Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On December 21, 2014, Caesars Entertainment Corporation (CEC) and Caesars Acquisition Company (CAC) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, CAC will merge with and into CEC, with CEC as the surviving company (the Merger).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each share of class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of CAC (CAC Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be converted into, and become exchangeable for, that number of shares of CEC common stock, par value $0.01 per share (CEC Common Stock), equal to 0.664 (the Exchange Ratio), provided that during the Adjustment Period (as described below), the Special Committee of CAC's Board of Directors (the CAC Special Committee) and the Special Committee of CEC's Board of Directors (the CEC Special Committee), each composed solely of independent directors, will determine if there should be an adjustment to the Exchange Ratio and the amount of any such adjustment, taking into consideration all relevant facts and circumstances affecting the intrinsic value of CAC and CEC. The Adjustment Period is the 14 day period beginning on the later of (i) the date that the Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc. (CEOC) restructuring plan is confirmed and (ii) the date that both CAC and CEC confirm that their respective independent financial advisors have received all information as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in order to render a fairness opinion concerning the Exchange Ratio. If at the end of the Adjustment Period the CAC Special Committee and the CEC Special Committee have not agreed to an adjustment to the Exchange Ratio, there will not be an adjustment to the Exchange Ratio. Within five business days following the end of the Adjustment Period, either CAC or CEC may terminate the Merger Agreement if (a) the CAC Special Committee and the CEC Special Committee cannot agree on an Exchange Ratio adjustment and a failure to terminate the Merger Agreement would be inconsistent with their respective directors' fiduciary duties or (b) the CAC Special Committee or the CEC Special Committee, as applicable, has not received an opinion of its respective financial advisor that the Exchange Ratio (as adjusted, if applicable) is fair, from a financial point of view to CEC or CAC and its public stockholders, as applicable.

Immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding and unvested option to purchase CEC Common Stock (CEC Option) granted under the CEC 2012 performance incentive plan will be amended in accordance with its terms to provide that it will become vested and exercisable (at target performance levels, if applicable) in the event the optionee's employment is terminated without cause (as defined in the CEC 2012 performance incentive plan) by CEC or any of its Subsidiaries (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or for Good Reason (as defined in the Merger Agreement), in either case, within six (6) months following the effective time of the Merger. In addition, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding and unvested right of any kind to receive shares or share equivalents of CEC Common Stock (CEC Awards) granted under the CEC 2012 performance incentive plan (other than any CEC Option) will be amended in accordance with its terms to provide that it will become vested and exercisable (at target performance levels, if applicable) in the event the awardee's employment is terminated without cause (as defined in the CEC 2012 performance incentive plan) by CEC or any of its Subsidiaries or for Good Reason (as defined in the Merger Agreement), in either case, within six (6) months following the effective time of the Merger.

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding option to purchase CAC Common Stock (CAC Option) will be cancelled and converted automatically into an option to purchase a number of shares of CEC Common Stock equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of CAC Common Stock subject to such CAC Option and (ii) the Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price per share equal to (x) the exercise price of such CAC Option divided by (y) the Exchange Ratio, and each unvested CAC Option granted pursuant to the CAC 2014 performance incentive plan will be amended in accordance with its terms to provide that it will become vested and exercisable (at target performance levels, if applicable) in the event the optionee's employment is terminated by CEC or any of its Subsidiaries without cause (as defined in the CAC 2014 performance incentive plan) or for Good Reason (as defined in the Merger Agreement), in either case, within six (6) months following the effective time of the Merger. In addition, at the effective time, rights of any kind to receive shares or share equivalents of CAC Common Stock (CAC Awards) pursuant to certain compensation plans of CAC (CAC Plans) (other than CAC Options) will be cancelled and converted automatically into a right to receive shares of CEC Common Stock, which, in the case of CAC Awards denominated in shares will be equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of CAC Common Stock subject to such CAC Award and (ii) the Exchange Ratio, and, in the case of CAC Awards denominated in cash, the number of shares of CEC Common Stock, or other securities, property or cash that may be delivered in settlement thereof, will be determined pursuant to the terms of the particular CAC Plan on the relevant settlement date for such CAC Award. In either case, each unvested CAC Award granted pursuant to the CAC 2014 performance incentive plan will be amended in accordance with its terms to provide that it will become vested and exercisable (at target performance levels, if applicable) in the event the awardee's employment is terminated by CEC or any of its Subsidiaries without cause (as defined in the CAC 2014 performance incentive plan) or for Good Reason (as defined in the Merger Agreement), in either case, within six (6) months following the effective time of the Merger.

