Payment of 2011 Final Dividends

Following the approval by the shareholders of the Company at the AGM, the Board is pleased to announce that the Company will distribute 2011 final dividends of RMB1,963,513,400, or RMB2.00 per 10 Shares (inclusive of applicable tax) based on the total number of 9,817,567,000 Shares as at 31 May 2012. The details relating to payment of final dividend of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2011 to holders of H shares of the Company are set out below:

The Company will pay a final dividend of RMB2.00 per 10 Shares (equivalent to HK$2.4545 per 10 Shares) (inclusive of applicable tax) for the year ended 31 December 2011. The final dividends will be paid to shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of the Company at the close of business on Monday, 18 June 2012 (the "Record Date"). The registration date and arrangements in relation to the rights of holders of A Shares to receive the final dividend for the period ended 31 December 2011 will be separately announced in the PRC.

Dividends payable to the Company's shareholders shall be denominated and declared in Renminbi. Dividends payable to the holders of A Shares shall be paid in Renminbi while dividends payable to the holders of H Shares shall be paid in Hong Kong dollars. The amount of Hong Kong dollars payable shall be calculated on the basis of the mean of the middle rate of Renminbi to Hong Kong dollars as announced by the People's Bank of China for the calendar week prior to the declaration of the final dividends at the AGM (RMB0.81484 equivalent to HK$1.00).

The Company has appointed Bank of China (Hong Kong) Trustees Limited as the receiving agent in Hong Kong (the "Receiving Agent") and will pay to such Receiving Agent the final dividends declared for payment to holders of H Shares. The Receiving Agent will pay the final dividends on or around Thursday, 26 July 2012. Relevant cheques will be despatched on the same day to holders of H Shares entitled to receive such dividends by ordinary post and at their own risk.

Enterprise Income Tax Withholding of Overseas Non-Resident Enterprises

In accordance with the “Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People’s Republic of China” (《中华人民共和国企业所得税法》) and the “Rules of Implementation of the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People’s Republic of China” (《中华人民共和国企业所得税法实施条例》), both implemented on 1 January 2008 and the “Notice of the State Administration of Taxation on Issues Relevant to the Withholding of Enterprise Income Tax on Dividends Paid by PRC Enterprises to Offshore Non-resident Enterprise Holders of H Shares” (Guo Shui Han [2008] No. 897) (《国家税务总局关于中国居民企业向境外非居民企业股东派发股息红利有关个人所得税征管问题的通知》) promulgated on 6 November 2008, the Company is obliged to withhold and pay PRC enterprise income tax on behalf of non-resident enterprise shareholders at a tax rate of 10% when the Company distributes any dividends to non-resident enterprise shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of H Shares of the Company. As such, any H Shares of the Company which are not registered in the name(s) of individual(s) (which, for this purpose, includes shares registered in the name of Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Nominees Limited, other nominees, trustees, or other organisations or groups) shall be deemed to be H Shares held by non-resident enterprise shareholder(s), and the PRC enterprise income tax shall be withheld from any dividends payable thereon. Non-resident enterprise shareholders may wish to apply for a tax refund (if any) in accordance with the relevant requirements, such as tax agreements (arrangements), upon receipt of any dividends.

If any resident enterprise (as defined in the Enterprise Income Tax Law) listed on the register of members of H Shares of the Company which is duly incorporated in the PRC or under the laws of a foreign country (or a region) but with a PRC-based de facto management body, does not desire the Company to withhold the said 10% enterprise income tax, it shall submit to Hong Kong Registrars Limited at Shops 1712-1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen’s Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong no later than 4:30 p.m. on Monday, 11 June 2012 a legal opinion, issued by a PRC qualified lawyer (inscribed with the seal of the applicable law firm), that verifies its resident enterprise status. The Company assumes no liability and will not deal with any dispute over income tax withholding triggered by failure to submit proof materials within the stipulated time frame, and holders of H Shares of the Company shall either personally or appoint a representative to attend to the procedures in accordance with the applicable tax regulations and relevant provisions of the PRC.

Individual Income Tax Withholding of Overseas Individual Shareholders

Pursuant to the Notice on Matters Concerning the Levy and Administration of Individual Income Tax after the Repeal of Guo Shui Fa [1993] No. 045 (Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348) (《国家税务总局关于中国居民企业向境外非居民个人股东派发股息红利有关个人所得税征管问题的通知》) [1993] No. 045 (《国家税务总局关于中国居民企业向境外非居民个人股东派发股息红利有关个人所得税征管问题的通知》) , issued by the State Administration of Taxation of the PRC on 28 June 2011, when non-foreign investment companies of the mainland which are listed in Hong Kong distribute dividends to their shareholders, the individual shareholders in general will be subject to a withholding tax rate of 10% without making any application for the entitlement for the above-mentioned tax rate.

However, the Company is a foreign investment company and, as confirmed by the relevant tax authorities, according to the Circular on Certain Issues Concerning the Policies of Individual Income Tax (Cai Shui Zi [1994] No. 020) (« 20491; 33509;24178;25919;31574;21839;38988;30340;36890;30693;»(36001; 8 promulgated by the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation on 13 May 1994, overseas individuals are, as an interim measure, exempted from the PRC individual income tax for dividends or bonuses received from foreign investment enterprises.

As such, the Company will not withhold and pay the individual income tax on behalf of overseas individual shareholders when the Company distributes the 2011 final dividends to overseas individual shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of H shares of the Company.

All investors are requested to read this announcement carefully. Shareholders are recommended to consult their taxation advisors regarding their holding and disposing of H Shares of the Company for the PRC, Hong Kong and other tax effects involved.

After the above issues of A Shares and H Shares, the current share capital structure of the Company is: (a) 4,145,050,000 A Shares held by the promoter, representing 42.22% of the total share capital; (b) 2,877,600,000 A Shares held by domestic investors, representing 29.31% of the total share capital; and (c) 2,794,917,000 H Shares held by foreign investors, representing 28.47% of the total share capital

Article 30 Upon approval by the securities governing authority of the State Council of the proposal to issue Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares, the Company's Board of Directors may make separate implementing arrangements for their issuance.

The Company's proposal to issue Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph may be implemented within fifteen months from the date of the approval from the securities governing authority of the State Council.

Article 31 In respect of the total number of shares as stated in a shares issuing proposal, where the Company shall separately issue Overseas Listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares, these respective shares shall be fully subscribed for at their respective offerings. If the shares cannot be fully subscribed for at their offerings due to some special circumstances, then subject to the approval from the securities governing authority of the State Council the shares may be issued by installments.

Article 32 The Company and its subsidiaries (including the affiliated companies of the Company) shall not provide any financial assistance in the forms of gift, advance, guarantee, compensation or loan to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares in the Company.

Article 33 Unless otherwise provided by laws and administrative regulations, shares in the Company are freely transferable and are not subject to any lien.

CHAPTER 4 INCREASE AND DECREASE IN CAPITAL AND REPURCHASE OF SHARES

Article 34 Subject to the relevant laws and regulations and these Articles of Association and the passing of separate resolutions at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company may increase its capital in the following ways to meet the needs of operations and business expansion:

- (1) Making public offer to unspecific investors;
- (2) Making non-public offer;
- (3) Distributing new shares to existing shareholders;
- (4) Converting the capital common reserve fund into capital;
- (5) Other ways permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Increase in capital of the Company by way of new issue shall be proceeded in accordance with the PRC laws and administrative regulations, and subject to the approval as required by these Articles of Association.

Article 35 The Company may reduce its registered capital pursuant to the provisions of these Articles of Association. Reduction of registered capital of the Company shall be proceeded in accordance with the Company Law and other relevant regulations as well as these Articles of Association.

Article 36 When the Company reduces its registered capital, it must draw up a balance sheet and an inventory of assets.

