Section 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

The information provided pursuant to this Item 7.01 shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) or incorporated by reference into those filings of Cell Therapeutics, Inc. (the Company) that provide for the incorporation of all reports and documents filed by the Company under the Exchange Act. The information furnished pursuant to this Item 7.01 shall instead be deemed furnished.

In connection with the Step-Up Equity Financing Agreement by and between Société Générale and Cell Therapeutics, Inc. (the Company) dated June 21, 2006, as amended (the Agreement), the Company filed with the Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa (CONSOB) a listing prospectus relating to offerings of its common stock pursuant to the Agreement, and on January 8, 2008, CONSOB approved the Company's publication of the listing prospectus. The Company intends to publish its listing prospectus with CONSOB shortly. A copy of the press release announcing such authorization is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

Subject to certain conditions, the Agreement allows the Company to request that Société Générale purchase shares of the Company's common stock, no par value (Common Stock) in a series of tranches through January 2009. The allowable size of each tranche is determined based on a formula that measures the trading volume of the Company's stock. The Agreement allows the Company to issue up to 60 million worth of Common Stock over the term of the Agreement, which continues until January 2009. Any Common Stock issued pursuant to the Agreement will be registered under the Company's shelf registration statement and is to be resold by Société Générale, acting as a financial intermediary, on the Italian market. Any issuance of Common Stock pursuant to the Agreement is at the election of the Company, and the Company is not required to issue Common Stock pursuant to the Agreement. Société Générale's obligation to purchase the Common Stock upon any request by the Company is subject to certain conditions as set forth in the Agreement.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

In its Form 8-K filed December 13, 2007, the Company previously disclosed that, based on language (the Disputed Language) contained in the Articles of Amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation (the Amendments) filed in connection with the issuance of the Company's Series A, Series B and Series C Convertible Preferred Stock (the Preferred Stock), certain holders thereof (the Shareholders) asserted a right to consent (or not) to the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreements entered into by the Company and certain holders of its then existing convertible debt on December 12, 2007 (the Exchange). The Company is of the view that inclusion of the Disputed Language in the Amendments constitutes a scrivener's error without legal force or effect, and filed Articles of Correction with the Secretary of State of Washington in accordance with Section 23B.01.240 of the Revised Code of Washington. On January 2, 2008, Tang Capital Partners LP (Tang) filed a civil action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in which Tang alleged that the Company breached a Securities Purchase Agreement, executed on or about April 16, 2007, and executed in connection with the issuance of Series B Preferred Stock. Tang alleges that the Company's filing of Articles of Correction to the Articles of Amendment to the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation on or around December 11, 2007, materially and adversely altered the powers, preferences or rights conferred through its Securities Purchase Agreement, thereby constituting a Triggering Event, and as a result, Tang is entitled to redemption of its Preferred Stock in consideration for 130% of its Stated Value, plus other available relief, if any. Although the Company disagrees with the allegations in the complaint, it is nevertheless possible that Tang will prevail in a claim that it is entitled to have such Preferred Stock redeemed based on the allegations summarized above.

As previously disclosed, one other holder of Preferred Stock has asserted similar claims in correspondence with the Company in December 2007. Despite the Company's view of the claims described above, it is possible that an award or settlement of any such claims by holders of Preferred Stock could involve money damages, a forced redemption, the issuance of additional stock, changes in the terms of the Preferred Stock, or other remedies.
