that interest rates generally increase or we are otherwise required to bear higher interest rates for our future borrowings, our interest expense could increase, adversely affecting our results of operations and financial condition. Similarly, if we borrow to make one or more acquisitions or to make up for future net losses, the heavier interest burden could have a detrimental effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Need to Maintain Effective Internal Controls. In fiscal 2006, our management identified significant deficiencies related to policies and procedures to ensure accurate and reliable interim and annual consolidated financial statements that, considered together, constituted a material weakness in our internal controls. Even though we have taken the necessary steps to correct the identified material weakness and have not identified any material weakness for fiscal 2009, it is possible that, considering our size, our limited capital resources and our need to continue to expand our business by acquisitions and diversification, we may identify another material weakness in our internal controls in the future. Moreover, even if we do not identify any material weakness or significant deficiencies, our internal controls may not prevent all potential errors or fraud because any control system, no matter how well designed, cannot provide absolute assurance that the objectives of the control system will be achieved.

Dependence on Key Personnel. Our future success will be largely dependent on the continued services and efforts of Richard E. Gathright, our Chief Executive Officer and President, and on those of other key executive personnel. The loss of the services of Mr. Gathright or other executive personnel could have a material adverse effect on our business and prospects. Our success and plans for future growth will also depend on our ability to attract and retain additional qualified management, operating, marketing, sales and financial personnel. There can be no assurance that we will be able to hire or retain such personnel on terms satisfactory to us. We have entered into written employment agreements with Mr. Gathright and certain other key executive personnel. While Mr. Gathright's employment agreement provides for automatic one-year extensions unless either party gives notice of intent not to renew prior to such extension, there is no assurance that Mr. Gathright's services or those of our other executive personnel will continue to be available to us.

Fuel Pricing, Supply Availability; Supplier Credit. Diesel fuel and gasoline are commodities that are refined and distributed by numerous sources. We purchase the fuel delivered to our customers from multiple suppliers at daily market prices and in some cases qualify for certain discounts. We monitor fuel prices and trends in each of our service markets on a daily basis and seek to purchase our supply at the lowest prices and under the most favorable terms. Commodity price risk is generally mitigated since we purchase and deliver our fuel supply daily and generally utilize cost-plus pricing when billing our customers. As a result, we have not engaged in derivatives or futures trading to hedge fuel price movements. If we cannot continue to utilize cost-plus pricing when billing our customers, however, margins would likely decrease and losses could increase. In addition, diesel fuel and gasoline may be subject to supply interruption due to a number of factors, including natural disasters, refinery and/or pipeline outages and labor disruptions. Limitations on the amount of credit available from suppliers has become a more significant issue for us in recent years as the price of fuel increased and then the credit available to businesses tightened over the past year. As a result, increasing the availability of short term credit for fuel purchases was one of the principal motivations for the Recapitalization, which reduced our total debt by $4.5 million, lowered our annual servicing expense for interest and dividends by over $1 million, increased our shareholders' equity by $4.1 million and reduced our debt to equity ratio from approximately 9 to 1 at June 30, 2008 to 2 to 1 on June 30, 2009. In any event, future reductions in the availability of fuel supplies or supplier credit to purchase fuel could adversely affect our ability to provide mobile fueling, commercial bulk fueling, and emergency response services and, in turn, could negatively affect our results of operations.

Risks Associated with Customer Concentration; Absence of Written Agreements. Although we provide services to many customers, a significant portion of our revenue is generated from a few of our larger customers. Sales to our largest customer represented 10% of our total revenue in fiscal year 2009. While we have formal, length of service written contracts with some of these larger customers, such agreements are not customary and we do not have them with the majority of our customers. As a result, most of our customers can terminate our services at any time and for any reason. Correspondingly, we may elect to discontinue service to a customer if changes in the service conditions or other factors cause us not to meet our minimum level of margins and rates, and the pricing or delivery arrangements cannot be re-negotiated. As a result of this customer concentration and the absence of written agreements, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected if one or more of our larger customers were lost or if we were to experience a high rate of service terminations of our other customers.