The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of capital and shall publish a notice in a newspaper at least three times within thirty days from the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right within thirty days of receiving the notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive the notice, within forty five days from the date of the first public notice, to require the Company to repay its debts or provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

The Company's registered capital after reduction shall not be less than the statutory minimum amount.

Article The Company may, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental constitution documents
37 and these Articles of Association and subject to the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its issued shares under the following circumstances:

(1) Cancellation of shares for the reduction of its capital;

(2) Merging with another company that holds shares in the Company;

(3) The Company awarding its employees with shares;

(4) Where the shareholders disagree on the resolutions passed by the shareholders' general meeting on the merger or division of the Company so much that they request the company to acquire their shares;

(5) Other circumstances permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Save for the above circumstances, the Company shall not perform any act of repurchase of its own shares otherwise.

Article 38 The Company may, with the approval of the relevant State governing authority for repurchasing its shares, conduct the repurchase in one of the following ways:

(1) Making a pro rata general offer of repurchase to all its shareholders;

(2) Repurchase through public dealing on a stock exchange;

(3) Repurchase by an off-market agreement outside a stock exchange.

Article 39 Where the Company repurchases its shares by an off-market agreement outside a stock exchange, the prior sanction of shareholders shall be obtained in accordance with these Articles of Association. The Company may release or vary a contract so entered into by the Company or waive its rights thereunder with the prior approval of shareholders obtained in the same manner.

A contract to repurchase shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes but not limited to an agreement to become obliged to repurchase or acquire the right to repurchase shares of the Company.

A contract for the Company to repurchase its shares or any rights thereunder is not assignable.

Article

Where the Company repurchases its own shares due to reasons as set out in clauses (1) to (3) of Article 37, it shall obtain the prior approval of the shareholders by a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting. After the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Article 37, the shares in respect of the circumstances described in clause (1) shall be cancelled within ten days from the day of purchase; and those in respect of the circumstances described in clauses (2) and (4) shall be transferred or cancelled within six months. The Company shall deduct the carrying amount of the shares cancelled from its share capital, and shall process registration of changing in registered capital with the original registrar.

The maximum number of shares repurchased by the Company pursuant to clause (3) of Article 37 shall not exceed 5% of its total issued shares; and repurchase shall be fund out of the profit after tax of the Company; the shares purchased shall be transferred to the employees within one year.

Article 41 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its issued shares:

(1) Where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at par value, payment shall be made out of book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose;

(2) Where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value may be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:

1. If the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company;

2. If the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the fresh issue shall not exceed the aggregate of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased or the current amount (including the premiums on the fresh issue) of the Company's premium account (or capital common reserve fund account) at the time of the repurchase;

(3) Payment by the Company in consideration of the following shall be made out of the Company's distributable profits:

1. Acquisition of rights to repurchase shares of the Company;

2. Variation of any contract to repurchase shares of the Company;

3. Release of any of the Company's obligation under any contract to repurchase shares of the Company;

(4) After the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the total par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for paying up the par-value portion of the shares repurchased shall be transferred to the Company's premium account (or capital common reserve fund account).

CHAPTER 5 FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF COMPANY SHARES

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, by any means and at any time, provide any kind of financial assistance to any person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares in the Company. The said acquirer of shares of the Company includes a person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations due to the acquisition of shares in the Company (the "obligor").

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, by any means and at any time, provide financial assistance to the obligor as referred to in the preceding paragraph for the purpose of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by that person.

This Article shall not apply to the circumstances specified in Article 44 of this Chapter.

Article 43 For the purpose of this Chapter, "financial assistance" includes but not limited to the following meanings:

(1) Gift;

(2) Guarantee (including the assumption of liability or provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor), or compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default) or release or waiver of any rights;

(3) Provision of loan or conclusion of any other contract under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or the novation of, or the assignment of rights arising under, such loan or contract;

(4) Any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purpose of this Chapter, “incurring any obligations” includes the incurring of obligations by the changing of the obligor’s financial position by way of contract or the making of arrangement (whether enforceable or not, and whether made on his own account or with any other persons), or by any other means.

Article 44 The following activities shall not be deemed to be prohibited by Article 42 of this chapter:

(1) The provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of giving the financial assistance is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of some larger purpose of the Company;

(2) The lawful distribution of the Company’s assets by way of dividend;

(3) The allotment of bonus shares as dividends;

(4) A reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares of the Company or a reorganization of the share capital structure of the Company effected in accordance with these Articles of Association;

(5) The lending of money by the Company within the scope and in the ordinary course of its business, provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company;

(6) The provision of money by the Company for contributions to staff and workers’ shares schemes, provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company.

CHAPTER 6 SHARE TRANSFER

Article 45 The Shares of the Company can be lawfully transferred.

Article 46 The Company shall not accept the Company’s share certificates as the subject of pledges.

Article 47 The Company’s directors, supervisors, president and other senior administrative officers shall periodically declare to the Company the number of shares they hold in the Company during their term of office. They may transfer their shares during the term of their office or after their departure from office in accordance with the requirements of the laws and the listing rules of the place of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed.

Article 48 Shares of the Company held by the promoters shall not be transferred within one year commencing from the establishment of the Company. Shares issued prior to the public offer of shares of the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date when the shares were listed on a stock exchange.

Directors, supervisors and senior administrative officers of the Company shall periodically report to the Company shares of the Company held by them and any changes thereof, and shall not transfer more than 25% of the shares held by them during their term of office, while shares of the Company held by them must not be transferred within one year commencing from the date on which the shares of the Company were listed. The aforesaid persons shall not transfer the shares of the Company held by them within six months commencing from the termination of their service.

Any gains from any sales of shares of the Company by any director, supervisor and senior administrative officer of the Company within six months after the share are bought, or any gains from any purchase of shares of the Company by any of the aforesaid parties within six months after the share are sold shall be disgorged and paid to the Company and the Board of Directors shall recover such gains from the abovementioned parties. In case the Board of Directors failed to perform in compliance with this provision, the responsible directors shall be jointly liable for such default.

If the Board of Directors fails to comply with the aforesaid provision, the shareholders may demand the Board of Directors to implement such provision within thirty days. Where the Board of Directors fails to implement such provision within the aforesaid period, the shareholders may initiate proceedings in the People's Court in their own names to protect the interest of the Company.

CHAPTER 7 SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 49 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

Share certificates of the Company shall contain the following major particulars:

- (1) Name of the Company;
- (2) Date of incorporation of the Company;
- (3) Class of the shares, nominal value and number of shares represented;

(4) Serial number of the share certificate;

(5) Other items to be contained as required by the Company Law, the Special Regulations;

(6) Other items to be contained as required by the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Article

Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors. Where the stock exchanges on which the Company's shares are listed require other senior administrative officer(s) of the Company to sign on the share certificates, the share certificates shall also be signed by such senior administrative officer(s). The share certificates shall take effect after being sealed or printed with the seal of the Company. The share certificates shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the Board of Directors. The signatures of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or other senior administrative officer(s) of the Company may be printed in mechanical form.

Article 51 The Company shall keep a register of its shareholders and enter in the register the following particulars:

(1) The name (title) and address (residence), the occupation or nature of each shareholder;

(2) The class and quantity of shares held by each shareholder;

(3) The amount paid or payable on the shares of each shareholder;

(4) The share certificate numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;

(5) The date on which each person was entered in the register as a shareholder;

(6) The date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless evidence to the contrary is shown, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Article 52 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements between the securities governing authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organisations, maintain the register of shareholders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares overseas and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such share register. The original share register for holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

A duplicate of the share register for holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares shall be maintained at the Company's address. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure the consistency between the original and the duplicate of the share register.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate of the share register for holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares, the original shall prevail.

