COHEN & STEERS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

1. Organization and Description of Business

Cohen & Steers, Inc. (“CNS”) was organized as a Delaware corporation on March 17, 2004. CNS was formed to be the holding company for Cohen & Steers Capital Management, Inc. (“CSCM”), a New York corporation, and to allow for the issuance of common stock to the public.

The condensed consolidated financial statements set forth herein include the accounts of CNS and its direct and indirect subsidiaries. CNS’s wholly-owned subsidiaries are CSCM, Cohen & Steers Securities, LLC (“Securities”), Cohen & Steers Asia Limited and Cohen & Steers UK Limited; Cohen & Steers Europe S.P.R.L. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cohen & Steers UK Limited (collectively, the “Company”). All material intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Through CSCM, a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the “Advisers Act”), the Company serves institutional and individual investors around the world. Founded in 1986, the Company is a leading global investment manager with a long history of innovation and a focus on real assets, including real estate, infrastructure and commodities. Its clients include Company-sponsored open-end and closed-end mutual funds, U.S. and non-U.S. pension plans, endowment funds, foundations and subadvised funds for other financial institutions. Through Securities, its registered broker/dealer, the Company provides distribution services for certain of its funds.

2. Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies

The condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company included herein are unaudited and have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the interim results have been made. The Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements and the related notes should be read together with the consolidated financial statements and the related notes included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Accounting Estimates—The preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the condensed consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Management believes the estimates used in preparing the condensed consolidated financial statements are reasonable and prudent. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassifications—Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Consolidation—The Company consolidates operating entities deemed to be voting interest entities if the Company owns a majority of the voting interest. The equity method of accounting is used for investments in non-controlled affiliates in which the Company’s ownership ranges from 20 to 50 percent, or in instances in which the Company is able to exercise significant influence but not control. The Company also consolidates any variable interest entities (“VIEs”) in which the Company is the primary beneficiary. The Company provides for noncontrolling interests in consolidated subsidiaries for which the Company’s ownership is less than 100 percent.

A VIE is an entity in which either (a) the equity investment at risk is not sufficient to permit the entity to finance its own activities without additional financial support or (b) the group of holders of the equity investment at risk lack certain characteristics of a controlling financial interest. The primary beneficiary is the entity that has the obligation to absorb a majority of the expected losses or the right to receive the majority of the residual returns. Investments and redemptions or amendments to the governing documents of the respective entities could affect an entity’s status as a VIE or the determination of the primary beneficiary. The Company assesses whether entities in which it has an interest are VIEs upon initial involvement and at each reporting date. The Company assesses whether it is the primary beneficiary of any VIEs identified by evaluating its economic interests in the entity held either directly by the Company and its affiliates or indirectly through employees. See Note 4 for further discussion about the Company's investments.

Cash and Cash Equivalents—Cash equivalents consist of short-term, highly liquid investments, which are readily convertible into cash and have original maturities of three months or less.

Due from Broker—The Company conducts business, primarily through its consolidated seed investments, with brokers for certain of its investment activities. The clearing and custody operations for these investment activities are performed pursuant to agreements with prime brokers. The due from broker balance represents cash and cash equivalents balances at brokers and net receivables and payables for unsettled security transactions.

Investments—Management of the Company determines the appropriate classification of its investments at the time of purchase and re-evaluates such determination at each statement of financial condition date.

Securities owned and securities sold but not yet purchased are classified as trading securities and are measured at fair value based on quoted market prices, market prices obtained from independent pricing services engaged by management or as determined by the Company's valuation committee. Unrealized gain and loss are recorded as gain (loss) from trading securities—net reported in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations. Investments classified as equity method investments are accounted for using the equity method, under which the Company recognizes its respective share of the investee's net income or loss for the period. As of September 30, 2013, the Company's equity method investments consisted of interests in funds which measure their underlying investments at fair value and report a net asset value on a recurring basis. The carrying amounts of these investments approximate their fair value.

Investments classified as available-for-sale are comprised of equity securities, investment-grade preferred instruments and investments in Company-sponsored open-end and closed-end mutual funds. These investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices or market prices obtained from independent pricing services engaged by management, with unrealized gain and loss, net of tax, reported in accumulated other comprehensive income. The Company periodically reviews each individual security position that has an unrealized loss, or impairment, to determine if that impairment is other than temporary. If the Company believes an impairment of a security position is other than temporary, the loss will be recognized in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations. An other than temporary impairment is generally presumed to have occurred if the available-for-sale investment has an unrealized loss continuously for 12 or more months.

From time to time, the funds consolidated by the Company enter into derivative contracts to gain exposure to the underlying commodities markets or to hedge market and credit risks of the underlying portfolios utilizing options, total return swaps, credit default swaps and futures contracts. These instruments are measured at fair value with gain and loss recorded as gain (loss) from trading securities—net in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations. The fair values of these instruments are recorded in other assets or other liabilities and accrued expenses in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of financial condition.

