Further comment on UK Government announcement

Further to its recent statement, Barclays confirms that it is considering a number of options, including capital raising, relating to the industry-wide commitment to increase Tier 1 Capital in the sector by an aggregate £25 billion, as announced by the UK Government on 8 October 2008. The agreement between the industry and the UK Government is that the additional capital will be raised by the end of 2008. Barclays will update the market on its plans in accordance with this timetable