Article 53 The Company shall have a complete register of shareholders which shall comprise the following:

- (1) A part of the shareholders' register maintained at the Company's address other than those parts mentioned in clauses (2) and (3) of this Article;
- (2) A part of the shareholders' register in respect of the holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares of the Company maintained in the place of the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed; and
- (3) Any other parts of the shareholders' register maintained at such other places as the Board of Directors may consider necessary for the purpose of listing the shares of the Company.

Article 54 Different parts of the shareholders' register shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

The alteration and rectification of each part of the shareholders' register shall be carried out in accordance with the laws of the place where the register is maintained.

All the fully paid-up H Shares can be freely transferred in accordance with these Articles of Association. However, the Board of Directors may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without giving any reason, unless:

(1) A fee (for each instrument of transfer) of two dollars and fifty cents Hong Kong dollars or any higher fee as agreed by the Stock Exchange has been paid to the Company for registration of any instrument of transfer or other document which is related to or will affect ownership of or change of ownership of the shares;

(2) The instrument of transfer only involves H Shares;

(3) The stamp duty chargeable on the instrument of transfer has been paid;

16

(4) The relevant share certificate and upon the reasonable request of the Board of Directors any evidence in relation to the right of the transferor to transfer the shares have been submitted;

(5) If it is intended to transfer the shares to joint owners, then the maximum number of joint owners shall not exceed four;

(6) The Company does not have any lien on the relevant shares.

If the Company refuses to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall within two months of the formal application for the transfer provide the transferor and the transferee with a notice of refusal to register such transfer.

Article 55 No changes in the shareholders' register due to the transfer of shares may be made within thirty days before the date of a shareholders' general meeting or within five days before the record date for the Company's distribution of dividends.

Article 56 Where the Company decides to convene a shareholders' general meeting, distribute dividends, liquidate or carry out other activities which would require the determination of shareholdings, the Board of Directors shall fix a record date for the purpose of determining shareholdings. A person who is registered in the register as shareholders of the Company at the end of the record date shall be a shareholder of the Company.

Article 57 Any person aggrieved and claiming to be entitled to have his name (title) to be entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

Article 58 Any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered into the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if his share certificate (the "original certificate") relating to the shares is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement new share certificate in respect of such shares (the "Relevant Shares").

If a shareholder of Domestic Shares loses his share certificate and applies to the Company for a replacement new share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with article 144 of the Company Law.

If a shareholder of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares loses his share certificate and applies to the Company for a replacement new share certificate, it may be dealt with in accordance with the laws of the place where the original register of holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares is maintained, rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

If a shareholder of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares listed in Hong Kong (H Shares) loses his share certificate, the issue of a replacement new share certificate shall comply with following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration stating the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and the evidence of the loss, and declaring that no other person is entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the Relevant Shares.

(2) Before the Company decides to issue the replacement new share certificate, no statement made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered in the register of shareholders in respect of such shares has been received.

(3) The Company shall, if it intends to issue a replacement new share certificate, publish a notice of its intention at least once every thirty days in a period of ninety consecutive days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

(4) The Company shall have, prior to publication of its intention to issue a replacement new share certificate, delivered to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed a copy of the notice to be published, and may publish the notice upon receiving confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the said stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the said stock exchange for a period of ninety days.

In the case of an application made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.

(5) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in clauses (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company have not received from any person notice of any disagreement to such application, the Company may issue a replacement new share certificate to the applicant accordingly.

(6) Where the Company issues a replacement new share certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and enter the cancellation and issue in the register of shareholders accordingly.

(7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issue of a replacement new share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable security is provided by the applicant.

Article 59 Where the Company issues a replacement new share certificate pursuant to these Articles of Association, the name (title) of a bona fide purchaser gaining possession of such new share certificate or the person who is subsequently entered in the register of shareholders as holder of such shares (if he is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 60 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issue of the new share certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company has acted deceitfully.

CHAPTER 8 SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 61 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name (title) is entered in the register of shareholders. A shareholder shall enjoy rights and bear obligations according to the class and proportion of the shares held by him; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and bear the same obligations.

Article 62 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) The right to request the convening and holding of and to attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to vote thereat;
- (2) The right to dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (3) The right of supervisory management over the Company's business operations, and the right to present proposals or enquiries;
- (4) The right to transfer, donate or pledge his shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (5) The right of knowledge and decision making power with respect to important matters of the Company in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (6) The right to obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association, including:

1. the right to obtain a copy of these Articles of Association, subject to payment of the cost of such copy;
2. the right to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable charge:
 - (i) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (ii) personal particulars of each of the Company's directors, supervisors, president and other senior administrative officers, including:
 - (a) present name and alias and any former name or alias;
 - (b) principal address (residence);
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (e) identification documents and their relevant numbers;
 - (iii) state of the Company's share capital;
- reports showing the aggregate par value, quantity, highest and lowest price paid in respect of each class of shares
- (iv) repurchased by the Company since the end of last accounting year and the aggregate amount paid by the Company for this purpose;
- (v) minutes of shareholders' general meetings and accountants' report;
- (vi) interim and annual reports of the Company.
- (7) In the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of surplus assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (8) The right to request the company to repurchase their shares as a result of disagreement on the resolutions passed by the shareholders' general meeting on the merger or division of the Company;

(9) Other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 63 If a shareholder requests to inspect the information or obtain the relevant materials as described in Article 62 of these Articles of Association, he shall provide the Company with a written document showing the class and number of shares in the Company held by him. The Company shall at the request of such shareholder provide him with the relevant information upon confirmation of his identity.

Article 64 If a resolution of a shareholders' general meeting or board meeting violates the provisions of existing laws and administrative regulations of the PRC, a shareholder may request the local People's Court to declare it invalid.

If the procedures for convening a shareholders' general meeting or board meeting or the voting methods thereof violate the existing laws and administrative regulations of the PRC or these Articles of Association, or the content of a resolution violates these Articles of Association, shareholders may petition the local People's Court to rescind such resolution within sixty days from the date on which such a resolution is passed.

Article 65 If a director or any senior administrative staff violates any laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association in the course of performing his duties and causes losses to the Company, shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 1% or more of the Company's shares for a hundred and eighty consecutive days may request the supervisory committee in writing to initiate legal proceedings against such acts in the local People's Court; where the Company incurs losses as a result of the members of the supervisory committee having violated any laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties, shareholders may request the Board of Directors in writing to initiate legal proceedings in the local People's Court.

If the supervisory committee or the Board of Directors refuses to initiate legal proceedings after receiving the aforesaid written request of shareholder, or fails to initiate such legal proceedings within thirty days on which such request is received, or in case of emergency where failure to initiate such legal proceedings immediately will result in irreparable damage to the Company's interest, the shareholder described in the preceding paragraph may initiate legal proceedings in the local People's Court directly in their own names in the interest of the Company.

These shareholders may also initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court under the provisions set out in the preceding two paragraphs if any third parties infringe on the lawful interests of the Company and result in damage to the Company.

Article 66 Shareholders may initiate legal proceedings if a director or any senior administrative staff violates any laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association and harms the interests of shareholders.

Article 67 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (1) To abide by these Articles of Association;
- (2) To pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (3) Not to withdraw their shares unless required by laws and regulations;

Not to abuse their rights as shareholders to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse (4) the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to harm the interests of any creditor of the Company.

Shareholders of the Company who abuse their rights as shareholders to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders shall be liable for compensation.

Shareholders of the Company who abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to harm the interests of any creditor of the Company shall be jointly liable for the debt of the Company;

- (5) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not liable to make any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 68 If a shareholder who holds 5% or more of the Company's voting shares pledges the shares in his possession, he shall submit a written report to the Company on the day when such pledge takes place.

