PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 could not be filed within the prescribed time period because the Registrant could not complete the preparation of the required information without unreasonable effort and expense.

The delay in filing of the Registrant's Form 10-K results from the need to complete an investigation relating to the matter described below (the Transaction) and consideration of the impact of the Transaction on the Registrant's assessment of internal controls over financial reporting. Based on the current information available, the Registrant believes that the relevant facts are as follows:

On February 24, 2005, Dennis J. Kerrison, the Chief Executive Officer and President of the Registrant arranged to transfer GBP 50,000 (equivalent to approximately SAR 500,000) from his bank account in the United Kingdom to the account of the Associated Octel Company (South Africa) (Pty) Limited (AOCSA), a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of the Registrant. On the same day, at the initiation of Mr. Kerrison, AOCSA made a payment of SAR 500,000 (equivalent to approximately USD 85,000) for Mr. Kerrison's personal use. On February 28, 2005 AOCSA received the funds transmitted from Mr. Kerrison's U.K. bank account. Mr. Kerrison later reimbursed AOCSA for associated costs.

On March 2, 2005, the Registrant, upon approval by the chairman of the Audit Committee, commenced an internal review of AOCSA led by the Chief Internal Auditor.

On March 9, 2005 the Board of Directors established a special committee consisting of the members of the Audit Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the Special Committee) to investigate and make recommendations in respect of the facts surrounding the Transaction, including whether the Transaction involved a breach of the Code of Ethics of the Registrant and whether the Transaction and any related actions or omissions were executed in compliance with applicable law. The Special Committee has commenced an internal review and retained independent counsel to assist the Special Committee in its investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, the Registrant's management will consider the impact upon its assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting and whether a significant or material weakness exists therein.

The Registrant considers that it is inappropriate for the Annual Report on Form 10-K to be filed until such time as the investigation and evaluation of the Registrant's internal controls over financial reporting has been completed.