Effect of Reduced Fuel Usage. The dramatic increases in fuel prices in fiscal 2008 and through the beginning of fiscal 2009, followed by the drastic downturn in economic conditions worldwide, caused businesses, including many of our customers, to take steps to reduce the amount of fuel that they consume in their operations by driving fewer miles or, in some cases, by using higher mileage or alternative fuel vehicles. In turn, these reductions have reduced the volumes delivered by us to those customers. While recent results suggest that customer demand has stabilized, it is possible that customers' fuel usage will decline further in the future, requiring us to obtain additional customers to replace the lost volume. If we cannot replace the lost volume with new customers, our revenues and results of operation will be negatively affected.

Competition. We compete with other service providers, including several large regional providers and numerous small, local independent operators, who provide some or all of the same services that we offer to our customers. In the mobile fueling area, we also compete with retail fuel marketing, since fleet operators have the option of fueling their own equipment at retail stations and at other third-party service locations such as card lock facilities. Our ability to compete is affected by numerous factors, including price, the complexity and technical nature of the services required, delivery dependability, credit terms, the costs incurred for non-mobile fueling alternatives, service locations as well as the type of reporting and invoicing services provided. There can be no assurance that we will be able to continue to compete successfully as a result of these or other factors.

Operating Risks May Not Be Covered by Insurance. Our operations are subject to the operating hazards and risks normally incidental to handling, storing and transporting diesel fuel and gasoline, which are classified as hazardous materials. We maintain insurance policies in amounts and with coverages and deductibles that we believe are reasonable and prudent. There can be no assurance, however, that our insurance will be adequate to protect us from liabilities and expenses that may arise from claims for personal and property damage arising in the ordinary course of business, including business interruption; that we will be able to maintain acceptable levels of insurance; or that insurance will be available at economical prices.

Governmental Regulation. Numerous federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances, including those relating to protection of the environment and worker safety, affect our operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to continue to comply with existing and future regulatory requirements without incurring substantial costs or otherwise adversely affecting our operations.

Changes in Environmental Requirements. We expect to generate future business by converting certain fleet operators, currently utilizing underground fuel storage tanks for their fueling needs, to commercial mobile fueling. The owners of underground storage tanks have been required to remove or retrofit those tanks to comply with technical regulatory requirements pertaining to their construction and operation. If other more economical means of compliance are developed or adopted by owners of underground storage tanks, the opportunity to market our services to these owners may be adversely affected.

Nasdaq Listing of Our Common Stock. Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol "FUEL." While we consider the listing on Nasdaq to be a valuable attribute of our common stock, there can be no assurance that such listing will continue. Beginning in fiscal 2008, our listing on Nasdaq came into question on two different grounds, namely the stockholders equity rule and the bid price rule. Our June 2009 Recapitalization and our October 2009 reverse stock split have established our compliance with both of these requirements, and Nasdaq has confirmed our compliance with the rules relating thereto. After we took several interim steps to increase our stockholders' equity, the Recapitalization increased our stockholders' equity to $6.5 million at June 30, 2009. In addition, after our 1 for 4.5 reverse stock split, the closing bid prices of our common stock were above $1.00 for the ten consecutive trading days required by Nasdaq to reestablish compliance with the minimum bid price rule. There can be no assurance, however, that such compliance will continue indefinitely. For example, future net operating losses would reduce our stockholders' equity and could cause us to again violate Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(3). Similarly, subsequent trading prices for our common stock could fall below $1.00 for 30 consecutive business days in the future, causing us to violate Marketplace Rule 4310(c). Any such delisting of our common stock could have a variety of adverse consequences, including but not limited to reduced liquidity for shareholders.