Additionally, from time to time, the Company enters into foreign exchange contracts to hedge its currency exposure related to client receivables. These instruments are measured at fair value with gain and loss recorded in other non-operating income in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations. The fair values of these contracts are recorded in other assets or other liabilities and accrued expenses in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of financial condition.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets—Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of the Company's investment in the net assets of an acquired company over the fair value of the underlying identifiable net assets at the date of acquisition. Goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets are not amortized but are tested at least annually for impairment by comparing the fair value to their carrying amounts. Finite lived intangible assets are amortized over their useful lives and are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. See Note 3 for further discussion about the Company's goodwill and intangible assets.

Redeemable Noncontrolling Interest—Redeemable noncontrolling interest represents third-party interests in the Company's consolidated entities. This interest is redeemable at the option of the investors and therefore is not treated as

permanent equity. Redeemable noncontrolling interest is remeasured at redemption value which approximates the fair value at each reporting period.

Investment Advisory and Administration Fees—The Company earns revenue by providing asset management services to institutional accounts and to Company-sponsored open-end and closed-end mutual funds. This revenue is earned pursuant to the terms of the underlying advisory contract, and is based on a contractual investment advisory fee applied to the assets in the client's portfolio, net of applicable waivers. The Company also earns revenue from administration fees paid by certain Company-sponsored open-end and closed-end mutual funds, based on the average assets under management of such funds. This revenue is recognized as such fees are earned.

Distribution and Service Fees—Distribution and service fee revenue is earned as the services are performed, based on contractually-predetermined percentages of the average assets under management of the Company-sponsored open-end load mutual funds. Distribution and service fee revenue is recorded gross of any third-party distribution and service fee expense arrangements. The expenses associated with these third-party distribution and service fee arrangements are recorded as incurred. During the first quarter of 2013 and the third quarter of 2012, the Company made payments of approximately $7.2 million and $14.4 million, respectively, associated with additional compensation agreements entered into in connection with the offering of two closed-end mutual funds. These payments were reflected as expenses in distribution and service fees on the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and September 30, 2012.

Portfolio Consulting and Other—The Company earns portfolio consulting and other fees by: i) providing portfolio consulting services in connection with model-based strategies accounts; ii) earning a licensing fee for the use of the Company's proprietary indices; and iii) providing portfolio monitoring services related to a number of unit investment trusts. This revenue is earned pursuant to the terms of the underlying contract, and the fee schedules for these relationships vary based on the type of services the Company provides for each relationship. This revenue is recognized as such fees are earned.

Stock-based Compensation—The Company recognizes compensation expense for the grant-date fair value of awards of equity instruments granted to employees. This expense is recognized over the period during which employees are required to provide service. The Company also estimates forfeitures.

Income Taxes—The Company records the current and deferred tax consequences of all transactions that have been recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with the provisions of the enacted tax laws. Deferred tax assets are recognized for temporary differences that will result in deductible amounts in future years. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for temporary differences that will result in taxable income in future years. The Company records a valuation allowance, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to an amount that more likely than not will be realized. The effective tax rate for interim periods represents the Company's best estimate of the effective tax rate expected to be applied to the full fiscal year.

Currency Translation and Transactions—Assets and liabilities of subsidiaries having non-U.S. dollar functional currencies are translated at exchange rates at the applicable condensed consolidated statement of financial condition date. Revenue and expenses are translated at average exchange rates during the period. The gain or loss resulting from translating non-U.S. dollar functional currency into U.S. dollars is included in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive income. Gain or loss resulting from non-U.S. dollar currency transactions is included in other non-operating income in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Comprehensive Income—The Company reports all changes in comprehensive income in the condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive income. Comprehensive income includes net income or loss attributable to common shareholders, unrealized gain and loss from available-for-sale securities (net of tax), foreign currency translation gain and loss (net of tax) and reclassification to statements of operations of gain and loss from available-for-sale securities (net of tax).

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements—In July 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued new guidance on the presentation of unrecognized tax benefits when a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward exists. An entity is required to present an unrecognized tax benefit, or a portion of an unrecognized tax benefit, in the financial statements as a reduction to a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward unless a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss or a tax credit carryforward is not available as of the reporting date or the entity does not intend to use the deferred tax asset for this purpose (provided that the tax law permits a choice). This new guidance will be effective for the Company's first quarter of 2014. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this new guidance will have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In February 2013, the FASB issued new guidance requiring an entity to provide information about the amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income by component. An entity is also required to present, either on the face of the statement where net income is presented or in the notes, significant amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income by the respective line items of net income. This new guidance was effective for the Company's first quarter of 2013. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In January 2013, the FASB issued new guidance to clarify the scope of the offsetting disclosures associated with derivative and hedging transactions, including bifurcated embedded derivatives, repurchase agreements and reverse repurchase agreements, and securities borrowing and securities lending transactions. This new guidance was effective for the Company's first quarter of 2013. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In October 2012, the FASB issued new guidance to make certain technical corrections to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Codification"), which identifies when the use of fair value should be linked to the definition of fair value in Codification Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820"). The amendments affect various Codification topics and include source literature amendments, guidance clarification and reference corrections and relocated guidance. The amendments that will not have transition guidance were effective upon issuance and the amendments that are subject to the transition guidance were effective for the Company's first quarter of 2013. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In July 2012, the FASB issued new guidance to simplify how entities test indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment. The new guidance permits an entity to first assess qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of an indefinite-lived intangible asset is less than its carrying amount as a basis for determining whether it is necessary to perform the second step to measure the amount of the impairment loss, if any. This new guidance was effective for the Company's first quarter of 2013. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In December 2011, the FASB issued new guidance to create new disclosure requirements about the nature of an entity's rights of offset and related arrangements associated with its financial instruments and derivative instruments. This new guidance was effective for the Company's first quarter of 2013. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Trading and equity method investments

