NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

Note 1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Symantec Corporation (Symantec, we, us, our, and the Company refer to Symantec Corporation and all of its subsidiaries) as of September 27, 2013 and March 29, 2013, and for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013 and September 28, 2012, have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (U.S.) for interim financial information and with the instructions on Form 10-Q pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). In accordance with those rules and regulations, we have omitted certain information and notes normally provided in our annual Consolidated Financial Statements. In the opinion of management, the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements contain all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring items, except as otherwise noted, necessary for the fair presentation of our financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the interim periods. These unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the audited Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 29, 2013. The results of operations for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013 are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the entire fiscal year.

Segment reporting change

We modified our segment reporting structure to match our new operating structure and how our Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) views the business and allocates resources, beginning from the first quarter of fiscal 2014. The CODM function is comprised of our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and President of Products and Services. Reclassifications of prior period financial information have been made to conform to the current period presentation. This change does not impact previously reported Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company. See Note 9 for additional information on our segment reporting change.

Significant Accounting Policies

Contingencies

We evaluate contingent liabilities including threatened or pending litigation and government investigations in accordance with the authoritative guidance on contingencies. We assess the likelihood of any adverse judgments or outcomes from potential claims or proceedings, as well as potential ranges of probable losses, when the outcomes of the claims or proceedings are probable and reasonably estimable. A determination of the amount of accrued liabilities required, if any, for these contingencies is made after the analysis of each separate matter. Because of uncertainties related to these matters, we base our estimates on the information available at the time of our assessment. As additional information becomes available, we reassess the potential liability related to our pending claims, litigation and government investigations, and may revise our estimates. Any revisions in the estimates of potential liabilities could have a material impact on our operating results and financial position.

Change in Accounting Policy for Sales Commissions

Effective March 30, 2013, we changed our accounting policy for sales commissions that are incremental and directly related to customer sales contracts in which revenue is deferred. These commission costs are accrued and capitalized upon execution of a non-cancelable customer contract, and subsequently expensed over the term of such contract in proportion to the related future revenue streams. For commission costs where revenue is recognized, the related commission costs are recorded in the period of revenue recognition. Prior to this change in accounting policy, commission costs were expensed in the period in which they were incurred. The adoption of this accounting policy change has been applied retrospectively to all periods presented in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, in which the cumulative effect of the change has been reflected as of the beginning of the first period presented. Deferred commissions as of September 27, 2013 and March 29, 2013 were $142 million and $159 million, respectively. During the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, we capitalized $29 million and $84 million of commission costs and amortized $55 million and $104 million to sales expense, respectively. During the three and six months ended September 28, 2012, we deferred $44 million and $77 million of commission costs and amortized $53 million and $105 million to sales expense, respectively.

Table of Contents

We believe this change in accounting policy is preferable as the direct and incremental commission costs are closely related to the revenue, and therefore they should be recorded as an asset and recognized as an expense over the same period that the related revenue is recognized.

The cumulative effect of the change on accumulated deficit and accumulated other comprehensive income was $109 million and $3 million, respectively, as of March 30, 2012. The following tables present the changes to financial statement line items as a result of the accounting change for the periods presented in the accompanying unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements:

The change in accounting policy does not affect our balance of Cash and cash equivalents and as a result did not change net cash flows from operating, investing, or financing activities in our Condensed Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the six months ended September 28, 2012.

Table of Contents

There have been no other material changes in our significant accounting policies for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the significant accounting policies described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 29, 2013, other than as discussed above.

Recently Issued Authoritative Guidance

In July 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2013-10, Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815): Inclusion of the Fed Funds Effective Swap Rate (or Overnight Index Swap Rate) as a Benchmark Interest Rate for Hedge Accounting Purposes. This ASU permits the use of the Fed Funds Effective Swap Rate (also referred to as the Overnight Index Swap Rate), in addition to the U.S. government rate (UST) and London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR), as a U.S. benchmark interest rate for hedge accounting purposes under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging. We adopted this guidance following its effective date of July 17, 2013 and it had no material impact on our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

In July 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-11, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Presentation of an Unrecognized Tax Benefit When a Net Operating Loss Carryforward, a Similar Tax Loss, or a Tax Credit Carryforward Exists. This ASU requires an entity to present an unrecognized tax benefit as a reduction of a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward, or similar tax loss or tax credit carryforward, rather than as a liability when (1) the uncertain tax position would reduce the Net Operating Loss or other carryforward under the tax law of the applicable jurisdiction and (2) the entity intends to use the deferred tax asset for that purpose. This ASU is effective prospectively for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2013. We do not expect that this guidance will materially impact our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Note 2. Fair Value Measurements

For assets and liabilities measured at fair value, such amounts are based on an expected exit price representing the amount that would be received on the sale of an asset or paid to transfer a liability, as the case may be, in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value may be based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. The authoritative guidance on fair value measurements establishes a consistent framework for measuring fair value on either a recurring or nonrecurring basis whereby inputs, used in valuation techniques, are assigned a hierarchical level. The following are the hierarchical levels of inputs to measure fair value:

Level 1: Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2: Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the assets or liabilities; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs reflecting our own assumptions incorporated in valuation techniques used to determine fair value. These assumptions are required to be consistent with market participant assumptions that are reasonably available.