Terrorism and Warfare in the Middle East May Adversely Affect the Economy and the Price and Availability of Petroleum Products. Terrorist attacks, as well as the continuing political unrest and warfare in the Middle East, may adversely impact the price and availability of fuel, our results of operations, our ability to raise capital and our future growth. The impact of terrorism on the oil industry in general, and on us in particular, is not known at this time. An act of terror could result in disruptions of crude oil or natural gas supplies and markets, the sources of our products, and our infrastructure facilities or our suppliers could be direct or indirect targets. Terrorist activity may also hinder our ability to transport fuel if the means of supply transportation, such as rail or pipelines, become damaged as a result of an attack. A lower level of economic activity following a terrorist attack could result in a decline in energy consumption, which could adversely affect our revenues or restrict our future growth. Instability in the financial markets as a result of terrorism could also impair our ability to raise capital. Terrorist activity or further instability in the Middle East could also lead to increased volatility in fuel prices, which could adversely affect our business generally.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the Shares by the Selling Stockholders.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

We are registering for resale 1,373,000 shares of our common stock. The Selling Stockholders received the Shares in connection with the Recapitalization that was completed on June 29, 2009 and in connection with the Payment in Kind Agreements entered into on May 5, 2009. The Shares now offered for resale in connection with the Recapitalization include (i) 1,056,300 shares of common stock and (ii) 69,444 shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Company's Series D Preferred. The Shares now offered for resale in connection with the Payment in Kind Agreements include 246,909 shares of common stock. The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of the Selling Stockholders, as of August 3, 2009. We have prepared this table based on information furnished to us by or on behalf of the Selling Stockholders as of that date, as adjusted to account for the 1 for 4.5 reverse stock split on October 1, 2009. While we have rounded up the number of post-split shares for each shareholder where required, it is possible that some of the Selling Stockholders hold their shares in multiple accounts or in multiple certificates, in which event additional rounding up shares may have been issued to them, commensurately increasing their post-split shareholdings.

The table below lists the Selling Stockholders and other information regarding the beneficial ownership of common stock by the Selling Stockholders. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3(d) as promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Beneficial ownership generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities and also includes any shares that the Selling Stockholders had a right to acquire within 60 days of August 3, 2009. Unless otherwise noted, each person or group identified possesses sole voting and investment power with respect to the offered shares. The percentage of ownership data is based on the split-adjusted 8,153,899 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as of August 3, 2009. Since the time that the Selling Stockholders provided us with the information below, they may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of some or all of their shares in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

To the best of our knowledge, none of the Selling Stockholders has had any position, office or other material relationship with us or any of our affiliates within the past three years except as described below:

Similar rounding issues may arise with respect to the other totals of shares listed in the table, including the number of shares held by all of the Selling Stockholders before and after the offering.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

General

The Shares covered by this prospectus are being registered to permit public secondary trading of these securities by the holders thereof from time to time after the date of the prospectus. All of the Shares covered by this prospectus are being sold by the Selling Stockholders or their pledgees, donees, assignees, transferees or their successors-in-interest that receive the shares as a gift, partnership distribution or other non-sale related transfer.

The Selling Stockholders and their pledgees, donees, assignees, or other successors-in-interest who acquire their shares after the date of this prospectus may sell the Shares directly to purchasers or through broker-dealers or agents.

The Shares may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. Sales may be effected in one or more of the following transactions:

- on the Nasdaq Capital Market,
- in the over-the-counter market,
- in privately negotiated transactions,
- for settlement of short sales, or through long sales, options or transactions involving cross or block trades,
 - by pledges to secure debts and other obligations, or
 - in a combination of any of these transactions.

In addition, any Shares that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

Applicable Law. Each Selling Stockholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the associated rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, including Regulation M, which provisions may limit the timing of purchases and sales of Shares by the Selling Stockholders.

Pledge or Transfer of Shares. The Selling Stockholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the Shares owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell Shares from time to time under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act amending the list of Selling Stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as Selling Stockholders under this prospectus. The Selling Stockholders also may transfer Shares in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

Selling Arrangements with Broker-Dealers. Broker-dealers engaged by the Selling Stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the Selling Stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The Selling Stockholders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved.

Upon being notified in writing by a Selling Stockholder that any material agreement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of Shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, we will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, disclosing (i) the name of each such Selling Stockholder and of the participating broker-dealer(s), (ii) the number of shares involved, (iii) the price at which such Shares were sold, (iv) the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealers, where applicable, (v) that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and (vi) other facts material to the transaction.

