SIX MONTHS ENDED 30 JUNE 2006 COMPARED WITH SIX MONTHS ENDED 30 JUNE 2005

Total Revenues

For the six months ended 30 June 2006, gross written premiums and policy fees was RMB54,580 million (RMB42,607 million for the corresponding period in 2005), representing an increase of 28.1% over the corresponding period in 2005. Such increase was mainly attributable to the growth in total investment assets. The relatively favorable market environment during the first half of the year and adjustments made to optimize the investment portfolio improved the investment return of the investment assets.

For the six months ended 30 June 2006, net realised gain on financial assets was RMB497 million (six months ended 30 June 2005: net realised loss on financial assets RMB383 million). Such result was mainly attributable to the generally favorable performance of the capital market in the PRC during the first half of 2006.

Benefits, claims and expenses

For the six months ended 30 June 2006, the Company's total benefits, claims and expenses were RMB61,355 million (six months ended 30 June 2005: RMB42,783 million), which were increased by 43.4% as compared with the same period in 2005. For the six months ended 30 June 2006, our consolidated cost ratio was 15.0%, which was further reduced from the same period in 2005.

Income tax

For the six months ended 30 June 2006, the Company's income tax expenses were RMB2,299 million (six months ended 30 June 2005: RMB1,391 million). The effective tax rate reduced from 21.0% in the first half of 2005 to 20.3% in the first half of 2006. ## LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Sources of Liquidity

The Company's principal cash inflows come from insurance premiums, deposits, proceeds from sales and maturity of financial assets, and net investment income. The primary concerns over liquidity with respect to these cash inflows are the risk of early withdrawals by contract holders and policyholders, as well as the risks of default by debtors, volatilities in interest rate and capital market. The Company will closely monitor and manage these risks.

Additional sources of liquidity to meet unexpected cash outflows are available from cash and our investment assets. ## 5 FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (CONTINUED)

The Group issues contracts that transfer insurance risk or financial risk or both. The Group's activities also expose it to a variety of financial risks. The management of insurance and financial risk are described in Note 4 of 2005 annual financial statements.

6 INSURANCE CONTRACTS

The assumptions used in the preparation of these condensed consolidated financial statements are disclosed in the notes to 2005 annual financial statements. The Group generally utilised the assumptions of prior year for the new business acquired. The major assumptions adopted in the development of liabilities arising from long-term insurance contracts are:

(a) Process used to decide on assumptions

(i) Investment return assumptions are based on estimates of future yields on the Group's investments.

In determining interest rate assumptions, the Group considers past investment experience, the current and future mix of its investment portfolio and trends in yields. The assumed rate of investment return in future years reflect increased investment in higher yielding securities, including corporate bonds, subordinated bonds/debts, longer duration debt securities and equity securities. The assumed rate of investment return and provision for adverse deviation used are as follows:

Policies issued	Interest rate assumptions		Provision for adverse deviation
Prior to 2003	3.80%	5.00%	0.25%	0.50%
2003	3.65%	5.00%	0.25%	0.50%
2004	3.70%	5.17%	0.25%	0.50%
2005	4.00%	5.20%	0.25%	0.50%
Six months ended 30 June 2006	4.30%	5.20%	0.30%	0.50%

(ii) Estimates are made for mortality and morbidity rates in each of the years that the Group is exposed to risk. The assumed mortality rates and morbidity rates, varying by age of the insured and contract type, are based upon expected experience at date of contract issue plus, where applicable, a margin for adverse deviation.

The Group bases its mortality assumptions on China Life Insurance Mortality Table (1990-1993) and China Life Insurance Mortality Table (2000-2003), adjusted where appropriate to reflect the Group's recent historical mortality experience. Appropriate but not excessively prudent allowance is made for future mortality improvement on contracts that insure the risk of longevity, such as annuities. The main source of uncertainty with life insurance contracts is that epidemics such as Avian Flu, AIDS, SARS and wide-ranging lifestyle changes could result in deterioration in future mortality experience, thus leading to an inadequate liability. Similarly, continuing advancements in medical care and social conditions could result in improvements in longevity that exceed those allowed for in the estimates used to determine the liability for contracts where the Group is exposed to longevity risk.

The Group bases its morbidity assumptions for critical illness products on Taiwanese experience in the critical illness market, as the best proxy for the China market adjusted where appropriate to reflect the Group's recent historical and projected future experience. There are two main sources of uncertainty. First, wide-ranging lifestyle changes could result in future deterioration in morbidity experience. Second, future development of medical technologies and improved coverage of medical facilities available to policyholders may bring forward the timing of diagnosing critical illness, which demands earlier payment of the critical illness benefits. Both could ultimately result in an inadequate liability if current morbidity assumptions do not properly reflect such secular trends.