Assets measured and recorded at fair value on a recurring basis

There have been no transfers between fair value measurement levels during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013. The following table summarizes our assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis, by level, within the fair value hierarchy:

The changes in the carrying amount of goodwill were as follows:

	User Productivity & Information Security & Information Management			Total

Adjustments ⁽²⁾		2		2
Net balance as of September 27, 2013	$ 1,649	$ 1,504	$ 2,706	$ 5,859

(1) Additions due to an acquired business.

(2) Adjustments made to goodwill reflect foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations.

Effective in the first quarter of fiscal 2014, we evaluated our segment reporting structure and modified the reporting to match our new operating structure. Our reporting units for goodwill are the same as our reportable operating segments, and the net goodwill balance has been allocated to the reporting units based on their relative fair value. See Note 9 of these Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for information regarding the changes related to segment information.

As a result of the change in our segments, we assessed goodwill for impairment immediately prior to the changes to the new reporting units and determined that the estimated fair value of our reporting units exceeded their respective carrying amount including goodwill. Based on the results of our impairment analysis, we do not believe that impairment existed as of the date of the change in our segments.

In addition, our Board of Directors approved dividend equivalent rights entitling holders of restricted stock and performance-based stock to dividend equivalents to be paid in the form of cash upon vesting, for each share of the underlying units. No dividends and dividend equivalents were paid in any periods prior to fiscal 2014. All dividends and dividend equivalents are subject to the approval of our Board of Directors.

Note 5. Debt

In the first quarter of fiscal 2007, we issued $1.0 billion in principal amount of 1.00% Convertible Senior Notes (1.00% notes), due in June 2013. On June 15, 2013, the principal balance on those notes matured and was settled by a cash payment of $1.0 billion, along with the $5 million semi-annual interest payment. In addition, we elected to pay the conversion value above par value in cash in the amount of $189 million. Concurrently with the payment of the conversion value we received $189 million from our note hedge, which we had entered into at the time of the issuance of the 1.00% notes.

At the time of issuance of the 1.00% notes, we granted warrants to affiliates of certain initial purchasers of the notes whereby they had the option to purchase up to 52.7 million shares of our common stock at a price of $27.1330 per share. All the warrants expired unexercised on various dates during the quarter ended September 27, 2013. There was no dilutive impact from the warrants on the Company's earnings per share.

Table of ContentsNote 6. Restructuring and Transition

Our restructuring and transition costs and liabilities consist primarily of severance, facilities costs, and transition and other related costs. Severance generally includes severance payments, outplacement services, health insurance coverage, and legal costs. Facilities costs generally include rent expense and lease termination costs, less estimated sublease income. Transition and other related costs primarily consist of severance costs associated with acquisition integrations in efforts to streamline our business operations, and costs associated with the planning, design, testing, and data conversion phases of a new enterprise resource planning system. Restructuring and transition costs are managed at the corporate level and are not allocated to our reportable segments. See Note 9 of these Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for information regarding the reconciliation of total segment operating income to total consolidated operating income.

Restructuring plan

In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, we announced our strategy focusing on three priority areas, developing innovative products and services, changing our go-to-market plans and investing in people, process and technology infrastructure to make it easier to do business with us and improve our execution. We also initiated a restructuring plan in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 to reduce management and redundant personnel resulting in headcount reductions across the Company. The remaining costs associated with these actions are expected to be incurred throughout the remainder of fiscal 2014. As of September 27, 2013, total costs related to these plans incurred were $185 million, primarily related to severance and related employee benefits, and we anticipate our remaining costs for severance and benefits to be between $35 million and $65 million.

Other exit and disposal costs

Our other exit and disposal costs consist primarily of costs associated with closing or consolidating certain facilities. Largely as a result of business acquisitions, management may deem certain leased facilities to be in excess and plan to exit them either at the time of acquisition or after the acquisition in conjunction with our efforts to integrate and streamline our operations. As of September 27, 2013, liabilities for these excess facility obligations at several locations around the world are expected to be paid over the respective lease terms, the longest of which extends through fiscal 2018.

Note 7. Commitments and Contingencies

Indemnification

In the ordinary course of business, we may provide indemnifications of varying scope and terms to customers, vendors, lessors, business partners, subsidiaries and other parties with respect to certain matters, including, but not limited to, losses arising out of our breach of agreements or representations and warranties made by us. In addition, our bylaws contain indemnification obligations to our directors, officers, employees and agents, and we have entered into indemnification agreements with our directors and certain of our officers to give such directors and officers additional contractual assurances regarding the scope of the indemnification set forth in our bylaws and to provide additional procedural protections. We maintain director and officer insurance, which may cover certain liabilities arising from our obligation to indemnify our directors and officers. It is not possible to determine the aggregate maximum potential loss under these indemnification agreements due to the limited history of prior indemnification claims and the unique facts and circumstances involved in each particular agreement. Such indemnification agreements might not be subject to maximum loss clauses. Historically, we have not incurred material costs as a result of obligations under these agreements and we have not accrued any liabilities related to such indemnification obligations in our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

We provide limited product warranties and the majority of our software license agreements contain provisions that indemnify licensees of our software from damages and costs resulting from claims alleging that our software infringes on the intellectual property rights of a third party. Historically, payments made under these provisions have been immaterial. We monitor the conditions that are subject to indemnification to identify if a loss has occurred.

