Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 filed with the SEC on March 15, 2018, Revlon Consumer Products Corporation (“RCPC”), the wholly-owned subsidiary of Revlon, Inc. (“Revlon” and together with RCPC, the “Company”) is in negotiations with its lenders to expand its available liquidity. Given that these discussions are ongoing, on June 18, 2018, RCPC entered into a Senior Unsecured Line of Credit Agreement (the “Line of Credit Agreement”) providing RCPC with a $50 million senior unsecured line of credit (the “Line of Credit”) from MacAndrews & Forbes Incorporated (the “Lender”), Revlon’s majority stockholder. The Lender beneficially owns 44,573,187 shares of Revlon’s Class A common stock, representing approximately 84.4% of Revlon’s outstanding shares of voting capital stock.

The Line of Credit allows RCPC to request loans thereunder and to use the proceeds of such loans for working capital and other general corporate purposes until the facility matures on December 31, 2018.

The Line of Credit bears interest at an annual rate of 8%, which is payable quarterly in arrears in cash on September 30, 2018 and at maturity. RCPC may, at its option, prepay any borrowings under the Line of Credit, in whole or in part (together with accrued and unpaid interest), at any time prior to maturity, without premium or penalty. RCPC is required to repay any outstanding loans under the Line of Credit, together with accrued interest thereon, if and to the extent that: (i) RCPC or any of its subsidiaries enters into a new financing agreement under which it or any of its subsidiaries is then able to draw; or (ii) for any reason RCPC or any of its subsidiaries has available unrestricted cash that RCPC determines, in its reasonable judgment, is not required to run their operations in the ordinary course of business, provided that such repayment under this clause (ii) would not result in material adverse tax consequences.

The Line of Credit Agreement includes customary events of default, including a cross default provision making it an event of default under the Line of Credit Agreement if there exists and continues an event default under RCPC’s existing bank term loan and revolver credit agreements or the indentures for its 5.75% Senior Notes or 6.25% Senior Notes. If any such event of default occurs, the Lender may declare all outstanding loans under the Line of Credit to be due and payable immediately.

The description above is qualified in its entirety by the Line of Credit Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
