On March 18, 2012, Board of Directors of the Registrant accepted the resignation of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP ("Baker Tilly") as the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm. Baker Tilly submitted a letter of resignation dated March 7, 2012 to the Board of Directors of the Registrant wherein Baker Tilly advising that upon re-examining their client continuation decision several concerns had arisen including the alleged deteriorating communication, the acquisition of business without sharing information with the auditor, questioned sustainability of operating cash flows to run the business (going concern), change in key personnel and accounting staff, lack of internal controls over financial reporting and deteriorating general internal controls over accounting processes. In addition, Baker Tilly noted that it had unpaid bills. Based on foregoing, Baker Tilly chose to disengage from the Registrant immediately.

During the Registrant's two most recent fiscal years and through the date of this report, (i) there were no disagreements with Baker Tilly on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to Baker Tilly's satisfaction, would have caused Baker Tilly to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in its reports on the Registrant's consolidated financial statements for such years, and (ii) there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), except as noted in the first paragraph of this Item.

The Registrant provided Baker Tilly with a copy of the foregoing disclosures before its filing with the SEC and requested that Baker Tilly furnish a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter will be filed by amendment as Exhibit 16.1 to this report on Form 8-K.

(b) New Independent Accountant

On March 22, 2012, the Registrant, upon the approval of the Registrant's Board of Directors, engaged the services of Crowe Horwath (Israel) ("Crowe Horwath") as the Registrant's new independent registered public accounting firm effective as of March 22, 2012 (the "Engagement Date").

Crowe Horwath, were engaged by the registrant as statutory accountants for local Israeli purposes and participated under the supervision of Baker Tilly the audits and reviews performed by Baker Tilly during the years 2006 – 2011.

During the Registrant's two most recent fiscal years and prior to the Engagement Date, the Registrant did not consult with Crowe Horwath regarding (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, (ii) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Registrant's financial statements, or (iii) any other matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event as set forth in Items 304(a)(1)(iv) and (v) of Regulation S-K.

The Registrant provided Crowe Horwath with a copy of the foregoing disclosures before its filing with the SEC and requested that Crowe Horwath furnish a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements.
