ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

While the Registrant continues development, coding and testing work on its FormStream Query and FormStream Version 4.0 products, the launch of those products will be delayed until such time that the Registrant's existing personnel can complete remaining development, coding and testing work.

The delay of the launch of these products is due in part to certain initiatives commenced by the Registrant on June 12, 2007 to reduce expenses in its operations and to maximize its limited cash resources. The expense reductions included a reduction in force of the Registrant's headcount, targeted decreases in variable spending, and temporary reductions in management salaries, including the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. The reduction initiatives resulted from the Registrant's desire to maximize cash resources on hand. The Registrant continues to work with First Analysis Securities Corporation and has expanded their engagement to include the consideration of all strategic options. There can be no assurance that the Registrant will obtain funding on a timely basis or that the Registrant will successfully consummate a strategic transaction.
