ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Article Twelfth of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended by Articles of Amendment filed on June 12, 1995, provides in substance that, (a) to the full extent that the Virginia Stock Corporation Act permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of Directors and officers, no Director or officer of the corporation shall be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages arising out of any transaction; (b) to the full extent permitted by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, the Company shall indemnify any person who is or was a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee or in a similar capacity of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability incurred by him in connection with such proceeding.

Article Twelfth also provides that the Board of Directors is empowered, by a majority vote of a quorum of the disinterested Directors, to enter into a contract to indemnify and Director or officer in respect of any proceeding arising from any act or omission, whether occurring before or after the execution of such contract and that, to the full extent permitted by the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, the Company shall pay for or reimburse the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Director or officer who is a party to a proceeding, for which expenses said director or officer is or may be entitled to indemnification under the Articles of Incorporation, in advance of final disposition of the proceeding.

Article Twelfth further provides that neither the amendment nor repeal of Article Twelfth, nor the adoption or amendment of any provision of the Company's Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws inconsistent with Article Twelfth, shall have any effect on or diminish the rights provided in Article Twelfth with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. Specifically, Article XIII provides that any person made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate representative is or was a Director, officer or employee of the Company, or of any corporation in which he served as such at the request of the Company, shall be indemnified by the Company against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceedings, or in connection with any appeal therein, to the fullest extent provided by law.
