Notes:

1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The unaudited interim financial report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("the Listing Rules"). The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Group and are consistent with those adopted in the 2003 annual financial statements which are prepared in accordance with IFRS.

2 TURNOVER

The Group is principally engaged in the provision of domestic, Hong Kong regional and international passenger, cargo and mail air services, with flights operating primarily from the Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), which is both the main hub of the Group's route network and the location of its corporate headquarters.

Turnover comprises revenues from airline and airline-related businesses and is stated net of sales tax. The turnover for the six months ended 30 June, 2003, was stated net of sales tax and contributions to the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund.

Sales tax is payable at 3% (2003: 3%) of the Group's traffic revenue in respect of domestic flights and international/Hong Kong regional outbound flights. During the six months ended 30 June, 2003, the Group's passenger revenue for May and June 2003 was exempted from sales tax.

Prior to 1 April, 2004, contributions to the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund were payable at 5% and 2%, respectively of the Group's domestic and international/Hong Kong regional traffic revenue, except for the period from 1 May, 2003 to 31 March, 2004 during which the Group was exempted from contributions to the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund. Effective from 1 April, 2004, contributions to the CAAC Infrastructure Development Fund are payable based on the Group's traffic capacity deployed on its routes. The contributions now form part of the flight operations expenses.

The Group's turnover and operating profit/(loss) by geographic region are analysed as follows:

On 17 October, 2003, the Company's registered address was moved to Guangzhou Economic & Technology Development Zone. In accordance with the Rules and Regulations for Implementation of Income Tax for Foreign Investment Enterprises and Foreign Enterprises of the PRC and a taxation approval document from Guangzhou Municipal State Tax Bureau, the Company is entitled to enjoy the preferential tax policy implemented in the Guangzhou Economic & Technology Development Zone effective 1 October, 2003. As a result, the Company's income tax rate has been changed from 33% to 15% beginning from that date.

In respect of the Group's overseas airline activities, the Group has either obtained exemptions from overseas taxation pursuant to the bilateral aviation agreements between the overseas and PRC governments, or has sustained tax losses in these overseas jurisdictions. Accordingly, no provision for overseas tax has been made for the periods presented.

5 BASIC EARNINGS/(LOSS) PER SHARE

The calculation of basic earnings/(loss) per share is based on the consolidated profit attributable to shareholders of RMB266,184,000 (2003: loss of RMB1,231,613,000) and the weighted average number of shares in issue during the period of 4,374,178,000 (2003: 3,374,178,000).

There were no dilutive potential shares in existence during the six months ended 30 June, 2003 and 2004.

6 DIVIDENDS

The Board of Directors of the Company does not recommend the payment of an interim dividend for the six months ended 30 June, 2004 (2003: Nil).

7 PROFIT APPROPRIATIONS

No transfer to statutory surplus reserve, statutory public welfare fund and discretionary surplus reserve has been made during the period and the corresponding period of 2003. According to the Articles of Association of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries and the PRC Company Law, any such transfer shall be proposed by the respective board of directors and approved by shareholders in the annual general meeting.

8 CONVENIENCE TRANSLATION

The unaudited consolidated profit and loss account has been prepared in Renminbi ("RMB"), the national currency of the PRC. Translations of amounts from RMB into Hong Kong dollars ("HK$") and United States dollars ("US$") solely for the convenience of readers have been made at the rates of HK$1.00 to RMB1.0609 and US$1.00 to RMB8.2766, being the average of the buying and selling rates as quoted by the People's Bank of China at the close of business on 30 June, 2004. No representation is made that the RMB amounts could have been or could be converted into HK$ or US$ at these

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

In the first half of 2004, with the economy of the PRC entering into a new growth cycle, the demand for air transportation has continued to increase following the growth trend in the aviation transportation market which extended from the second half of last year. The Group's business benefited from such growth, with the result that the Group recorded different levels of increases in its passenger volume and passenger load factor, and a net profit of RMB266 million in the first half of this year.

