RYANAIR LAUNCHES 8 NEW
ROUTES TO BRITAIN
4 TO LIVERPOOL, 2 TO LONDON, 1 TO NEWCASTLE & GLASGOW
LAUNCHES EUROPE WIDE SEAT SALE - 3M REASONS TO VISIT LONDON

In London today (Wednesday, 13th July 2005) Ryanair, the largest passenger airline in the UK-European market and the number one carrier of overseas visitors into London unveiled 8 new routes for this Winter's schedule, including two new destinations with daily flights from London Stansted to Toulon in the South of France and Krakow in Poland. Ryanair also unveiled four new routes from its Liverpool base to Oslo, Riga, Carcassonne and Bergerac, as well as a new route from Newcastle to Oslo and from Glasgow Prestwick to Krakow. As part of this expansion a fifth aircraft will now be based in Liverpool from 27th September next.

Ryanair also announced this morning that it would launch a major tourism drive to encourage visitors to come to London by releasing 3 million seats at a price of just GBP1 or EUR1 plus taxes, which have gone on sale on Ryanair's website at www.ryanair.com for travel during August, September and October 2005. This seat sale will be backed up with a Pan European GBP5 million advertising campaign over the next 3 months featuring London and a range of other British cities.

Speaking this morning in London, Ryanair's CEO, Michael O'Leary, said:

"Ryanair decided to bring forward these route launches and this seat sale from September to the middle of July because we believe the best response to last weeks terrorist attacks is for ordinary people to continue to live their lives as normal, and to continue to travel as before. It is more important than ever that the leading players in London and British tourism such as Ryanair make it even more attractive for visitors to come to London this Autumn and show the terrorists that we will not be put off by their atrocities.

"We are delighted with our two new routes to London from Krakow in Poland and Toulon in the South of France and we are particularly pleased with the continued expansion of our successful Liverpool base, which is growing rapidly. We expect that traffic at Liverpool will continue to grow, particularly as the city becomes Europe's capital of culture in 2006.

"These 3 million seats went on sale on our website at Ryanair.com this week and will remain available for booking until midnight on Monday next for travel during the months of August, September and October 2005. However, since seats at these low prices during the peak Summer period are a rarity, we would encourage all visitors to London to snap them up quickly as there will be huge demand for them".
