No. 1 Regulatory News Service Announcement, dated 14 December 2011
re: Management Update

14 December 2011

LLOYDS BANKING GROUP MANAGEMENT UPDATE

Following the announcement of 2 November 2011 stating that the Group Chief Executive, António Horta-Osório, had taken a leave of absence on medical advice, the Lloyds Banking Group Board has completed a rigorous process, including obtaining independent medical advice, to assess António's ability to return and effectively lead the Group. The independent medical advice has concluded that he has made a full recovery. Following due consideration the Board has decided he will return to the bank as Group Chief Executive on 9 January 2012.

As part of the process the Board has agreed to an initiative from António to restructure and reduce his direct reporting lines in order to strengthen the accountabilities of his senior management team. This is designed to provide the most appropriate environment to maximise the senior management's contribution as the Group enters the next stage of its transformation.

Sir Win Bischoff, Chairman of Lloyds Banking Group, said: "The Board and I are pleased that António has made a full recovery. We are looking forward to his return after the New Year to continue to lead the Group and build on the strong progress he has already made in transforming the business and delivering the strategic plan.

"The Board would like to thank Tim Tookey for the considerable support and dedication he has shown whilst acting as Interim Group Chief Executive in addition to his role as Group Finance Director."