Since last year, the political tension in the Middle East has continued which led to a surge in oil price and in turn caused an increase in the Group's fuel cost. On the premise of ensuring flight safety, the Group has adopted various technical measures to reduce fuel consumption. These measures include making accurate flight plan and minimizing turnaround time. Meanwhile, the Group has taken a series of fuel-saving measures such as refueling in areas where the fuel price is relatively low, so as to minimize the rise in costs.

With the approval of the State Council, the Proposal on Price Reform for Domestic Operation of Civil Airlines (CHINESE CHARACTERS) was implemented on 20 April, 2004, pursuant to which, indicative air ticket prices set by the PRC government apply to domestic airline operations. The PRC government pricing authority shifted its function from direct determination of air ticket prices to indirect supervision through setting of basic prices and their floating ranges. Chinese airlines can, within the ranges stipulated by the government pricing authority, determine their air ticket prices autonomously according to market situations, so that flexible sales strategies may be adopted for the purpose of maximizing profits. Chinese airlines therefore have greater autonomy in their operations. Taking advantage of the proposal above, the Group's overall passenger revenue increased as a result of adjustment of the air ticket pricing system. The Group is confident to develop its business operations through fair and healthy competition in a market that is becoming further structured.

For the period under review, the Group's total traffic revenue was RMB10,834 million, an increase of RMB4,296 million or 65.7% from the same period last year. Meanwhile, the Group's total traffic volume increased by 53.5% to 2,186 million RTKs. The aggregate utilisation rate of the Group's Boeing and Airbus aircraft was 9.40 hours per day for the period under review, an increase of 2.07 hours or 28.2% from the same period last year.

Passenger revenue for the period under review was RMB9,776 million, up 74.1% from the same period last year, representing 90.2% of the Group's total traffic revenue. Passenger traffic volume increased by 70.7% to 17,242 million RPKs.

Domestic passenger revenue was RMB7,882 million, up 74.7% from the same period last year. Domestic passenger revenue accounted for 80.6% of overall passenger revenue. Passenger capacity, in terms of ASKs, increased by 48.2% while passenger traffic volume, in terms of RPKs, increased by 72.3% from the same period last year, resulting in an increase in passenger load factor of 9.4 percentage points to 67.7%. The passenger yield per RPK increased by 1.8% from RMB0.57 to RMB0.58, mainly as a result of recording the contributions to the CAAC infrastructure development fund as an operating expense instead of being netted off with traffic revenue during the period under review.

On Hong Kong regional routes, the Group recorded passenger revenue of RMB535 million, up 82.6% from the same period last year. Hong Kong regional passenger revenue accounted for 5.5% of total passenger revenue. Passenger capacity, in terms of ASKs, increased by 59.4% while passenger traffic volume, in terms of RPKs increased by 95.6% from the same period last year, resulting in an increase in passenger load factor of 11.5 percentage points to 61.9%. The passenger yield per RPK decreased by 7.0% to RMB0.93 mainly due to intensified competition.

Passenger revenue for the Group's international routes amounted to RMB1,359 million, an increase of 67.2% from the same period last year. International passenger revenue accounted for 13.9% of total passenger revenue. Passenger capacity, in terms of ASKs, increased by 44.3% while passenger traffic volume, in terms of RPKs, increased by 60.4% from the same period last year, resulting in an increase in passenger load factor of 6.2 percentage points to 62.2%. The passenger yield per RPK increased by 4.7% to RMB0.45 mainly as a result of recording the contributions to the CAAC infrastructure development fund as an operating expense instead of being netted off with traffic revenue during the period under review.

Cargo and mail revenue was RMB1,058 million, an increase of 14.8% from the same period last year. Cargo and mail revenue accounted for 9.8% of total traffic revenue. Cargo and mail volume grew by 23.8% to 646 million RTKs from the same period last year, mainly due to the increase in traffic volume. The overall yield per cargo and mail tonne kilometre decreased by 7.3% to RMB1.64, mainly due to the decrease in fares resulting from intensified competition from other modes of transportation.

The Group's other revenue amounted to RMB260 million, an increase of 33.0% from the same period last year, primarily due to increases in commission income of RMB22 million and ground service income of RMB24 million, as a result of the increase in traffic volume.