- (iii) The assumption for policy administration expenses has been based on expected unit costs plus, where applicable, a margin for adverse deviation. Unit costs have been based on an analysis of actual experience. The unit cost factors are expressed on both a per-policy and a percent-of-premium basis (before allowance for insurance guarantee fund), as follows:

Policies issued	Individual Life				Group Life
	RMB Per Policy		% of Premium		RMB Per Policy	% of Premium
Prior to 2003	15.0		2.00%		15.0	2.00%

2004	10.0	17.5	1.65%	2.55%	17.5	1.65%
2005	14.5	19.5	1.50%	1.80%	4.0	1.30%
Six months ended 30 June
2006	14.5	19.5	1.50%	1.80%	4.0	1.30%

13 EARNINGS PER SHARE

There is no difference between basic and diluted earnings per share. The basic and diluted earnings per share for the six months ended 30 June 2006 is based on the weighted average number of 26,764,705,000 (for the six months ended 30 June 2005: 26,764,705,000).

14 STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

Stock appreciation rights have been granted in units, with each unit representing one share. No shares of common stock will be issued under the stock appreciation rights plan. According to this plan, all stock appreciation rights will have an exercise period of five years from date of grant and will not be exercisable before the fourth anniversary of the date of grant unless specified performance or other conditions have been met. The exercise price of stock appreciation rights will be the average closing price of the shares in the five trading days prior to the date of the grant. Upon exercise of the stock appreciation rights, the exercising recipient will receive payment in Renminbi, subject to any withholding tax, equal to the number of stock appreciation rights exercised times the difference between the exercise price and market price of the H shares at the time of exercise.

Accordingly, the board of directors of the Company approved, on 5 January 2006, a grant of stock appreciation rights of 4.05 million units, each representing 1 H share, to eligible employees. The exercise price of the grant was HK$5.33, the average closing price of shares in the five trading days prior to 1 July 2005, the date for vesting and exercise price setting purposes.

On 5 January 2006, another grant of stock appreciation rights of no more than 0.2% of issued share capital was also approved in principle by the board of directors of the Company. The exercise price of the grant was HK$6.83, the average closing price of shares in five trading days prior to 1 January 2006, the date for vesting and exercise price setting purposes of this grant. As at 30 June 2006, the recipients and quantities of the grant are still to be determined and are subject to further approval.

As at 30 June 2006, 855,043 of stock appreciation rights have been exercised. The Group recognises expense of the stock appreciation rights in the income statement over the applicable vesting period. For the six months ended 30 June 2006, the expense recognised by the Group in respect of stock appreciation rights was approximately RMB 31 million. The carrying amount of liability arising from stock appreciation rights was approximately RMB 31 million as at 30 June 2006.

15 DIVIDENDS

A dividend in respect of 2005 of RMB0.05 per ordinary share, amounting to a total dividend of RMB1,338 million, was approved and declared at the Annual General Meeting in June 2006.

Related parties are those parties which have the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions. Parties are also considered to be related if they are subject to common control or common significant influence. The table set forth below summarises the names of significant related parties and nature of relationship with the Company as of 30 June 2006:

(b) Transactions with CLIC and AMC

The following table summarises significant recurring transactions carried out by the Company with CLIC and AMC for the six months ended 30 June 2006.

Notes:

- (i) As part of the restructuring, CLIC transferred its entire branch services network to the Company. CLIC and the Company have entered into a Policy Management Agreement on 30 September 2003 to engage the Company to provide policy administration services to CLIC relating to the non-transferred policies. The Company, as a service provider, does not acquire any rights or assume any obligations as an insurer under the non-transferred policies. In consideration of the services provided under the agreement, CLIC will pay the Company a service fee based on the estimated cost of providing the services, to which a profit margin is added. The service fee is equal to, for each semi-annual payment period, the sum of (1) the number of non-transferred policies in force that were within their policy term as of the last day of the period, multiplied by RMB8.00 per policy and (2) 2.50% of the actual premiums and deposits in respect of such policies collected during the period. The policy management fee income is included in other income in consolidated income statement. On 24 December 2005, the Company and CLIC have entered into the Renewed Policy Management Agreement. There is no significant change in respect of relevant terms and conditions.

- (ii) On 30 November 2003, CLIC and the Company separately entered into asset management agreements with China Life Insurance Asset Management Company Limited (AMC), the Company's 60% owned subsidiary. The terms of the two agreements are the same. Under the agreement, AMC agreed to invest and manage assets entrusted to it by CLIC and the Company on a discretionary basis, subject to the investment guidelines and instructions given by them. In consideration of its services provided under the agreement, CLIC and the Company agreed to pay AMC a monthly service fee.

The monthly service fee is calculated on a monthly basis, by multiplying the average of net asset value of the assets in each such category under management at the end of any given month and the end of the previous month by the applicable annual rate for that month set forth in the agreement. The rate was determined based on the analysis of the cost of providing the service, market practice and the size and composition of the asset pool to be managed. If the average investment rate of return for the assets managed for a particular year exceeds a target investment rate of return, as previously agreed, by at least ten basis points, AMC will be entitled to an annual performance bonus, the amount of which shall not exceed 50% of the annual service fees for that year. If the average investment rate of return is less than the target investment rate of return, as agreed, by at least ten basis points, AMC will be required to rebate a portion of its fee, the amount of which shall not exceed 25% of the annual service fees for that year.

