Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 4, 2015, Atlas Energy Group, LLC (the Company) and Atlas Resource Partners, L.P. (the Partnership) entered into employment agreements with each of Edward E. Cohen, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Jonathan Z. Cohen, the Company's Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors, Daniel C. Herz, the Company's President, and Mark Schumacher, the Company's Senior Vice President (collectively, the Employment Agreements).

The Employment Agreements with Messrs. E. Cohen and J. Cohen provide for a term of three years (which automatically renews daily unless earlier terminated) and an initial annual base salary of $350,000, while the Employment Agreements with Messrs. Herz and Schumacher provide for a term of two years (which automatically renews daily for one-year terms after the first anniversary of the effective date of the agreement unless earlier terminated) and an initial annual base salary of $350,000 (in the case of Mr. Herz) and $375,000 (in the case of Mr. Schumacher). Under these Employment Agreements, if the executive is terminated without cause or resigns with good reason, then, subject to his execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of the Company and related parties, the executive will be entitled to receive (a) two times (three times, in the case of Messrs. E. Cohen and J. Cohen) the sum of the executive's base salary plus his average incentive compensation for previous three years (or such lesser period as applicable), (b) a pro rata bonus for year of termination, (c) 24 months (36 months, in the case of Messrs. E. Cohen and J. Cohen) of continued health and welfare benefits, and (d) accelerated vesting of all equity-based compensation.

The Employment Agreements each contain certain restrictive covenants, including (a) in the case of Messrs. E. Cohen and J. Cohen, a 12-month post-termination noncompetition covenant and 24-month post-termination nonsolicitation covenant if the executive is terminated with cause or resigns without good reason, (b) in the case of Mr. Herz, a 18-month post-termination noncompetition covenant and 24-month post-termination nonsolicitation covenant if the executive is terminated with cause or resigns without good reason, and (c) in the case of Mr. Schumacher, a 18-month post-termination noncompetition covenant and 24-month post-termination nonsolicitation covenant if, prior to a change in control or after the first anniversary of a change in control, the executive is terminated with cause or resigns without good reason, or within one year following a change in control, the executive's employment terminates for any reason.

Under each of the Employment Agreements, any payments or benefits payable to the executive will be cutback to the extent that such payments or benefits would result in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the executive would be better off on an after-tax basis receiving all such payments or benefits.

Under the Employment Agreements, the Partnership is jointly and severally liable with the Company to each executive for payments owed to the executive to the extent such payments (or portion thereof) would be, if paid by the Company, either (a) paid on behalf of the Partnership and its subsidiaries, or (b) allocable to the Partnership and its subsidiaries, in each case, in accordance with the provisions relating to reimbursement of the general partner as set forth in the Partnership's Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership dated March 13, 2012.

The foregoing summary of the Employment Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the applicable Employment Agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 through 10.4, and which are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