Total operating expenses increased by 27.5% to RMB10,339 million from the same period last year, primarily due to increases in aircraft repairs and maintenance expenses, fuel cost, landing and navigation fees and commission expenses resulting from the increase in traffic volume during the period under review.

Flight operations expenses increased by 34.3% to RMB4,722 million from the same period last year. Of these expenses, fuel cost was RMB2,712 million, up 45.8% from the same period last year, mainly as a result of increases in fuel consumption and fuel prices. Aircraft insurance costs decreased by 31.5% to RMB85 million, primarily due to a decrease in aircraft insurance premiums prescribed by the PRC insurance company. Operating lease payments increased by 0.9% to RMB828 million, mainly due to the net effect of additional rental payments for new aircraft under operating leases and rental savings resulting from the cessation of wet leases of Boeing 747 cargo freighters. Air catering expenses increased by 45.1% to RMB312 million, primarily as a result of an increase in number of passengers carried during the period under review. Labour costs for flight personnel increased by 28.5% to RMB491 million, largely due to an increase in flying hours.

Maintenance expenses increased by 15.7% to RMB1,410 million, due mainly to increases in aircraft overhaul charges and routine maintenance costs resulting from the increase in flying hours during the period under review.

Aircraft and traffic servicing expenses increased by 41.0% to RMB1,689 million from the same period last year, reflecting primarily an increase in number of landing and takeoffs during the period under review.

Promotion and sales expenses increased by 29.7% to RMB874 million from the same period last year, primarily as a result of an increase in traffic revenue.

General and administrative expenses increased by 14.8% to RMB552 million from the same period last year, due mainly to an increase in the scale of operations during the period under review.

Depreciation and amortisation expenses increased by 6.6% to RMB1,083 million from the same period last year, reflecting primarily the effect of aircraft delivered during the second half of 2003 and the period under review.

Interest expense decreased by 24.6% to RMB344 million from the same period last year, primarily reflecting the combined effect of scheduled debt repayments and the replacement of certain RMB denominated bank loans of higher interest rates with US$ denominated bank loans of lower interest rates.

Minority interests increased by 215.2% to RMB108 million from the same period last year, primarily reflecting the net profits earned by certain subsidiaries of the Group for the period under review.

As a result of the aforementioned reasons, the Group earned a profit attributable to shareholders of RMB266 million for the six months ended 30 June, 2004, as compared to a loss attributable to shareholders of RMB1,232 million for the same period last year.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

As of 30 June, 2004, the Group's borrowings totalled RMB22,139 million, an increase of RMB3,679 million from RMB18,460 million as of 31 December, 2003. The majority of such borrowings were denominated in United States dollars and, to a smaller extent, in Japanese yen and Hong Kong dollars, with a significant portion being fixed interest rate borrowings. As of 30 June, 2004, cash and cash equivalents of the Group totalled RMB2,932 million, an increase of RMB852 million from RMB2,080 million as of 31 December, 2003. Of such balance, 15.2% was denominated in foreign currencies. Net debts (total borrowings net of cash and cash equivalents) increased by 17.3% to RMB19,207 million from RMB16,380 million as of 31 December, 2003.

As of 30 June, 2004, the shareholders' equity of the Group amounted to RMB12,162 million, an increase of RMB266 million from RMB11,896 million as of 31 December, 2003, reflecting the net profit earned for the period under review.

Net debt/equity ratio of the Group as of 30 June, 2004 was 1.58 times, as compared to 1.38 times as of 31 December, 2003.

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

In the normal course of business, the Group is exposed to fluctuations in foreign currencies and jet fuel prices. The Group's exposure to foreign currencies is mainly attributable to its debts denominated in foreign currencies. Depreciation or appreciation of the Renminbi against foreign currencies could affect the Group's results and financial position significantly, as the Group's foreign currency payments generally exceed its foreign currency receipts. The Group is not able to hedge its foreign currency exposure effectively other than by retaining its foreign currency denominated earnings and receipts to the extent permitted by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange, or subject to certain restrictive conditions, by entering into forward foreign exchange contracts with authorised PRC banks.