Litigation contingencies

During the first quarter of fiscal 2013, we were advised by the Commercial Litigation Branch of the Department of Justice's Civil Division and the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia that the government is investigating our compliance with certain provisions of our U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Multiple Award Schedule Contract No. GS-35F-0240T effective January 24, 2007, including provisions relating to pricing, country of origin, accessibility, and the disclosure of commercial sales practices. We are cooperating with the investigation and we are unable, at this time, to predict the likely outcome. It is possible that the investigation could lead to claims or findings of violations of the False Claims Act in connection with our GSA contracting activity. However, given the status of the investigation, we are currently unable to estimate whether any loss has been incurred. Violations of the False Claims Act could result in the imposition of damages, including up to treble damages, plus civil penalties in some cases.

We are also involved in a number of other judicial and administrative proceedings that are incidental to our business. Although adverse decisions (or settlements) may occur in one or more of the cases, it is not possible to estimate the possible loss or losses from each of these cases. The final resolution of these lawsuits, individually or in the aggregate, is not expected to have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition or cash flow.

Note 8. Stock Repurchases

The following table summarizes our stock repurchase activity:

Range of price paid per share	$ 22.22	-	$ 27.09	$ 21.95 - $ 27.09

Through our stock repurchase programs we have repurchased shares on a quarterly basis since the fourth quarter of fiscal 2004. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, our Board of Directors authorized a new $1.0 billion stock repurchase program which commenced in fiscal 2014. Our active stock repurchase programs have $908 million remaining authorized for future repurchase as of September 27, 2013, and neither program has an expiration date.

Table of ContentsNote 9. Segment Information

In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, we announced a new strategy and created three new business segments which provide customers with integrated solutions that solve their important problems. We also made changes in our organizational structure. As of the first quarter of fiscal 2014, we modified our segment reporting structure to more readily match the new operating structure based on information reviewed by our CODM. The three reporting segments, which are the same as our operating segments, are as follows:

User Productivity & Protection: Our User Productivity & Protection segment focuses on making it simple for customers to be productive and protected at home and at work. These products include our endpoint security and management, encryption, and mobile offerings.

Information Security: Our Information Security segment focuses on keeping businesses safe and compliant, regardless of the size, location, or complexity of their infrastructure. These products include our next generation security capabilities, such as mail and web security, authentication services, data center security, managed security services, hosted security services, and data loss prevention.

Information Management: Our Information Management segment is comprised of offerings related to backup and recovery, information intelligence, which includes archiving and e-discovery, and information availability, which we previously referred to as storage management.

There were no intersegment sales during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013 or September 28, 2012. The historical information presented has been retrospectively adjusted to reflect the new segment reporting. The following table summarizes the operating results of our reporting segments:

Percentage of total net revenue	44%	19%	37%	100%
Operating income	525	6	344	875
Operating margin	35%	1%	28%

Operating segments are based upon the nature of the business and how the business is managed. Our CODM uses financial information to evaluate the performance of, and to assign resources to, each of the operating segments. We do not allocate to the operating segments certain operating expenses, which we manage separately at the corporate level. These unallocated costs primarily include amortization of intangible assets, restructuring and transition charges, stock-based compensation expense, impairment charges, and acquisition-related charges.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2014, we granted 67,550 Restricted Stock Awards to members of our Board of Directors, each award had a fair value of $24.35, and vested immediately upon grant. As a result, we recorded $2 million of stock-based compensation expense for these awards during the first quarter of fiscal 2014.

Note 11. Income Taxes

The effective tax rate was approximately 4% and 15% for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013 and 29% and 28% for the three and six months ended September 28, 2012, respectively.

For the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, the tax provision was reduced by $33 million for the resolution of a tax matter related to the sale of our 49% ownership interest in the joint venture with Huawei during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2012 as well as by $24 million for tax benefits related to the settlement of the Symantec 2005 through 2008 Internal Revenue Service (IRS) audit. The tax provision was further reduced by $8 million and $11 million in tax benefits, for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, primarily resulting from individually insignificant tax settlements, lapses of statutes of limitations, and prior year items. These tax benefits were offset by $6 million and $12 million in tax expense, for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, resulting from the sale of short-term investments.

The tax provision for the three and six months ended September 28, 2012, was reduced by $5 million in tax benefits resulting from tax settlements or effectively settled tax items. The tax provision was further reduced by $3 million and $6 million in tax benefits, for the three and six months ended September 28, 2012, respectively, primarily related to lapses of statutes of limitations and prior year items. These tax benefits were offset by a $9 million tax expense from an increase in valuation allowance on state research tax credits for the three and six months ended September 28,

The provision for the six months ended September 27, 2013 and September 28, 2012 otherwise reflects a forecasted tax rate of 29%, for each period. The forecasted tax rates for all periods presented reflect the benefits of lower-taxed international earnings, domestic manufacturing incentives, and research and development credits (the U.S. federal Research and Development tax credit is currently set to expire on December 31, 2013), partially offset by state income taxes.

