Director Compensation

We use cash and stock based incentive compensation to attract and retain qualified candidates to serve on our Board. In setting director compensation, we consider the significant amount of time that our directors expend in fulfilling their duties to our Company as well as the skill level required by our members of the Board.

Each non-employee director receives annual fees of $40,000, paid in quarterly installments, and an annual grant of $50,000 in options to purchase our common stock, restricted stock or other form of equity award for serving as a director. Such stock options, restricted stock or other form of award are subject to a one-year vesting period. In addition, annual fees of $12,000, $8,000 and $4,000 are paid to the chairperson of our audit committee, compensation committee and corporate governance committee, respectively. On July 15, 2010, each of our non-employee directors agreed to a 40% reduction in their fees. On August 16, 2011, each of our non-employee directors agreed to a 20% reduction in their annual fees and the directors agreed to forfeit the annual grant of $50,000 in restricted stock for serving as a director. Accordingly, through at least August 2012, our non-employee directors will receive annual fees of $32,000, and annual fees of $9,600 will be paid to the chairperson of our audit committee, $6,400 will be paid to the chairperson of our compensation committee, $3,200 will be paid to the chairperson of the corporate governance committee. A special committee comprised of Messrs. Mark D. Klein, Hugh G. Hilton, Michael J. Levitt, and Matthew J. Hart, each a non-employee director, were each paid a one-time fee of $24,000 as compensation for their services on such committee. A one-time $40,000 grant of stock options, restricted stock or other form of equity award are made to each non-employee director in connection with such individual's appointment to our Board, which stock options, restricted stock or other form of equity award will be subject to a one-year vesting period.

The following table summarizes the total compensation that our directors (other than directors who are named executive officers) earned during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 for services rendered as members of our Board.

The Contribution and Merger are referred to herein collectively as the “Acquisition”;

“GAG, Inc.” refers to Great American Group, Inc.;

“GAG, LLC” refers to Great American Group, LLC;

“the Great American Members” refers to the members of Great American Group, LLC prior to the Acquisition;

“Phantom Equityholders” refers to certain members of senior management of Great American Group, LLC prior to the Acquisition that were participants in a deferred compensation plan; and “AAMAC” refers to Alternative Asset Management Acquisition Corp.

On July 31, 2009, the Company, GAG, LLC and AAMAC completed the Acquisition pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of May 14, 2009, as amended (the “Purchase Agreement”). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Great American Members contributed all of their membership interests of GAG, LLC to the Company and AAMAC merged with and into Merger Sub. As a result of the Acquisition, GAG, LLC and AAMAC became subsidiaries of the Company.

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, at the effective time of the Acquisition, (i) each of the 10,923,313 shares of AAMAC common stock which were outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Acquisition were exchanged for two shares of GAG, Inc.’s common stock and (ii) each of the 46,025,000 outstanding AAMAC warrants were exchanged for a warrant to purchase GAG, Inc. common stock; and (iii) each outstanding unit of AAMAC was separated into one share of AAMAC common stock and a warrant to purchase one share of AAMAC common stock, both of which were exchanged pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) above, respectively. Pursuant to a letter agreement, dated as of July 28, 2009 (the “Letter Agreement”) by and among GAG, Inc., AAMAC, GAG, LLC, and certain shareholders that founded AAMAC, including our current directors Mark Klein and Michael Levitt (the “AAMAC Founders”), the AAMAC Founders agreed to cancel 7,850,000 shares of their 10,350,000 shares of AAMAC common stock immediately prior to the Acquisition and to cancel 2,500,000 shares of the GAG, Inc.’s common stock that they received in exchange for their AAMAC common stock in the Acquisition. In accordance with the Letter Agreement, of the 2,500,000 shares of GAG, Inc.’s common stock the AAMAC Founders received in exchange for their AAMAC shares, 1,500,000 of such shares are being held in escrow for a period of one year from the closing of the Acquisition and the remaining 1,000,000 of such shares will continue to be held in escrow until GAG, LLC’s achievement of any one of the Adjusted EBITDA targets discussed below. The 1,000,000 shares, which are subject to voting restrictions while in escrow, will be forfeited and cancelled if GAG, LLC fails to achieve any of the Adjusted EBITDA targets. Upon filing the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 on March 30, 2012, the 1,000,000 shares held in escrow by the AAMAC Founders will be forfeited since the Company did not achieve the Adjusted EBITDA targets for the years ending December 31, 2009, 2010 and 2010.

Promissory Notes

We have entered into multiple amendments to and waivers of our obligations under the unsecured subordinated promissory notes issued in connection with the Acquisition. As a result of these amendments and waivers, in 2010 the interest rate was reduced to 3.75% with respect to an aggregate of $52.4 million of the then-outstanding $55.6 million in promissory notes. In addition, the maturity date for the then-outstanding $47.0 million in notes payable to the Great American Members was extended to July 31, 2018, subject to annual prepayments based upon our cash flow, provided that we are not obligated to make such prepayments if our minimum adjusted cash balance is below $20.0 million. The 2010 amendments and waivers also permitted us to defer the payment of interest owed under $52.4 million of the notes until July 31, 2011.