The Selling Stockholders and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the Shares may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of shares will be borne by the Selling Stockholder.

The Selling Stockholders have advised us that they have not entered into any agreements, understandings or arrangements with any underwriters or broker-dealers regarding the sale of their Shares, nor is there an underwriter or coordinating broker acting in connection with a proposed sale of shares of common stock by any Selling Stockholder. If we are notified by any Selling Stockholders that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of Shares, if required, we will file a supplement to this prospectus. If the Selling Stockholders use this prospectus for any sale of the Shares, they will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The Selling Stockholders will be also responsible for complying with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act and Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, including Regulation M, as applicable to such Selling Stockholders in connection with resales of their respective Shares under this registration statement.

Philadelphia Brokerage Corporation (“PBC”) is a registered broker dealer and a FINRA member firm and certain of its associated persons are listed as Selling Stockholders in this prospectus. PBC served as placement agent in our Recapitalization, and was paid a total of $380,000 as a commission on account of investment banking services provided in connection with the Recapitalization. Approximately $100,000 of the $380,000 was paid by issuing 58,479 shares to associated persons of PBC. These persons, namely Robert Fisk, Robert Jacobs, Kevin Hamilton, Sean McDermott, James Allsopp, Amir Ecker and Frank J. Campbell, III, are among the Selling Shareholders named in this prospectus. These Selling Stockholders have advised us that, at the time they received the shares of common stock, none of them had any agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the shares. Accordingly, we do not believe that they will be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with their sales of common stock under this prospectus.

We have advised each Selling Stockholder that the stockholder may not use Shares registered on this registration statement to cover short sales of common stock made prior to the date that the SEC declares this registration statement effective.

Supplements. To the extent required, we will set forth in a supplement to this prospectus filed with the SEC the number of Shares to be sold, the purchase price and public offering price, the name or names of any agent, dealer or underwriter, and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offering. In particular, upon being notified by a Selling Stockholder that a donee or pledgee intends to sell more than 500 shares, we will file a supplement to this prospectus.

State Securities Law. Under the securities laws of some states, the Selling Stockholders may only sell the shares in those states through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the Selling Stockholders may not sell the shares unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in that state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is satisfied.

Expenses; Indemnification. We will not receive any of the proceeds from shares sold by the Selling Stockholders. We will bear the expenses related to the registration of this offering but will not pay the Selling Stockholders' underwriting fees, commissions or discounts, if any. We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Stockholders against some civil liabilities, including some that may arise under the Securities Act.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

SMF is incorporated in the State of Delaware. Section 145(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted under similar standards, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to be indemnified for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 145 of the DGCL further provides that to the extent a director or officer of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) or in the defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and that the corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against him or incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liabilities under such Section 145.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL provides that a corporation in its original certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto validly approved by stockholders may eliminate or limit personal liability of members of its board of directors or governing body for breach of a director's fiduciary duty. However, no such provision may eliminate or limit the liability of a director for breaching his duty of loyalty, failing to act in good faith, engaging in intentional misconduct or knowingly violating a law, paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase which was illegal, or obtaining an improper personal benefit. A provision of this type has no effect on the availability of equitable remedies, such as injunction or rescission, for breach of fiduciary duty. SMF's Certificate of Incorporation contains such a provision.

The Certificate of Incorporation of SMF generally allows indemnification of officers and directors to the fullest extent allowed by law. SMF currently intends to indemnify its officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by its Certificate of Incorporation and Delaware Law.

We maintain insurance policies under which our directors and officers are insured, within the limits and subject to the limitations of the policies, against expenses in connection with the defense of actions, suits or proceedings, and certain liabilities that might be imposed as a result of such actions, suits or proceedings, to which they are parties by reason of being or having been a director or officer of SMF.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) We hereby undertake:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference into this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is a part of this registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered that remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(ii) Each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered thereby, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing a registration statement on Form S-3 and has duly caused this amendment no. 1 to the registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Fort Lauderdale, State of Florida, on November 13, 2009.
