NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for interim financial information and in conjunction with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management of First Equity Properties, Inc., all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation of First Equity Properties, Inc.'s balance sheet, statement of earnings and statement of cash flows, have been included.

The financial statements for the period ended March 31, 2007 do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for complete financial statements. You should read these financial statements in conjunction with the financial statements and footnotes thereto in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. Hereafter in this document, First Equity Properties, Inc. is referred to as FEPI.

Operating results for the three-month period ended March 31, 2007, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended December 31, 2007.

NOTE B. FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

The accompanying unaudited 2007 financial statements contain an accrual for current federal income taxes calculated using an estimated tax rate of 34%. There are no significant differences between the Company's net income for financial and income tax reporting.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis provide information which management believes is relevant to an assessment and understanding of the Company's results of operations and financial condition. The discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of March 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006, the company had total assets of $2,467,313 and $2,471,212, respectively. Of that amount $409 and $63,672 was held in cash as of March 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively.

Results of Operations

The Company's sole source of income is from interest on notes receivables from affiliated entities. The average income received from interest was approximately $59,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The Company's revenues are consistent with the prior year. The major operating expenses are related to the professional fees required to maintain the organization. These expenses are relatively consistent and comparable to prior year. The increase in income tax expense is due to the company using all of its net operating loss (NOL) carry forwards in prior years.

Financial Condition and Liquidity

The Company's significant assets consist of two notes receivables from affiliated parties of $2,466,904 and $2,407,540 as of March 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively. The increase in the current year amount is due to three months of interest income accrued as of March 31, 2007. The Company is using a tax rate of 34% to estimate the current period's tax provision. The Company has accrued $19,409 as of March 31, 2007 for the estimated tax liability.

The Company's payable consists of four affiliated payables totaling $1,827,980 and $1,847,980 as of March 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively. The Company has paid down $20,000 of this obligation in the current period. The obligations are non-interest bearing and carry no stated maturity dates.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Not applicable.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

- (a) As of the end of the period covered by this report, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Accounting Officer, and Acting Principal Executive Officer of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Accounting Officer and Acting Principal Executive Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting him to material information relating to the Company (including its consolidated subsidiaries) required to be included in the Company's periodic SEC filings.
- (b) There have been no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting during the quarter ended March 31, 2007, that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.