Article 69 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws and administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which shares of the Company are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders generally or of some of the shareholders of the Company:

- (1) to relieve a director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

(2) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person), in any guise, of the Company's assets, including but not limited to opportunities beneficial to the Company;

to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of (3) the individual rights of other shareholders, including but not limited to rights to distributions and voting rights save pursuant to a restructuring submitted to shareholders for approval in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 70 For the purpose of the foregoing Article, a “controlling shareholder” means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (1) he alone or acting in concert with others has the power to elect more than half of the Board of Directors;
- (2) he alone or acting in concert with others has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30% (including 30%) or more of the voting rights in the Company;
- (3) he alone or acting in concert with others holds 30% (including 30%) or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- (4) he alone or acting in concert with others in any other manner controls the Company in fact.

Article 71 The controlling shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations for the Company:

- (1) The controlling shareholders and the Company shall implement separation of personnel, assets and finance and independence between organs and business of the Company;

The controlling shareholders shall respect decisions made by shareholders’ general meeting and the Board of (2) Directors of the Company, and shall not bypass the shareholders’ general meeting or the Board of Directors in interfering with the decisions made and production and operation activities carried out legally by the Company;

The controlling shareholders shall nominate candidates of the Company’s directors and supervisors in accordance with laws and regulations and these Articles of Association. Nominated candidates of directors and supervisors shall have the relevant knowledge and capacity of decision-making and supervision. The controlling shareholders shall not execute any approval procedure relating to the appointment of members of the Board of Directors or (3) appointment of personnel at the shareholders’ general meeting, or bypass shareholders’ general meeting and Board of Directors in employing or dismissing any senior administrative officers of the Company; the controlling shareholders shall not interfere with the employment and dismissal and use of any senior administrative officers of the Company;

- The controlling shareholders shall not take advantage of connected transactions, profit distribution, asset
- (4) restructuring, external investment, capital appropriation and loan guarantee to harm the legal interests of the Company and other shareholders, and shall not exploit their special position to obtain additional benefits;
- (5) The controlling shareholders shall abide by the provisions of the Stock Exchange about abstaining from decision on connected transactions of the Company;
- (6) The controlling shareholders and their related companies shall avoid direct competition with the Company;
- (7) The controlling shareholders shall ensure that relevant information provided to the Company is true, accurate and complete, and ensure that the Company can legally perform disclosure obligation to public investors;
- (8) When exercising voting rights, the controlling shareholders shall not make decisions which harm the legal interests of the Company and other shareholders.

The controlling shareholders and beneficial controller of the Company have a fiduciary duty towards the Article Company and its other shareholders, and shall not exploit their connected relationship with the Company to 72 harm the interests of the Company. If they have violated such provision and caused damage to the company, they are liable for compensation.

The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights as contributors strictly in accordance with laws. The controlling shareholders shall not impair the legitimate interests of the Company and other shareholders by taking advantage from connected transactions, profit distribution, assets restructuring, external investment, capital appropriation and loan guarantee, nor shall they exploit their controlling position to prejudice the interests of the Company and other shareholders.

The Board of the Company shall establish a “moratorium upon misappropriation” mechanism on shares held by substantial shareholders. Once the Board becomes aware of any embezzlement of the Company’s assets by the controlling shareholder or the beneficial controller through abuse of the Company’s funds or by other means, the controlling shareholder’s shareholding in the Company shall be subject to moratorium by judicial order immediately. If the controlling shareholder is unable to repay the embezzled assets in cash, the Company shall be entitled to dispose of the shares held by the controlling shareholder and retain the proceeds resulting therefrom as compensation.

The directors, supervisors and other senior management personnel of the Company shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association. They shall exercise care and diligence and fulfill their fiduciary duties to the Company, and protect the assets of the Company at their own initiative. They shall not exploit their positions to facilitate, assist or indulge the controlling shareholder in embezzling the funds of the Company, nor shall they impair the Company's interests through unauthorized guarantees, unfair connected transactions or otherwise.

If a director of the Company is found assisting or indulging the controlling shareholder and its associated enterprises in misappropriating the assets of the Company, upon the proposal of the Supervisory Committee or any shareholder holding 3% or more of the shares in the Company, a general meeting of the Company shall be convened to consider removing such director from office.

If a supervisor of the Company is found assisting or indulging the controlling shareholder and its associated enterprises in misappropriating the assets of the Company, upon the proposal of the Board or any shareholder holding 3% or more of the shares in the Company, a general meeting of the Company shall be convened to consider removing such supervisor from office.

If any other senior management personnel of the Company is found assisting or indulging the controlling shareholder and its associated enterprises in misappropriating the assets of the Company, upon the proposal of one-third or more of the directors or supervisors, a board meeting shall be convened to consider removing such senior management personnel from office.

If a director, supervisor or other senior management personnel of the Company fails to fulfil his/her duties of fiduciary to the Company by exploiting his/her position to assist or indulge the controlling shareholder and its associated enterprises in misappropriating the assets of the Company, and be suspected of committing an offence, upon a resolution passed by the Board or the Supervisory Committee of the Company, such personnel shall be transferred to the relevant judicial authority for investigation of criminal responsibility.

Written agreements shall be made in respect of connected transactions between the Company and a connected person, which shall be on the principles of equality, voluntariness and fair consideration. Connected transactions shall be made on normal commercial terms, and the consideration must be comparable with those provided by independent third parties in the market.

The Company shall take effective measures to prevent its connected persons from interfering with the operations of the Company and damaging the Company's benefits by way of monopolizing its purchase and sales channels.

The Company shall take effective measures to prevent shareholders and its connected parties from misappropriating or transferring the Company's funds, assets or other resources in whatever manner.

Article 74 The Company shall take active steps to establish and improve its investor relation management system and boost communications and exchanges with the shareholders in every way available. The board secretary of the Company shall be specifically responsible for investor relation management.

CHAPTER 9 SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 75 The shareholders' general meeting shall be the source of authority of the Company and shall exercise its powers according to the laws.

Article 76 The shareholders' general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) To decide on the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
- (2) To elect and replace directors and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
- (3) To elect and replace the supervisors who are representatives of shareholders, and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
- (4) To examine and approve reports of the Board of Directors;

- (18) To consider and approve external guarantee by the Company at a shareholders' general meeting as required by the laws, rules and regulations and provisions of these Articles of Association;
- (19) To decide on other matters which require resolutions of the shareholders at shareholders' general meetings according to the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (20) To decide on which matters the Board of Directors may be authorised or delegated to deal with by the shareholders at shareholders' general meetings.

When the shareholders' general meeting decides on which matters the Board of Directors may be authorised or delegated to deal with, the shareholders' general meeting shall protect the legitimate rights and interests of the Company according to law and abide by laws and regulations strictly in order to ensure the Company's principle of efficient operation and scientific decision making. Matters which the Board of Directors may be authorised or delegated to deal with including but not limited to the following:

1. To modify the language of the Articles of Association after the shareholders' general meeting has passed the resolution on the amendments to the Articles of Association;

2. To distribute the interim dividends;

3. To decide on specific matters in connection with the issue of new shares and convertible bonds;

To deal with, mortgage and secure the fixed assets under the current operation policy and investment plan passed at 4. the shareholders' general meeting, excluding direct or indirect provision of debts guarantee for the secured party with a gearing ratio exceeding 70%.

The shareholders' general meeting shall also decide on other matters which the Board of Directors may be authorised or delegated to deal with from time to time in accordance with laws, regulations and these Articles of Association.

Save for special circumstances such as crisis, the Company shall not, without the prior approval of Article shareholders at shareholders' general meeting, enter into any contract with any person other than a director, 77 supervisor, president or other senior administrative officer whereby the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the business of the Company is to be handed over to such person.

Article Shareholders' general meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings.
78 Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors. Annual general meetings are held once every year and within six months from the end of the preceding financial year.