The Cohen & Steers Active Commodities Fund, LP (“ACOM”), launched by the Company in April 2013, is structured as a partnership. The Company is the investment manager of ACOM for which it receives a management fee. As of September 30, 2013, the Company owned all of the voting interest in ACOM. Accordingly, the underlying assets and liabilities and results of operations of ACOM have been included in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Cohen & Steers Global Realty Partners III-TE, L.P. (“GRP-TE”), which had its closing in October 2011, is structured as a partnership. The Company is the general partner and investment manager of GRP-TE, for which it receives a management fee and is entitled to receive an incentive distribution, if earned. GRP-TE is a VIE and the Company is not deemed the primary beneficiary. As the general partner, the Company has significant influence over the financial decisions of GRP-TE and therefore records its investment in this fund using the equity method of accounting. The Company's equity interest in GRP-TE represents a seed investment to launch the fund which was made during the first quarter of 2012, adjusted for the Company's proportionate share of the fund's earnings. As of September 30, 2013, the fair value of the Company's equity interest in GRP-TE was approximately $105,000. The Company's risk with respect to its investment in GRP-TE is limited to its equity ownership and any uncollected management fees. In conjunction with the launch of GRP-TE, the Company established Cohen & Steers Co-Investment Partnership, L.P. (“GRP-CIP”), which is used by the Company to fulfill its contractual commitment to co-invest with GRP-TE. See Note 11 for further discussion regarding the Company's co-investment commitment. As of September 30, 2013, the Company owned all of the voting interest in GRP-CIP. Accordingly, the underlying assets and liabilities and results of operations of GRP-CIP have been included in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

During 2008, the Company launched the Cohen & Steers Global Real Estate Long-Short Fund, L.P. (the “Onshore Fund”) which is structured as a partnership. The Company is the general partner and investment manager of the Onshore Fund. As of September 30, 2013, the Company owned the majority of the voting interest in the Onshore Fund. Accordingly, the underlying assets and liabilities and results of operations of the Onshore Fund have been included in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements with the third party interests classified as redeemable noncontrolling interest. The Onshore Fund had been identified as a VIE and the Company was the primary beneficiary until March 31, 2013. During April 2013, the unaffiliated limited partner redeemed all of its partnership interest from the Onshore Fund, which left the Company, with affiliated employees, owning 100% of the voting interests. As a result, the Onshore Fund is no longer a VIE because the interest holders' voting rights are proportionate with their rights to receive returns or obligation to absorb losses. The Onshore Fund continues to be consolidated.

The following represents the portion of the condensed consolidated statements of financial condition attributable to the consolidated Onshore Fund as of December 31, 2012. As of December 31, 2012, the following assets were available only to settle obligations of the Onshore Fund and these liabilities were only the obligations of the Onshore Fund for which the creditors did not have recourse to the general credit of the Company (in thousands):

	December 31, 2012

The Cohen & Steers Global Real Estate Long-Short Offshore Fund, L.P. (the “Offshore Fund”), launched by the Company in 2008, is structured as a partnership. The Company is the general partner and investment manager of the Offshore Fund for which it receives a management fee and is entitled to receive a performance fee, if earned. The Company determined that the Offshore Fund was not a VIE. The limited partners, unaffiliated with the Company, have the ability to dissolve the fund with a majority vote. As a result, the Company does not have financial control and the Offshore Fund is not consolidated into the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements. As the general partner, the Company has significant influence over the financial decisions of the Offshore Fund and therefore records its investment in this fund using the equity method of accounting. The Company's equity interest in the Offshore Fund represents a seed investment to launch the fund, adjusted for the Company's proportionate share of the fund's earnings. RAP, which was launched by the Company on January 31, 2012, is an open-end mutual fund for which the Company is the investment manager. The Company had a controlling financial interest in RAP through July 31, 2013 and therefore, the underlying assets and liabilities and results of operations of RAP had been included in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements with the third party interests classified as redeemable noncontrolling interest. As a result of additional third party subscriptions into the fund, effective August 1, 2013, the Company no longer held a controlling financial interest in RAP, however it was determined that the Company had significant influence over RAP. Accordingly, effective August 1, 2013, the Company records its investment in RAP using the equity method of accounting. The Company did not record any gain or loss as a result of deconsolidation. Prior to the sale of the Company's remaining interest in Cohen & Steers Global Listed Infrastructure Fund (“GLIF”) during June 2012, the Company owned the majority of the voting interest in GLIF. Accordingly, the results of operations of GLIF had been included in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2012.

Unrealized loss on investments, available-for-sale as of September 30, 2013 was generally caused by market conditions. When evaluating whether an unrealized loss on an investment, available-for-sale is other than temporary, the Company reviews such factors as extent and duration of the loss, deterioration in the issuer's credit quality, reduction or cessation of dividend payments and overall financial strength of the issuer. As of September 30, 2013, the Company determined that it had the ability and intent to hold the remaining investments for which no other-than-temporary impairment has occurred until a recovery of fair value. Accordingly, impairment of these investments is considered temporary.