The Group is required to procure a majority of its jet fuel domestically at PRC spot market prices. There are currently no effective means available to the Group for managing its exposure associated with the fluctuations in domestic jet fuel prices.

CHARGES ON ASSETS

As of 30 June, 2004, certain aircraft of the Group with an aggregate carrying value of approximately RMB13,913 million (as of 31 December, 2003: RMB14,576 million) were mortgaged under certain loan and lease agreements.

CAPITAL AND INVESTING COMMITMENTS

As of 30 June, 2004, the Group had capital commitments of approximately RMB16,587 million. Of such amounts, RMB14,156 million was related to the acquisition of aircraft and related flight equipment and RMB1,640 million was related to the Group's facilities and equipment to be constructed and installed at the new Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport. The remaining amount of RMB791 million was related to the Group's other airport and office facilities and equipment, overhaul and maintenance bases and training facilities.

As of 30 June, 2004, the Group was committed to making a capital contribution of approximately RMB382 million to its jointly controlled entities.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

There have been no material adverse changes in the contingent liabilities of the Group since 31 December, 2003.

11

RECENT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Benefited from the strong growth of the China aviation market, the Group's business has been developing continuously and healthily. On 5 August, 2004, the opening of the new Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport which is one of our major operating bases, provides further opportunities for the expansion of the Company's operations. As one of the management's major goals, the Group will strive to maintain and promote the Group's market share in the expanding Guangzhou market. The Group believes that it can improve its ability to adapt to the civil aviation market and consolidate its leading position amongst the Chinese airlines by continually implementing innovations, improvements and upgrades to its various schemes designed to boost sales volume, such as route manager system and the dismissal of underperformed personnel policy. At the same time the Group also accelerates the process of integrating its route networks and transportation capacity, in order to achieve an operation of a traffic network hub.

As disclosed in an announcement of the Company dated 26 July, 2004, in order to enhance the Company's capital utilization rate of its capital and hence its investment return and profit, the Company entered into an asset management agreement with Zhong Zheng Wei Ye Investment Co., Ltd ("Zhong Zheng") (CHINESE CHARACTERS) and Centergate Securities Co., Ltd ("Centergate") (CHINESE CHARACTERS) on 22 July, 2004, pursuant to which the Company and Zhong Zheng jointly appointed Centergate to manage and invest capital investment of the Company and Zhong Zheng in the sum of RMB500 million and RMB75 million respectively. The appointment is effective from 27 July, 2004 to 26 July, 2005. If the annual rate of return from investment is 6% or below, Centergate will not charge any assets management fee. If the annual rate of return from investment exceeds 6%, Centergate will charge an assets management fee equivalent to a sum which is less than 60% of the excess of 6% annual return from investment of the Company's capital. The Board has approved the asset management agreement by way of a written approval in accordance with the articles of association of the Company and the laws of PRC.

OUTLOOK FOR THE SECOND HALF OF THE YEAR

The country's economy is entering a new cycle of rapid growth, with such growth being driven by factors including the acceleration of urbanization and upgrading in consumers' spending. Consumers' spending will provide a new boost for economic growth. With the patterns of the consumers' spending in automobile, housing, communication and travelling becoming the main themes of the upgraded spending pattern, the demand for air transportation will increase. The commencement of operation of the new Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport and the opening of the Company's new terminal in Beijing Capital International Airport also provide ample opportunities for the Group's further development. In order to match the increase in its capacity for growth, the Group will adjust its network allocation, utilize the new airport's enlarged transportation capacity by increasing its transportation volume, with a view to maintaining and increasing its market share as well as revenues from business operations.

The Company will continue to practise strict cost control to improve the overall benefits.

USE OF PROCEEDS FROM H SHARE AND A SHARES OFFERINGS

As stated in the 2003 Annual Report of the Company, as of 31 December, 2003, the Company has applied all the proceeds from H shares offering. The proceeds from A shares offering has been applied to purchase Boeing aircraft as disclosed in the A share prospectus of the Company. The uses of proceeds were unchanged.