Table of Contents

We are a U.S.-based multinational company subject to tax in multiple U.S. and international tax jurisdictions. A substantial portion of our international earnings were generated from subsidiaries organized in Ireland and Singapore. Our results of operations would be adversely affected to the extent that our geographical mix of income becomes more weighted toward jurisdictions with higher tax rates and would be favorably affected to the extent the relative geographic mix shifts to lower tax jurisdictions. Any change in our mix of earnings is dependent upon many factors and is therefore difficult to predict.

The timing of the resolution of income tax examinations is highly uncertain, and the amounts ultimately paid, if any, upon resolution of the issues raised by the taxing authorities may differ materially from the amounts accrued for each year. Although potential resolution of uncertain tax positions involve multiple tax periods and jurisdictions, it is reasonably possible that the gross unrecognized tax benefits related to these audits could decrease (whether by payment, release, or a combination of both) in the next 12 months by $150 million. This amount includes approximately $116 million paid in the settlement of the Symantec 2005 through 2008 IRS audit. Depending on the nature of the settlement or expiration of statutes of limitations, we estimate at least $20 million could affect our income tax provision and therefore benefit the resulting effective tax rate.

We continue to monitor the progress of ongoing tax controversies and the impact, if any, of the expected expiration of the statute of limitations in various taxing jurisdictions.

Note 13. Subsequent Event

On October 23, 2013, we announced a quarterly dividend in the amount of $0.15 per share of common stock to be paid on December 18, 2013 to stockholders of record as of November 25, 2013. All shares of common stock issued and outstanding, and unvested restricted stock and performance-based stock as of the record date will be entitled to the dividend and dividend equivalents, respectively. Any future dividends and dividend equivalents will be subject to the approval of our Board of Directors.

Table of ContentsItem 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations*Forward-looking statements and factors that may affect future results

The discussion below contains forward-looking statements, which are subject to safe harbors under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or the Securities Act, and the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Forward-looking statements include references to our ability to utilize our deferred tax assets, as well as statements including words such as expects, plans, anticipates, believes, estimates, predicts, projects, and other expressions. In addition, statements that refer to projections of our future financial performance, anticipated growth and trends in our businesses and in our industries, the anticipated impacts of acquisitions, our intent to pay quarterly cash dividends in the future, the actions we intend to take as part of our new strategy, the expected impact of our new strategy and other characterizations of future events or circumstances are forward-looking statements. These statements are only predictions, based on our current expectations about future events and may not prove to be accurate. We do not undertake any obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events occurring or circumstances arising after the date of this report. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, and our actual results, performance, or achievements could differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements on the basis of several factors, including those that we discuss in Risk Factors, set forth in Part I, Item 1A, of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 29, 2013. We encourage you to read that section carefully.

Fiscal calendar

We have a 52/53-week fiscal accounting year ending on the Friday closest to March 31. The three and six months ended September 27, 2013 and September 28, 2012 each consisted of 13 weeks and 26 weeks, respectively.

OVERVIEWOur business

Symantec is a global leader in security, backup and availability solutions. Our innovative products and services protect people and information in any digital environment from the smallest mobile device, to the enterprise data center, to cloud-based systems. Our software and services protect against advanced threats independent of the device and environment in which information is used or stored.

Strategy

Our strategy is to establish leadership in this evolving information-centric world by identifying and delivering solutions that solve large unmet or underserved customer needs, while building competitive advantage and creating sustainable financial performance. To successfully implement our strategy we are focusing on three priority areas, developing innovative products and services, changing our go-to-market plans and investing in people, process and technology infrastructure to make it easier to do business with us and improve our execution.

Since announcing our new strategy we have reallocated resources to develop new integrated offerings, restructured the sales organization into new and renewals business teams, and simplified our management structure. These critical changes are designed to build a strong foundation for long-term growth. The second quarter was a transition quarter as we continued to implement significant salesforce and go-to-market changes.

Financial Implications of New Strategy

In fiscal 2014 we are making changes to our offerings, go-to-market plans and our organizational structure as we strive to create sustainable growth. We have developed a three-pronged approach to our offering strategy which includes managing our portfolio of point solutions and reallocating resources to the offerings we estimate have the greatest growth potential, expanding our total addressable market by delivering innovative new offerings that integrate our technologies to solve our customers' most significant problems, and focusing on developing relationships with other industry leaders that will begin the process of building an ecosystem that delivers more value to our customers.

We believe that sales and marketing of our innovative and differentiated products are enhanced by knowledgeable salespeople who can convey the strong value of our technology, as such, we restructured the sales organization into new and renewals business teams. We also reorganized our direct sales force into functional areas of information security and information management. The focus of these specialized teams is to generate new business through new customer acquisition or through broadening existing customer relationships. We expect that by separating our direct sales force into specialized teams and focusing on new business, we will improve the efficiency and effectiveness of our sales process. Concurrently, we created a dedicated renewals team that is focused on extending the customer relationship and renewing contracts.

