On December 14, 2015, the Board of Directors of Jamba, Inc. (the “Company”) made a decision to close certain underperforming and cash flow negative Company stores in the Chicago and New York markets. This action is part of an overall effort to reduce operating costs. In connection with the store closures, the Company on December 17, 2015 notified approximately 104 employees who will be terminated as a result of the store closures.

The Company currently estimates it will incur a pre-tax restructuring charge in fiscal fourth quarter of approximately $96,000, all of which is related to severance and retention costs estimated to be incurred in connection with the reduction in workforce. At the time of filing, the Company is unable in good faith to make a determination of an estimate or range of estimates required by paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of Item 2.05 of Current Report on Form 8-K with respect to the charges related to the lease terminations and other closing costs of these stores. As permitted by Item 2.05 of Current Report on Form 8-K, the Company will file an amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K within four business days after the Company is able to determine of such estimate or range of estimates.

These forward-looking statements can generally be identified as such because the context of the statement will include words such as the Company “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “plans,” or “estimates” or words of similar meaning. Such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated as of the date of this report. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things, uncertainties regarding the timing of implementing the workforce reductions, store closures, lease terminations, and the amount of the related charges. Stockholders, potential investors, and other readers are urged to consider these factors in evaluating the forward-looking statements and cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included in this report are only made as of the date of this report, and the Company disclaims any obligation to publicly update such forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
