SECTION 1 - REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

This Current report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements which include, but are not limited to, statements concerning expectations as to our revenues, expenses, and net income, our growth strategies and plans, the status of evolving technologies and their growth potential, the adoption of future industry standards, expectations as to our financing and liquidity requirements and arrangements, the need for additional capital, and other matters that are not historical facts. These forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations, estimates, and projections about our industry, management's beliefs, and certain assumptions made by it. Words such as "anticipates", "appears", "expects", "intends", "plans", "believes", "seeks", "estimates", "may", "will" and variations of these words expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. In addition, any statements that refer to expectations, projections, or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties, and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual results could differ materially and adversely from those results expressed in any forward-looking statements, as a result of various factors. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which are based only upon information available as of the date of this report. We undertake no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statements for any reason.

On March 23, 2010 the Registrant entered into a share exchange agreement with the former stockholders of AudioEye, Inc. (hereinafter "AudioEye") whereby AudioEye became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant subject to the former stockholders retaining the right to receive cash from the exploitation of the technology of AudioEye. The Registrant has outstanding 13% Senior Secured Convertible Extendable Notes due in 2011 with a current aggregate balance of $1,075,000 (hereinafter the "Notes"). The Registrant believes that it cannot with its current debt structure raise sufficient working capital to fully exploit and grow the business of AudioEye at this time.

On June 22, 2003 the Registrant entered into a Master Agreement subject to shareholder approval as may be required under applicable law and subject to closing conditions (hereinafter the "Agreement") with AudioEye Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation (hereinafter "AudioEye Acquisition") pursuant to which:

1. The the shareholders of AudioEye Acquisition.Corp will exchange 100% of the stock in AudioEye Acquisition Corp for 80% of the capital stock of AudioEye.
2. The Registrant will retain 15% of AudioEye subject to transfer restrictions in accordance with the Agreement.
3. The Registrant will distribute to its shareholders on the closing date, in the form of a dividend, 5% of the capital stock of AudioEye in accordance with provisions of the Agreement.
4. AudioEye will pay to the Registrant 10% of cash received from income earned, settlements or judgments directly resulting from, AudioEye's patent enforcement and licensing strategy whether received by, AudioEye or any of its affiliates, net of any direct costs or tax implications incurred in pursuit of such strategy pertaining to the patents as fully described in the Agreement.
5. AudioEye will enter into a consulting agreement with the Registrant whereby the Registrant will receive a commission of not less than 7.5% of all revenues received by AudioEye after the closing date from all business, clients or other sources of revenue procured by the Registrant or its employees, officers or subsidiaries and directed to AudioEye and 10% of net revenues obtained from a third party described in the agreement.

6. AudioEye will arrange the release of the obligations of the Registrant under the Notes pursuant to a novation or other form of release of such obligation which shall include a termination of any security interest on any post Spin Off assets of the Registrant.

The Registrant believes that such a distribution, when combined with the other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, will allow AudioEye to raise capital and grow its business in such manner as it no longer can as a subsidiary of the Registrant, thus generating increased value for the Registrant's stockholders.
