Item 2.02 – Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On April 23, 2019, First Bancorp (the “Registrant” or “Company”) issued a news release to announce its financial results for the three months ended March 31, 2019. The news release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

The news release includes disclosure of net interest income on a tax-equivalent basis, which is a non-GAAP performance measure used by management in operating its business. Management believes that analysis of net interest income on a tax-equivalent basis is useful and appropriate because it allows a comparison of net interest income amounts in different periods without taking into account the different mix of taxable versus non-taxable investments that may have existed during those periods.

The news release also includes disclosure of tax-equivalent net interest margin, excluding the impact of loan discount accretion, which is a non-GAAP performance measure. Management believes that it is useful to calculate and present the net interest margin without the impact of loan discount accretion, for the reasons explained in the rest of this paragraph. Loan discount accretion is a non-cash interest income adjustment that is related to 1) the Company’s acquisition of loans and represents the portion of the fair value discount that was initially recorded on the acquired loans, and 2) the Company’s origination of SBA loans and the subsequent sale of the guaranteed portion of the loan that results in a discount being recorded on the retained portion of the loan. These discounts are recognized into income over the lives of the loans. At March 31, 2019, the Company had a remaining loan discount balance on acquired loans of $16.1 million compared to $22.3 million at March 31, 2018. At March 31, 2019 the Company had a remaining loan discount balance on SBA loans of $6.2 million compared to $3.2 million at March 31, 2018. For the related loans that perform and pay-down over time, the loan discount will also be reduced, with a corresponding increase to interest income. Therefore, management of the Company believes it is useful to also present this ratio to reflect the Company’s net interest margin excluding this non-cash, temporary loan discount accretion adjustment to aid investors in comparing financial results between periods.

The Registrant cautions that non-GAAP financial measures should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the reported GAAP results. A reconciliation between the non-GAAP financial measures presented and the most directly comparable financial measure calculated in accordance with GAAP is included in the news release and financial summary attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 8.01 – Other Events

On April 23, 2019, the Registrant issued a news release to announce its financial results for the three months ended March 31, 2019. The news release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
