REVISED 2008 ANNUAL CAP

The Company intends to revise the existing annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 in respect of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement dated December 27, 2005. In addition, for the reasons set out below, the annual cap in respect of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement for the year ended December 31, 2007 has slightly exceeded the original annual cap by RMB2 million.

Given that each of the revised annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 and the actual service fees paid for the year ended December 31, 2007 under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement represents less than 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, the transactions contemplated thereunder fall within Rule 14A.34 of the Listing Rules, and are only subject to the reporting, announcement and annual review requirements under the Listing Rules and are exempt from independent shareholders' approval.

INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated December 29, 2005 in relation to, among other things, the CLIC Asset Management Agreement entered into between AMC and CLIC on December 27, 2005. The CLIC Asset Management Agreement was for a term of three years effective from January 1, 2006 and expiring on December 31, 2008.

The Company intends to revise the existing annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 in respect of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement. In addition, for the reasons set out below, the annual cap in respect of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement for the year ended December 31, 2007 has slightly exceeded the original annual cap by RMB2 million.

CLIC is a connected person of the Company by virtue of it being a controlling shareholder of the Company, while AMC is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Given that each of the revised cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 and the actual service fees paid for the year ended December 31, 2007 under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement represents less than 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, the transactions contemplated thereunder fall within Rule 14A.34 of the Listing Rules, and are only subject to the reporting, announcement and annual review requirements under the Listing Rules and are exempt from independent shareholders' approval.

CLIC ASSET MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

AMC, a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into the CLIC Asset Management Agreement with CLIC on December 27, 2005 for a term of three years effective from on January 1, 2006 and will expire on December 31, 2008.

Under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement, AMC agreed to manage assets entrusted to it by CLIC and invest in securities on behalf of CLIC, on a discretionary basis, subject to the investment guidelines and instructions given by CLIC.

Scope of Services

In accordance with the CLIC Asset Management Agreement, CLIC retains the title of the entrusted assets and AMC is authorized to operate the accounts associated with the entrusted assets for and on behalf of CLIC. CLIC may add to or withdraw from the assets managed by AMC pursuant to the CLIC Asset Management Agreement. CLIC has the right to establish, and amend the investment guidelines (relating to, for example, the purpose, scope, proportion of strategic investment, cash inflow and outflow forecast and liquidity requirement and risk control requirement), as needed. CLIC also has the right to monitor the investment management activities of AMC.

Service fees

In consideration of AMC's services in respect of investing and managing various categories of assets entrusted to it by CLIC under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement, CLIC agreed to pay AMC a service fee at the rate of 0.05% per annum. Such service fee is calculated and payable on a monthly basis, by multiplying the average of balance of book value of the assets under management (after deducting the funds obtained and interests accrued from repurchase transactions) at the beginning and at the end of any given month by the rate of 0.05%, divided by 12.

The service fees under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement were determined by CLIC and AMC based on an analysis of the cost of service, market practice and the size and composition of the asset pool to be managed.

Terms and termination

The CLIC Asset Management Agreement is for a term of three years, effective from January 1, 2006 and expiring on December 31, 2008. The parties will negotiate the terms of renewal of the agreement 90 days prior to its termination. The Company will comply with the relevant Listing Rules requirements in respect of such renewal.

Cap Amount*Historical figures*

The service fees paid by CLIC to AMC pursuant to the CLIC Asset Management Agreement for the two years ended December 31, 2007 were as follows:

Period	Annual cap (RMB in million)	Amount of Service Fees Paid by the Company (RMB in million)
Year ended December 31, 2007	102	104

Reasons for and basis of the revised annual cap for year 2008

For the reasons stated below, the Company intends to revise the existing annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 in respect of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement from RMB108,000,000 to RMB280,000,000.

The revision of the existing 2008 annual cap on the service fee is attributable to the substantial increase in the value of the capital market in the PRC for 2007 and thus the increase in the value of asset managed by AMC, which was not anticipated back in two years ago when the existing cap was set. Due to the relative nature of the capital market, it would be difficult for the Company to estimate an appropriate cap well in advance. Therefore, the Company seeks to establish a revised cap on the service fee that it believes will be adequate to meet the maximum service fee to be received by AMC in 2008.

Reasons for exceeding the annual cap for year 2007

It has recently come to the attention of the Company following audit by the Company's external auditors that the annual cap for year 2007 has slightly exceeded the original annual cap by RMB2 million. This was due to the substantial increase in the market activity of the capital market in the PRC and the value of the A-share market in the PRC for 2007, and a change in the valuation method under the PRC enterprise accounting standards (2006). The change in the valuation method under the PRC enterprise accounting standards has the effect of increasing the valuation of the assets under the management of AMC. Such substantial increase in the value of the capital market in the PRC and the change in the PRC enterprise accounting standards were not anticipated when the annual cap for 2007 was determined in 2005 based on historical figures and information then available to the Company.

Reasons for and benefits of the transaction

The principal business activities of AMC are to manage insurance funds and to provide consultation services relating to insurance fund management. Taking into account the experience and expertise of AMC in asset management, the parties consider it appropriate to enter into the CLIC Asset Management Agreement.

OTHER INFORMATION

CLIC is a connected person of the Company by virtue of it being a controlling shareholder of the Company, while AMC is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Company is one of the leading life insurance companies in the PRC. It offers individual and group life insurance policies, annuity contracts, long-term health insurance policies and short-term health insurance policies. CLIC offers insurance policies to groups and individuals, which are managed by the Company under a policy management agreement entered into between the Company and CLIC.

The Directors, including independent non-executive Directors, are of the opinion that the terms of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement, the revised annual cap for 2008 and the actual service fees paid in 2007 under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. In addition, the terms of the CLIC Asset Management Agreement, the revised annual cap for 2008 and the actual service fees paid in 2007 under the CLIC Asset Management Agreement are on normal commercial terms and in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Company.