CEC and CAC have each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. In addition, CEC has agreed to use commercially reasonable best efforts to cause the CEC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for quotation on NASDAQ and to use reasonable best efforts to (i) cause the implementation of the restructuring of certain of CEC's subsidiaries as contemplated by that certain Restructuring Support and Forbearance Agreement, dated as of December 19, 2014, among CEOC, CEC, LeverageSource III (H Holdings), L.P., LeverageSource V, L.P. and each of the holders of first lien bond claims party thereto (the Restructuring Support Agreement) and (ii) consult with CAC regarding certain additional actions in connection with the bankruptcy filing contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement if CEC determines, in its reasonable discretion, that such additional actions could reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to CAC.

The Merger Agreement was fully negotiated by and between the CEC Special Committee and the CAC Special Committee, was recommended by each of the CEC Special Committee and the CAC Special Committee and was approved by the Boards of Directors of CEC and CAC. Stockholders of CEC and CAC will be asked to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement at special meetings of CEC's and CAC's stockholders, respectively, that will each be held on a date to be announced. The closing of the Merger is subject to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of all outstanding shares of CEC Common Stock and CAC Common Stock. In addition to obtaining the stockholder approvals, consummation of the Merger is also subject to various other conditions, including, among others, (i) obtaining any necessary licenses, consents or other approvals, including from gaming authorities, to effect the Merger, (ii) the effectiveness of the registration statement covering shares of CEC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (iii) the authorization for listing of such shares, (iv) the CEOC restructuring plan having been confirmed by the bankruptcy court, (v) minimum cash conditions for both (a) Caesars Growth Partners, LLC (Growth Partners) and its Subsidiaries and (b) CEC and Caesars Resort Properties, LLC, (vi) receipt of certain tax opinions or rulings regarding certain tax aspects of the restructuring of CEOC and (vii) a threshold amount of tax costs to CEC related to certain aspects of the restructuring of CEOC.

The Merger Agreement also contains a Go-Shop provision which allows CAC and its Subsidiaries to directly or indirectly initiate, solicit and encourage an offer, proposal or inquiry relating to, or any third party indication of interest in, any acquisition or purchase of 100% of the issued and outstanding CAC Common Stock (a CAC Acquisition Proposal ) until 45 business days after the date of the Merger Agreement (the Go-Shop Period ). Within one business day following the end date of the Go-Shop Period, CAC will notify CEC of the material terms and conditions of any CAC Acquisition Proposal received by CAC during the Go-Shop Period. Prior to obtaining the requisite stockholder approval, CAC or CEC may consider a bona fide unsolicited Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to result in, a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), if failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its respective directors' fiduciary duties. In such event, CAC or CEC may terminate the Merger Agreement and pay a termination fee to the other party as set forth in the paragraph immediately below. In the event that CAC or CEC receives a Superior Proposal, the terminating party will provide the other party the option to adjust its proposal to match the Superior Proposal.

The Merger Agreement also contains certain termination rights for the parties, including the right in certain circumstances to terminate the Merger Agreement and accept a Superior Proposal. In addition, upon termination of the Merger Agreement and under specified circumstances, including with respect to the acceptance of a Superior Proposal, (i) CAC may be required to pay a termination fee of $18,000,000 in the event that CAC terminates the Merger Agreement on or before the end of the Go-Shop Period in connection with a CAC Acquisition Proposal or (ii) CAC or CEC may be required to pay a termination fee of $25,000,000 in certain other specified circumstances as provided in the Merger Agreement.

The financial advisor to the CEC Special Committee delivered an opinion to the CEC Special Committee to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in preparing such opinion as set forth therein, the Exchange Ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to CEC. The financial advisor to the CAC Special Committee delivered an opinion to the CAC Special Committee to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations contained therein, the Exchange Ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of outstanding shares of CAC Common Stock, excluding Apollo Global Management, LLC, TPG Global, LLC and their affiliates. Prior to voting on the approval of the Merger Agreement, the boards of directors of CAC and CEC received a recommendation from the CAC Special Committee and the CEC Special Committee, respectively, to approve the proposed transaction.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about CEC, CAC or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement with respect to matters as of specified dates. These representations and warranties (i) were made solely for the benefit of the other parties to the Merger Agreement and are not intended to be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate, (ii) may have been qualified in the Merger Agreement by confidential disclosure schedules that were delivered to the other party in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement, which disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations, warranties and covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement and (iii) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from what might be viewed as material to stockholders and were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by CEC or CAC. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of CEC or CAC.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 21, 2014, Gary Loveman, Chief Executive Officer and President of CEC, entered into a new employment agreement with CEC, which agreement supersedes any pre-existing employment agreement between CEC and Mr. Loveman.