We are also investing in our indirect sales channels to build stronger, more strategic relationships that enable us to better serve consumers, small business and mid-market customers. Through our channel partner program we will seek to align our offerings with the optimal route to market, leveraging our channel partner capabilities. We also plan to align the economics and incentives under these relationships based on the value created by the partner and their commitment to Symantec and our customers. We believe these changes will help us provide our end customer with high-quality sales and post-sales support experiences while expanding our business.

As part of our enhanced capital allocation strategy, in fiscal 2014 we initiated a quarterly cash dividend in addition to our on-going share repurchase activity. On July 23, 2013, our Board of Directors approved a quarterly dividend of $0.15 per share of common stock, which was paid on September 18, 2013 to all stockholders of record as of August 26, 2013.

Our income and cash flows are being impacted by severance, other charges, and capital expenditures as we execute our organic growth strategy.

New Enterprise Resource Planning System

We are in the final testing and data conversion stages of implementing the financial reporting module of a new enterprise resource planning system, and anticipate placing this critical financial reporting system in service during the third quarter of fiscal 2014. The costs other than capital expenditures associated with this first phase of implementation of the core operating systems have been recorded in our financial statements in operating expenses as restructuring and transition expenses.

Change in Management

On September 25, 2013, we announced the departure of our Chief Financial Officer, James A. Beer. Until a permanent replacement for Mr. Beer has been named, Andrew H. Del Matto will serve as our acting Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Del Matto also serves as our Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer.

Our operating segments

Our operating segments are significant strategic business units that offer different products and services, distinguished by customer needs. As of the first quarter of fiscal 2014, we modified our segment reporting structure to match our new operating structure. The three reporting segments, which are the same as our operating segments, are as follows:

User Productivity & Protection: Our User Productivity & Protection segment focuses on making it simple for customers to be productive and protected at home and at work. These products include our endpoint security and management, encryption, and mobile offerings.

Information Security: Our Information Security segment focuses on keeping businesses safe and compliant, regardless of the size, location, or complexity of their infrastructure. These products include our next generation security capabilities, such as mail and web security, authentication services, data center security, managed security services, hosted security services, and data loss prevention.

Information Management: Our Information Management segment is comprised of offerings related to backup and recovery, information intelligence, which includes archiving and e-discovery, and information availability, which we previously referred to as storage management.

Table of ContentsFinancial results and trends

We experienced $1 million and $46 million of growth in our content, subscription and maintenance revenue during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, compared to the same periods in the prior year, while we experienced lower license revenue domestically and internationally with a decline of $63 million and $67 million during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, compared to the same periods in the prior year. Our total net revenue decreased $62 million and $21 million for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, as compared to the same periods last year, primarily due to lower new license sales. Revenue for the three months ended September 27, 2013 was impacted by the transition of our sales force into new and renewals business teams. The Asia Pacific and Japan region experienced the largest net revenue decrease followed by Americas, while the EMEA region experienced net revenue growth. The Asia Pacific and Japan region revenue declined primarily due to unfavorable foreign currency impacts of the Japanese Yen.

Deferred revenue was $3.5 billion as of September 27, 2013, compared to $4.0 billion at March 29, 2013, and $3.7 billion at September 28, 2012. The decline in the deferred revenue balance is primarily related to the decrease in the September 27, 2013 quarter's sales activity. The lower deferred revenue balance as of September 27, 2013 will adversely affect our revenues on a year-over-year basis, for at least the remainder of fiscal 2014. As a result of lower than expected new business activity, we lowered our revenue, operating margin and earnings per share expectations for the full 2014 fiscal year.

Gross margins remained constant at 83% during the three and six months ended September, 27, 2013 when compared to the same periods in the prior year. Our cost of revenue remained flat during the three months ended September 27, 2013, but was $16 million higher for the six months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the same periods in the prior year. The six month increase in cost of revenue was primarily due to the growth in our hosted and appliances businesses. Additionally, our gross margins and cost of revenue were favorably impacted from lower intangible assets amortization expense during fiscal 2013.

Operating expenses declined for the three months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily due to lower sales and marketing expenses which decreased $75 million and lower amortization of intangible assets expenses of $43 million. Our operating expenses increased for six months ended September 27, 2013, compared to the same periods in the previous year, primarily due to higher restructuring expenses of $135 million, and higher costs incurred in connection with the implementation of our new enterprise resource planning system of $14 million, offset by lower sales and marketing expenses of $92 million and lower amortization of intangible assets expenses of $44 million.

Critical accounting estimatesDeferred commissions

Effective March 30, 2013, we changed our accounting policy for sales commissions that are incremental and directly related to customer sales contracts in which revenue is deferred. These commission costs are accrued and capitalized upon execution of a non-cancelable customer contract, and subsequently expensed over the term of such contract in proportion to the related future revenue streams. For commission costs where revenue is recognized, the related commission costs are recorded in the period of revenue recognition. Prior to this change in accounting policy, commission costs were expensed in the period in which they were incurred. The adoption of this accounting policy change has been applied retrospectively to all periods and the cumulative effect of the change has been reflected as of the beginning of the first period presented.

We believe this change in accounting policy is preferable as the direct and incremental commission costs are closely related to the revenue, and therefore they should be recorded as an asset and recognized as an expense over the same period that the related revenue is recognized.