Sales proceeds, gross realized gain and gross realized loss from investments, available-for-sale for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012 are summarized below (in thousands):

5. Fair Value

ASC 820 specifies a hierarchy of valuation classifications based on whether the inputs to the valuation techniques used in each valuation classification are observable or unobservable. These classifications are summarized in the three broad levels listed below:

Level 1—Unadjusted quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets.

Level 2—Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs and significant value drivers are observable in active markets.

Level 3—Valuations derived from valuation techniques in which significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

Inputs used to measure fair value might fall in different levels of the fair value hierarchy, in which case the Company defaults to the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. These levels are not necessarily an indication of the risk or liquidity associated with the investments. In determining the appropriate levels, the Company performed a detailed analysis of the assets and liabilities that are subject to ASC 820. Transfers among levels, if any, are recorded at the beginning of the reporting period.

Approximately $16,744,000 of securities owned classified as level 2 at December 31, 2012 were transferred to level 1 securities during the nine months ended September 30, 2013. These securities were primarily comprised of investments in foreign common stocks valued at foreign exchange closing prices with no adjustments required for subsequent events or market movements.

Approximately $7,436,000 of equity method investments classified as level 2 at June 30, 2013 were transferred to level 3 securities during the three months ended September 30, 2013 due to the imposition of redemption restrictions on the Company's investment in connection with the winding down of operations of the Offshore Fund.

Securities owned classified as level 2 in the above table was primarily comprised of investments in United States Treasury Bills carried at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Securities owned classified as level 3 in the above table were comprised of investments in the common stock of a privately held bank holding company and limited partnership interests. The investments in the common stock of a privately held bank holding company were valued by the Company's valuation committee using a market approach which utilized market multiples derived from a set of comparable public companies. The limited partnership interests represent the Company's co-investments through GRP-CIP, which along with the Company's interest in GRP-TE, represent the Company's collective ownership interests in limited partnership vehicles that invest in private real estate funds which are valued based on the net asset values of the underlying funds and direct investments in real estate which are generally valued using a discounted cash flow model. The methodology used to value the investments held by GRP-CIP was changed during the nine months ended September 30, 2013 as the transaction cost was no longer a reasonable approximation of value due to the passage of time.

Equity method investments classified as level 3 in the above table represent the carrying amount of partnership interests in the Offshore Fund and GRP-TE, which approximate their fair value based on each fund's net asset value. The Offshore Fund made long and short investments in listed real estate equity securities to maximize absolute and risk-adjusted returns with modest volatility. GRP-TE invests in non-registered real estate funds and in private equity vehicles that invest directly in real estate. As of September 30, 2013, the Company does not have the ability to redeem its investment in either fund.

Investments, available-for-sale classified as level 3 in the above table were comprised of an auction rate preferred security. The auction rate preferred security was measured at fair value using a third party pricing service which utilizes a combination of a market approach based on the quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active and an income approach in which the expected cash flows of the securities were discounted back to the measurement date. The Company reviews the fair value provided by the pricing service and confirms its understanding of the methodology utilized.

Equity method investments classified as level 2 in the above table primarily represent the carrying amount of partnership interests in the Offshore Fund, which approximates its fair value based on the fund's net asset value. The fund made long and short investments in listed real estate equity securities to maximize absolute and risk-adjusted returns with modest volatility. The Company had the ability to redeem its investment in the fund monthly at net asset value per share with prior written notice of 30 days and there were no significant restrictions to redemption. Valuation Techniques

In certain instances, debt and equity securities are valued on the basis of prices from an orderly transaction between market participants provided by reputable brokers/dealers or pricing services. In determining the value of a particular investment, pricing services may use information with respect to transactions in such investments, broker quotes, pricing matrices, market transactions in comparable investments and various relationships between investments. As part of its independent price verification process, the Company selectively performs detailed reviews of valuations provided by broker/dealers or pricing services.

Foreign exchange contracts are valued by interpolating a value using the spot foreign exchange rate and forward points (based on the spot rate and currency interest rate differentials), which are all inputs that are observable in active markets (level 2).

In the absence of observable market prices, the Company values its investments using valuation methodologies applied on a consistent basis. For some investments, little market activity may exist; management's determination of fair value is then based on the best information available in the circumstances, and may incorporate management's own assumptions and involves a significant degree of judgment, taking into consideration a combination of internal and external factors. Such investments are valued on a quarterly basis, taking into consideration any changes in key inputs and changes in economic and other relevant conditions, and valuation models are updated accordingly. The valuation process also includes a review by the Company's valuation committee which is primarily comprised of senior members from various departments within the Company, including investment management. The valuation committee provides independent oversight of the valuation policies and procedures.

The valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the following level 3 investments as of September 30, 2013 were:

	Fair Value (in thousands)	Fair Value Methodology	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Input / Range
Common shares of privately-held company	$424	Market comparable companies	Price / tangible book ratio Liquidity discount	1.24x 37.8%
Limited partnership interests - direct investments in real estate	$1,985	Discounted cash flows	Discount rate Exit capitalization rates Market rental rates	9% - 15% 8% - 9% $15.00 - 21.00 psf

The valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the following level 3 investments as of December 31, 2012 were:

	Fair Value (in thousands)	Fair Value Methodology	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Range
Common shares of privately-held company	$1,168	Market comparable companies	Price / tangible book ratio	1.02x - 1.1x
Limited partnership interests	$2,142	Transaction value	Recent transaction price

Changes in the significant unobservable inputs in the tables above may result in a materially higher or lower fair value measurement. The disclosure in the above tables excludes auction rate preferred securities for which fair value is based on unobservable but non-quantitative inputs. Such items include financial instruments for which the determination of fair value is based on unadjusted quotations provided by a third party pricing service. The disclosure in the above tables also excludes the Company's ownership interests in limited partnership vehicles which are valued based on the net asset values of the underlying funds.

7. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing net income attributable to common shareholders by the weighted average shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share are calculated by dividing net income attributable to common shareholders by the total weighted average shares of common stock outstanding and common stock equivalents. Common stock equivalents are comprised of dilutive potential shares from restricted stock unit awards. Common stock equivalents are excluded from the computation if their effect is anti-dilutive. Diluted earnings per share are computed using the treasury stock method.

No anti-dilutive common stock equivalents were excluded from the computation for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013 and 2012.

Revenue

Total revenue increased 4% to $74.0 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013 from $71.3 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. This increase was primarily attributable to higher investment advisory and administration fees resulting from higher average assets under management, partially offset by lower portfolio consulting and other fees. Average assets under management in the three months ended September 30, 2013 were $47.0 billion compared with $45.2 billion in the three months ended September 30, 2012.

In the three months ended September 30, 2013, total investment advisory and administration revenue from institutional accounts decreased 11% to $19.7 million from $22.2 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The decrease in institutional account revenue was attributable to lower average assets under management.

Average assets under management for institutional accounts in the three months ended September 30, 2013 were $23.7 billion compared with $25.4 billion in the three months ended September 30, 2012.

In the three months ended September 30, 2013, total investment advisory and administration revenue from open-end mutual funds increased 13% to $28.9 million from $25.5 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The increase in open-end mutual fund revenue was attributable to higher average assets under management resulting from net inflows of $1.1 billion, primarily from preferred securities and U.S. real estate strategies, and market appreciation of $677 million during the prior twelve month period. Average assets under management for open-end mutual funds in the three months ended September 30, 2013 were $14.4 billion compared with $12.5 billion in the three months ended September 30, 2012.

In the three months ended September 30, 2013, total investment advisory and administration revenue from closed-end mutual funds increased 23% to $19.1 million from $15.5 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The increase in closed-end mutual fund revenue was attributable to higher average assets under management resulting from net inflows of $854 million, primarily from the launches of LDP and MIE, and market appreciation of $156 million during the prior twelve month period. Average assets under management for closed-end mutual funds in the three months ended September 30, 2013 were $8.9 billion compared with $7.3 billion in the three months ended September 30, 2012.

In the three months ended September 30, 2013, total distribution and service fee revenue increased 26% to $3.6 million from $2.9 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The increase was primarily due to higher average assets under management in our open-end mutual funds in 2013.

In the three months ended September 30, 2013, total portfolio consulting and other revenue decreased 48% to $2.7 million from $5.2 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The decrease was primarily attributable to lower average assets under advisement from model-based strategies.

Expenses

Total operating expenses decreased 22% to $46.3 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013 from $59.1 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012, primarily due to decreases in distribution and service fees and employee compensation and benefits, partially offset by an increase in general and administrative expenses.

Distribution and service fee expenses decreased 61% to $8.4 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013 from $21.4 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The three months ended September 30, 2012 results included approximately $14.4 million of distribution costs associated with the launch of LDP. After adjusting for these costs, distribution and service fee expenses would have been $7.0 million. The increase over the adjusted distribution and service fee expenses was primarily due to higher average assets under management in our open-end mutual funds.

Employee compensation and benefits decreased 4% to $24.1 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013 from $25.1 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012, primarily due to lower incentive and production compensation, net of deferrals, of approximately $3.1 million, partially offset by higher amortization of restricted stock units of approximately $1.2 million and higher salaries of approximately $510,000.

General and administrative expenses increased 10% to $11.7 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013 from $10.6 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The increase was primarily due to higher fund related expenses of approximately $1.8 million, partially offset by lower professional fees of approximately $784,000.

Non-operating Income

Non-operating income decreased to $3.3 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013 from $5.3 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012, primarily due to lower earnings from our seed investments.

Income Taxes

We recorded an income tax expense of $11.2 million in the three months ended September 30, 2013, compared with $5.0 million in the three months ended September 30, 2012. The provision for income taxes in the three months ended September 30, 2013 included U.S. federal, state, local and foreign taxes at an approximate effective tax rate of 38%. The effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2012 was approximately 33%, which included discrete items, the most significant of which was attributable to the offering costs for LDP. Excluding the discrete items, the effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2012 was approximately 36%. We expect our tax rate for the full year 2013 to approximate 38%, excluding discrete items.