Effective July 31, 2011, we entered into individual amendments with the Great American Members that increased the principal amount of the promissory notes for the $1.8 million of accrued interest that was due to them on July 31, 2011. The addition to the principal amount will accrue interest at the note rate of 3.75% and continue to be subject to annual prepayments based upon our cash flow and the maintenance of a minimum adjusted cash balance as provided in the notes prior to the capitalization of the accrued interest. We are not required to make any principal prepayments under these notes for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2010 and 2011. Also effective July 31, 2011, we entered into agreements permitting us to defer payment of $1.4 million in interest owed to the Phantom Equityholders from July 31, 2011 to the fourth quarter of 2011. As of December 31, 2011, there was $48.8 million in aggregate principal amount outstanding under the notes payable to the Great American Members and $5.1 million in aggregate principal amount outstanding under the notes payable to the Phantom Equityholders. Of this amount, $52.0 million accrues interest at 12% and $1.9 million accrues interest at 3.75%.

Riley”) (2% of the $7.0 million note payable to Dialectic Capital Partners, LP as more fully described in note 12 of our consolidated financial statements filed on Form 10-K on March 30, 2012). Bryant Riley, a member of our Board of Directors, is the controlling shareholder, President and Chief Executive Officer of B. Riley.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the consummation of the Acquisition, the Company entered into that certain Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of July 31, 2009 (the “Registration Rights Agreement”), with the Contribution Consideration Recipients and the AAMAC Founders. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Contribution Consideration Recipients and the AAMAC Founders are entitled to registration rights, subject to certain limitations, with respect to the Company’s common stock they received in the Acquisition. The holders of a majority in interest of the Company’s common stock held by each of the Contribution Consideration Recipients and the AAMAC Founders are entitled to require the Company, on one occasion each, to register, under the Securities Act, the shares of common stock they received in consideration for the Acquisition as well as any securities issued in place of or as a dividend or distribution on such common stock (the “Demand Registration Rights”). The majority in interest of each of the Contribution Consideration Recipients and the AAMAC Founders may elect to exercise Demand Registration Rights at any time after January 17, 2010, the six-month anniversary following the date of effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4, as amended, filed by the Company with the SEC in connection with the Acquisition, so long as the estimated market value of the shares of common stock to be registered is at least $500,000. In addition, the Contribution Consideration Recipients and the AAMAC Founders have certain “piggyback” registration rights on registration statements filed after the Company consummates the Acquisition. The Company will bear the expenses incurred in connection with the filing of any such registration statements.

Escrow Agreements

In connection with the consummation of the Acquisition, GAG, Inc. entered into that certain Escrow Agreement, dated as of July 31, 2009 (the “Escrow Agreement”), with GAG, LLC, the Great American Members and Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as escrow agent, to provide a fund (a) to secure the indemnification obligations of Great American to AAMAC against losses that the Company, as the surviving entity of the Acquisition, may sustain as a result of (i) the inaccuracy or breach of any representation or warranty made by Great American in the Purchase Agreement or any schedule or certificate delivered by Great American in connection with the Purchase Agreement and (ii) the non-fulfillment or breach of any covenant or agreement made by Great American in the Purchase Agreement, (b) to offset against any working capital shortfall pursuant to the Purchase Agreement or (c) to offset against any inventory amount shortfall (together with the claims set forth in clauses (a) and (b), the “Escrow Claims”). Pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Great American Members placed in escrow an aggregate of 1,500,000 shares of the Company’s common stock (the “Escrowed Indemnification Stock”).

The remaining 1,320,000 shares that are currently held in escrow are reserved to offset against any inventory amount shortfall pursuant to the Escrow Agreement until the date that all of the specified inventory assets of Great American are sold. These shares will remain in escrow until such claims are resolved, at which time the remaining Escrowed Indemnification Stock shall be promptly returned to the Contribution Consideration Recipients.

Letter Agreement with AAMAC Founders

Pursuant to that certain letter agreement, dated as of May 14, 2009 (the “Letter Agreement”), as amended on July 8, 2009 (the “July 8 Amendment”), and as further amended on July 28, 2009 (the “July 28 Amendment” and, together with the July 2 Amendment, the “Letter Agreement Amendments”), by and among GAG, Inc., the AAMAC Founders, AAMAC and GAG, LLC, the AAMAC Founders agreed to cancel 7,850,000 shares of their AAMAC common stock before the consummation of the Acquisition and to cancel 2,500,000 shares of the Company’s common stock that they received in exchange for their AAMAC common stock. The AAMAC Founders also agreed that 1,500,000 shares of the Company’s common stock that they received in exchange for their AAMAC shares, which were deposited into escrow in connection with AAMAC’s initial public offering, will continue to be held in escrow and subject to the restrictions on voting and disbursements for a period of one year from the closing of the Acquisition. Moreover, the AAMAC Founders also agreed that 1,000,000 of their shares of the Company’s common stock will continue to be held in escrow until Great American’s achievement of any one of the Adjusted EBITDA targets described in the Purchase Agreement. These shares will be forfeited and cancelled if GAG, LLC fails to achieve any of the Adjusted EBITDA targets. Procedures for Approval of Related Party Transactions

Under its charter, the Audit Committee is charged with reviewing all potential related party transactions. Our policy has been that the Audit Committee, which is comprised solely of independent, disinterested directors, reviews and then recommends such related party transactions to the entire Board for further review and approval. All such related party transactions are then required to be reported under applicable SEC rules. Aside from this policy, we have not adopted additional procedures for review of, or standards for approval of, related party transactions, but instead review such transactions on a case-by-case basis.

Director Independence

Our Board of Directors has unanimously determined that five (5) of our directors, a majority of the Board, are “independent” directors as that term is defined by Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2). In addition, based upon such standards, the Board determined that Messrs. Gumaer and Yellen are not “independent” because they are employees of the Company.
