INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 23, 2009, Chambers Belt Company (Chambers), a wholly owned subsidiary of Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with Tandy Brands Accessories, Inc. (Tandy). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Asset Purchase Agreement, at closing, Tandy will purchase Chambers manufacturing equipment, certain inventory at cost, certain intellectual property and customer relationships. Chambers cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and Wrangler licenses and other specified assets are excluded from the transaction. Tandy is also obligated to assume pending customer and supplier orders and Chambers post-closing obligations under its Maquiladora agreement. Although under no obligation to do so, Tandy is also expected to hire certain key sales personnel and employees to facilitate the customer relationship transition.

The Asset Purchase Agreement provides for a purchase price equal to $500,000 plus inventory costs and earn-out payments equal to 21.5% of the revenue of the acquired business during the first 12 months following closing, subject to a $2 million minimum. The earn-out is payable in 12 monthly payments based on actual revenue during such period, provided, that an initial advance payment of $430,000 is required at closing. Tandy is not obligated to acquire inventory that is slow-moving or part of a program discontinued by a customer.

At closing, the Asset Purchase Agreement requires the parties to enter into a manufacturing and supply agreement to supply Chambers with leather belts and accessories manufactured at the Mexican facility where Chambers currently acquires a portion of its inventory. The parties are required to negotiate in good faith the terms of the agreement prior to closing. This will provide Chambers with the ability to continue its Wrangler business. However, as previously disclosed, Wrangler Apparel has notified the Company that it plans to take its mass market products in-house at the expiration of the existing license agreement, which expires December 31, 2009. Also, the Company does not expect Wrangler Apparel to extend its western license which expires December 31, 2010. Accordingly, it is expected that Chambers business operations will be wound down as these licenses expire unrenewed.

The closing is scheduled for July 1, 2009. The closing, however, is subject to standard closing conditions, including the consent of the Company s bank. Tandy s closing obligation is not subject to a financing condition. Prior to closing, the Asset Purchase Agreement may be terminated by the Company or Tandy, including certain circumstances whereby the transaction does not close by July 1, 2009. Accordingly, no assurances can be provided that the transaction will be consummated or when it will be consummated.

The Asset Purchase Agreement also contains limited representations and warranties and customary covenants and indemnities. At closing, the Company is required to provide its guarantee of Chambers obligations under the Asset Purchase Agreement.

The Company intends to file a copy of the Asset Purchase Agreement with its next Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. At such time, the above-description of the Agreement shall be qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text thereof.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

As reported under Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement above, following the completion of the sale to Tandy, Chambers plans to wind-down its business by December 31, 2010, which is the last expiration date for its Wrangler licenses. In connection with that transaction, Tandy will assume only limited obligations of the Chambers business. Accordingly, for consolidated financial statement reporting purposes, commencing with the first quarter of the 2009 fiscal year (which ended April 4, 2009), the Company will report Chambers as discontinued operations. In connection with this discontinuance, the Company estimates that it will incur a pre-tax charge of between $900,000 and $1.3 million which will be recorded and reported in the second and third quarters of the 2009 fiscal year. The charge is expected to be comprised of approximately $700,000 to $900,000 of cash restructuring charges (related to severance payments and other costs associated with exiting the business) to be paid during the third and fourth quarters of the 2009 fiscal year and approximately $200,000 to $400,000 of non-cash restructuring charges (including write-offs of fixed assets, net of gain, and inventory).

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 23, 2009, the Company issued a press release relating to the Chambers sale to Tandy. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
