Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation is hereby amended as follows:

The following paragraph is hereby added to the end of the section entitled Background of the Offer and Reasons for Recommendation Background of the Offer :

On January 9, 2015, the Company filed its Schedule 14D-9 Solicitation/Recommendation Statement with the SEC and announced (a) the Board's unanimous rejection of the Offer, (b) that the Board had authorized the Company to explore strategic alternatives, including a potential sale of the Company and/or potential material acquisitions and (c) the adoption of the Rights Agreement to provide the Board with sufficient time to consider any and all strategic alternatives. Shortly thereafter, Deutsche Bank representatives contacted Mr. Ressler to inquire about who at j2 (or its financial advisor) Deutsche Bank representatives should contact in connection with the Company's exploration of strategic alternatives, and Mr. Ressler requested that the Deutsche Bank representatives contact Mr. Turicchi.

On January 12, 2015, Deutsche Bank representatives spoke with Mr. Turicchi and indicated that j2 would need to enter into a confidentiality agreement in order to receive due diligence materials and be included in the formal process undertaken by the Company in connection with the potential sale of the Company (the Sale Process). Later that day, the Deutsche Bank representatives sent j2 a draft confidentiality agreement, which included a customary one-year standstill provision.

On January 15, 2015, representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, counsel to j2 (S&C), sent to Sidley Austin representatives a revised version of the confidentiality agreement, containing a two-month standstill provision that would permit j2 and its affiliates to launch a full proxy contest against the Company during such two-month period and whilst j2 was receiving confidential Company information in connection with the Sale Process.

On January 16, 2015, the Board held a special telephonic meeting at which representatives of Deutsche Bank, Foley and Sidley Austin were present. During the meeting, the Sidley Austin representatives reviewed the terms of j2's revised draft of the confidentiality agreement. The Board then discussed a proposed response to the draft and potential next steps. The Deutsche Bank representatives then reported on the status of conversations with parties potentially interested in acquiring the Company and conversations with other parties regarding potential acquisition transactions.

During the week of January 19, 2015, negotiations between Sidley Austin and S&C representatives continued with respect to the confidentiality agreement.

On January 23, 2015, the Board held a special telephonic meeting at which representatives of Deutsche Bank, Foley and Sidley Austin were present. During the meeting, the Deutsche Bank representatives reported on the status of conversations with parties potentially interested in acquiring the Company and conversations with other parties regarding potential acquisition transactions. The Sidley Austin representatives then reviewed the status of the negotiations with j2's counsel relating to the confidentiality agreement, and the Board discussed potential next steps.

Also on January 23, 2015, Sidley Austin representatives contacted S&C representatives to inform them that the Company was requiring a standstill from other bidders, that the Company had agreement from other bidders to a standstill and that the Company remained interested in having j2 in the Sale Process. In an effort to resolve the open issues on the confidentiality agreement, the Sidley Austin representatives proposed a standstill period ending on June 30, 2015, with j2 preserving its option to conduct a proxy contest so long as (a) j2 terminated the Offer, (b) j2 was limited to nominating two candidates who are independent of both j2 and the Company and (c) j2 agreed to certain other provisions contained in the original draft of the confidentiality agreement. The Sidley Austin representatives communicated to the S&C representatives that they thought the Board would agree to this proposal, but that the Board had not yet fully authorized it.

On January 26, 2015, S&C representatives conveyed to Sidley Austin representatives j2's response to the January 23, 2015 proposal, indicating that j2 would agree to a standstill period ending on June 30, 2015 but would not agree to terminate the Offer or any constraints on its ability to conduct a proxy contest. In addition, the S&C representatives stated that j2 desired that the Board approve under Section 203, and waive the Rights Agreement with respect to, the acquisition of Shares tendered pursuant the Offer.

On January 27, 2015, j2 and the Offeror announced an extension of the expiration date of the Offer to 5:00 p.m., New York City Time, on February 26, 2015. Additionally, j2 announced that a total of 6,179,366 Shares had been tendered in the Offer and not withdrawn as of 5:00 p.m., New York City Time, on January 26, 2015. According to the Schedule TO, as of January 27, 2015, j2 and its subsidiaries beneficially owned 2,539,920 Shares, representing approximately 9.3% of the issued and outstanding Shares as of January 27, 2015.

On January 29, 2015, the Board held a regularly scheduled in-person meeting in Boston, Massachusetts at which representatives of Deutsche Bank, Foley and Sidley Austin were present. During this meeting, the Sidley Austin representatives reviewed the status of confidentiality agreement negotiations with j2. Furthermore, the Board unanimously determined that it was not in the best interests of the Company or its stockholders to approve under Section 203, or waive the Rights Agreement with respect to, the acquisition of Shares tendered pursuant the Offer.