Under a separate agreement signed by CLIC and the Company on 30 September 2003, the Company agreed to invest and manage the assets entrusted to it by CLIC for the period prior to the establishment of AMC on 30 November 2003. Under the agreement, the scope of service to be provided by the Company and the calculation basis of the monthly service are the same as the agreement signed between CLIC and AMC as mentioned above.

On 27 December 2005, CLIC and the AMC entered into the renewed CLIC asset management agreement. Under the new agreement, CLIC agreed to pay the AMC a service fee at the rate of 0.05% per annum. The service fee is calculated and payable on a monthly basis, by multiplying the average of balance of book value of the assets under management (after deducting the funds obtained and interests accrued from repurchase transactions) at the beginning and at the end of any given month by the rate of 0.05%, divided by 12. Such rate was determined by the AMC and CLIC with reference to the applicable management fee rate pre-determined for each specified category of assets managed by the AMC under the renewed Company asset management agreement, which was a comprehensive service fee rate arrived at.

On 29 December 2005, the Company and the AMC entered into the renewed Company asset management agreements. Under the new agreement, the Company agrees to pay the AMC: a fixed service fee and a variable service fee. The fixed service fee is payable monthly and is calculated with reference to the net asset value of the assets in each specified category managed by the AMC and the applicable management fee rates pre-determined by the parties on an arm's length basis. The variable service fee equals to 10% of the fixed service fee per annum payable annually. The service fees under the renewed Company asset management agreement were determined by the Company and the AMC based on an analysis of the cost of service, market practice and the size and composition of the asset pool to be managed.

Although the representation of the service fee rates under the renewed CLIC asset management agreement and the renewed Company asset management agreement is different, the ultimate comprehensive service fee rate calculated under each of these two agreements is basically the same.

The asset management fee charged to the Company by AMC is eliminated through the consolidated income statement.

- (iii) The Company has entered into a property leasing agreement with CLIC on 30 September 2003, pursuant to which CLIC agreed to lease to the Company some of its owned and leased buildings. The annual rent payable by the Company to CLIC in relation to the CLIC owned properties is determined by reference to market rent or, the costs incurred by CLIC in holding and maintaining the properties, plus a margin of approximately 5%. The annual rent payable by the Company to CLIC in relation to the CLIC leased properties is determined by reference to the rent payable under the head lease plus the actual costs incurred by CLIC arising in connection with the subletting of the properties. The Company has directly paid the relevant rental expenses raised from CLIC leased properties to the third-party instead of CLIC. On 23 December 2005, the Company and CLIC have entered into the Renewed Property leasing agreement, which will expire on 31 December 2006 and subject to renewal. There is no significant change in respect of relevant terms and condition.

(e) Transactions with state-owned enterprises

Under HKAS 24, business transactions between state-owned enterprises controlled by the PRC government are within the scope of related party transactions. CLIC, the ultimate holding company of the Group, is a state owned enterprise. The Group's key business and therefore the business transactions with other state-owned enterprises are primarily related to insurance and investment activities. The related party transactions with other state-owned enterprises were conducted in the ordinary course of business. Due to the complex ownership structure, the PRC government may hold indirect interests in many companies. Some of these interests may, in themselves or when combined with other indirect interests, be controlling interests which may not be known to the Group. Nevertheless, the Group believes that the following captures the material related party transactions.

As at 30 June 2006, more than 65% (31 December 2005: more than 63%) of bank deposits were with state-owned banks; more than 90% (31 December 2005: approximately 94%) of the issuers of corporate bonds and subordinated bonds/debts held by the Group were state-owned enterprises. For the six months ended 30 June 2006, approximately 60% (for the six months ended 30 June 2005: more than 75%) of the group insurance business of the Group were with state-owned enterprises; approximately 90% (for the six months ended 30 June 2005: approximately 80%) of bankassurance brokerage charges of RMB1,199 million (for the six months ended 30 June 2005: RMB1,146 million) were paid to state-owned banks and post offices; almost all of the reinsurance agreements of the Group are entered into with a state-owned reinsurance company; more than 65% (for the six months ended 30 June 2005: more than 70%) of bank deposit interest income were from state-owned banks.

Supplementary Information for ADS Holders

RECONCILIATION OF HKFRS AND UNITED STATES GENERALLY ACCEPTED ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES ( US GAAP )

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS, which differs in certain significant respects from US GAAP.

There are no material differences between HKFRS and US GAAP that had an effect on net profit for six months periods ended 30 June 2006 and 2005 and on shareholders' equity as at 30 June 2006 and 31 December 2005.

PROPERTY, PLANT, AND EQUIPMENT

Certain property, plant and equipment on hand as at 1 January 2000 have been valued at fair values rather than at historical cost less depreciation, which is required by US GAAP. The Group has not been able to quantify the effect of the difference in accounting treatment because, prior to 1 January 1997, the predecessor company did not maintain sufficiently detailed historical cost records. The fair market values recorded in the opening balance of the Group at 1 January 2000 have been carried forward as the deemed cost.