For further information on deferred commissions, refer to Note 1 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in this Form 10-Q.

There have been no other material changes in the matters for which we make critical accounting estimates in the preparation of our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013 as compared to those disclosed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 29, 2013.

Content, subscription and maintenance revenue represented 92% and 90% of total net revenue for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively. Our content, subscription and maintenance revenue remained consistent for the three months ended September 27, 2013, and increased for the six months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the same periods last year, primarily due to growth in our NetBackup, trust services and data loss prevention, partially offset by declines in our endpoint management and information availability offerings.

Our license revenue, which includes sales from software licenses, appliances, and certain revenue-sharing arrangements declined by $63 million and $67 million during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, compared to the same periods in the prior year. We experienced these declines due to lower new business sales direct to customers and through our partners which were impacted in part by the transitioning of our sales force into new and renewals business teams.

User Productivity & Protection revenue declined $24 million and $29 million for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, as compared to the same period last year. The revenue decline was primarily due to the weakness in our endpoint management and encryption businesses. Operating margins in the User Productivity & Protection were consistent during fiscal 2013, when compared to the same period last year.

Information Security revenue declined $8 million for the three months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the same period last year from our mail and web security and data center security, partially offset by increases in our trust services business. Revenue for the six months ended September 27, 2013 increased $14 million from trust services and managed security services, partially offset by decreases in our mail and web security and data center security businesses as compared to the same period last year.

Information Security operating income increased for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the same period last year primarily from lower salaries and wages, as well as, from advertising and promotional expenses.

Information Management revenue declined $30 million and $6 million for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, when compared to the same periods last year, primarily from weakness in our information availability offerings and Backup Exec products, offset by increases in our NetBackup appliance business. Information Management operating income decreased for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, when compared to the same periods last year, due to lower revenue and higher materials costs related to the growth in our appliances business, coupled with higher services costs associated with the growth in our services business.

Revenue declined domestically and internationally during the three months ended September 27, 2013, when compared to the same period last year. The Asia Pacific and Japan region experienced the largest net revenue decrease followed by Americas, while the EMEA region experienced net revenue growth. The Asia Pacific and Japan region revenue declined primarily due to unfavorable foreign currency impacts of the Japanese Yen.

Our international sales are and are expected to continue to be a significant portion of our revenue. As a result, revenue is expected to continue to be affected by foreign currency exchange rates as compared to the U.S. dollar. We are unable to predict the extent to which revenue in future periods will be impacted by changes in foreign currency exchange rates. If international sales become a greater portion of our total sales in the future, changes in foreign currency exchange rates may have a potentially greater impact on our revenue and operating results.

Cost of content, subscription, and maintenance consists primarily of technical support costs, costs of billable services, and fees to original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) under revenue-sharing agreements. Cost of revenues for content, subscription, and maintenance increased for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, due to higher costs related to consulting and education to support increased revenue in these areas. Intangible assets are comprised of developed technologies and patents from acquired companies. Amortization decreased for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, as compared with same period last year, as certain developed technologies became fully amortized early in fiscal 2014.

Sales and marketing expense decreased for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, as compared to the same period last year, primarily due to lower salaries and wages of $52 million and $32 million, respectively, and lower advertising and promotion expenses of $18 million and $44 million, respectively.

Amortization of intangible assets decreased by $43 million and $44 million for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, as compared to the same period last year, as a result of various customer relationship intangibles becoming fully amortized at the end of the June 28, 2013 quarter.

Restructuring and transition costs consist of severance, facilities, transition and other related costs. Transition and other related costs consist of severance costs associated with acquisition integrations and other charges associated with the planning, design, testing and data conversion stages of implementing of a new enterprise resource planning system. For the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, we recognized $122 million and $205 million of restructuring and transition costs. For the three and six months ended September 28, 2012, we recognized restructuring and transition costs of $23 million and $58 million. For further information on restructuring and transition costs, see Note 6 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

We experienced favorable foreign currency effects on our operating expenses of $13 million and $26 million in the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, as compared to the same periods last year. We expect research and development expenses to continue to increase through fiscal 2017 as we invest to drive organic growth.

The decrease in non-operating expense, net is primarily driven by a realized gain from sale of short-term investments of $16 million and $32 million during the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, coupled with a decrease in interest expense as we experienced lower amortization of debt issuance costs and discounts of $10 million and $24 million, respectively, when compared to the same period last year.

Effective tax rate on earnings	4 %	29 %			15 %	28 %

The effective tax rate was approximately 4% and 15% for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, and 29% and 28% for the three and six months ended September 28, 2012, respectively. For the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, the tax expense was reduced by $33 million for resolution of a tax matter related to the sale of our 49% ownership interest in the joint venture with Huawei during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2012 as well as by $24 million for tax benefits related to the settlement of the Symantec 2005 through 2008 IRS audit. The tax expense was further reduced by $8 million and $11 million in tax benefits, for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, primarily resulting from individually insignificant tax settlements, lapses of statutes of limitations, and prior year items. These tax benefits were offset by $6 million and $12 million in tax expense, for the three and six months ended September 27, 2013, respectively, resulting from the sale of short-term investments. For further information on our effective tax rate, see Note 11 of the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

We are a U.S.-based multinational company subject to tax in multiple U.S. and international tax jurisdictions. A substantial portion of our international earnings were generated from subsidiaries organized in Ireland and Singapore. Our results of operations would be adversely affected to the extent that our geographical mix of income becomes more weighted toward jurisdictions with higher tax rates and would be favorably affected to the extent the relative geographic mix shifts to lower tax jurisdictions. Any change in our mix of earnings is dependent upon many factors and is therefore difficult to predict.