Article Under any of the following circumstances, the Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general
79 meeting within two months:

(1) The number of directors is less than that is required by the Company Law or two thirds of the number of directors specified in these Articles of Association;

(2) The accrued losses of the Company amount to one third of the total amount of its share capital;

(3) Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's issued and outstanding shares carrying voting rights request(s) in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;

(4) It is deemed necessary by the Board of Directors or requested by the supervisory committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting;

(5) More than one half of the independent directors propose to convene the meeting.

The number of shares held by shareholders in clause (3) above shall be calculated on the date when the written request is submitted.

Article 80 The place for convening the shareholders' general meeting shall be clearly set out in the notice of meeting.

The shareholders' general meeting shall set meeting venue and be convened by ways of on-site meetings. The Company will provide online transmission for the convenience of shareholders where technologically viable. Shareholders who attend shareholders' general meetings in the aforesaid manners shall be deemed as present.

Article 81 The Company shall engage lawyers to attend shareholders' general meetings and advise on the following issues with announcements made thereon:

(1) Whether the convening of the shareholders' general meeting and its procedures are in compliance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;

(2) Whether the attendees are eligible and whether the eligibility of the convenor is lawful and valid;

(3) Whether the procedures of voting and the voting results of the meeting are lawful and valid;

(4) Legal opinions on other related matters at the request of the Company.

A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the chairman of the Board of Directors. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the vice-chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene and take the chair of the meeting. If both the chairman and vice-chairman of the Board of Directors are unable to attend the meeting, then the Board of Directors may designate a director to convene and take the chair of the meeting. If no chairman of the meeting has been designated, shareholders present shall choose one person to be the chairman of the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders fail to elect a chairman, then the shareholder (including his proxy) presents in person or by proxy and holds the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote thereat shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Shareholders' general meetings convened by the supervisory committee shall be presided over by the chairman of the supervisory committee. If the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable or fails to perform his duties, a supervisor elected by more than half of supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided over by a representative nominated by the convening shareholders.

When a shareholders' general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedures such that the shareholders' general meeting cannot proceed, a person may be elected to preside over the meeting, subject to the approval of shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to more than half of the voting rights.

Article Shareholders requisitioning the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting shall abide 83 by the following procedures:

Shareholders individually or jointly holding in aggregate 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the
(1) meeting sought to be held shall sign one or more counterpart requisitions stating the objectives of the meeting and requiring the Board of Directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting.

The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association,
(2) furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to convene the extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receipt of such requisition.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued
(3) within five days after adoption of the relevant resolution by the Board of Directors. Any changes to the original requisition made in the notice shall require the approval of the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or does not furnish any reply within ten days upon receipt of such requisition, shareholders individually or jointly holding over 10% of the shares of the Company shall be entitled to propose to the supervisory committee that an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting be convened, and such proposal shall be made in writing to the supervisory committee.

If the supervisory committee agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be
(4) issued within five days upon receipt of such requisition. Any changes to the original requisition made in the notice shall require the approval of the relevant shareholders.

If the supervisory committee does not issue a notice of meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed as failing to convene and preside over the meeting.

(5) If neither the Board of Directors nor the supervisory committee convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting, the requisitionists themselves may convene such a meeting in a manner as similar as possible as that in which shareholders' meeting are to be convened by the Board of Directors within four months from the date of receipt of the requisition by the Board of Directors.

Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the Board of Directors to duly convene a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the Company and any sum so repaid shall be set off against sums owed by the Company to the directors in default.

Independent directors shall be entitled to propose to the Board of Directors the convening of an extraordinary general meeting. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Article 84 Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receipt of such proposal.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within five days after passing of the relevant resolution by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, reasons for such disagreement shall be given by way of announcement.

Article 85 The supervisory committee shall be entitled to propose to the Board of Directors the convening of an extraordinary general meeting, provided that such proposal shall be made in writing. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receipt of such proposal.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within five days after the passing of the relevant resolution by the Board of Directors. Any change to the original proposal made in the notice shall require the approval of the supervisory committee.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not furnish any reply within ten days after receiving such proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed as incapable of performing or failing to perform the duty of convening a general meeting, in which case the supervisory committee may convene and preside over such meeting on an unilateral basis.

All necessary expenses incurred for such shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee shall be borne by the Company.

Article 86 Where the supervisory committee or shareholders decide(s) to convene the extraordinary general meeting by itself / themselves, it / they shall send a written notice to the Board, and file the same with the local office of CSRC and the stock exchange at the place where the Company is located for record.

The shareholding of the convening shareholders shall not be lower than 10% prior to the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

The convening shareholder shall submit relevant evidence to the local office of CSRC and the stock exchange at the place where the Company is located upon the issuance of the notice of general meeting and the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 87 The Board of Directors and the secretary to the Board of Directors shall cooperate with respect to matters relating to a shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee or shareholders at its / their own discretion. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the record date.

Article 88 Motions proposed at a shareholders' general meeting shall be the specific proposals relating to the matter that should be put forth for discussion at a shareholders' general meeting, upon which resolution shall be made at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 89 Where the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors, the supervisory committee and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 30% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares carrying voting rights shall have the right to propose motions to the Company.

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 30% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares carrying voting rights shall have the right to propose an ex tempore motion ten days prior to the general meeting by furnishing the same to the convener in writing. After the same have been reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, those matters in the proposed motions within the scope of functions and powers of the shareholders' general meeting will be placed on the agendas. The convener shall within two days after receiving the proposed motion issue a supplemental notice of general meeting to make public the contents of the ex tempore motion. If the Board of Directors considers that the contents of the motion are not within the scope of functions and powers of the shareholders' general meeting, it shall give reasons and explanation to the shareholders' general meeting and publish the motion and the board's explanation along with resolutions adopted by the shareholders' general meeting at the end of the meeting.

Save as provided in the preceding paragraphs, the convener shall not amend such new motions stated in the notice of shareholders' general meeting or add any new motion upon the issue of the notice of meeting.

Motions which are not included in the notice of meeting or which do not meet Article 88 of these Articles of Association shall not be voted on by the shareholders' general meeting and become resolutions.

Notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be given by way of announcement or by any other manner as provided in these Articles of Association (if necessary), not less than forty-five days (including forty-five days) before the date of the meeting to notify all of the shareholders in the share register of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the meeting.

The Company shall, based on the written replies received twenty days before the date of the shareholders' general meeting from the shareholders, calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting reaches one half or more of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting; if not, then the Company shall within five days notify the shareholders again by public notice of the matters to be considered, the place and date for, the meeting. The Company may then hold the meeting after such publication of notice.

An extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on any matter not stated in the notice of meeting.

When the Board of Directors issues the notice for the convening of a shareholders' general meeting, the meeting shall not be postponed without reason. In case the shareholders' general meeting must be postponed under special circumstances, a notice regarding the postponement must be issued at least two working days before the original date of the shareholders' general meeting. In the postponement notice, the Board of Directors must state the reasons for the postponement and the date of the postponed meeting. When the shareholders' general meeting is postponed, the Board of Directors may not change the record date of the shareholding of the shareholders entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting provided in the original notice.

Article 94 A notice of meeting of shareholders shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) specify the place, the date and time of the meeting;

(3) state the matters and proposals to be considered at the meeting;

provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the proposals put before them. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to

(10) specify the name and telephone number of the contact person of the meeting.

The notice convening shareholders' general meeting and its supplementary notice shall fully and completely disclose the specific contents of all motions. For those items requiring the opinions of independent directors, the notice of shareholders' general meeting or the supplementary notice shall disclose both the opinions and the reasons of independent directors.

