RETIREMENT OF TREVOR MUNDAY, DEPUTY CHIEF EXECUTIVE, SASOL LIMITED

Sasol announced today that Trevor Munday, deputy chief executive, will retire from executive management at the end of the Company's current financial year (30 June 2007). Prior to this retirement date, Mr Munday will utilise his accumulated leave of approximately six months as from the end of December 2006. He will step down as a director of Sasol Limited on 31 December 2006.

Pat Davies, chief executive, said: "Trevor and I have worked closely together since assuming our responsibilities as the new leadership team in July 2005 to, amongst other things, advance the transformation of Sasol. The new executive directors Ms Nolitha Fakude, Dr Benny Mokaba and Ms Christine Ramon are rapidly and successfully assuming responsibility for their respective portfolios and so Trevor and I, with the understanding and support of our board, have agreed to his early retirement."

Davies continued "Trevor's tenure as financial director was highly successful. He also provided skilled and innovative leadership to our global chemicals, corporate affairs and investor relations portfolios over the last five years. I would like to thank Trevor for his commitment and the exceptional contribution he has made to Sasol's success over the years."

Munday said: "The last seven years at Sasol of my 36-year career have been extremely exciting and fulfilling. I retire from the group at a time which is challenging and gratifying in terms of both the South African and international growth opportunities being pursued. I am pleased to have played a role in getting our new generation of leaders on board. They, together with our colleagues who have been with us for many years, form a formidable team and I feel comfortable to now move on.

I would like to thank Pieter Cox, members of the Sasol Board, Pat, my colleagues on the group executive committee, those who worked directly with me in my respective portfolios and all the people of Sasol for their camaraderie and support during my years with the group. Collectively, they are an incredibly committed and talented team and it has been my privilege and pleasure to have been associated with them. They make Sasol a great company. Its prowess and competitive strength has been built over the years on their skills and effort. I wish them all much success and fun in future."

Sasol chairman, Pieter Cox, said: "On behalf of the board, I would like to thank Trevor for his valuable contribution to the success of Sasol. We always felt confident about the growth, efficiency and integrity of the group's activities under his strong leadership. We wish him well in the years ahead."