The timing of the resolution of income tax examinations is highly uncertain, and the amounts ultimately paid, if any, upon resolution of the issues raised by the taxing authorities may differ materially from the amounts accrued for each year. Although potential resolution of uncertain tax positions involve multiple tax periods and jurisdictions, it is reasonably possible that the gross unrecognized tax benefits related to these audits could decrease (whether by payment, release, or a combination of both) in the next 12 months by $150 million. This amount includes approximately $116 million paid in settlement of the Symantec 2005 through 2008 IRS audit. Depending on the nature of the settlement or expiration of statutes of limitations, we estimate at least $20 million could affect our income tax provision and therefore benefit the resulting effective tax rate.

We continue to monitor the progress of ongoing tax controversies and the impact, if any, of the expected expiration of the statute of limitations in various taxing jurisdictions.

Table of ContentsLIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES*Sources of Cash

We have historically relied on cash flow from operations, borrowings under a credit facility, and issuances of debt and equity securities for our liquidity needs. As of September 27, 2013, we had cash, cash equivalents and short term investments of $3.8 billion and an unused credit facility of $1.0 billion resulting in a liquidity position of approximately $4.8 billion. As of September 27, 2013, $2.0 billion in cash and cash equivalents were held by our foreign subsidiaries. We have provided U.S. deferred taxes on a portion of our undistributed foreign earnings sufficient to address the incremental U.S. tax that would be due if we need such portion of these funds to support our operations in the U.S.

Senior Notes: In the first quarter of fiscal 2013, we issued $600 million in principal amount of 2.75% senior notes due June 15, 2017 and $400 million in principal amount of 3.95% senior notes due June 15, 2022, for an aggregate principal amount of $1.0 billion. In the second quarter of fiscal 2011, we issued $350 million in principal amount of 2.75% senior notes due September 15, 2015 and $750 million in principal amount of 4.20% senior notes due September 15, 2020, for an aggregate principal amount of $1.1 billion.

Revolving Credit Facility: In the second quarter of fiscal 2011, we entered into a $1.0 billion senior unsecured revolving credit facility (credit facility), which was amended in the first quarter of 2013 to extend the term to June 7, 2017. Under the terms of this credit facility, we must comply with certain financial and non-financial covenants, including a debt to EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) covenant. As of September 27, 2013, we were in compliance with all required covenants, and there was no outstanding balance on the credit facility.

We believe that our existing cash and investment balances, our available revolving credit facility, our ability to issue new debt instruments, and cash generated from operations will be sufficient to meet our working capital and capital expenditure requirements, as well as any cash dividends to be paid under the capital allocation program announced in January 2013 and repurchases of our stock, for at least the next 12 months and foreseeable future. We have implemented a capital allocation strategy pursuant to which we expect to return over time approximately 50% of free cash flow to stockholders through a combination of dividends and share repurchases, while still enabling our company to invest in its future. Our strategy emphasizes organic growth through internal innovation and will be complemented by acquisitions that fit strategically and meet specific internal profitability hurdles.

Uses of Cash

Our principal cash requirements include working capital, capital expenditures, payments of principal and interest on our debt, and payments of taxes. Also, we may, from time to time, engage in the open market purchase of our notes prior to their maturity. Furthermore, our capital allocation strategy includes plans for a quarterly cash dividend. In addition, we regularly evaluate our ability to repurchase stock, pay debts and acquire other businesses.

Convertible Senior Notes: On June 15, 2013, the principal balance on our 1.00% notes matured and was settled by a cash payment of $1.0 billion, along with the $5 million semi-annual interest payment. In addition, we elected to pay the conversion value above par value in cash in the amount of $189 million. Concurrently with the payment of the conversion value, we received $189 million from the settlement of our note hedge, which we had entered into at the time of the issuance of the 1.00% notes.

Stock Repurchases: For the six months ended September 27, 2013, we repurchased 10 million shares, or $250 million, of our common stock. During the six months ended September 28, 2012, we repurchased 31 million shares, or $501 million, of our common stock. As of September 27, 2013, we had $908 million remaining under the plans authorized for future repurchases. Our Board of Directors authorized a new $1.0 billion stock repurchase program during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013.

Dividend Program: During each of the first two quarters of fiscal 2014 we declared and paid cash dividends of $0.15 per share of common stock per quarter for a total of $210 million, which was recorded as a reduction to additional paid-in capital. In addition, our Board of Directors approved dividend equivalent rights entitling holders of restricted stock and performance-based stock to dividend equivalents to be paid in the form of cash upon vesting, for each share of the underlying units. No dividends and dividend equivalents were paid in any periods prior to fiscal 2014. On July 23, 2013, our Board of Directors approved a quarterly dividend in the amount of $0.15 per share to be paid on September 18, 2013 to stockholders of record as of August 26, 2013. Any future dividends and dividend equivalents will be subject to the approval of our Board of Directors.

