As disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on June 24, 2013, by Navistar International Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), the Company is undergoing a planned transition to a new CFO. As part of that transition, the Company announced today that Walter G. Borst is the new Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective June 18, 2013. He succeeds Andrew J. (A. J.) Cederroth who served as the Company's CFO since September 2009.

Mr. Borst, age 51, has served as Chairman, President and CEO of GM Asset Management and Vice President of General Motors Company (GM) since 2010. Prior to that, Mr Borst served as Vice President and Treasurer of GM from 2009-2010 and as Treasurer of General Motors Corporation from 2003-2009. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Borst and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Borst was appointed as an officer of the Company. Mr. Borst is not related to any director or executive officer of the Company. Mr. Borst is not a party to any transaction with the Company or any of its subsidiaries in which he had a direct or indirect material interest requiring disclosure under this Item.

In connection with Mr. Borst's appointment as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, he received an offer letter (the Offer Letter) stating the terms and conditions of his compensation and benefits. The following is a description of the material terms of the Offer Letter, which description is qualified by reference to a copy of the Offer Letter attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Base salary. Mr. Borst will receive an annual base salary of $700,000, paid on a monthly basis.