Revenue

Total revenue increased 11% to $224.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 from $202.5 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. This increase was primarily attributable to higher investment advisory and administration fees resulting from higher average assets under management, partially offset by lower portfolio consulting and other fees. Average assets under management in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 were $48.2 billion compared with $44.0 billion in the nine months ended September 30, 2012.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2013, total investment advisory and administration revenue from institutional accounts decreased 7% to $62.3 million from $67.2 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The decrease in institutional account revenue was primarily attributable to a lower effective fee rate and lower average assets under management. Average assets under management for institutional accounts in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 were $25.1 billion compared with $25.6 billion in the nine months ended September 30, 2012.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2013, total investment advisory and administration revenue from open-end mutual funds increased 21% to $85.8 million from $70.8 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The increase in open-end mutual fund revenue was attributable to higher average assets under management. Average assets under management for open-end mutual funds in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 were $14.4 billion compared with $11.5 billion in the nine months ended September 30, 2012.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2013, total investment advisory and administration revenue from closed-end mutual funds increased 29% to $55.3 million from $43.0 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The increase in closed-end mutual fund revenue was attributable to higher average assets under management resulting primarily from the launches of LDP and MIE. Average assets under management for closed-end mutual funds in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 were $8.7 billion compared with $6.8 billion in the nine months ended September 30, 2012.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2013, total distribution and service fee revenue increased 33% to $10.8 million from $8.1 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The increase was primarily due to higher average assets under management in our open-end mutual funds in 2013.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2013, total portfolio consulting and other revenue decreased 24% to $10.0 million from $13.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The decrease was primarily attributable to lower average assets under advisement from model-based strategies.

Expenses

Total operating expenses increased 6% to $147.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 from $138.8 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012, primarily due to increases in general and administrative expenses and employee compensation and benefits, partially offset by a decrease in distribution and service fees.

General and administrative expenses increased 22% to $35.4 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 from $29.1 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The increase was primarily due to higher fund related expenses of approximately $2.7 million, higher rent of approximately $1.5 million resulting from the extension of the lease for our corporate headquarters in New York City and higher information technology costs of approximately $752,000 primarily related to upgrades made to our infrastructure, including trading and application systems.

Employee compensation and benefits increased 4% to $72.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 from $69.7 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012, primarily due to higher amortization of restricted stock units of approximately $2.8 million and higher salaries of approximately $1.5 million, partially offset by lower incentive and production compensation, net of deferrals, of approximately $2.6 million.

Distribution and service fee expenses decreased 3% to $33.1 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 from $34.1 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The nine months ended September 30, 2013 results included approximately $7.2 million of distribution costs associated with the launch of MIE. After adjusting for these costs, distribution and service fee expenses would have been $25.9 million. The nine months ended September 30, 2012 results included approximately $14.4 million of distribution costs associated with the launch of LDP. After adjusting for these costs, distribution and service fee expenses would have been $19.8 million. The increase in distribution and service fee expenses after adjustments was primarily due to higher average assets under management in our open-end mutual funds and additional expenses related to the exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option for MIE during the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

Non-operating Income

Non-operating loss was $3.9 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013, compared with non-operating income of $6.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The decrease was primarily due to net losses in our consolidated seed investments.

Income Taxes

We recorded an income tax expense of $29.2 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013, compared with $24.2 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. The provision for income taxes in the nine months ended September 30, 2013 included U.S. federal, state, local and foreign taxes at an approximate effective tax rate of 37.5%, which included discrete items, the most significant of which was attributable to the launch costs for MIE. Excluding the discrete items, the effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was approximately 38%. The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was approximately 35%, which included discrete items, the most significant of which was attributable to the offering costs of LDP. Excluding the discrete items, the effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was approximately 36%. We expect our tax rate for the full year 2013 to approximate 38%, excluding discrete items.

Changes in Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our investment advisory business does not require us to maintain significant capital balances. Our current financial condition is highly liquid, with a significant amount of our assets comprised of cash and cash equivalents, securities owned, investments, available-for-sale and accounts receivable. Our cash flows generally result from the operating activities of our business, with investment advisory and administrative fees being the most significant contributor. Cash and cash equivalents, equity method investments, investments, available-for-sale and accounts receivable were 78% and 50% of total assets as of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively, excluding investments classified as level 3 in accordance with Accounting Standard Codification (the "Codification") Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820").

Included in equity method investments was approximately $8.0 million invested in our offshore global real estate long-short fund which was classified as level 2 at December 31, 2012. See Notes 4 and 5 to the condensed consolidated financial statements relating to investments.

Cash and cash equivalents increased by $47.9 million, excluding the effect of foreign exchange rate changes, in the nine months ended September 30, 2013. Net cash provided by operating activities was $41.1 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2013. Net cash of $15.5 million was provided by investing activities, from proceeds from sales of investments, available-for-sale in the amount of $20.2 million and proceeds from redemption of equity method investments of $7.7 million, partially offset by purchases of $8.2 million of investments, available-for-sale and purchases of $4.3 million of property and equipment. Net cash of $8.7 million was used in financing activities, primarily for dividends to stockholders of $26.6 million, redemptions of redeemable noncontrolling interest of $14.2 million and repurchases of common stock of $8.0 million to satisfy employee withholding tax obligations on the delivery of restricted stock units, partially offset by contributions from redeemable noncontrolling interest of $37.7 million and excess tax benefits associated with the delivery of restricted stock units of $2.0 million.