Where the Company convenes the shareholders' general meeting and provides shareholders with online voting, the notice of meeting shall specify the time and voting procedures of online voting and the matters to be considered and approved. Online or other means of voting for shareholders' general meeting shall start not earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day before the convening of the on-the-spot shareholders' general meeting or later than 9:30 a.m. on the day of convening of the on-the-spot shareholders' general meeting, and shall end not earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day when the on-the-spot shareholders' general meeting is concluded.

The period between the record date and the date for the meeting shall not be less than 30 days. No changes shall be made once the record date is confirmed.

Article 95 Where the shareholders' general meeting intends to deliberate the election of directors or supervisors, the notice of meeting shall fully disclose the details information on the candidates for directors or supervisors at least in the following aspects:

- (1) Personal information such as educational background, work experience and other engagements;
- (2) Whether such candidate has any affiliation with the Company or its controlling shareholders or beneficial controllers;
- (3) The number of shares of the Company such candidate holds;
- (4) Whether such candidate has been penalised by the CSRC or any other relevant authorities.

Saving directors or supervisors who are elected by way of cumulative voting system, a single proposal shall be put forward for each candidate for directors or supervisors.

Article 96 Notice of shareholders' general meeting shall be served on the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote at the meeting), by announcement, by hand or by prepaid airmail to their addresses as shown in the register of shareholders.

The notice for holders of Domestic Shares shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the securities governing authority of the State Council not less than forty-five days (including forty-five days) before the date of the meeting; after the publication of notice, the holders of Domestic Shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' general meeting.

The notice for holders of Overseas Foreign Listed Shares shall be published on the website of the Company (www.csair.com) not less than forty-five days (including forty-five days) before the date of the meeting; after such publication, the holders of Overseas Foreign Listed Shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' general meeting.

Article 97 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the failure to receive the notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Article 98 The Board of Directors and other convener shall take necessary measures to ensure the good order of the shareholders' general meeting, take measures to deter any act disturbing the meeting, picking quarrels and provoking troubles or infringing the lawful rights and interests of any shareholder, and shall report in a timely manner such act to the relevant department for investigation and punishment.

Article 99 All the shareholders or their proxies recorded in the register of members on the record date are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting, and shall exercise their voting rights pursuant to the laws, regulations and these Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend the meeting in person, or they may appoint proxies to attend the meeting for them.

Article 100 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one or more other persons (whether a shareholder or not) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. A proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorisation from that shareholder:

(1) The shareholder's right to speak at the meeting;

(2) The right to demand or join in demanding a poll;

(3) The right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Where that shareholder is a recognised clearing house within the meaning of the Securities and Futures (Clearing Houses) Ordinance (Cap. 420 of the laws of Hong Kong), it may authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or representatives) at any shareholders' general meeting or any meeting of any class of shareholders, provided that if more than one person is so authorised, the authorisation must specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. The person so authorised will be entitled to exercise the same power on behalf of the recognised clearing house as that clearing house (or its nominees) could exercise if it were an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 101 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointer is a legal entity, either under seal or under the hand of a director or attorney duly authorised.

Article 102 If the instrument for appointing a proxy is signed by an attorney of the appointer, the power of attorney to sign or other documents of authorisation shall be notarially certified. The notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authorisation documents and the instrument appointing the proxy shall be deposited at the premises of the Company or such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting.

If the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or such person as is authorised by resolution of its Board of Directors or other governing body may attend at any shareholders' general meeting of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Article 103 Any instrument issued to a shareholder by the directors for use in appointing a proxy to attend and vote at meetings of the Company shall be in such format as to enable the shareholder to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against the motions according to his free will, and instructions shall be given in respect of each individual matter to be voted on at the meeting. The instrument of proxy shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions by the shareholder the proxy may vote as he thinks fit. Meanwhile, there shall be spaces for entering the date of issue and validity period and executing the signature (or affixing a seal). If the appointer is a legal person, the seal of the legal person entity shall also be affixed.

Article 104 The instrument for appointing a voting proxy and, if such instrument is signed by a person under a power of attorney or other authority on behalf of the appointer, a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authority, shall be deposited at the premises of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than twenty-four hours before the time for holding the meeting or the time appointed for the passing of the resolution.

If the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or such person as is authorised by resolution of its Board of Directors or other governing body may attend at any meeting of shareholders of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Article 105 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointer or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at its premises before the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.

Article 106 An individual shareholder who attends the shareholders' general meeting in person shall produce his identification card or other valid documents or certificates which can prove his identity, and his stock account card. Where a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting, the proxy shall produce his own identification documents and the instrument for appointing a proxy.

A legal person shareholder shall attend the meeting by its authorised representative or the attorney as appointed by such authorised representative. An authorised representative who attends the shareholders' general meeting shall produce his identification card and valid documents which can prove his identity. Where an attorney is appointed to attend the meeting, the attorney shall produce his own identification card and the relevant power of attorney executed by such authorised representative pursuant to the laws.

Article 107 The Company shall, subject to the shareholders' general meetings being legally and validly held, and so far as the conditions permit, encourage a higher proportion of participation of shareholders in shareholders' general meetings through various means, including using modern information technology to establish an online voting platform.

Article 108 Online voting adopted for the shareholders' general meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the relevant laws, rules and regulations. Where online voting is adopted for the shareholders' general meeting, all shareholders whose names appear on the register of members on the record date for the purpose of the shareholders' general meeting, are entitled to exercise their voting rights through the online voting system of the shareholders' general meeting, provided that the voting right of the same shares shall be exercised only by one of the following ways: on-the-spot voting, online voting or otherwise as specified. In the case of repeated voting for the same shares, only the first vote is valid.

- Article 109 The Board of Directors, independent directors and shareholders who meet the relevant requirements may solicit from other shareholders their voting rights in shareholders' general meetings. The solicitation shall be without consideration and information shall be fully disclosed to such shareholders.
- Article 110 The Board of the Company shall act in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders and shall examine the motions proposed at the shareholders' general meeting according to the provisions of Article 88.
- Article 111 If the proposing shareholders have any objection to the decision of the Board of Directors of not including their motions in the agendas of the shareholders' general meeting, they may request the convening of an extraordinary general meeting according to the provisions of Article 83.
- Article 112 The register of attendees of the meeting shall be prepared by the Company. Such register shall specify information such as the name of the persons (or units) attending the meeting, identity card number, residential address, number of shares or voting shares hold, name of the persons (or units) the proxy represents.
- Article 113 The convener and the legal counsel retained by the Company shall jointly verify the qualification of shareholders according to the register of shareholders provided by the securities depository and clearing authority, and shall register the name of the shareholders and the number of their voting shares. Such registration shall be concluded prior to the announcement by the chairman of the shareholders' general meeting of the number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting and the total number of their voting shares.
- Article 114 The chairman of the shareholders' general meeting shall, prior to the voting, declare the number of attending shareholders and proxies as well as the total number of their voting shares. The numbers of attending shareholders and proxies as well as the total number of their voting shares shall be subject to the register of the meeting.
- Article 115 All directors and supervisors and the board secretary shall attend the shareholders' general meeting, whereas the president and other senior administrative officers shall be present at the meeting.

Article 116 The Company shall formulate rules of procedures of the shareholders' general meeting to specify in detail the convention and voting procedures of the meeting, including notice registration, deliberation of proposals, votes, vote counting, announcement of voting results, formation of resolutions, minutes and the signatures thereon, announcement, as well as the principles of authorisation by the shareholders' general meeting to the Board of Directors, the contents of such authorisation shall be expressly specified. The rules of proceedings of the shareholders' general meeting shall be an appendix of these Articles of Association, and shall be drafted by the Board of Directors and approved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 117 At the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors and the supervisory committee shall report their respective work of the previous year to the general meeting of shareholders, and each independent director shall also make his duty report correspondingly.

