Ion Executive Leadership Team Voicemail Recording

Hello. This is Greg Lucier.

Today we announced an agreement with ABI to create a global leader in biotechnology reagents and systems, uniquely positioned to accelerate and drive new discoveries and commercial applications. As leaders of the company, you will likely be asked a lot of questions about this transaction. At 7:30 am Pacific Time today, we will have an Extended Leadership Team meeting to provide you with more information. You will receive a meeting request for that as well as a communication toolkit to help you in communicating this news throughout your organizations. It is my expectation that you share this information with your teams within the next week to ensure that they understand the transaction. We'll be posting communications about this transaction on Disco, our intranet site, as well as on our external website. I also hope to make it out to many of our sites in the coming months to hear your thoughts and share my enthusiasm about this exciting strategic combination.

Our new company combines the industry's premier consumables provider with the industry's premier systems provider, and we expect to generate greater than 70% of our revenue from consumables and services. With highly recognizable brands in core structural and functional genomics, proteomics and mass spectrometry, as well as cell analysis and culture reagents, we believe the combined company will be well positioned to compete on the leading edge of the life science industry today and in the future.

Both Invitrogen and ABI have exceptional teams of talented and experienced employees. Our combined company will have approximately 3,000 sales and service employees and serve customers in more than 100 countries worldwide. Also, as we move forward and grow together, we intend to maintain our focus on innovation with best-in-class product offerings and technologies that have made us industry leaders.

We are targeting to close the transaction in the fall of 2008. In the interim, Invitrogen and ABI remain separate companies and it will be business as usual. We will of course make every effort to keep you informed as we progress through the approval process.

It goes without saying that I believe this transaction is great for all of us and I want to thank you all for your hard work and support. Your dedication has made Ion the great company it is today. I am confident that our future with ABI is even brighter.