Restructuring Plan: In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, we announced our strategy to develop innovative products and services, change our go-to-market plans and simplify our organizational structure. We initiated a restructuring plan in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 to reduce management and redundant personnel resulting in headcount reductions across the Company. These actions are expected to be completed in fiscal 2014. As of September 27, 2013, total costs related to these plans incurred to date was $185 million, primarily related to severance and related employee benefits, and we anticipate our remaining costs for severance and benefits to be between $35 million and $65 million.

Noncontrolling Interest: In July 2012, we completed a tender offer and paid $92 million to acquire VeriSign Japan common shares and stock rights, which increased our ownership percentage to 92%. In November 2012, we acquired the remaining 8% interest for $19 million and it became a wholly-owned subsidiary. The payment for the remaining 8% interest was made in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013.

Cash Flows

The following table summarizes, for the periods indicated, selected items in our Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows:

	Six Months Ended
	September 27, 2013	September 28, 2012
	(Dollars in millions)
Net cash provided by (used in):
Operating activities	$ 503	$ 518
Investing activities	(170)	(148)
Financing activities	(1,317)	461

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities was $503 million for the six months ended September 27, 2013, which resulted from net income of $398 million adjusted for non-cash items, including depreciation and amortization charges of $272 million, as well as net changes in trade receivables resulting in inflows of $465 million. These amounts were partially offset by decreases in deferred revenue of $556 million and accrued compensation of $110 million.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $518 million for the six months ended September 28, 2012, which resulted from net income of $349 million adjusted for non-cash items, which largely included depreciation and amortization charges of $351 million, as well as net changes in trade receivables resulting in inflows of $203 million. These amounts were partially offset by decreases in deferred revenue of $339 million and in accrued compensation of $107 million.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $170 million for the six months ended September 27, 2013 and was primarily due to payments of $118 million for capital expenditures, and the purchase of $102 million of short-term investments, partially offset by $67 million in net proceeds from sales of our short-term investments.

Net cash used in investing activities was $148 million for the six months ended September 28, 2012 and was primarily due to capital expenditures of $168 million and payments for acquisitions, net of cash acquired, of $28 million.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities was $1.3 billion for the six months ended September 27, 2013 and was primarily due to the repayment of our 1.00% notes of $1.2 billion, repurchases of our common stock of $250 million and dividend payments of $210 million, partially offset by proceeds from the exercise of our note hedge of $189 million and proceeds from sales of common stock through employee stock plans of $160 million.

Table of Contents

Net cash provided in financing activities was $461 million for the six months ended September 28, 2012 and was primarily due to the proceeds from our issuance of $600 million in principal amount of 2.75% interest-bearing senior notes due June 15, 2017 and $400 million in principal amount of 3.95% interest-bearing senior notes due June 15, 2022, net of the discount of $4 million; offset by the repurchases of our common stock of $501 million.

Contractual Obligations

There have been no significant changes during the six months ended September 27, 2013 to the contractual obligations disclosed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, set forth in Part II, Item 7, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 29, 2013.

Indemnifications

In the ordinary course of business, we may provide indemnifications of varying scope and terms to customers, vendors, lessors, business partners, subsidiaries and other parties with respect to certain matters, including, but not limited to, losses arising out of our breach of agreements or representations and warranties made by us. In addition, our bylaws contain indemnification obligations to our directors, officers, employees and agents, and we have entered into indemnification agreements with our directors and certain of our officers to give such directors and officers additional contractual assurances regarding the scope of the indemnification set forth in our bylaws and to provide additional procedural protections. We maintain director and officer insurance, which may cover certain liabilities arising from our obligation to indemnify our directors and officers. It is not possible to determine the aggregate maximum potential loss under these indemnification agreements due to the limited history of prior indemnification claims and the unique facts and circumstances involved in each particular agreement. Such indemnification agreements might not be subject to maximum loss clauses. Historically, we have not incurred material costs as a result of obligations under these agreements and we have not accrued any liabilities related to such indemnification obligations in our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

We provide limited product warranties and the majority of our software license agreements contain provisions that indemnify licensees of our software from damages and costs resulting from claims alleging that our software infringes the intellectual property rights of a third party. Historically, payments made under these provisions have been immaterial. We monitor the conditions that are subject to indemnification to identify if a loss has occurred.

Table of ContentsItem 3. *Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

There have been no significant changes in our market risk exposures during the six months ended September 27, 2013 as compared to the market risk exposures disclosed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, set forth in Part II, Item 7A, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 29, 2013.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The SEC defines the term "disclosure controls and procedures" to mean a company's controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Our disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management. Our management (with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and acting Chief Financial Officer) has conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act). Based on such evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and our acting Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level as of the end of the period covered by this report.

(b) Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the three months ended September 27, 2013 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

(c) Limitations on Effectiveness of Controls

Our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and acting Chief Financial Officer, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls will prevent all errors and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within our company have been detected.