Article 118 Except for trade secret of the Company and issues which are not discloseable at shareholders' general meetings as provided by laws, regulations, or securities rules, directors, supervisors and senior administrative officers shall reply or give explanation and description to the inquiries and suggestions raised by the shareholders at the Shareholders' general meeting.

Article 119 The board secretary shall be responsible for preparing minutes of shareholders' general meetings, which shall contain:

- (1) the time, venue, agendas of the meeting, and the name of the convener;
- (2) the name of the chairman of the meeting, the directors, supervisors, president and other senior administrative officers attending the meeting;
- (3) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of their voting shares and their respective proportions to the total number of shares of the Company; the numbers of voting shares of domestic shareholders (including their proxies), overseas listed foreign shareholders (including their proxies), holders of tradable shares (including the proxies) and holders of non-tradable shares (including the proxies) presented at the meeting and its proportion to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) the process of deliberation of each proposal, the main points of speeches and the voting results (including the votes on each resolution by domestic shareholders, foreign shareholders, holders of tradable shares and holders of non-tradable shares);
- (5) the inquiries or suggestions of the shareholders and the corresponding replies or explanations;
- (6) the names of legal counsel, vote counters, and supervisors;

(7) other contents which, shall be contained in the minutes of the meeting as prescribed by these Articles of Association.

Article 120 The chairman shall guarantee the veracity, accuracy and completeness of the minutes of the meeting. The directors, supervisors, board secretary, convener or their representative, chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of meeting shall be kept together with the valid information such as the attendance register of the attending shareholders and the power of attorney of their proxies, the votes cast by way of internet and by other means shall be kept at the premises of the Company for a period ten years.

Article 121 The convener shall ensure that the continuity of the shareholders' general meeting of until the final resolution is formed. Where the shareholders' general meeting is suspended or no resolution can be made due to force majeure or any other special causes, necessary measures shall be taken to resume or directly terminate the shareholders' general meeting, and an announcement shall be made in a timely manner. Meanwhile, the convener shall report this to the local office of the CSRC the stock exchange at the city where the Company is located.

Article 122 Resolutions of shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

To adopt an ordinary resolution, votes representing more than one half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including the proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favor of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

To adopt a special resolution, votes representing more than two thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including the proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favor of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

Shareholders (including the proxies) who attend the meeting shall expressly state their opinions for every matter to be determined by voting in one of the following options: For, Against, or Abstain.

Voters whose ballots are incomplete, incorrectly completed or illegible shall be deemed as giving up their voting rights, thus the voting result in respect of their shares shall be counted as "Abstain". When any shareholders (including proxy of any shareholders) shall abstain from voting or be limited to vote in favor of or against any designated resolution according to the relevant rules and regulations (including the listing rules of the relevant Exchange), any votes made by such proxy in contravention of the aforesaid regulation or limitation shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares.

Article When voting at the shareholders' general meeting, shareholders (including the proxies) may exercise their 123 voting rights in accordance with the number of their voting shares and each share shall have one vote.

Shares held by the Company have no voting rights and these shares shall not count in the total number of voting shares represented at the meeting.

The Board of Directors, independent directors and shareholders who meet the relevant requirements may solicit from other shareholders their voting rights.

Article The following issues shall be approved by vote on a poll under the voting supervisor's supervision at the 124 shareholders' general meeting:

(1) Connected transactions;

(2) Transactions that shall be approved by independent shareholders;

(3) Options granted to major shareholders or independent directors or any of their associates; and

(4) Any other transactions in which shareholders are materially interested and accordingly are required to refrain from voting at shareholders' general meeting.

Notwithstanding the above regulations, unless a poll is demanded before or after any vote by show of hands, at any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands if not expressly required to be decided by a poll:

(1) by the chairman of the meeting;

(2) by at least two shareholders entitled to vote present in person or by proxy;

(3) by one or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing 10% or more of all shares carrying the rights to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such a demand.

Article 125 A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 126 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 127 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.

Article 128 The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) Work reports of the Board of Directors and the supervisory committee;
- (2) Plans formulated by the Board of Directors for distribution of profits and for making up losses;
- (3) Removal of the members of the Board of Directors and members of the supervisory committee, their remuneration and method of payment;
- (4) Annual preliminary and final budget, balance sheet, profit and loss account and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) Annual report of the Company;
- (6) Matters other than those specified by laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association to be resolved by special resolutions.

Article 129 The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) The increase or decrease in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities of the Company;
- (2) The issue of debentures of the Company;

(3) The division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;

(4) Amendments to these Articles of Association;

(5) Repurchase of the Company's shares;

43

(6) The Company plans to purchase or sell major assets or provides a guarantee the amount of which within a year exceeds 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets;

(7) Share option scheme;

(8) Any other matters as provided by laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association and considered by the shareholders' general meeting by way of an ordinary resolution to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and shall be adopted by a special resolution.

Article 130 Any external guarantee made by the Company shall be considered and approved by the Board. The following matters involving guarantees shall be approved at the shareholders' general meeting after consideration and approval by the Board:

(1) any guarantee to be provided where the aggregate amount of external guarantees made by the Company and its subsidiaries reaches or exceeds 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;

(2) any guarantee to be provided for a party with a gearing ratio exceeding 70%;

(3) any single guarantee, the amount of which exceeding 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;

(4) any guarantee provided in favour of the shareholders, the beneficial controller or their respective related parties;

(5) any guarantee to be provided where the aggregate amount of external guarantees provided by the Company reaches or exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;

(6) any other guarantees which are subject to approval at the shareholders' general meeting as stipulated by laws, rules and regulations, these Articles of Association and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company is listed;

Article 131 Annual general meetings or extraordinary general meetings held at the request of shareholders and the supervisory committee shall not adopt voting by way of written resolutions. Extraordinary general meetings held for other reasons may vote by way of written resolutions, except for the following matters:

(1) Increase or decrease in the Company registered capital;

(2) Any issue of debentures by the Company;

- (3) Merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) Any amendment to these Articles of Association;
- (5) Plan for distribution of profits and recovery of losses;
- (6) Appointment and removal of members of the Board of Directors and the supervisory committee;
- (7) Change in application of raised funds;
- (8) Connected transactions that shall be considered and examined by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (9) Acquisition and disposal of assets that shall be considered and examined by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (10) Change of accounting firms;
- (11) Other matters that shall not be voted by way of written resolutions as provided by these Articles of Association.

Article 132 The nominee list of Directors and Supervisors of the Company shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for resolution. The Board of Directors shall simultaneously provide shareholders with bibliographical details, basic information about and written undertakings of nominees of Directors and Supervisors.

Article 133 When the shareholders' general meeting is examining and discussing a connected transaction, the connected shareholder shall not participate in the vote on the shares. His shares carrying the voting rights shall not be counted as valid votes in the total. The announcement on the resolutions passed by the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose information regarding the voting of the independent shareholders. If under special circumstances, the connected shareholders cannot withdraw from the voting, they may vote in the normal course of proceeding after the Company has obtained the approval from the competent authorities provided that the Company shall give detailed explanation thereof in the announcement on the resolutions passed by the shareholders' general meeting.

The accumulative voting system shall be promoted in the election of directors (including independent directors) and supervisors (excluding supervisors assumed by staff representatives) at the shareholders' general meetings.

The accumulative voting system referred to herein means that, in the election of directors or supervisors at the general meeting, each share carrying voting right shall carry the same number of voting right as the number of directors or supervisors proposed to be elected, and the voting rights of the shareholders may be freely cast among the proposed directors and supervisors, either be separately cast in favour of a number of nominees or be collectively cast in favour of one nominee. As such, based on the number of votes that the nominated directors and supervisors have got and the number of directors or supervisors proposed to be elected, those who have got more votes shall be elected.

Article 135 Differential voting shall be applied upon election of the Directors and Supervisors in accordance with the accumulative voting system. The number of nominees shall be more than the proposed number of Directors and Supervisors.

