Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 20, 2016, the Board of Directors of New York Community Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) adopted amendments to the Company s bylaws, in the form of the Company s Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws), to amend the existing provisions of proxy access (i.e., allowing eligible stockholders to include their own nominees for director in the Company s proxy materials along with the Board-nominated candidates).

The following general description of the proxy access provisions of the Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Bylaws, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 3(ii) to this report and incorporated by reference herein.

The proxy access provisions of the Bylaws were amended to permit any stockholder or group of up to 20 stockholders who have maintained continuous qualifying ownership of 3% or more of the Company s outstanding common stock (the Minimum Number) for at least the previous three years to include a specified number of director nominees in the Company s proxy materials for an annual meeting of stockholders. An eligible stockholder is considered to own only the shares for which the stockholder possesses full voting and investing rights of, and full economic interest in, at least the Minimum Number through the date of the annual meeting. Additionally, an eligible stockholder s ownership of shares shall be deemed to continue during any period in which the eligible stockholder has loaned such shares provided that the eligible stockholder has the power to recall such loaned shares on five business days notice, has recalled such loaned shares as of the date of the nomination notice, and continues to hold such shares through the date of the annual meeting of stockholders.
