FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hitachi Announces Effects of the Earthquake off the Pacific Coast of

Tohoku, and its Responses (2nd Report)

Tokyo, Japan, March 17, 2011 Hitachi, Ltd. (NYSE:HIT / TSE:6501) today announced the following information regarding the effects on the Hitachi Group of the Earthquake off the Pacific Coast of Tohoku, which struck Northeastern Japan on March 11, and regarding the responses of Hitachi, as of March 17.

Status of Production Bases

Damage to buildings and facilities has been confirmed at Hitachi's main production bases in Ibaraki Prefecture, including: cracks in walls; fallen ceilings, roofs, and walls; broken glasses; and fallen cabinets inside of buildings. Electric power supply is gradually being restored, however, and inspections of production facilities are currently underway. At present, there are no clear forecasts for the recovery of utilities such as water and gas, but Hitachi will continue to make the safety of its employees the first priority, and will work toward resuming operations as quickly as possible, while closely monitoring the recovery of essential infrastructure.

At Hitachi Appliances, Inc.'s Tochigi Works (Tochigi-shi, Tochigi Prefecture), which produces room air conditioners and refrigerators, production of room air conditioners and others resumed today (March 17), with the exception of tentative interruption due to the planned suspension of electric power supply. Regular operations also resumed today at Hitachi's main production bases in Kanagawa Prefecture, which produce information and telecommunications system related products, and full production of dry cell batteries has resumed at Hitachi Maxell Ltd.'s Osaka Works (Ibaraki-shi, Osaka).

[Main production bases where damages to buildings and production facilities have been confirmed]

Hitachi, Ltd. Power Systems Company, Hitachi Works (Hitachi-shi, Ibaraki Pref.)

Hitachi, Ltd. Urban Planning and Development Systems Company, Mito Works (Hitachinaka-shi, Ibaraki Pref.)

Hitachi, Ltd. Information & Control Systems Company, Omika Works (Hitachi-shi, Ibaraki Pref.)

Hitachi Appliances, Inc., Taga Office (Hitachi-shi, Ibaraki Pref.)

Hitachi Automotive Systems, Ltd., Sawa Works (Hitachinaka-shi, Ibaraki Pref.)

Hitachi Automotive Systems, Ltd., Fukushima Works (Date-gun, Fukushima Pref.)

Hitachi Displays, Ltd., Mobara Works (Mobara-shi, Chiba Pref.)

Status of Employees

Hitachi will continue confirming the status of Hitachi Group employees and their families who have been affected by the disaster.

Established Emergency Headquarters for Response to the Tohoku Earthquake

On March 11, the date on which the earthquake took place, a Hitachi Group Emergency Headquarters for Response to the Tohoku Earthquake, led by President Nakanishi, was established at the Hitachi, Ltd. Head Office in Chiyoda-Ku, Tokyo. This Emergency Headquarters will manage activities aimed at providing support to affected regions and customers; gathering information on losses and damages suffered by employees and their families, and by Hitachi's various bases of operations; and investigating and implementing appropriate countermeasures.

Assistance at the Fukushima No. 1 nuclear power station of TEPCO

A 24-hour emergency response center has been established at the Hitachi, Ltd. Head Office to assist in repair and recovery operations at the Fukushima No. 1 nuclear power station. Engineers have been dispatched from Hitachi to work on joint teams formed in collaboration with Tokyo Electric Power Co. and the Japanese government. Hitachi is also assisting in the procurement of materials required for on-site operations, and is providing support for work efforts. Hitachi will continue to offer its full cooperation and rapid response to requests from related agencies.

About Hitachi, Ltd.

Revised forecast		To be decided	To be decided
Actual	5 yen per share <sup>(1)</sup>
Dividend for fiscal year ended March 31, 2010	0 yen per share	0 yen per share	0 yen per share

(1) The amount of the interim dividend consists of ordinary dividend of 3 yen per share and commemorative dividend of 2 yen per share.

Cautionary Statement

Certain statements found in this document may constitute forward-looking statements as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements reflect management's current views with respect to certain future events and financial performance and include any statement that does not directly relate to any historical or current fact. Words such as anticipate, believe, expect, estimate, forecast, intend, plan, project and similar expressions which indicate future events and trends may identify forward-looking statements. Such statements are based on currently available information and are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied in the forward-looking statements and from historical trends. Certain forward-looking statements are based upon current assumptions of future events which may not prove to be accurate. Undue reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements, as such statements speak only as of the date of this document.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied in any forward-looking statement and from historical trends include, but are not limited to:

economic conditions, including consumer spending and plant and equipment investments in Hitachi's major markets, particularly Japan, Asia, the United States and Europe, as well as levels of demand in the major industrial sectors which Hitachi serves, including, without limitation, the information, electronics, automotive, construction and financial sectors;

exchange rate fluctuations for the yen and other currencies in which Hitachi makes significant sales or in which Hitachi's assets and liabilities are denominated, particularly against the U.S. dollar and the euro;

uncertainty as to Hitachi's ability to access, or access on favorable terms, liquidity or long-term financing;

uncertainty as to general market price levels for equity securities in Japan, declines in which may require Hitachi to write down equity securities that it holds;

the potential for significant losses on Hitachi's investments in equity method affiliates;

increased commoditization of information technology products and digital media-related products and intensifying price competition for such products, particularly in the Components & Devices and the Digital Media & Consumer Products segments;

uncertainty as to Hitachi's ability to continue to develop and market products that incorporate new technology on a timely and cost-effective basis and to achieve market acceptance for such products;

rapid technological innovation;

the possibility of cost fluctuations during the lifetime of or cancellation of long-term contracts, for which Hitachi uses the percentage-of-completion method to recognize revenue from sales;

fluctuations in the price of raw materials including, without limitation, petroleum and other materials, such as copper, steel, aluminum and synthetic resins and shortages of materials, parts and components;

fluctuations in product demand and industry capacity;

uncertainty as to Hitachi's ability to implement measures to reduce the potential negative impact of fluctuations in product demand, exchange rates and/or price of raw materials and shortages of materials, parts and components;

uncertainty as to Hitachi's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of its strategy to strengthen its Social Innovation Business;

uncertainty as to the success of restructuring efforts to improve management efficiency by divesting or otherwise exiting underperforming businesses and to strengthen competitiveness and other cost reduction measures;

general socio-economic and political conditions and the regulatory and trade environment of countries where Hitachi conducts business, particularly Japan, Asia, the United States and Europe, including, without limitation, direct or indirect restrictions by other nations on imports, or differences in commercial and business customs including, without limitation, contract terms and conditions and labor relations;

Edgar Filing: HITACHI LTD - Form 6-K

uncertainty as to the success of alliances upon which Hitachi depends, some of which Hitachi may not control, with other corporations in the design and development of certain key products;

uncertainty as to Hitachi's access to, or ability to protect, certain intellectual property rights, particularly those related to electronics and data processing technologies;

uncertainty as to the outcome of litigation, regulatory investigations and other legal proceedings of which the Company, its subsidiaries or its equity method affiliates have become or may become parties;

the possibility of incurring expenses resulting from any defects in products or services of Hitachi;

the possibility of disruption of Hitachi's operations in Japan by earthquakes or other natural disasters;

uncertainty as to Hitachi's ability to maintain the integrity of its information systems, as well as Hitachi's ability to protect its confidential information and that of its customers;

uncertainty as to the accuracy of key assumptions Hitachi uses to value its significant employee benefit related costs; and uncertainty as to Hitachi's ability to attract and retain skilled personnel.
