Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Stockholders Voting Agreement

Spirit Airlines, Inc. (the Company) is party to a Stockholders Voting Agreement, dated June 1, 2011, with investment funds managed by Oaktree Capital Management (Oaktree) and Indigo Partners (Indigo), the Company's two largest stockholders. The Stockholders Voting Agreement provides that the Company's board of directors be comprised of 11 members and that Oaktree and Indigo each have the right to designate a certain number of director nominees to the Company's board of directors for election by the Company's stockholders at its annual meeting. By its terms, the Stockholders Voting Agreement terminates at such time that investment funds managed by Oaktree and by Indigo, as a group, own less than 50% of the Company's outstanding voting common stock.

On January 25, 2012, Oaktree, Indigo and certain other stockholders sold an aggregate of 12,650,000 shares of the Company's common stock (including 1,650,000 shares sold pursuant to underwriters' full exercise of its over-allotment option) in an underwritten public offering (see Item 8.01 for more information). As a result of the sale of their shares, investment funds managed by Oaktree and by Indigo, as a group, owned less than 50% of the Company's outstanding voting common stock. Accordingly, the Stockholders Voting Agreement terminated by its terms.

Item 8.01 Other Material Events.

On January 20, 2012, the Company announced the pricing of a secondary offering of 11,000,000 shares of common stock at a price to the public of $14.50 per share (the Offering). All of the shares of common stock were sold by existing stockholders of the Company, including investment funds managed by Oaktree and Indigo and certain members of the Company's executive team. In addition, the underwriters exercised in full their option to purchase from Oaktree and Indigo an additional 1,650,000 shares of common stock to cover over-allotments. The company did not receive any proceeds from the Offering.

Prior to the Offering, the Company had been exempt from certain rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market that require that our audit committee and compensation committee be comprised entirely of independent directors under the controlled company exception. As a result of the consummation of the Offering, the Company's ability to claim the controlled company exemption lapsed, and the phase-in periods applicable to the foregoing NASDAQ Stock Market requirements commenced. Accordingly, Mr. Wilson will be required to discontinue serving as a member of the Audit Committee prior to June 1, 2012 and Mr. Franke will be required to discontinue serving as a member of the Compensation Committee prior to January 25, 2013. The Company already complies with the NASDAQ Stock Market rules requiring that the majority of the Company's board of directors and all of the directors serving on the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee be independent.

A registration statement relating to these securities filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) was declared effective on January 19, 2012. The registration statement on Form S-1 and all subsequent amendments may be accessed through the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. This report shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.