Cash and cash equivalents decreased by $6.5 million, excluding the effect of foreign exchange rate changes, in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. Net cash used in operating activities was $21.7 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2012. Net cash of $3.6 million was provided by investing activities, primarily from proceeds from sales of investments, available-for-sale in the amount of $23.7 million, partially offset by purchases of $18.5 million of investments, available-for-sale and purchases of $2.4 million of property and equipment. Net cash of $11.6 million was provided by financing activities, primarily from contributions from redeemable noncontrolling interest of $44.1 million and excess tax benefits associated with the delivery of restricted stock units of $2.8 million, partially offset by dividends paid to stockholders of $23.6 million, repurchases of common stock of $8.5 million to satisfy employee withholding tax obligations on the delivery of restricted stock units, and redemptions of redeemable noncontrolling interest of $3.6 million.

It is our policy to continuously monitor and evaluate the adequacy of our capital. We have consistently maintained net capital in excess of the regulatory requirements for our broker/dealer, as prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). At September 30, 2013, we exceeded our minimum regulatory capital requirements by approximately $2.5 million. The SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 imposes certain requirements that may have the effect of prohibiting a broker/dealer from distributing or withdrawing capital and requiring prior notice to the SEC for certain withdrawals of capital. Our non-U.S. subsidiaries are regulated outside the U.S. by the Hong Kong Securities and Future Commission, the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority, and the Belgium Financial Services and Markets Authority. At September 30, 2013, our non-U.S. subsidiaries exceeded their aggregate minimum regulatory requirements by approximately $44.8 million. We believe that our cash flows from operations will be more than adequate to meet our anticipated capital requirements and other obligations as they become due.

Included in cash and cash equivalents and investments, available-for-sale were approximately $67.6 million held by our foreign subsidiaries as of September 30, 2013, including amounts held by Cohen & Steers Europe S.P.R.L. ("CSE"). In February 2013, we completed a reorganization of CSE. This transaction did not impact the accounting for income taxes as of September 30, 2013. It is our current intention to permanently reinvest funds held by our foreign subsidiaries outside of the U.S. We believe that our cash and cash equivalents and short term investments held in the U.S. are more than sufficient to cover our working capital needs in the U.S.

We periodically commit to fund a portion of the equity in certain of our sponsored investment products. We have committed to co-invest up to $5.1 million alongside Cohen & Steers Global Realty Partners III-TE, L.P. ("GRP-TE"). As of September 30, 2013, we have funded approximately $2.5 million with respect to this commitment. Our co-investment alongside GRP-TE is illiquid and will be invested for up to 12 years through the life of the fund. The actual timing of the funding of this commitment is currently unknown, as the drawdown of our commitment is contingent on the timing of drawdowns by the underlying funds and co-investments in which GRP invests. The unfunded portion of this commitment was not recorded on our condensed consolidated statement of financial condition as of September 30, 2013.

Contractual Obligations and Contingencies

We have contractual obligations to make future payments in connection with our non-cancelable operating lease agreements for office space. There were no material capital lease obligations as of September 30, 2013. The following summarizes our contractual obligations as of September 30, 2013 (in thousands):

	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018 and after	Total
Operating leases	$2,060	$7,903	$8,993	$8,748	$8,447	$55,768	$91,919

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not invest in any off-balance sheet vehicles that provide liquidity, capital resources, market or credit risk support, or engage in any leasing activities that expose us to any liability that is not reflected in our condensed consolidated financial statements.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of our condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires us to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. We believe the estimates used in preparing the condensed consolidated financial statements are reasonable and prudent. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

condensed

A thorough understanding of our accounting policies is essential when reviewing our reported results of operations and our financial position. Management considers the following accounting policies critical to an informed review of our condensed consolidated financial statements. For a summary of these and additional accounting policies, see the notes to the annual audited consolidated financial statements in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Consolidation

We consolidate operating entities deemed to be voting interest entities if we own a majority of the voting interest. The equity method of accounting is used for investments in non-controlled affiliates in which our ownership ranges from 20 to 50 percent, or in instances in which we are able to exercise significant influence but not control. We also consolidate any variable interest entities (“VIEs”) in which we are the primary beneficiary. We provide for noncontrolling interests in consolidated subsidiaries for which our ownership is less than 100 percent.

A VIE is an entity in which either (a) the equity investment at risk is not sufficient to permit the entity to finance its own activities without additional financial support or (b) the group of holders of the equity investment at risk lack certain characteristics of a controlling financial interest. The primary beneficiary is the entity that has the obligation to absorb a majority of the expected losses or the right to receive the majority of the residual returns. Investments and redemptions or amendments to the governing documents of the respective entities could affect an entity's status as a VIE or the determination of the primary beneficiary. We assess whether entities in which we have an interest are VIEs upon initial involvement and at each reporting date. We assess whether we are the primary beneficiary of any VIEs identified by evaluating our economic interests in the entity held either directly by us and our affiliates or indirectly through employees. See Note 4 for further discussion about our investments.