The material terms of the new employment agreement are set forth below.

Term and Parties

The parties are CEC, Mr. Loveman, Caesars Enterprise Services, LLC, and, for certain purposes, CAC. The term of the agreement begins on December 21, 2014 and expires on December 31, 2016, but may be terminated earlier by CEC with or without Cause (as defined in the agreement), by Mr. Loveman with or without Good Reason (as defined in the agreement), or due to Mr. Loveman's death or disability.

Compensation and Benefits

Mr. Loveman's base salary for 2015 and 2016 will be $1,900,000. Mr. Loveman will participate in CEC's annual incentive bonus program(s) and will be eligible to earn an annual bonus with a target of $3,250,000 in accordance with the terms of the programs. The agreement also continues the same benefits and perquisites as apply under his current employment agreement, but will expand CEC's commitment to provide health and dental benefits to Mr. Loveman so that they also cover his spouse.

CEC Equity

The Human Resources Committee of the Board has approved certain changes to Mr. Loveman's equity awards that were granted under CEC's 2012 performance incentive plan or its Management Equity Incentive Plan (the CEC Equity Plans), the material terms of which are set forth in this paragraph. First, all of Mr. Loveman's options granted under the CEC Equity Plans that included as a vesting condition, the achievement of a $35.00 stock-price target (the Performance Options), will vest in two equal installments, on March 31 of each of 2015 and 2016, subject to Mr. Loveman's continued employment on each such date. Second, as long as Mr. Loveman remains employed through December 31, 2016, he will continue to have the opportunity to vest in any awards that were granted under the CEC Equity Plans that have not yet vested as of such date. Last, if the agreement is terminated by CEC without Cause or if Mr. Loveman terminates the agreement for Good Reason, then (i) the Performance Options will vest on March 31 of each of 2015 and 2016, and (ii) all other equity awards that were granted under the CEC Equity Plans will fully vest.

CAC Equity

The agreement provides that Mr. Loveman will be awarded (i) an option to purchase 675,000 shares of CAC Common Stock (such award, the New CAC Options ), and (ii) 375,000 restricted stock units, each representing the right to receive one share of CAC Common Stock upon vesting of the award ( New CAC RSUs ). The New CAC Options and New CAC RSUs will be granted under the CAC 2014 performance incentive plan. The date of grant of the awards will be December 23, 2014. The exercise price for the New CAC Options will be the closing price of a share of CAC Common Stock on NASDAQ on such date of grant. The New CAC Options will have a ten year term. Both the New CAC Options and the New CAC RSUs vest in equal increments on each December 31 of 2015 and 2016, generally subject to Mr. Loveman's continued provision of consulting services to CAC on such dates. The new employment agreement provides that if it is terminated by CEC without Cause or if Mr. Loveman terminates the agreement for Good Reason, then the New CAC Options and New CAC RSUs will vest on December 31 of each of 2015 and 2016.

Termination Without Cause or for Good Reason

Upon a termination of the new employment agreement by CEC without Cause or by Mr. Loveman for Good Reason, CEC will (i) pay Mr. Loveman severance equal to his base salary and target annual bonus and (ii) continue his benefit coverage, in each case, for the period through December 31, 2016. This severance, and the various equity vesting protections upon these same termination events, as described above, will all be subject to Mr. Loveman signing and not revoking a valid release of claims against CEC and certain of its affiliates, employees, directors and other related parties.

Restrictive Covenants

Mr. Loveman has agreed not to, during the 24 month period following the termination of his employment, whether such termination occurs before or after December 31, 2016: (i) compete with CEC or its affiliates, (ii) solicit or hire certain employees of CEC and its affiliates, and (iii) solicit customers or clients of CEC and its affiliates.

The foregoing is only a summary of Mr. Loveman's new employment agreement and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement, which CEC intends to file with its next annual report.