Article 136 After issue of notice of shareholders' general meeting by the Company about election of Directors and Supervisors, shareholders holding individually or in aggregate more than 1% of the voting shares of the Company may propose nominees of Directors and Supervisors before the shareholders' general meeting for review by the Board of Directors before submission to shareholders' general meeting for examination. Shareholders holding individually or in aggregate more than 1% of the voting shares of the Company may propose nominees of independent directors for approval by the Board of Directors before submission to a shareholders' general meeting for consideration and approval.

Article 137 The independent directors shall be elected separately from other members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the accumulative voting system.

Article 138 Except for the accumulative voting system, the shareholders' general meeting shall vote on all motions item by item, and shall vote on the motions in time sequence when various proposals are put forward for a single matter. Unless the shareholders' general meeting is suspended or no resolution can be passed due to force majeure or any other special reasons, the shareholders' general meeting shall not set aside or cast no vote on the motions.

Article 139 When a motion is put to discussion at the shareholders' general meeting, no modification of the motion shall be made, or the relevant change shall be deemed as a new motion which shall not be voted at the meeting.

Article 140 Before a resolution is voted on at a general meeting, two representatives of the shareholders shall be elected as vote counters and scrutinisers. Any shareholder who is interested in the matter under consideration and proxies of such shareholder shall not participate in vote counting or scrutinising.

When the shareholders are voting on the motions, lawyers, shareholder representatives and supervisory representatives shall count and scrutinise the votes jointly, and the voting result will be announced forthwith. Voting on the resolutions will be recorded in the minutes of meeting.

Shareholders or their proxies that vote on line shall have the right to check and inspect their voting results through the relevant voting system.

Article 141 The on site shareholders general meeting shall not end earlier than the online means or other means. The chairman of the meeting shall announce the voting and result of each of the motions, and announce whether they are approved according to the results.

Before the results are officially announced, all the on site related parties such as the listed companies, vote counters, vote scrutinisers, substantial shareholders and network service providers are obliged to keep the result confidential.

Article 142 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution is passed. His decision, which is final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of meeting.

Where online voting is provided at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company concurrently, the number of votes by shareholders or their appointed representatives through online voting system of the shareholders' general meeting shall be taken into the total number of votes of the shareholders' general meeting together with the number of votes on site of the meeting and by other mean as specified.

Article 143 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put to the vote of the meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting fails to have the votes counted, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the declaration of the result, and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted promptly.

Article 144 If votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the vote counting result shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 145 Results of the resolution shall be announced timely, and the announcement shall contain the number of shareholders and proxies present, the total number of voting rights and the percentage of the voting rights to the total of voting shares of the Company, means of voting, the voting result for each motion and the details of each of the resolutions. Statistic counting and announcement shall be conducted on the attendance for domestic shareholders and foreign shareholders separately.

Article 146 For If the motion is not passed, or if the resolutions of the previous general meeting have been changed by the present shareholders' general meeting, special highlight should be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 147 When the shareholders' general meeting has passed motions regarding cash distribution, bonus issue or conversion of capital common reserve into capital, the specific proposals will be implemented within two months after the close of the shareholders' general meeting and all administrative approvals (if necessary) are obtained.

Article 148 The minutes of meeting together with the attendance register of the attending shareholders and the power of attorney of their proxies shall be kept at the premises of the Company.

Article 149 Copies of the minutes of meeting shall be available for inspection free of charge by shareholders during business hours of the Company. If a shareholder requests the Company for a copy of such minutes, the Company shall send a copy of such minutes to him within seven days after having received reasonable charges.

Article 150 Matters uncovered by these Articles of Association regarding the convening of shareholders' general meeting, voting procedures and deliberation of proposals shall be handled in accordance with the relevant provisions of laws and regulations effective in the PRC.

CHAPTER 10 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY A CLASS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 151 Those shareholders who hold different classes of shares are shareholders of different classes.

Apart from the holders of other classes of shares, the holders of Domestic Shares and holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares shall be deemed to be shareholders of different classes.

A class of shareholders shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, enjoy rights and bear obligations.

Article 152 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders in the capacity of shareholders ("class rights") may not be varied or abrogated unless approved by a special resolution of shareholders in shareholders' general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Article 153 to 155.

Article 153 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or abrogation of the rights of a class of shareholders:

- (1) To increase or decrease the number of shares of such class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) To effect an exchange of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class or to effect an exchange or create a right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;
- (3) To remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) To reduce or remove a dividend preference or a liquidation preference attached to shares of such class;
- (5) To add, remove or reduce conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) To remove or reduce rights attached to shares of such class to receive payment payable by the Company in particular currencies;
- (7) To create a new class of shares having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (8) To restrict the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class or add to such restriction;
- (9) To issue rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares in the Company of such class or another class;
- (10) To increase the rights or privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) To restructure the Company where the proposed restructuring will result in different classes of shareholders bearing a disproportionate burden of such proposed restructuring;
- (12) To vary or abrogate the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 154 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning Clauses

(2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 153, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

The meaning of “interested shareholder(s)” as mentioned in the preceding paragraph is:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by offers to all shareholders on a pro rata basis or public dealing on a stock exchange under Article 38, a “controlling shareholder” within the meaning of Article 71;
- (2) in the case of a repurchase of share by an off-market contract under Article 38, a holder of the shares to which the proposed contract relates;
- (3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder within a class who bears less than a proportionate obligation imposed on that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interest of shareholders of that class.

Article 155 Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at the relevant meeting who, according to Article 153, are entitled to vote at class meetings.

Article 156 Notice of a class meeting shall be given by way of announcement or by any other manner as provided in these Articles of Association (if necessary) not less than forty-five days (including forty-five days) before the date of the class meeting to notify all of the shareholders in the share register of the class of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the class meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the class meeting shall deliver his written reply concerning attendance at the class meeting to the Company twenty days before the date of the class meeting.

If the number of shares carrying voting rights at the class meeting represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting reaches more than one half of the voting shares at the class meeting, the Company may hold the class meeting; if not, the Company shall within five days notify the shareholders again by public notice of the matters to be considered, the date and the place for the class meeting. The Company may then hold the class meeting after such publication of notice.

Article 157 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Any meeting of a class of shareholders shall be conducted in a manner as similar as possible to that of shareholders' general meetings. The provisions of these Articles of Association relating to the manner to conduct any shareholders' general meeting shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.

Article 158 Pursuant to the provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, in addition to other classes of shareholders, holders of Domestic Shares and holders of Overseas Listed Foreign Shares are deemed to be different class of shareholders.

Article 159 The special procedures for voting at any meeting of a class of shareholders shall not apply to the following circumstances:

Where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders in shareholders' general (1) meeting, either separately or concurrently once every twelve months, not more than 20% of each of its issued and outstanding Domestic Shares and Overseas Listed Foreign Shares;

Where the Company's plan to issue Domestic Shares and Overseas Listed Foreign Shares at the time of its (2) establishment is carried out within fifteen months from the date of approval by the Competent securities authority of the State Council.

CHAPTER 11 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 160 The Company shall have a Board of Directors which is responsible to the shareholders' general meetings. The Board of Directors shall comprise twelve members, one of whom shall be the chairman. The chairman and the vice chairman shall be elected with the approval of more than half of all the directors.

A director shall not be required to hold any shares of the Company.

Article 161 The Board shall be responsible to the shareholders' general meeting and shall exercise the following powers:

(1) To be responsible for the convening of the shareholders' general meeting and to report on its work to the shareholders' general meeting;

(2) To implement the resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings;

(3) To decide on the Company's business plans and investment plans;

(4) To formulate the Company's annual preliminary and financial budgets;

(5) To formulate the Company's profit distribution plan and plan for making up losses;