Investments

We determine the appropriate classification of our investments at the time of purchase and re-evaluate such determination at each statement of financial condition date.

Securities owned and securities sold but not yet purchased are classified as trading securities and are measured at fair value based on quoted market prices, market prices obtained from independent pricing services engaged by management or as determined by our valuation committee. Unrealized gain and loss are recorded as gain (loss) from trading securities—net reported in our condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Investments classified as equity method investments are accounted for using the equity method, under which we recognize our respective share of the investee's net income or loss for the period. As of September 30, 2013, our equity method investments consisted of interests in funds which measure their underlying investments at fair value and report a net asset value on a recurring basis. The carrying amounts of these investments approximate their fair value.

Investments classified as available-for-sale are comprised of equity securities, investment-grade preferred instruments and investments in our sponsored open-end and closed-end mutual funds. These investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices or market prices obtained from independent pricing services engaged by management, with unrealized gain and loss, net of tax, reported in accumulated other comprehensive income. We periodically review each individual security position that has an unrealized loss, or impairment, to determine if that impairment is other than temporary. If we believe an impairment of a security position is other than temporary, the loss will be recognized in our condensed consolidated statements of operations. An other than temporary impairment is generally presumed to have occurred if the available-for-sale investment has an unrealized loss continuously for 12 or more months.

From time to time, our consolidated funds enter into derivative contracts to gain exposure to the underlying commodities markets or to hedge market and credit risks of the underlying portfolios utilizing options, total return swaps, credit default swaps and futures contracts. These instruments are measured at fair value with gain and loss recorded as gain (loss) from trading securities—net in our condensed consolidated statements of operations. The fair values of these instruments are recorded in other assets or other liabilities and accrued expenses in our condensed consolidated statements of financial condition.

Additionally, from time to time, we enter into foreign exchange contracts to hedge our currency exposure related to client receivables. These instruments are measured at fair value with gain and loss recorded in other non-operating income in our condensed consolidated statements of operations. The fair values of these contracts are recorded in other assets or other liabilities and accrued expenses in our condensed consolidated statements of financial condition.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of our investment in the net assets of an acquired company over the fair value of the underlying identifiable net assets at the date of acquisition. Goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets are not amortized but are tested at least annually for impairment by comparing the fair value to their carrying amounts. Finite lived intangible assets are amortized over their useful lives and are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. We determined that the fair values of our goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets substantially exceeded their carrying values as a result of the most recent impairment test performed as of November 30, 2012.

Stock-based Compensation

We recognize compensation expense for the grant-date fair value of awards of equity instruments granted to employees. This expense is recognized over the period during which employees are required to provide service. We also estimate forfeitures.

Income Taxes

We record the current and deferred tax consequences of all transactions that have been recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with the provisions of the enacted tax laws. Deferred tax assets are recognized for temporary differences that will result in deductible amounts in future years. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for temporary differences that will result in taxable income in future years. We record a valuation allowance, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to an amount that more likely than not will be realized. The effective tax rate for interim periods represents our best estimate of the effective tax rate expected to be applied to the full fiscal year.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued new guidance on the presentation of unrecognized tax benefits when a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward exists. An entity is required to present an unrecognized tax benefit, or a portion of an unrecognized tax benefit, in the financial statements as a reduction to a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward unless a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss or a tax credit carryforward is not available as of the reporting date or the entity does not intend to use the deferred tax asset for this purpose (provided that the tax law permits a choice). This new guidance will be effective for the first quarter of our 2014 fiscal year. We do not anticipate that the adoption of this new guidance will have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

In February 2013, the FASB issued new guidance requiring an entity to provide information about the amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income by component. An entity is also required to present, either on the face of the statement where net income is presented or in the notes, significant amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income by the respective line items of net income. This new guidance was effective for the first quarter of our 2013 fiscal year. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

In January 2013, the FASB issued new guidance to clarify the scope of the offsetting disclosures associated with derivative and hedging transactions, including bifurcated embedded derivatives, repurchase agreements and reverse repurchase agreements, and securities borrowing and securities lending transactions. This new guidance was effective for the first quarter of our 2013 fiscal year. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

In October 2012, the FASB issued new guidance to make certain technical corrections to the Codification, which identifies when the use of fair value should be linked to the definition of fair value in ASC 820. The amendments affect various Codification topics and include source literature amendments, guidance clarification and reference corrections and relocated guidance. The amendments that will not have transition guidance were effective upon issuance and the amendments that are subject to the transition guidance were effective for the first quarter of our 2013 fiscal year. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

In July 2012, the FASB issued new guidance to simplify how entities test indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment. The new guidance permits an entity to first assess qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of an indefinite-lived intangible asset is less than its carrying amount as a basis for determining whether it is necessary to perform the second step to measure the amount of the impairment loss, if any. This new guidance was effective for the first quarter of our 2013 fiscal year. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

In December 2011, the FASB issued new guidance to create new disclosure requirements about the nature of an entity's rights of offset and related arrangements associated with its financial instruments and derivative instruments. This new guidance was effective for the first quarter of our 2013 fiscal year. The adoption of this new guidance did not have a material impact on our condensed consolidated financial statements.

There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the three months ended September 30, 2013 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
